Mission, Values, and Written Directive System

I. POLICY

Law enforcement agencies provide essential services to foster safe communities through crime reduction and deterrence. Administrators of these law enforcement agencies are obligated to train, supervise, and guide personnel in performing the variety of tasks which create safe communities. At the same time, these administrators seek to improve employees' confidence and competence in performing tasks while reducing vulnerability to liability. To meet these obligations, agencies must manage themselves according to written directives. A manual of policies and procedures guides the day-to-day legal and ethical functioning of a law enforcement agency. To that end, this manual furnishes a blueprint for the performance of this agency's activities in accordance with established state and national standards. Providing all members of the department with an understanding of the department's mission and values provides guidance for decision making when situations are not covered by direct policy or procedure.

II. PURPOSE

This document outlines the organization of the Bastrop ISD Police Department, its Policy and Procedure Manual, its authority, and defines three kinds of statements that appear in these documents: policy, rule, and procedure. It also states the department's mission and core values.

III. AGENCY MISSION AND VALUES

Mission: The Bastrop ISD Police Department exists to ensure sufficient security and protection of students, staff, and property. It is our mission to work in partnership with the support of its students, staff, and community in an effort to protect all citizens. We shall work vigorously to detect and to prevent crime and, in doing so, the agency recognizes and respects the constitutional rights of all. This department shall respond effectively to the changing needs of our school district and community and shall aid in the promotion of mutual respect between the police department and those we serve. We shall remain committed to creating and maintaining a safe educational environment for our students and staff.

Core Values:

Honor: Honor is the value of personal and professional accountability displayed through integrity, honesty, and ethical behavior. It means understanding and doing what is right and taking pride in the district's acknowledgement of that reputation. We recognize the privilege of serving our school district and strive to treat everyone with dignity and respect.

Unity: When there is unity, there is strength. We will work together, as one department, to unite our schools, students, staff, and community as we work together to accomplish our mission.

Integrity: We are committed to the highest standards of honesty, moral standards, and ethical conduct, which are the cornerstones of our profession. We will value and uphold the public trust in our commitment to our core values. This commitment holds true in both our personal and professional lives.

IV. DEFINITIONS

A. Policy

1. A policy is a statement of the department's philosophy on a given issue. Policy consists of principles and values, which guide the performance of department employees. Further, policy is based upon ethics, experience, the law, and the needs of the community.
2. Each section of the Manual will begin with an agency policy statement.

B. Rule

1. A rule is a specific prohibition or requirement governing the behavior of employees.

2. Rules permit little, if any, deviation. Violations of rules normally result in disciplinary action.
3. Rules appear in the Policy and Procedure Manual as well as other departmental documents.

C. Procedure

1. A procedure defines the acceptable method of performing an operation or activity. It differs from policy in that it directs employees' actions in performing specific tasks in a prescribed manner within the guidelines of policy.
2. A failure to follow a procedure may result in discipline. Procedures constitute the agency-approved guide to performing tasks. Employees may depart from procedures only when, in their professional judgment, the situation warrants. Employees must be prepared to justify their actions in not following the defined procedure.

D. Memorandum

1. A memorandum provides useful, specific information to employees and may constitute a directive affecting specific behavior for a specific event or period of time, and is usually self-canceling.
2. Memoranda are not part of this manual. Memoranda may be issued by the Chief of Police or by other personnel or agencies. However, memoranda may be incorporated into future editions of this manual.

V. WRITTEN DIRECTIVES (TBP: 1.04)

A. Departmental Policy Manual and Standard Operating Procedures.

1. The Policy Manual contains policy, rules, and procedures as defined above, and is a written directive governing organizational matters.

2. A Standard Operating Procedure (SOP) primarily contains procedures and is a written directive governing operational matters and routine daily tasks such as how to respond to alarms, how to book a prisoner, etc.
  - a. Because they contain many procedural statements, SOPs permit some discretion. While SOPs are the preferred method of accomplishing a task, the agency recognizes that an employee may depart from procedures if unusual circumstances warrant, and supervisors approve. Employees must justify their actions and document any departure from Standard Operating Procedure.
  - b. While created by various offices within the department, the Chief of Police approves Standard Operating Procedures.
- B. No policy, rule, regulation, procedure or memorandum is valid unless signed by the Chief of Police or the Chief's designee.
- C. Within the context of any directive, the use of the word "shall" or "will" denotes an action or behavior that is mandatory and unequivocal. The words "may," "can," or "should" denote an action or behavior that is discretionary.
- D. Any member of the department may suggest or recommend changes to the Chief of Police concerning the Policy Manual or Standard Operating Procedure by forwarding the suggestion through their chain of command.
- E. The Chief of Police or the Chief's designee will completely review the Policy Manual and Standard Operating Procedures at least biennially to ensure continued compliance with Texas law, department operations, and school district policy. Revisions may be made at any time. Once a revision is approved and published, each employee shall be deemed to be on notice with regards to the current version.

VI. COMPLIANCE WITH DIRECTIVES

- A. All employees of this Department shall read, adhere to, and are held accountable for all directives, policies, procedures, rules, and instructional training material.

- B. All employees are responsible for the receipt of and adherence to all written directives that affect the employee and the employee's work status.
- C. All employees are responsible for receipt and maintenance of all directives that are distributed to that employee. All employees of the Department shall sign a statement acknowledging that they have received, read, understand, and agree to abide by the directive supplied to them in the appropriate manual(s), including revisions. If an employee does not understand the content of an order or directive, or believes that an order or directive illegal or in conflict with other orders or directives, the employee shall immediately notify a supervisor who shall provide instruction or training as necessary. Notification by employee to supervisor will be documented in writing as will the instruction or training provided by supervisor to employee.
- D. Copies of the statements of receipt (See C above) shall be maintained in the written directive file.
- E. All employees shall comply with the provisions of these directives and the BISD Employee Handbook. If an issue is not addressed in the BISD Employee Handbook, these directives shall apply. In the event a conflict exists between these directives and the BISD Employee Handbook, the BISD Employee Handbook shall control unless the Department Policy Manual is more restrictive.
- F. The Policy Manual and Standard Operating Procedures apply to all sworn officers and non-sworn employees of the Police Department both on and off duty.

BASTROP ISD POLICE DEPARTMENT CODE OF CONDUCT

I. POLICY

The Code of Conduct of the Bastrop ISD Police Department is promulgated pursuant to the policies of the Bastrop ISD School Board and by authority of the laws and statutes of the State of Texas. The Bastrop ISD Police Department expects its personnel to maintain high standards of appearance and conduct. The public similarly expects such high standards. Police officers wield considerable power over the citizenry, power that is carefully circumscribed by state and federal law and, ultimately, by the Constitution and the Bill of Rights. Our power to arrest, seize property, and interfere at times with the lives of citizens constitutes a public trust. Police officers can help to ensure that this trust is regarded as vital by performing their duties in an exemplary manner. Performance however, is not enough; we must always conduct ourselves in an exemplary fashion.

II. PURPOSE

The Code of Conduct of the Bastrop ISD Police Department is designed to promote efficiency, discipline, and good public relations by setting forth guidelines governing the conduct of every member of the Police Department, both sworn and non-sworn, on or off duty. The terms "sworn member" and officer refer to any person commissioned as a police officer under Article 2.12 of the Texas Code of Criminal Procedure. The terms "member" and "employee" refer to any employee, full or part time, paid or non-paid, of the school district, assigned to the Police Department whether sworn or non-sworn (civilian). The use of the terms, "officer" or "the officer" to refer generically to any member of the Department, regardless of gender.

The Bastrop ISD Police Department's Code of Conduct and General Orders are founded on well-recognized standards of behavior and ethics. Police officers are held to higher standards than others employed in public service because they alone have the power to limit individual freedom. The Law Enforcement Code of Ethics and the Canons of Police Ethics are included as addenda to this Code of Conduct to provide Departmental personnel with a philosophical basis for the rules and regulations of the Bastrop ISD Police Department.

III. ENFORCEMENT OF CODE OF CONDUCT AND GENERAL ORDERS

- A. The provisions of the Code of Conduct, school district personnel policies and Departmental regulations, shall be observed by all members of the Bastrop ISD Police Department in order to maintain the confidence, respect and support of the public.
- B. Violations of the Code of Conduct, School District Personnel Rules, Administrative Regulations, the Ordinances of the School District, the laws of the State of Texas or the United States or these Departmental regulations shall subject the offender to disciplinary action which may take the form of a verbal or written warning, written reprimand, counseling, reduction in rank, suspension or termination of employment. Action taken will depend on the degree of severity of the offense, the record of the offender and the seriousness of the consequences of the violation.
- C. Disciplinary action under the Code of Conduct will be in accordance with School District Personnel Rules as well as any and all applicable Departmental regulations. All disciplinary actions will be based on substantial evidence. However, the Bastrop Independent School District is an "At Will" employer. Nothing in these general orders shall be construed or is intended to alter the at-will status of any employee and no employee or supervisor of the Bastrop ISD Police Department has the authority to make any statement or take any action which alters the at-will status of any employee or which creates any expectation of future employment.
- D. Pursuant to the authority granted by the Bastrop Independent School District, the Chief of Police shall have the right to suspend or discharge any employee who may be under the Chief's jurisdiction and control for incompetence, neglect of duty, immorality, drunkenness, the improper use of any substance that modifies behavior, violation of this Code of Conduct or these General Orders or failure to obey orders given by proper authority or the orders, rules and regulations promulgated by the Chief of Police. This authority to initiate a suspension or discharge is not final authority and is subject to approval by the Superintendent of the Bastrop Independent School District.

- E. Employees are required to establish and maintain a working knowledge of the Code of Conduct, of all laws and ordinances of the Bastrop Independent School District and the written rules and policies of the Department. In the event of improper action or the breach of discipline, it will be presumed that the employee was familiar with the law, rule or policy in question.
- F. Failure to comply with the Code of Conduct, the General Orders and any other orders, policies and directives issued by proper authority will subject the employee to disciplinary actions as prescribed in this Code of Conduct and in these General Orders.
- G. Any employees who, by act or conduct, attempt to violate or conspire with any person to violate the Code of Conduct, Personnel Rules of the School District, General Orders or policies of the Department or any State or Federal Law shall be subject to the same discipline as though the actual violation had been accomplished.
- H. It shall be the duty of all supervisors and officers to take corrective action and/or submit a written report to their chain of command whenever they learn through personal observation or report of any violation of the Code of Conduct, the School District Personnel Rules, Departmental rules and regulations, and/or the laws of the State of Texas or the United States by any member of the Department.
  - 1. Should the violation involve an incident of a serious nature, the supervisor detecting the violation shall relieve the offender from duty and take custody of any credentials, firearms, and other equipment issued by the Department. Should the observing supervisor be of lesser rank than the offender, the supervisor shall notify a supervisor of superior rank to that of the offender. The offender will be instructed to report to the office of the Chief of Police or other appropriate supervising authority at 9:00 a.m. the following business day.
  - 2. A written report of the incident shall be submitted by the reporting supervisor who shall also be present at the office of the Chief of Police or other appropriate supervising authority at the time the offender reports.
- I. When a violation involves neither gross misconduct nor moral turpitude but could cause discredit to the Department or any member thereof, a report shall be made in writing outlining the known facts of the case and an investigation initiated to determine the nature and degree of the violation.

- J. Sworn members of the Bastrop ISD Police Department holding the position of probationary police officer may be terminated from employment by the Chief of Police when they fail to meet the minimum standards of employee performance or when they violate the Code of Conduct, BISSD Personnel Rules, and/or the laws of the State of Texas or the United States. The probationary period is (1) one year.
- K. No promotion of any member of the Department shall be deemed complete until a period of one (1) year shall have elapsed following said promotion. At any time during this one-year probationary period, the Chief of Police may rescind the promotion.
- L. Should any officer be discharged, suspended, or reprimanded because the officer has violated any rule of the Code of Conduct, the School District Personnel Rules, Departmental regulations, and/or the laws of the State of Texas or the United States, the officer shall receive a letter of termination, suspension, or reprimand which shall set forth the rule violated and the details of said violation. Should the officer desire to appeal, the following procedures apply:
  - 1. Upon receipt of written notification from the Chief of Police of an indefinite suspension, termination, and/or demotion, temporary suspension, letter of reprimand, the officer shall have the right to appeal in writing to the Superintendent within 15 days of the date the employee first knew, or with reasonable diligence should have known, of the decision or action giving rise to the grievance, as presented by the School District Personnel Rules.

IV. GENERAL RESPONSIBILITIES

- A. No employees shall procure or attempt to procure appointment or promotion in the Department by means of willful misrepresentation or omission of any fact concerning their personal history, qualifications, or physical condition.
- B. Police employees must present a “neutral image” to effectively relate to all segments of the population they serve. Societal interest demands highly trained officers who demonstrate disciplined conduct, regimentation and

Employees are authorized to access certain law enforcement documents for the purpose of providing police service and disseminating documents and information to authorized persons. However, employees are not authorized to access documents for other purposes.

IX. CONFLICT OF INTEREST

- A. A conflict of interest arises whenever employees intentionally disregard the public interest and their duty to the public in favor of other interests, personal or otherwise. Likewise, a conflict exists whenever, due to personal financial interests, employees are incapable of performing their official duties impartially or chooses not to perform them impartially. A conflict of interest may exist whenever employees have a substantial personal or private interest in a matter, which involves the duties and responsibilities as an employee. The trust of the citizenry demands that an employee take no action, which would constitute the use of BISD employment to advance personal or private interests.
- B. Employees will avoid any action, whether or not specifically prohibited by law, which may reasonably tend to affect their job performance by creating the effect or appearance of:
  - 1. Using public office for private gain.
  - 2. Giving preferential treatment to any person; or
  - 3. Losing independence or impartiality.
- C. Employees while in uniform, on or off duty, shall not endorse or participate in any activity that might tend to bring into question the impartiality or a perception of impartiality of the Bastrop ISD Police Department toward any group in the performance of the Department's public responsibilities.
- D. All employees will avoid situations, which give rise to an actual or apparent conflict between their professional responsibilities and their relationships with other employees.
- E. Members of the Department will not enter into an on-going, lengthy or continual financially significant off-duty employer/employee or business relationship with members of their chain of command. If this arrangement is seen as necessary or should a transfer or promotion create an apparent violation of this rule, members will immediately notify the Chief of Police or the Chief's designee in written memorandum form.

1. The memorandum should detail the nature and extent of such relationship. It then becomes the responsibility of the Chief of Police or the Chief's designee to take action appropriate to eliminate the conflict, keeping the best interests of both the Department and the involved employees in mind.
  2. The Chief of Police or the Chief's designee may determine that no significant conflict exists. If conflict does in fact exist, The Chief of Police may require:
    - a. Changes in assigned duties

    - c. Disqualification from a particular assignment; or
    - d. Divestment by the employee of the conflicting interest.
- F. Employees shall not, under any circumstances, solicit any gift, gratuity, loan or fee where there is any direct or indirect relation between the solicitation and their Departmental membership except as provided by law and approved by the Chief of Police.

- J. Employees shall not buy anything from or sell anything to any complainant, suspect, witness, defendant, prisoner or other person involved in any case which has come to their attention through their employment with the Department, nor can they act as an intermediary in the payment of a reward for the return of stolen property without the prior written authorization of the Chief of Police. This does not prohibit employees from dealing with a legitimate place of business.

- K. Any reward paid or sent to any employee as a result of the employee's official actions shall be promptly submitted, by that employee, to the Office of the Chief of Police, who shall submit it to the Chief Financial Officer for deposit in any fund from which the Departmental employees derive benefits.
- L. Employees shall not suggest, recommend, advise or otherwise counsel the retention of any attorney or bail bond broker to any person coming to their attention as a result of police business. This does not apply when a relative or personal acquaintance of the officer seeks such service. In no case may such advice be given where a fee, gratuity or reward is offered by, solicited or accepted from the attorney or bail bondsman.
- M. No employees shall give any lawyer, bondsman, or agent of either or any other person not authorized, any information regarding prisoners in confinement, property in custody or records of the Department.
- N. Employees shall not furnish bail or act as a principal or surety on any bail bond or bail bond application for any person charged with any type of criminal offense except members of their immediate family.

- To conduct myself at all times, both on and off duty, in such a manner that I may merit the voluntary commendation of all law-abiding citizens and visitors with whom I come in contact, both those with whom I meet in carrying out my duties and those I shall live among as a citizen in order that credit may be reflected upon the Bastrop ISD Police Department.

The International Association of Chiefs of Police (IACP) Canons of Ethics and Law Enforcement Code of Ethics apply to all officers and members of the Department who shall consider this Canon and Code binding as a part of this Code of Conduct.

IACP - CANONS OF POLICE ETHICS

- 1. Primary Responsibility of Job. The primary responsibility of the police service and of the individual officers is the protection of the people of the United States through the upholding of their laws. Chief among these is the Constitution of the United States and its amendments. Law enforcement officers always represent the whole of the community and its legally expressed will and are never the arm of any political party or clique.
- 2. Limitation of Authority. The first duty of law enforcement officers, as upholders of the law, is to know its bounds upon the officers in enforcing it. Because the officers represent the legal will of the community, be it local, state or federal, the officers must be aware of the limitations and proscriptions which the people, through the law, have placed upon them. The officers must recognize the genius of the American system of government, which gives to no person, group of people or institution, absolute power and the officers must insure that they, as a prime defenders of that system, do not pervert its character.
- 3. Duty to be Familiar with the Law and With Responsibilities of Self and Other Public Officials. Law enforcement officers must assiduously apply themselves to the study of the principles of the law, which they are sworn to uphold. Officers will make certain their responsibilities in the particulars of their enforcement, seeking aid from their superiors in matters of technicality or principle when these are not clear to them. The officers will make special effort to fully understand their relationship to other public officials, including law enforcement agencies, particularly on matters of jurisdiction both geographically and substantively.
- 4. Utilization of Proper Means to Gain Proper Ends. Law enforcement officers shall be mindful of their responsibility to pay strict heed to the selection of means in discharging the duties of their office. Violations of law or disregard for public safety and property on the part of an officer are intrinsically wrong; they are self-defeating in that they instill in the public mind a like disposition. The employment of illegal means, no matter how worthy the end, is certain to encourage disrespect for the law and its officers. If the law is to be honored, those who enforce it must first honor it.
- 5. Cooperation with Public Officials in the Discharge of Their Authorized Duties. Law enforcement officers shall cooperate fully with other police officials in the discharge of authorized duties, regardless of party affiliation or personal prejudices. The officers shall be meticulous, however, in assuring themselves of the propriety, under the law, of such actions and shall guard against the use of their office or person, whether knowingly or unknowingly, in any improper or illegal action. In any situation open to question, the officers shall seek authority from their superior officer, giving their superior officer a full report of the proposed service or action.

6. Private Conduct. Law enforcement officers shall be mindful of their special identification by the public as upholders of the law. Laxity of conduct or manner in private life, expressing either disrespect for the law or seeking to gain special privilege, cannot but reflect upon the police officers and the police service. The community and the service require that law enforcement officers lead the lives of a decent and honorable person. Following the career of a police officer gives no person special prerequisites. It does give the satisfaction and pride of following and furthering an unbroken tradition of the safeguarding the American public. The officers who reflect upon this tradition will not degrade it. Rather, the officers will so conduct their private lives that the public will regard them as examples of stability, fidelity and morality.
7. Conduct Toward the Public. Law enforcement officers, mindful of their responsibility to the whole community, shall deal with individuals of the community in a manner calculated to instill respect for its laws and its police service. Law enforcement officers shall conduct their official lives in a manner such as will inspire confidence and trust. Thus, they will be neither overbearing nor subservient, as no individual citizen has an obligation to stand in neither awe of the officers nor a right to command the officers. The officers will give service where they can and require compliance with the law. The officers will do neither from personal preference nor prejudice, but rather as duly appointed officers of the law discharging their sworn obligation.
8. Conduct in Arresting and Dealing With Law Violators. Law enforcement officers shall use their powers of arrest strictly in accordance with the law and with due regard to the rights of the citizen concerned. Their office gives the officers no right to prosecute the violator or to mete out punishment for the offense. The officers shall at all times have clear appreciation of their responsibilities and limitations regarding detention of the violator; the officers shall conduct themselves in such a manner as will minimize the possibility of having to use force. To this end, the officers shall cultivate a dedication to the service of the people and the equitable upholding of their laws whether in handling of law violators or in dealing with the law abiding.
9. Gifts and Favors. Law enforcement officers, representing government, bear the heavy responsibility of maintaining, in their own conduct, the honor and integrity of all government institutions. The officers shall, therefore, guard against placing themselves in a position in which any person can expect special consideration or in which the public can reasonably assume that special consideration is being given. Thus, the officers should be firm in refusing gifts, favors or gratuities, large or small that can, in the public mind, be interpreted as capable on influencing the officer's judgment in the discharge of their duties.

- 10. Presentation of Evidence. Law enforcement officers shall be concerned equally in the prosecution of the wrongdoer and the defense of the innocent. The officers shall ascertain what constitutes evidence and shall present such evidence impartially and without malice. In so doing, the officers will ignore social, political, and all other distinctions among the persons involved, strengthening the tradition of the reliability and integrity of an officer's word. Law enforcement officers shall take special pains to increase their perception and skill of observation, mindful that in many situations, the officer is the sole impartial testimony to the facts of a case.
- 11. Attitude toward Profession. Law enforcement officers shall regard the discharge of their duties as a public trust and recognize their responsibility as public servants. By diligent study and sincere attention to self-improvement, the officers shall strive to make the best possible application of science to the solution of crime and, in the field of human relationships, strive for effective leadership and public influence in matters affecting public safety. The officers shall appreciate the importance and responsibility of their office and hold police work to be an honorable profession rendering valuable service to their community and their country.

Officers will display the degree of integrity required by the LAW ENFORCEMENT CODE OF ETHICS

Rules of Conduct

I. POLICY

The Bastrop ISD Police Department and the public expect all personnel to maintain high standards of appearance and conduct. The mission of the department is to work with all members of the community to preserve life, maintain human rights, protect property, and promote individual responsibility and community commitment.

II. PURPOSE

To define departmental expectations for on and off-duty personal behavior. This order applies to all employees both sworn and non-sworn. (TBP: 2.12)

III. CODE OF ETHICS (TBP: 2.02)

All officers shall display the integrity required by the Law Enforcement Code of Ethics:

As a law enforcement officer, my fundamental duty is to serve the community; to safeguard lives and property, to protect the innocent against deception, the weak against oppression or intimidation, and the peaceful against violence or disorder; and to respect the constitutional rights of all to liberty, equality, and justice.

I will keep my private life unsullied as an example to all and will behave in a manner that does not bring discredit to me or my agency. I will maintain courageous calm in the face of danger, scorn or ridicule; develop self-restraint; and be constantly mindful of the welfare of others. Honest in thought and deed in both my personal and official life, I will be exemplary in obeying the law and the regulations of my department. Whatever I see or hear of a confidential nature or that is confided to me in my official capacity will be kept ever secret unless revelation is necessary in the performance of my duty.

I will never act officiously or permit personal feelings, prejudices, political beliefs, aspirations, animosities, or friendships to influence my decisions. With no compromise for crime and with relentless prosecution of criminals, I will enforce the law courteously and appropriately without fear or favor, malice, or ill will, never employing unnecessary force or violence and never accepting gratuities.

I recognize the badge of my office as a symbol of public faith, and I accept it as a public trust to be held so long as I am true to the ethics of police service. I will never engage in acts of corruption or bribery, nor will I condone such acts by other law enforcement officers. I will cooperate with all legally authorized agencies and their representatives in the pursuit of justice.

I know that I alone am responsible for my own standard of professional performance and will take every reasonable opportunity to enhance and improve my level of knowledge and competence.

I will constantly strive to achieve these objectives and ideals, dedicating myself before God to my chosen profession . . . law enforcement.

Sexual Harassment

I. POLICY

The department's policy and the Bastrop ISD Policy on Sexual Harassment is to provide a professional, businesslike work environment free from all forms of employee discrimination including incidents of sexual or other forms of illegal harassment. No employee shall be subjected to unsolicited or un-welcomed sexual overtures or conduct either verbal or physical. The harassing behavior, to be subject to this order, need not occur only during work hours on agency premises, but may occur before or after work at other locations. Sexual or other unlawful harassment, regardless of the type, is misconduct and the department shall apply appropriate disciplinary sanctions.

II. PURPOSE

To define and give examples of sexual and other unlawful harassment, outline prohibited behavior, and describe reporting procedures. (TBP: 2.11)

III. DEFINITIONS

A. Sexual harassment

The Civil Rights Act of 1964 prohibits discrimination based on color, race, religion, age, national origin, and sex. Sexual harassment is a form of sex discrimination, defined as unwelcome sexual advances, requests for favors, and other verbal or physical conduct that enters into employment decisions, or conduct that unreasonably interferes with an employee's work performance or which creates an intimidating, hostile, or offensive working environment. Two kinds of sexual harassment apply; quid pro quo harassment and hostile work environment harassment, defined below. The two forms of harassment may overlap.

B. Quid pro quo harassment

This form of harassment occurs when an employee is being pressured to engage in sexual conduct or else lose a tangible job benefit. (Quid pro quo means "something for something.") This form of harassment usually occurs between a supervisor and a subordinate where the harasser has power to control the employee's work benefits or conditions. Note that this form of harassment is not limited to express demands for sexual favors, but may be implied by circumstances (e.g., offering an employee sexually explicit magazines).

Examples of this form of harassment include a request for sexual favors, accompanied by implied or overt threats concerning a person's employment status, or promise of preferential treatment in terms of benefits or status; granting job favors to those who participate in consensual sexual activity while penalizing those who refuse to participate; unwanted, intentional touching (patting, massaging, rubbing, hugging, pinching); telephoning or following an employee, during work hours or not, and either harassing the employee or requesting sexual favors.

C. Hostile work environment harassment

This form of harassment is unwelcome conduct that is so severe or pervasive as to change the conditions of the victim's employment, thus creating an intimidating, hostile, or offensive work environment.

A hostile environment exists when the employer tolerates unwelcome, pervasive conduct including sexual comments of a provocative or suggestive nature; jokes or innuendos intended for and directed to another employee; leaving sexually explicit books, magazines, photographs where employees will find them; unwelcome demeaning comments (such as talking about physical attributes), ridicule, offensive language, propositions or other similar actions; unwanted, unwarranted, unsolicited off-duty telephone calls and contact; signed or anonymous notes or drawings placed on or in desks, bulletin boards, or in lockers; deliberately singling out women in front of men co-workers (or vice versa) and subjecting them to demeaning or derogatory remarks.

IV. PROHIBITED CONDUCT

- A. Employees shall not commit or participate in any form of sexual or other illegal harassment.
- B. The department considers romantic relationships between supervisors and subordinates potentially non-consensual. Personal relationships between supervisors and subordinates should be brought to the attention of the Chief of Police at the earliest point and determine a proper course of action. Failure to do so may result in discipline.
- C. Supervisors shall ensure that pornographic or suggestive photographs, illustrations, or cartoons shall not be posted or kept in any area of the department including locker rooms, desks, offices or other locations. Materials of this kind used for investigative purposes shall be properly secured according to evidentiary standards.
- D. Supervisors shall order employees on department premises who are making sexually hostile comments, or degrading remarks about other persons of the same or opposite sex to cease doing so or face discipline.
- E. Employees shall avoid inappropriate physical contact with one another unless required by a training situation or police procedure. Kissing, back rubbing, embracing, and other unnecessary touching are prohibited on department premises or while on duty.
- F. Personnel shall not retaliate against any person for reporting sexual harassment, giving testimony, or participating in the investigation. Retaliation in any form shall result in discipline.

V. PROCEDURES

- A. Employee Responsibilities

1. Employees who believe they have been sexually harassed should first tell the offender to cease the inappropriate behavior, although circumstances may not always allow the complainant to make this request. If the conduct does not stop, or if the complainants are unable to confront the offender, the complainants shall contact their own immediate supervisor. The employee or supervisor shall immediately submit a memorandum to the Chief of Police through the chain of command detailing circumstances. Employees may also report incidents of harassment directly to the Chief of Police, Superintendent, or Human Resources Director if the offender is a higher ranking member of the department. If a supervisor learns of an incident of harassment, the supervisor shall report the matter to the Chief of Police even if the victim did not submit a complaint.
2. If the complainant is not an employee of the department, the complaint itself is considered no less valid and shall be investigated according to the procedures set forth in this order and in Policy 3.4.
3. Employees must understand that sexual harassment can become a criminal matter. Allegations of stalking, assault, and sexual assault shall be handled immediately as criminal investigations.
4. Each employee of this agency is responsible for assisting in the prevention of harassment and discrimination by:
  - a. refraining from participation in or encouragement of action that could be perceived as harassment and discrimination;
  - b. reporting observed acts of harassment and discrimination to a supervisor, and
  - c. encouraging any employees who confide that they are being harassed or discriminated against to report these acts to a supervisor.
5. Failure of any employee to carry out their responsibilities as defined in this policy will be considered in any performance evaluation or promotional decision and may be grounds for discipline.

B. Supervisor Responsibilities:

1. Although all employees shall be responsible for preventing harassment and/or discrimination, supervisors shall be responsible for:
  - a. advising employees on the types of behavior prohibited and the agency procedures for reporting and resolving complaints of harassment and discrimination;
  - b. monitoring the work environment on a daily basis for signs that harassment and discrimination may be occurring; stopping any observed acts that may be considered harassment and discrimination, and
  - c. taking appropriate steps to intervene, whether or not the involved employees are within the supervisor's line of supervision; and
  - d. utilizing all reasonable means to prevent a prohibited act from occurring when the supervisor knows or should know that an employee will or may perform such an activity.
  - e. taking immediate action to prevent retaliation towards the complaining party and to eliminate the hostile work environment where there has been a complaint of harassment and/or discrimination.
2. No supervisor shall make any employment decision that affects the terms, conditions, or privileges or responsibilities of an individual's employment based on the basis of that person's race, sex, religion, national origin, color, sexual orientation, age or disability.
3. If a situation requires separation of the parties, care should be taken to avoid action that punishes or appears to punish the complainant. Transfer or reassignment of any of the parties involved should be voluntary if possible and, if non-voluntary, should be temporary pending the outcome of the investigation.
4. Any proscribed conduct covered by this policy that comes to the attention of a supervisor shall result in an investigation.

5. Each supervisor has the responsibility to assist any employee of this agency who comes to that supervisor with a complaint of harassment and discrimination in documenting and filing a complaint.
- C. When an employee reports an allegation of sexual harassment, a confidential internal investigation shall begin immediately.
1. The Chief of Police shall immediately take action to limit the concerned employees from any further work contact with the alleged offender.
  2. The Chief of Police shall conduct an investigation pursuant to the provisions of Policy 4.7.
  3. If the sexual harassment allegation is not resolved to the satisfaction of the complainant, eligible employees may invoke the departmental grievance procedure.
- D. The Chief of Police shall report such allegations to the Superintendent without delay.

VI. TRAINING

The department will provide ongoing training, at least biennially, on sexual and other unlawful harassment, reporting, and investigation procedures.

Administration

I. POLICY

Both professional law enforcement administration and the management of liability require a manual that governs the activities of a Police Department. A manual of rules and procedures guides the day-to-day legal and ethical functioning of a Police Department.

II. PURPOSE

- A. The purpose of this General Orders manual is to provide guidelines for the operation of the Bastrop ISD Police Department. This manual has been written to inform not only employees, but also the public, of the principles to be adhered to in the performance of the law enforcement function.
- B. Command and supervisory personnel are charged with the responsibility to assure that input is gathered from all responsible sources and are accountable for the proper dissemination and implementation of all adopted policies and procedures.
- C. Due to the frequent changes in the law and the needs of the school district and community, this manual will require frequent review and revision. Each employee is charged with the responsibility to present ideas for revisions, additions, or deletions to the manual.
- D. As with any system of written directives, situations will undoubtedly arise which are not specifically addressed by directives within this manual. In those instances, the employee should rely upon the principles outlined by the "Law Enforcement Code of Ethics."

The Chief, in turn, appoints police officers who are charged with enforcing the laws of the State of Texas and all local ordinances. The jurisdiction of Bastrop ISD Police Department shall include all territory within District boundaries, as well as all real and personal property out-side the boundaries of the District that is owned, leased, or rented by the District, or is otherwise under the District's control, except in cases of pursuit of offenders who have committed a violation within Bastrop ISD jurisdiction and then flees outside the jurisdiction, or when another department requests assistance. Intervention in these cases may be resolved by calling appropriate authorities and remaining on scene to provide witness information.

- C. Officers have authority to enforce the law and District policies anywhere a student is found and in violation of state law, on District property, in school zones, at bus stops, at District functions, and on property owned by BISD outside the boundaries of the District.

- E. Officers have authority to enforce the law in another jurisdiction pursuant to a properly executed mutual aid agreement.
- F. While officers have full authority to make arrests, issue summonses, and use force in enforcing the law, officers are also expected to use discretion and common sense in the application of this authority. ## Mutual Aid

I. POLICY

On occasion the need arises to request assistance from or give assistance to a neighboring law enforcement agency. This need may result from an emergency such as a civil disorder, fire, flood, or other disaster, but most often is requested for backup on calls where officers are at risk and local backup is unavailable. Before the need arises, agencies must clarify and plan emergency procedures. Available county and state support systems shall be used to support operations.

II. PURPOSE

To establish procedures, duties, and responsibilities for providing assistance to, or requesting assistance from another law enforcement agency and to provide for the use of statewide law enforcement support systems.

III. PROCEDURE

A. Jurisdiction

1. Generally, the legal jurisdiction of the department is limited to territory within District boundaries, as defined by charter and ordinances, however, officers also have authority to act as peace officers in other areas within the State when requested through a properly executed mutual aid agreement. This authority may be used for the following reasons:
  - a. Assisting neighboring law enforcement agencies, the County Sheriff, or the Texas Department of Public Safety in handling emergency calls and at times when they are unable to respond immediately.

- b. Assisting neighboring law enforcement agencies, the County Sheriff, or the Texas Department of Public Safety when they are in need of assistance in safely completing a task or assignment.

B. Mutual aid

1. For the purpose of this policy, mutual aid is defined as the assistance given or asked for between the department and other law enforcement agencies during emergencies. The circumstances which require mutual aid can include one or more of the following situations:
  - a. Enforcement of laws which control or prohibit the use or sale of controlled drugs;
  - b. Any law enforcement emergency involving an immediate threat to public safety;
  - c. When executing orders for the temporary detention or emergency custody of people for mental health evaluation;
  - d. Any public disaster, fire, flood, epidemic or civil disorder.
2. Mutual aid may be requested from or provided to another law-enforcement agency by the department at the discretion of the on-duty supervisor; officers must remember, however, that they are primarily responsible for providing law enforcement service to our jurisdiction. There are generally three levels of mutual aid assistance as follows:
  - a. Short duration, approximately 30 minutes or less, where an additional show of force, backup, traffic control or assistance with prisoner transportation is required.
  - b. Medium duration, approximately one to four hours, where the senior officer on duty may provide or request assistance from the neighboring law enforcement agencies, the County Sheriff, or Texas DPS; however, their role is normally confined to a showing of force, backup, transporting prisoners or traffic control.

c. Long duration, more than four hours, full scale assistance required. The on-duty supervisor shall immediately notify the Chief of Police who will assist in coordinating additional aid as required.

3. Any mutual aid support between the department and neighboring law enforcement agencies shall be coordinated in advance through a written agreement. A list of cities with existing mutual aid agreements can be found in the District Emergency Action Plan and in the Communications Center.
4. Mutual aid agreements shall be reviewed annually to ensure compliance with National Incident Management System requirements.
5. When taking law enforcement actions at the emergency site, including uses of force, officers from this department shall at all times adhere to this department's policies and procedures and utilize only those weapons and tactics that they have been trained and deemed qualified to use.
6. Occasionally it is necessary to request assistance from a federal law enforcement agency when a major crime has occurred and the suspect may have left the state. The Chief of Police shall decide whether or not to notify the FBI or other appropriate agency.
7. If the department, with the help of neighboring law enforcement agencies and DPS, is unable to cope with an emergency such as a riot or civil disturbance, the Chief may contact the governor's office for National Guard assistance.

C. Statewide law enforcement support.

1. The department participates in the use of the Texas Crime Information Center (TCIC) and complies with the procedures for the use of this exchange. In addition, the department participates in the Uniform Crime Reporting system administered by the Texas Department of Public Safety.

2. Some State owned law enforcement resources may be made available to the department for special use. These resources, and the state agency to contact, include:
  - a. Special Weapons and Tactics (SWAT) teams.
  - b. Canine teams—DPS and TDCJ. Canine teams, if requested, shall only be used to track, and great caution shall be used in deploying teams in heavily populated or congested areas. Handlers are responsible for compliance with their own agency policies and procedures.
  - c. Helicopter or fixed-wing aircraft--DPS. Normally requested in advance by the Chief of Police to the Director. May be available on an emergency basis through DPS.
  - d. Polygraph: DPS
  - e. Riot truck and equipment: DPS
  - f. Bomb disposal: DPS and Amarillo Police Department

D. State Law Enforcement Assistance during Declared Emergency or Disaster Situations

1. Only the Governor has the authority to provide State Law Enforcement Assistance during an emergency of disaster situation. State equipment and personnel can be used to support local emergencies or to protect life and property in natural disasters per the governor's authorization. The County Judge may contact the Governor if state law enforcement assistance is required.
2. During declared emergencies and disasters, the support listed in section C above is requested through the County Judge in the regular NIMS process.

Departmental Records

I. POLICY

The Records Division function is critical for the effective delivery of law enforcement services. An efficient means of storing, cataloging and retrieving records is essential to meet the management, operational and informational needs of the police agency.

II. PURPOSE

The purpose of this policy is to assist Records Personnel in maintaining an effective record keeping system.

III. RECORDS SECURITY (TBP: 5.01)

- A. The Police Records Section is a restricted area. Personnel assigned to the Records Division are directly supervised by the Records Supervisor who reports directly to the Chief of Police. The Records Supervisor is responsible for maintenance of department records and will be provided training in Law Enforcement Records Management and the Public Information Act.
- B. Police Records Section is restricted to assigned Records personnel only. Entry by unauthorized personnel is prohibited.
- C. The Records Section will be secured and locked when unmanned by assigned Records personnel.
- D. Personnel authorized by the Records Supervisor or the Chief of Police may have access to the Records Section after hours for need to know information only. Authorization may be granted to shift Supervisors ONLY.

notification must state the date entry was made, time entry was made, why entry was made, and what records were accessed.

IV. RECORDING OF INCIDENTS BY CATEGORY

A. In order to develop a comprehensive reporting system, it is necessary to record actions taken by law enforcement personnel whether in response to a request for service or self-initiated actions. Each reported incident occurring within the Department's service area will be categorized as one of the following and will receive a sequential incident or case number:

1. Individual's request for service, crime reports or complaints which:
  - a. Requires an officer to be dispatched.
  - b. Requires an assigned employee to investigate.
  - c. Requires an assigned employee to take action at a later time.
2. Self-initiated criminal and non-criminal cases by officers
3. Incidents involving arrests, citations (other than traffic) or summonses

B. Assignment of Case Numbers

1. As dispatch personnel become aware of a call for service occurring within the BISD service area that requires the initiation of police activity, they will assign a call number that is generated by the (RMS) Record Management System.
2. Call numbers will be assigned in numerical order. Other calls for service, such as an accident, impound, property and evidence recovery, etc., will be assigned the RMS call number.
3. When an officer determines that there is a need for an incident number to be generated they will notify dispatch and dispatch will assign a RMS number, the following information regarding that incident will be entered into the RMS system by dispatch personnel:
  - a. Date and time of the initial reporting

- b. Name and address of the complainant or victim requesting the service.
- c. Nature of the incident and the location.
- d. Officers assigned to the call.
- e. Time dispatched, arrived and returned to service.
- f. Status, date, and time of action taken on the call.

C. Officer's Responsibilities

1. Officers will complete all required initial reports and narrative and electronically submit them to a supervisor prior to ending their shift.
2. Officers shall provide only a short summary narrative of the event on the first page of the offense or incident report (who, what when and where). Details, including any listing of evidence, identification of witnesses, description of injuries, including any exculpatory information shall be provided in an offense or incident supplement report.
3. Supervisors will review all reports for accuracy and completeness and electronically submit completed reports to the Criminal Investigations Division before the end of shift.
4. Reports returned to officers for correction will be electronically rejected by the supervisor and the supervisor shall follow up on the following shift to ensure the report has been corrected and re-submitted.
5. The Criminal Investigations Division (CID) will investigate all felony cases submitted by patrol supervisors. All cases, including misdemeanors will be submitted to CID for review. CID shall conduct an initial review all cases within 72 hours. CID shall be responsible for designating case clearance classifications and case packet preparation, prior to submission to the District Attorney's office.

D. Juvenile Records (TBP: 10.02 f)

1. A file is maintained on each juvenile (age under 16) arrested, referred or detained by an officer. Each person is assigned a single “J” number. The file includes all documents associated with the contact as indicated in this section as well as a running list of the juvenile’s detentions and dispositions. State and federal laws require juvenile files to be kept separate from adult files.
2. Juvenile fingerprints and photographs, if taken, will be turned over to the Juvenile Probation Department intake officer. Police Records will not maintain fingerprints or photographs of juveniles. Should fingerprints or photographs be turned over to Police Records they will be destroyed as specified in the Family Code sections 58.001 and 58.002.

E. Computerized Criminal History Information

1. Computerized Criminal History information (CCH) is a federal/state cooperative system of a variety of databases (arrests, convictions, driving records, outstanding warrants and others). The Computerized Criminal History (CCH) data base lists all arrests and convictions for offenses above Class C Misdemeanor that have not been purged due to the state/federal age purge criteria.
2. Access to the TCIC/NCIC criminal history data base is limited to designated personnel. The program generates its own log showing who accessed the system. The log is computerized and maintained by Information Systems personnel.
3. Access to CCH information through local law enforcement agencies is limited to criminal justice uses. Individuals who request a copy of their computerized criminal history must do so through the Texas Department of Public Safety in Austin. Numerous agencies have been given authority to access criminal history information on prospective licensees or applicants. The statutes giving this authorization do not permit use of local police agency TCIC/NCIC lines for obtaining the CCH.

V. REPORT NUMBER AUDIT & REPORT STATUS

- A. The Records Supervisor will run a computer printout and audit daily for all reports to ensure all reports have been turned in to Records. As documents are received all reports will be placed in numerical order by service number.

- B. When a report has not been turned in within a three day period, a print out of the audit report is made and one copy kept for follow up. The officer's name responsible for the report will be identified and the audit report will be sent to the officer for response. Follow ups for missing reports will be made daily until all missing reports are accounted for.
- C. Missing report notices will be sent to officers, the officer's supervisor and the Chief of Police when a report has not been received in 72 hours after the end of the shift on which it was taken.

VI. DISTRIBUTION OF REPORTS AND RECORDS

- A. The distribution of reports to the various specialized organizational components within the agency is peculiar to the particular type of report. After reviewing the reports for completeness the patrol supervisor will forward all reports and citations to the Records Section.
- B. All offense/incident reports will then be copied and the copies forwarded to the appropriate section within the department such as Investigations, Traffic, etc. Originals are maintained in the Records Section.
- C. Citations are entered into the computer system and forwarded to the Municipal or Justice Court.
- D. The original of all records are to remain within the Records Section. All corrections or amendments to an original report are made by supplement and not by changing the original report. Supplementary reports will be sent to the Records Section and CID whenever additional information is processed.

VII. RECORDS RETENTION AND DESTRUCTION (TBP: 5.02)

- A. Records will be retained in the Records Section as specified in this policy and purged or destroyed only in accordance with the approved District Records Retention Policy and any Court Orders to expunge.
- B. Accident Reports: A copy of each accident report will be kept for two years in numerical order filed by month in the records office. Copies will be destroyed after two years. Persons wanting accident reports older than two years can order a copy directly from the Texas Department of Public Safety.

- C. Offense Reports: Because some offenses have no limitations period (can be prosecuted at any time) and because the limitations period for some offenses is based on the age of the victim at the time of the offense, offense report purging cannot simply be based on calculation of a number of years from the date of the offense. The Bastrop ISD Police Department will follow the Records Retention Schedule as defined by the Texas Administrative Code, TAC §7.125(a)(1) and TAC §7.125(a)(5).
- D. All Other Information Reports: The original of each Miscellaneous Incident Report will be kept for three (3) years and will be kept in numerical order as offense reports are kept.
- E. Adult Arrest Files: Adults may obtain a court order to have their arrest records expunged as specified in Chapter 55 of the Code of Criminal Procedure; otherwise, adult arrest files will be kept until a report of death of the arrestee or a period of seventy-five years.
- F. Juvenile Arrest Files: (TBP: 10.02 f)
  - 1. A Juvenile arrest file will be created for every juvenile taken into custody by members of this department. Juvenile files are maintained separately from adult files and are kept secure from unauthorized disclosure.
  - 2. Persons may have their juvenile records sealed (not destroyed) by court order as specified in Family Code section 58.003.
  - 3. A court may order destruction of juvenile detention files as specified in Family Code section 58.006.
  - 4. Arrest report files on juveniles who were referred to the Juvenile Court may be purged after the person reaches age 23.
  - 5. Arrest report files on juveniles who were not referred to the Juvenile Court may be purged after the person reaches age 18.
  - 6. Police Records will not maintain fingerprints or photographs of juveniles because the juvenile was detained by police or suspected of a criminal offense as specified in Chapter 58 of the Family Code. Fingerprints and photographs taken as part of the juvenile intake process will be turned over to the Juvenile Probation Department officials. Should fingerprints or photographs be turned over to Police Records they will be destroyed as specified in Family Code sections 58.001 and 58.002.

7. Any juvenile records maintained in a Gang or Criminal Street Gang intelligence file will be maintained, managed and removed pursuant to Texas Code of Criminal Procedure Articles 61.04 and 61.07.

G. Destruction of files and records will be done by shredding, burning or other means of destruction approved by the Police Records Supervisor and Records Coordinator for BISD when documents exceed the required retention schedule.

VIII. UNIFORM CRIME REPORT (UCR)

A. It is the responsibility of the Chief of Police and/or Records Supervisor to complete the monthly UCR and Department Crime Report in a timely manner.

Internal Investigation Process

I. POLICY

The department's image and reputation depend on the personal integrity and discipline of all departmental employees. To a large degree, the public image of the department is determined by a professional response to allegations of misconduct against its employees. The department must competently and impartially investigate all allegations of misconduct by employees and complaints bearing on the department's response to community needs. The department recognizes that its personnel are often subject to intense pressures in the discharge of their duties. The employee must remain neutral under circumstances that are likely to generate tension, excitement and emotion. In these situations, actions and events frequently result in misunderstanding and confusion. It is to the advantage of all employees to have a procedure for the investigation of the more serious allegations and underlying circumstances so that complaints can be resolved in light of the complicated pressures of law enforcement work.

II. PURPOSE

To describe procedures for making complaints against department personnel for investigating complaints and to list and define the dispositions of complaints.

III. PROCEDURES – GENERAL (TBP: 2.04)

A. Receipt of Complaints

The Bastrop ISD Police Department encourages any person to bring forward grievances regarding misconduct by employees. Department members shall receive all complaints courteously and shall handle them efficiently. All officers are obligated to explain complaint procedures to anyone who inquires.

B. Responsibilities of supervisors

1. First-line supervisors are primarily responsible for enforcing conformance with departmental standards and orders.
2. First-line supervisors shall know the officers in their charge by closely observing their conduct and appearance.
3. First-line supervisors shall be alert to behavioral changes or problems in their subordinates and, if necessary, document these changes and confer with higher authorities. The first-line supervisor shall assess the behavior and take or recommend appropriate action.
4. The supervisor shall recommend and, if appropriate, help conduct extra training for officers not performing according to established standards.
5. The first-line supervisor shall employ counseling techniques sanctioned by the department. Counseling is used to adjust and correct minor, infrequent errors or instances of poor performance and to ascertain the nature of any professional or personal problems that bear on performance.
  - a. The supervisor shall document all instances of counseling.

C. How to make a complaint

A copy of "How to Make a Complaint" will be posted in the public area of the department, provided to media representatives, and may be given to any person requesting information on how to make a complaint.

D. Responsibility for handling complaints

All complaints alleging a violation of the law or policy will be investigated. Complaints regarding law enforcement operations will usually be handled through the chain of command beginning with the first-line supervisor. Complaints involving how law enforcement services are provided or a failure to provide service or improper attitudes or behavior may be investigated by an assigned supervisor or by the Chief of Police. Depending on the nature of the complaint, the Chief of Police may request another agency or DPS to undertake the investigation. (TBP: 2.06)

E. Complaint-handling procedures

- a. All complaints, regardless of nature, can be filed in person, by mail, or by phone at any time. As part of the follow-up investigation, persons making complaints by mail or phone normally shall be interviewed and a written, signed complaint prepared. A signed letter of complaint will be accepted as a signed complaint without requiring any specific form. Anonymous complaints are not considered to be formal complaints but shall be followed up to the extent possible. In case of an anonymous complaint the officer or person who receives the anonymous complaint shall reduce the complaint to writing in a memorandum with as much information as possible and forward the report to the Chief of Police.
2. Every effort shall be made to facilitate the convenient, courteous and prompt receipt and processing of any person's complaint. An employee of the department, who interferes with, discourages or delays the making of complaints shall be subject to disciplinary action.
3. Normally, a person with a complaint shall be referred to a supervisor or the Chief of Police who shall assist the individual in recording pertinent information. If initially reported to a supervisor, the first-line supervisor shall conduct a preliminary investigation. The Chief of Police may, if appropriate, conduct a preliminary investigation. The preliminary investigation consists of questioning the officer, complainants, or witnesses and securing evidence.

Upon completion of the preliminary investigation, the following documents shall be prepared and forwarded through the chain of command:

- a. a report of the alleged violation;
- b. any documents and evidence pertinent to the investigation;
- c. recommendations for further investigation or other disposition.

4. If the first-line supervisor or other Detectives determine that the complainant is apparently under the influence of an intoxicant or drug, appears to have a mental disorder or displays any other trait or condition bearing on his/her credibility, the supervisor or Detective shall note these conditions. Any visible marks or injuries relative to the allegation shall be noted and photographed.
5. Prisoners or arrestees also may make complaints. Circumstances may require a department representative meet the complainant at a jail or prison for an interview. If appropriate, the representative will have photographs taken of prisoners' injuries.
6. An employee who receives a complaint through U.S. mail shall place the correspondence and envelope in a sealed envelope and forward it to the Chief of Police, who shall determine investigative responsibility.
7. Complaints received by telephone shall be courteously and promptly referred to a supervisor or the Chief of Police. The employee shall record the name and telephone number of the complainant and state that the Chief of Police or, if unavailable an officer will call back as soon as practical.
8. The above procedure may also be used when department employees desire to enter a complaint against any other employee governed by this order.
9. In every case, the Chief of Police will be notified of any complaint as soon as possible by the supervisor receiving the complaint. Complaints received overnight will be brought to the Chief's attention the next workday. Complaints alleging a violation of the law or any serious violation should be reported immediately regardless of the time of day. (TBP: 2.07)

F. Disposition of complaints generally

The Chief of Police or his/her designee shall:

1. Notify the complainant in writing, as soon as practical, that the department acknowledges receipt of the complaint, that it is under investigation and that the complainant will be advised of the outcome.

2. Enter the complaint into the complaint log, assign a complaint number, and have the complaint investigated. Minor complaints alleging rudeness, minor policy violations and performance issues may be assigned to a supervisor for investigation and resolution. Allegations of a violation of the law or serious policy violations will be investigated by the Chief of Police, a Detective assigned by the Chief of Police, or an outside agency as determined by the Chief.
3. Maintain complaint files separate from personnel files.
4. Take disciplinary action following the investigation, if appropriate.

G. Disposition of a serious complaint

1. Allegations of misconduct that might result in discharge, suspension, demotion or criminal charges being sought are serious complaints. The term "serious complaint," in this manual, is synonymous with "internal investigation." Internal investigations examine alleged brutality, gross excesses of legal authority or allegations involving supervisory or multiple personnel.
2. If a criminal offense is alleged, two separate investigations shall be conducted, a criminal investigation as well as an administrative or Internal Investigation. The criminal investigation examines compliance with the criminal law while the Internal Investigation determines compliance with policy and procedure. The Chief of Police will assign these investigations as required.
3. In cases of serious complaints the Chief of Police shall:
  - a. Determine if the officer complained of should remain on-duty, be assigned to non-contact assignments or put on administrative leave until completion of the investigations.
  - b. Determine and assign responsibility for the investigations.

- c. Cause the complaint to be registered and assigned an investigation number in the complaint log.
  - d. Maintain close liaison with the prosecuting attorney in investigating alleged criminal conduct. Where liability is at issue, the Chief shall similarly maintain contact with the District's legal counsel.
4. All investigations will be completed within 30 days to include the taking of disciplinary action when necessary. If additional time is necessary to conclude the investigation, a request for extension will be presented to the Chief in writing providing justification for the extension. If approved by the Chief, a specific number of days will be approved and a copy will be provided to the involved officer and the original placed in the case file. (TBP: 2.05)
  5. Upon completion of any investigation, The Chief of Police will notify the complainant, in writing, of the results of the investigation and any action taken. (TBP: 2.10)

IV. INVESTIGATIVE PROCEDURES

- A. Two types of investigations may take place: administrative or criminal. Different rules govern interviews of employees in each case.
- B. Assistance of legal counsel
  1. Employees are permitted to have an attorney, supervisor or other representative with them in the room during any interview regarding allegations of misconduct.
  2. The employee's representative is limited to acting as an observer at the interview, except that where the interview focuses on, or leads to, evidence of criminality, the attorney may advise and confer with the employee during the interview.
- C. All Interviews
  1. Prior to being interviewed, the subject employee shall be advised of the nature of the complaint and provided a copy of the complaint.

2. All interviews will be conducted while the employee is on duty, unless the seriousness of the investigation is such that an immediate interview is required.
3. During interviews conducted by the department, there will be one employee designated as the primary interviewer.
4. The complete interview shall be recorded. The recording will note the time at which breaks are taken in the interview process, who requested the break and the time at which the interview resumed.
5. The employee shall be provided with the name, rank and command of all persons present during the questioning.

D. Interviews for criminal investigative purposes

1. If the Chief of Police believes that criminal prosecutions are possible and wishes to use statements against the employee in a criminal proceeding, or at least wishes to maintain the option of their use, he/she or another interviewer shall:
  - a. Give the employee the rights as specified in Texas Code of Criminal Procedure Article 38.22.
  - b. In addition to the rights set forth in state law, the Chief, or his/her designee shall advise the employee that if he/she asserts his/her right not to answer questions, no adverse administrative action will be taken based upon the refusal.
  - c. If the employee decides to answer questions at this point, the responses may be used in both criminal and disciplinary proceeding.

E. Interview for administrative purposes

1. If the Chief of Police wishes to compel an employee to answer questions directly related to his/her official duties, the Chief of Police, or another interviewer shall advise the employee that:
  - a. You are advised that this is an internal administrative investigation only.

- b. You will be asked and are required to answer all questions specifically related to the performance of your duties and your fitness for office.
  - c. All questions specifically related to employment must be fully and truthfully answered.
  - d. If you refuse to answer these questions, you can be subject to discipline that can be as much as discharge or removal from office.
  - e. I want to reassure you that any answers given are to be used solely for internal administrative purposes and may not be used in any subsequent criminal prosecution should such occur.
  - f. The purpose of the interview is to obtain information to determine whether disciplinary action is warranted. The answers obtained may be used in disciplinary proceedings resulting in reprimand, demotion, suspension or dismissal.
2. In an interview for administrative purpose, no Miranda rights are required.

V. INVESTIGATIVE TOOLS AND RESOURCES

- A. In addition to interviews of the employee and witnesses, the Chief of Police may require other activities in support of a complaint investigation or internal investigation, including:
1. Medical and laboratory examination
  2. The Chief of Police or officer in authority may, based on reasonable suspicion or his/her observation, require a department employee to submit to a test for alcohol or drug use while on duty. The results may be used in a disciplinary hearing. Refusal to submit to the examination will be grounds for disciplinary action and may result in the employee's dismissal.
  3. If the employee has a reading of .05 or higher or there is other competent evidence of impaired abilities to perform duties, the officer shall be relieved of duty by the Chief of Police or officer in authority.

4. If the employee is believed to be under the influence of self-administered drugs, he/she may be compelled to submit to a blood or urine test. The test shall be administered under medical supervision where hygienic safeguards are met. The sample shall be handled using the same safeguards as evidence in a criminal process.
5. If the test shows positive results, or there is other competent evidence of impaired abilities to perform duties, the employee shall be relieved of duty as soon as possible by the Chief of Police or other officers in authority.
6. If an employee refuses to submit to a test, (alcohol or drugs) then the Chief of Police or other officer in authority shall immediately relieve the employee from duty (on paid leave) for failure to cooperate in an administrative investigation.
7. Property assigned to the employee but belonging to the department is subject to inspection where the department has a reasonable suspicion that evidence of work-related misconduct may be found therein. Department property includes files, storage lockers, desks and vehicles.

B. Photograph and lineup identification procedures

1. Officers may be required to stand in a lineup for viewing for the purpose of identifying an employee accused of misconduct. Refusal to stand in a properly conducted lineup is grounds for disciplinary action and may result in dismissal if the criminal prosecution is not anticipated.
A book of photos of department employees may be maintained for the purpose of identification of an employee accused of misconduct.

C. Financial disclosure statements

An employee may be compelled to make financial disclosure statements when directly and narrowly related to allegations of misconduct involving any unlawful financial gain.

D. Polygraph

1. All personnel shall be required to submit to a polygraph if ordered to do so by the Chief of Police.

2. The Police Chief may order employees to take a polygraph when:
  - a. The complainant has taken and passed a polygraph concerning the incident. (Unless the complainant is willing to submit to testing but the polygraph operator determines the complainant is not a fit subject due to mental condition, age or medication).
  - b. Regardless if the complainant takes a polygraph, or is even known, but the complaint is of such a nature to bring severe discredit and suspicion on the department and cannot be satisfactorily resolved in any other manner.
3. The results of the polygraph examination shall not be used as the sole basis for disciplinary action against any employee.
4. Any polygraph examination given under the provisions of this order shall be administered by a private contractor licensed to administer polygraph examinations in the State of Texas or must be a licensed examiner from another law enforcement agency. No employee shall administer an examination to another employee.
5. Refusal to submit to a polygraph examination or to answer all questions pertaining to the charges in the polygraph examination, or deliberately impede the administration of the polygraph shall be grounds for disciplinary action and may result in dismissal from the department.

VI. ADJUDICATION OF COMPLAINTS

- A. The Chief of Police will classify completed internal affairs investigations as:
  1. Unfounded - no truth to allegations.
  2. Exonerated - allegations true, but are the result of adherence to departmental policy or procedure. Exonerated complaints will be reviewed by the Chief of Police for policy issues.
  3. Not sustained - unable to verify the truth of the matters under investigation.

4. Sustained - allegations are true. Complaints will not be classified as sustained unless based on a finding of facts determined during the investigation. (TBP: 2.04)

F. Polygraph Examinations

1. In some cases, a complainant may undergo a polygraph test to substantiate his/her allegations made against an employee in an affidavit. When the test reveals no deception on the part of the complainant, the accused employee may be ordered to submit to a polygraph test.

G. Medical and Laboratory Examination

The Chief of Police or his/her designee may, based on his/her observation, require a Department employee to submit to a test for alcohol or drug use while on duty. The results may be used in the disciplinary process. Refusal to submit to the examination will be grounds for disciplinary action and may result in the employee's dismissal.

1. If the employee is believed to be under the influence of alcohol, a licensed Breathalyzer operator may administer the test. The Chief of Police or officer in authority shall witness the test and sign the report. (Portable breath testing instrument may be used to perform this test.)
2. If the employee has a reading of .05 or higher or there is other competent evidence of impaired abilities to perform duties, the officer shall be relieved of duty by the Chief of Police or officer in authority.
3. If the employee is believed to be under the influence of self-administered drugs, the employee may be compelled to submit to a blood and/or urine test. The test shall be administered under medical supervision where hygienic safeguards are met. The sample will be handled using the same safeguards as evidence in a criminal process.
4. If the test shows positive results, or there is other competent evidence of impaired abilities to perform duties, the officer shall be relieved of duty as soon as possible by the Chief of Police or other officers in authority.
5. If an employee refuses to submit to a test, (alcohol or drugs) then the supervisor may relieve the employee from duty for failure to cooperate in an administrative investigation.

1. A photo identification book of Department employees may be maintained for the purpose of identification by citizens of an employee accused of misconduct. Photographs of employees for the identification book may be required by the Department and shall be used only when narrowly related to the employee's job.
2. Photographs or videotape pictures of employees, with or without an employee's consent, may be taken for the purpose of internal investigations as related to the employee's job when the employee is suspected of misconduct.

- E. Internal investigations shall be completed within 30 days with an allowance of up to two extensions, both lasting up to 30 days which must be approved in writing by the Chief of Police and which may be granted only for good cause.

XIV. Completion of Complaint Investigation

- A. All complaint investigations shall be considered confidential and, except as provided below, no portion of the investigation may be reproduced without the authority of the Chief of Police.

- D. The Bastrop ISD Police Department must respond to any subpoena for internal investigation records. If a court of competent jurisdiction orders the Bastrop ISD Police Department to produce the records, the order will be complied with or appealed, after consulting the attorneys for the District.

XV. TYPES OF DISCIPLINARY ACTIONS

- A. All disciplinary action will be based on substantial evidence. “Proof beyond a reasonable doubt” or “a preponderance of the evidence” is not required.
  - 1. Substantial evidence is defined as such evidence that a reasonable mind might accept as adequate to support a conclusion. It is that quality of evidence necessary for a court to affirm a decision of an administrative board.
  - 2. Proof beyond a reasonable doubt is defined as such proof as precludes every reasonable hypothesis except that which it tends to support and which is wholly consistent with the defendant’s guilt and inconsistent with any other rational conclusion.
  - 3. Preponderance of evidence is defined as evidence that is of greater weight or more convincing than the evidence which is offered in opposition to it.

- B. Level II Infractions

Level II infractions that are classified as sustained following an administrative investigation shall be subject to the following non-disciplinary actions only unless formally investigated or urgent circumstances exist and other disciplinary actions are authorized by the Chief of Police.

- 1. Verbal Warning - The purpose of a verbal warning is to allow a supervisor to bring to the employee’s attention the need to improve his/her work performance, work habits, behavior, or attitude, and to serve as a warning against further unsatisfactory conduct. The supervisor shall utilize the occasion to identify and define the area needing improvement and inform the employee as to how such improvement can be realistically achieved. The supervisor shall document the verbal warning on a Personnel Incident Form and forward it to the Chief of Police for disposition. Upon request of the employee, the documentation of the verbal warning may be removed from the file and destroyed after a period of one year.

2. Written Warning - The purpose of a written warning is to bring to the employee's attention the need to improve his/her performance, work habits, behavior, or attitude where a verbal warning has not resulted in expected improvement, or when action more serious than a verbal warning is warranted. The supervisor shall document the violation on a Personnel Incident Form and forward same to the Chief of Police through the chain of command with a recommendation for a written warning. Upon approval, the form and the written warning issued by the supervisor shall be placed in the employee's Departmental file. If not approved the supervisor shall retain the option to issue a verbal warning unless otherwise directed. Upon request of the employee the written warning may be removed from the file and destroyed after a period of two years.

C. Level I Infractions

Level I infractions which are classified as sustained are subject to the following types of disciplinary action which can only be assessed by the Chief of Police subject to appeal and approval by the BISD School Board.

1. Written Reprimand - Upon request of the employee the form may be removed from the file and destroyed after a period of two years;
2. Suspension;
3. Demotion;
4. Termination.

Disciplinary action involving potential monetary loss by the employee, including suspension, demotion and termination shall only be assessed subsequent to a formal internal investigation and subsequent to the affected employee being given an opportunity to provide any mitigating information.

The Chief of Police may solicit recommendations for disciplinary action as he/she deems necessary.

Sustained Level I infractions are also subject to the non-disciplinary actions that are described in paragraph B of this Section if so ordered by the Chief of Police.

Any supervisor has the authority to impose emergency relief from duty for an employee until the next business day when it appears that such action is in the best interest of the Department and/or the employee. Whenever an employee is relieved from duty, the Chief of Police shall be immediately notified.
2. The Chief of Police is the only BISSD Police Department employee who has the authority to place an employee on administrative leave with pay.

3. When an employee is temporarily relieved from duty, his/her supervisor shall collect the employee's badge(s), Department issued weapon(s) and police identification card. When an employee is discharged, the supervisor shall ensure that all district-issued property and equipment used by the employee is turned in. In either case, the supervisor shall forward, through the chain of command, a written report detailing the items that he/she has collected.

XVII. APPEALS AND GRIEVANCES

Appeals and grievances may be filed by any employee in accordance with the BISD Personnel Policies and Procedures. Employees may appeal disciplinary actions of the Chief of Police to the Superintendent.

XVIII. BEHAVIORAL CAUSE INVESTIGATION

- A. A behavioral cause investigation is an administrative investigation which is conducted when an employee exhibits unusual or abnormal behavior which affects his/her ability to perform her job in a proper or safe manner. This may either be observed behavior by the employee's supervisor(s) or a perceived behavioral deficiency which is claimed by the employee. The employee is referred, at BISD's expense, to a licensed psychologist who will examine the employee and make a determination as to his/her fitness for duty in light of the observed/claimed behavior.
- B. Authority and Responsibility
  1. The Chief of Police may initiate a behavioral cause investigation whenever he/she believes it is in the best interest of the employee and/or the Department.
  2. The employee's supervisor may recommend to the Chief of Police a behavioral cause investigation based upon the nature of the complaint and/or the accused employee's disciplinary record.

1. If an employee feels that he/she has an emotional or stress related problem that has resulted in a complaint, he/she may request a behavioral cause investigation by contacting the Chief of Police.
2. The purpose of self-injection into a behavioral cause investigation is to identify the cause of the unusual or abnormal behavior on the part of the employee and to provide him/her with professional assistance in redirecting or changing his/her behavior.
3. The final diagnostic evaluation will be presented to the Chief of Police for consideration in determining what action, if any, is to be taken as a result of the original complaint.

E. Interview with a Psychologist

All employees entering a behavioral cause investigation shall be interviewed by a psychologist licensed to practice in Texas, who may have the biographical and Departmental history of the employee plus any profile resulting from the applicant-level psychometric testing. Any information obtained by the psychologist which does not relate to the specific incident or problem under investigation will be considered privileged communication and shall not be entered into any Departmental file or history on the employee.

PERSONNEL – DUTY ASSIGNMENTS AND PROMOTIONS

I. POLICY

It is the policy of BISD and the Bastrop ISD Police Department to determine duty assignments and promotions of police officers based upon officer capability and the needs of the District for effective and efficient provision of police service. Decisions regarding duty assignments and promotions will be made without consideration of race, gender, age, national origin, or disability (so long as the essential functions of the assignment or position can be achieved with reasonable accommodation). Any discrimination based upon the aforesaid factors is expressly prohibited by BISD.

The Chief of Police or his/her designee will determine shift and duty assignments for all employees of the Police Department in accordance with the goals and policy set forth in this general order.

The BISD School Board creates or abolishes police positions and compensation for those positions. At this time, the positions in the Bastrop ISD Police Department are one (1) Chief of Police, one (1) Sergeant, and nine (9) Police Officers.

The Chief of Police will determine promotions. Promotions will be made only after, and based upon, an interview of the candidate; an assessment of the candidate's prior job performance, an assessment of the candidate's potential for success in the prospective position based upon objective, quantifiable factors.

II. PURPOSE:

To outline minimum duty assignments and promotion procedures.

PERSONNEL - EVALUATIONS

I. POLICY

In order to provide quality police service to BISSD, the Department seeks to hire and maintain the best qualified personnel. To that end, the Department regularly and formally evaluates the performance of officers and other employees. The evaluation system discussed herein serves the interests of management, the Department's employees and the citizens served by this Department. The purposes of the evaluation system are to (1) allow fair and impartial personnel decisions; (2) maintain and improve performance; (3) provide a basis and a medium for personnel counseling; (4) assist decisions about the tenure of employees; and (5) identify training needs.

II. PURPOSE

To outline and describe the Departmental evaluation process

III. PROCEDURES

A. General

1. All personnel shall be evaluated using the form located in the appendix to this order.
2. Evaluations reflect observations and perceptions by rating personnel and are, therefore, inherently subjective. Nevertheless, personnel shall be rated according to unacceptable, acceptable or superior behavior. Specific guidelines for rating behavior are found in the appendix to this order.

Each employee shall be evaluated annually, July 1st to June 30th. The evaluations will follow the District's schedule of employees being evaluated in March for the year. To constitute a satisfactory score, an officer must receive an overall 3.0 (or satisfactory). Officers who fail to receive an overall 3.0 may be placed on probation for a period determined by the Chief of Police. Upon the assignment of an overall score less than 3.0; a deficiency memo will be prepared by the Chief of Police which documents whether the officer will be placed on remedial probation along with valid, objective and non-discriminatory reasons for that decision. Within the probation period, an officer shall receive remedial training in deficient areas or demonstrate proficiency (or satisfactory improvement) in deficient areas. During a probationary period for remedial training, an officer may receive evaluations weekly or bi-weekly, at the chief's discretion.

3. All evaluations shall be placed in employees' personnel files.
4. All commission Police officers shall be formally evaluated once a year by the Chief of Police.
5. An officer who receives an unsatisfactory mark that the officer perceives to be unjust may protest same to the Chief of Police. The officer concerned must rebut the comments or marks in writing, submitted through the chain of command to the Chief of Police. In any case, final appeal extends to the Superintendent, in writing, through the Chief of Police.

B. Scale Value Appreciation

1. The most difficult task facing the rater is applying the numerical scale that accompanies categories of behavior. Two raters might not apply the same numerical values to the person under evaluation. To reduce such differences, the appendix to this instruction clearly defines what constitutes unacceptable, acceptable, and superior behavior.
2. The philosophy of the evaluation form focuses on observations of demonstrated proficiency in behavior relevant to the job. Proficiency may be demonstrated in a variety of ways:
  - a. Performing the behavior in the field;
  - b. Performing the behavior in a practical exercise or simulation, accompanied by written or oral testing; and/or
  - c. Written or oral testing (for subjects not amenable to field demonstration).

3. Any numerical rating below 3 must be documented. Deficiencies in behavior must receive precise documentation. For example, an officer might receive a “1” (unsatisfactory) under officer safety. In the comments section, the rater would write, “Officer consistently presents his[/her] gun to traffic violators and approaches stopped vehicles with objects in both hands.”

4. The categories of behavior represent key areas of police behavior. The categories are aligned in four subjects: critical performance tasks, knowledge, attitude/relations, and appearance.

C. Evaluation of Supervisors and Civilian Employees

1. Civilian employees shall be evaluated on forms used by BISD for the purpose; civilian employees will be evaluated by their direct supervisor mid-year and the Chief of Police at end of year.
2. Supervisors shall be evaluated using the same form as that for officers. Under “comments” the Chief of Police shall refer to an attached page containing, in a narrative, comments concerning supervisory performance. The chief shall address, at a minimum, the following points:
  - a. Ability to instill in officers a high regard and respect for the rule of law, civil rights, and concern for victims;
  - b. Ability to perceive performance weakness in his/her officers, conduct remedial training and document improved proficiency;
  - c. Command of patrol techniques, methods and investigative procedures;
  - d. Ability to reprimand, counsel, praise, or otherwise discipline his/her officers; and,
  - e. Ability to take responsibility for the performance of his/her officers.

Off Duty Employment

I. POLICY

The Chief of Police must ensure the continued efficiency and effectiveness of the Department while simultaneously reducing or eliminating conflicts of interest. To this end, the Chief shall manage according to whatever reasonable controls he/she deems necessary to restrict or regulate the conduct of employees. It is the policy of the Department, therefore, to prohibit off-duty employment of employees when it may impair efficiency or conflict with their duties and responsibilities.

II. PURPOSE: To define regulations governing off-duty employment

III. DEFINITIONS

- A. Employment: Any work performed or services provided for compensation, including self-employment.
- B. Police related employment: Employment which may entail the use of police powers granted by the State of Texas or BISD.

IV. PROCEDURES (TBP: 4.05)

- A. Non-Police-Related Off-Duty Employment: Employment shall not constitute a conflict of interest. A conflict of interest, as determined by the Chief of Police, is any activity inconsistent, incompatible, or in conflict with the duties, functions or responsibilities of employment.
- B. Police Related Off-Duty Employment
  - 1. Police related employment shall not exceed 14 hours per day, including on-duty time: e.g., an officer working a 10-hour tour may work four hours of off-duty employment on the same day. An officer on a day off may work 14 hours.

- a. For the purpose of computing allowable work time, court appearances constitute on-duty time as does sick leave.
2. Police related off-duty employment is restricted to Bastrop and adjoining Counties. Officers may perform police duties beyond County boundaries if working in conjunction with another jurisdiction's regular law enforcement agency or in circumstances permitted by State law and the general orders of the Bastrop ISD Police Department.
  3. Serving as an employment agent and receiving compensation for procurement of police related jobs for other Police Department employees is prohibited.
  4. No employee shall solicit any person or business for the purpose of gaining police related off duty employment, and, while on duty, shall not solicit any person or business for the purpose of gaining non-police related off-duty employment.
  5. Except for public school security activities and other employment where specifically authorized by the Chief of Police, the following regulations apply:
    - a. The police uniform may be worn while engaging in off-duty employment if approved by the Chief of Police.
    - b. District-owned vehicles, radio, or other equipment may be used while traveling to and from or engaging in off-duty employment if BISS is compensated for the vehicle while at the off duty employment location and approved by the Chief of Police.
  6. Officers, while engaged in police related employment, shall be subject to the orders of the on-duty police supervisor.

C. Administration

1. Employees must submit a written request for approval of all off-duty employment to the Chief of Police. The request shall be maintained in the files of the Chief of Police along with related documents.

- a. The approved request is subject to periodic review by the Chief of Police. Officers shall communicate any changes in information contained on the form to the chief as soon as possible.
  - b. The Chief of Police may revoke permission to work off duty if the officer fails to perform adequately on duty or receives disciplinary action.
2. Jobs, which the Chief of Police deems unacceptable, e.g., jobs at establishments where alcoholic beverages are sold for consumption on the premises or where minimum wages are not met, shall be disapproved. Officers are prohibited from employment by any firm connected with the towing or storage of vehicles, or employment as a bill collector, bodyguard, private investigator, process server or taxi cab driver.
3. Arrests made while engaged in off-duty police related employment shall be limited to felonies or criminal misdemeanors committed in the officer's presence or a breach of the peace jeopardizing public safety.

D. Liability, Indemnification, Insurance

1. All employees who wish permission to engage in police related off-duty employment shall complete the application found at the end of this order. The Chief of Police must grant permission before the employee may work off duty. In addition to the application form, the employee must submit to the Chief of Police a copy of the contract with the off-duty employer. The contract must specify:
  - a. Precise nature of the work to be performed;
  - b. Hours or schedule of the work performed;
  - c. What equipment the employee must maintain; and
  - d. Insurance coverage of the business providing for medical treatment for job-related injuries and indemnification for litigation arising from off-duty employment.

2. The Department shall not be responsible for medical expenses incurred from injuries sustained while working in any off-duty employment.

3. The Department recognizes that an officer in police related off-duty employment may undertake an action connected with the employment that the courts may construe as a law enforcement duty, and therefore a component of the police job. Officers are reminded that their off-duty performance must follow the same standards required for on-duty performance. Off-duty police actions, whether for a private employer or not, must comply with these General Orders and applicable law.

V. DEPARTMENTAL TRAINING

A. Performance-based training

The Commission requires performance-based training. This method of training requires the development of performance objectives. The use of performance objectives acquaints the training participants with the information they are required to know, the skills that must be demonstrated and the circumstances under which the skills will be used. This approach also enables the instructors to relate training directly to the job performance that will be expected by supervisors. An employee who develops an outline for instruction of a topic must develop objectives which:

1. Focus on the elements of the job-task analysis for which training is needed.
2. Provide clear statements of what is to be learned.
3. Provide the basis for evaluating the participants.
4. Provide the basis for evaluating the effectiveness of the training program.

B. Lesson plans

1. Lesson plans are required for all training courses conducted or sponsored by the department. It is the responsibility of the individual instructor, whether a member of the department or not, to provide the Chief or designee, with a copy of the lesson plan for approval before each class. A copy of the lesson plan will be maintained along with rosters of personnel attending the training.
2. The lesson plan should include a statement of performance objectives, the content of the training, specification of the appropriate instructional techniques, references, relationships to the job tasks, responsibilities of the participants for the material taught, and plans for evaluation of the participants. The instructional techniques that might be used include:
  - a. Conferences (debate, discussion groups, panels and seminars).
  - b. Field experiences (field trips, interviews, operational experiences and observations).

- c. Presentations (lectures, lecture-discussion, lecture-demonstration).
- d. Problem investigations (committee inquiry, critical incidents).
- e. Simulations (case study, simulation, games, and role-play).

  - a. Have a minimum of two years law-enforcement experience, and
  - b. Have completed a TCOLE instructor's course and be certified as an instructor, and
  - c. Possess a demonstrated skill in an area of instruction, and
  - d. Be knowledgeable of teaching theories and methods, as well as knowledge of law-enforcement practices.
2. Instructors enlisted from outside the department shall be approved by the Chief or designee. The instructor must have demonstrated skill in his/her area of instruction and comply with requirements for lesson plans as previously stated. Any compensation will be determined by the Chief of Police.
3. Before being allowed to instruct any state-mandated courses at the department, instructors shall receive, at a minimum, training in:
  - a. Lesson plan development.
  - b. Development of performance objectives.
  - c. Instructional techniques.
  - d. Learning theory.

Field Training

I. POLICY

It is the policy of the Bastrop ISD Police Department that all employees receive such training as mandated by the State and adequate additional instruction in all areas required for the proper performance of their specific job tasks.

Officers receive their basic peace officer training in an academy setting. While this training is essential to the making of a competent police officer, additional training is needed to familiarize any officer, regardless of prior experience, with the operational policies, procedures and practices of this department and this community.

This training takes place during a Field Training Program. Experienced officers who have been trained as Field Training Officers are used to instruct new officers to ensure that our officers are trained and capable of performing their duties.

II. PURPOSE

The purpose of this order is to define the procedures to be used in the Field Training Program.

FTO Program

I. Policy

It is the policy of the Bastrop ISD Police Department that the Field Training Program is an extension of the law enforcement selection process combining on-the-job training with objective performance assessment to insure that the standards of a competent law enforcement officer are met by:

- A. Establishing a probationary officer appraisal process. This process is designed to provide a valid, job related, post Basic Training Academy evaluation of the Probationary Officer's performance utilizing standardized and systematic approaches to job/task performance documentation. Specific documentation of performance serves as the main criteria for the retention or termination of the probationary officer.

- B. Improving the Probationary Officer training process. The process provides on-the-job, post Basic Academy instruction. Field Training Officers serve as mentors and role models for the Probationary Officer. The intent is to expedite the application of knowledge, skills and abilities to the Department and Community expectations for quality law enforcement service. The uniformity of the Field Training process assists in bringing the Probationary Officer up-to-speed to certify for solo patrol operations.

- C. Establishing career opportunities within the Department. The Field Training Process provides another career path of job enrichment and responsibility within the Police Department. It provides incentive for the demonstration of proficiency in the knowledge, skills and abilities needed to perform patrol functions. While performing the duties of the Field Training Officer (FTO), the officer gains experience and knowledge that increases his/her leadership/evaluation skills and enhances career opportunities.

II. Mission

The mission of the Bastrop ISD Police Department Field Training Program is to continually enhance the professionalism of law enforcement in serving the community, improve the overall effectiveness and efficiency of law enforcement service. This policy has been developed to support this mission.

The Field Training Program is a complex management system with the goal of improving the department's overall effectiveness and efficiency. The program enhances the overall Probationary Employee's screening process with daily on-the-job observation.

This program is intended to ease a peace officer's transition from the academic setting to the performance of general law enforcement patrol duties of the department. Although an officer graduating from the Basic Peace Officer academy has received a thorough introduction to basic law enforcement subjects, that officer cannot be expected to immediately function as an experienced officer. Newly assigned officers must receive additional training in the field, where they can learn from officers who have already gained a great deal of practical patrol experience. This program introduces a newly assigned officer to the personnel, procedure, policies, and purposes of the department as well as providing the initial formal and informal training specific to the day-to-day duties of its officers.

In order to make the new officers' field training as effective as possible, they are assigned to a Field Training Officer. The Field Training Officer is an experienced officer especially selected and trained to conduct this type of training. It is the responsibility of the Field Training Officer to thoroughly review the field training guide materials with the newly assigned officer and to demonstrate proper patrol procedures. Probationary officers will be required to perform various law enforcement duties under the guidance and supervision of their assigned Field Training Officer and Field Training Supervisor. The student's performance will be evaluated daily by the Field Training Officer. Field training has a significant impact on the individual in terms of imprinting attitudes, style, values and ethics in carrying out the duties of police work that will remain throughout a career.

The Field Training Officer and Supervisor must be certain that the field training program which introduces officers to the department not only develops the necessary technical skills but also reflects the policing philosophy of the department and the community that it serves.

The field training staff has the monumental responsibility of building the future of the department through the people they train. To assure success in this task, the field training program must have a training philosophy that ensures that every student is given the maximum opportunity to show that he or she can do the job. In order to accomplish this, the program must create a positive environment in which learning is maximized and in which students are able to perform to the best of their ability. The approach must be fair, firm, friendly and above all, professional. The example set must be beyond reproach. Evaluation must be sincere and given in a straightforward manner emphasizing the positive as well as the negative aspects of performance.

The agency administrator and field training program staff have a responsibility to the community they serve. Their responsibility requires that the department trains and retains only the most competent proactive officers. If the field training staff has done all it can and the student does not meet the acceptable standards, the department will have demonstrable grounds to terminate the Probationary Officer. Supreme dedication and patience is required to accomplish the field training task.

III. Purpose

The first few days in the field training program are the most critical from the standpoint of learning a development. It is during this period that the attitude and behavior patterns are established. This is also the time when the Probationary Officer learns what is expected during training and during their career. The Probationary Officers expect to be challenged and they expect to be properly trained.

The purpose of this policy is to provide officers of the Bastrop ISD Police Department with guidelines in the organization and operation of the Field Training Program developed to train officers newly appointed to this department, regardless of past or previous experience.

IV. Organization

A. Field Training Supervisor

1. Responsible for the overall administration of the Field Training Process.
2. Shall coordinate, when appropriate, the preparation of a report of probationary officer's development to date and submit it to the Chief of Police with a recommendation to retain, extend training, or terminate the probationary officer.

3. Shall prepare and present reports of probationary officer development/status and make it available to the Chief of Police.
4. Shall monitor and evaluate the overall development of probationary officers to identify and rectify deficient performance and assist in resolving them through training and coaching.
5. May recommend the extension of a probationary officer for additional training and coaching.
6. Shall assist with a comprehensive evaluation of each Probationary Officer during the final month of the probationary employment period and prepare a statement of the Probationary Officer's development, to submit to the Chief of Police with a recommendation to retain, extend training or dismiss the Probationary Officer. Other department members having direct supervision of the Probationary Officer will be offered the opportunity to provide input to assist in this final probationary evaluation report.
7. The Supervisor shall review the Field Training Process and make recommendations for changes and improvements to the Chief of Police.
8. The Supervisor must insure that the training and evaluation process is properly administered. Various sources of information should be utilized to achieve these goals, including (but not limited to) Daily Observation Reports, oral communications with the Field Training Officers and personal observations of the Probationary Officer's performance.
9. Must maintain a commitment to teaching and developing new officers.

B. Field Training Officer

1. The Field Training Officer has two primary roles to fulfill. Those roles are that of a police officer assuming patrol responsibility and that of a trainer/assessor of Probationary Officers.

2. The Field Training Officer shall be responsible for the training and evaluation of the Probationary Officers when assigned to them, as directed by the Field Training Supervisor.
3. The Field Training Officer shall be a sworn officer who has met departmental qualifications.
4. Field Training Officer may assist the Police Department in the interview selection process for law enforcement officer candidates.
5. The Field Training Officer may be released from field training duties as follows:
  - a. At the request of the individual and the approval of the Chief of Police
  - b. Upon recommendation of the Field Training Unit Supervisor due to unacceptable agency performance.
  - c. At the direction of the Chief of Police.
6. Selection process of Field Training Officers
  - a. Two years minimum qualifications for Field Training Officers
  - b. Minimum qualifications for Field Training Officers:
    - i. Two years full time law enforcement experience of which one year is with the Bastrop ISD Police Department.
    - ii. Acceptable performance assessments and input from current and immediate Supervisors (with direct observation/knowledge of work habits, standards, etc.)
    - iii. Acceptable personnel actions file entries (i.e. complaints, civil litigation filings, etc.)

- c. The Chief of Police will make the selection of Field Training Officers.

7. Field Training Officer Responsibilities

- a. It is a Field Training Officer's function to familiarize the Probationary Employee with agency forms, policy, procedure, orders and insure that the Probationary Employee meet all required skills in every area.
- b. Instruct Probationary Employees in department procedures and day to day operations.
- c. Complete Daily Observation Reports
- d. Monitor all paperwork completed by Probationary Employees and have corrections made as needed.
- e. Conduct counseling sessions with Probationary Employees on subjects that need improvement.
- f. Inspect Probationary Employees equipment and appearance.
- g. Complete Field Training forms during the time period the recruit is assigned to the Field Training Program.
- h. Monitor Probationary Employee to make sure any activities that require follow-up actions are completed.
- i. Continually monitor Probationary Employee attitude, behavior and acceptance of the Field Training Program and department guidelines.

V. Assignment of Probationary Officers

- A. Probationary Officers shall be placed in a Field Training Program assigned under the Field Training Supervisor and the tutelage of a Field Training Officer as defined in this policy.

- B. The field training assignments shall be predetermined and will vary only when a Probationary Officer needs retraining and/or pre-assigned FTO is unavailable.
- C. The Field Training Supervisor may continue the field training assignment of a Probationary Officer beyond the predetermined step, should the need for further training and evaluation be apparent.
- D. Before the Field Training Officer can begin to evaluate the Probationary Officer's performance, the Field Training Officer must establish their goals for the training of the Probationary Officer. Training is stressful, not only for the student, but for the teacher as well. Without a solid foundation to build upon, the transfer of experience and knowledge can become a taxing responsibility. The Field Training Officer's Goals should boil down to two basic points
  - 1. Teach the Probationary Officer how to apply the theory he has learned in the academic setting to the real world.
    - a. The Field Training Officer should realize the hardest thing for a Probationary Officer to learn might well be the ability to make a decision and then act on it. Laws, rules and policies are necessary to function in a civilized world, but they cannot account for every possible situation where people are involved. The Field Training Officer must be able to pass their experience, good judgment and decision making ability onto the Probationary Officer.
  - 2. Teach the Probationary Officer how to be a good researcher, (i.e. where or who do they go to obtain information).
    - a. Most individuals have a limited capacity to memorize and retain data. Memorization of information should be limited to areas of safety and repetitious work tasks. The agency provides all officers with copies of our policies, Texas Penal Code, etc. The Probationary Officer should have a working knowledge of all policies and procedures used by both The Bastrop ISD Police Department and their respective police component. The Probationary Officer should be taught areas of expertise each officer has within the agency. In other words, teach the Probationary Officer how to find information as well as developing memorization skills.

E. Field Evaluation Checklist.

Throughout the entire Field Training Program a Field Training Officer will complete the required Field Evaluation Checklist in the following manner.

1. Demonstrate, describe or guide a Probationary Employee on the proper steps/procedures in the handling/documenting of the items listed on the checklist. Once this is performed the Field Training Officer will document the date that the act was demonstrated on the form.
2. Have the Probationary Employee complete the act with little to no guidance or errors. Once this act has been properly completed by the Probationary Employee they are to initial and date the form stating that they responded or handled that type of call appropriately and accurately.
3. Once the form is completed it is to be turned into the Field Training Supervisor for his review.

F. The Field Training Process shall be divided into the following phases:

1. Phase I – Minimum of 7 calendar days of administrative processing and agency orientation, training.
  - a. Completion of Orientation Checklist
  - b. Review of Bastrop ISD Police Department Policy
  - c. Orientation to the Field Training Program, including review of FTO program policy as well as review of all responsibilities and requirements for completion of program
2. Phase II – 20% /80% (Field Training Officer will conduct 80% of workload and Probationary Officer will conduct 20%). Minimum of 14 calendar days for new commissioned officers and a minimum of 7 calendar days for previously employed law enforcement.

- a. In the event that the Probationary Officer's performance is not acceptable (Not Responding to Training – Deficient Performance) at the close of any step the following protocols should be affected:
  - i. The Probationary Officer's Field Training period may be extended upon the recommendation of the Field Training Supervisor to the Chief of Police.
  - ii. All extensions of training shall be administered with formal written documentation that will be provided to the Probationary Officer by Field Training Supervisor and the Chief of Police during an "extension of training meeting".
3. Phase III – 80% /20% (Field Training Officer will conduct 20% of workload and Probationary Officer will conduct 80%). Minimum of 30 calendar days for newly commissioned officers and minimum of 15 calendar days for previously employed law enforcement.
  - a. In the event that the Probationary Officer's performance is not acceptable (Not Responding to Training – Deficient Performance) at the close of any step the following protocols should be affected:
    - i. The Probationary Officer's Field Training period may be extended upon the recommendation of the Field Training Supervisor to the Chief of Police.
    - ii. All extensions of training shall be administered with formal written documentation that will be provided to the Probationary Officer by Field Training Supervisor and the Chief of Police during an "extension of training meeting."
  - b. During the first 7 calendar days, the Field Training Officer shall remain in full uniform. The Probationary Officer shall, however, assume primary contact officer responsibilities. After the 7th calendar day the Probationary Officer shall complete the balance of Step III as the sole uniformed officer. The Field Training Officer shall wear plain clothes but will be required to carry all of their standard issued duty equipment.

4. Phase IV – 100% /0%. Minimum of 30 calendar days for newly commissioned officers and minimum of 14 calendar days for previously employed law enforcement.
  - a. In the event that the Probationary Officer’s performance is not acceptable (Not Responding to Training – Deficient Performance) at the close of any step the following protocols should be affected:
    - i. The Probationary Officer’s Field Training period may be extended upon the recommendation of the Field Training Supervisor to the Chief of Police.
    - ii. All extensions of training shall be administered with formal written documentation that will be provided to the Probationary Officer by Field Training Supervisor and the Chief of Police during an “extension of training meeting”.
  - b. Probationary officers shall complete Phase IV as the primary uniformed officer. This will be an evaluation period only, unless it becomes necessary for the Field Training Officer to take a discretionary override.

VI. Evaluation Process

A. Daily Observation

1. This evaluation must be completed at the end of the shift and, except for extraordinary circumstances, not left to be done at a later time. In this way, the Probationary Officer is provided the opportunity to ask questions and seek clarification not received earlier in the workday. End of shift feedback also serves to reinforce instructions, criticism and praise given during or after each earlier incident.

2. After the completion of this form the Field Training Officer should discuss the form and any findings during that training shift with the Probationary Officer. After discussing this form both the Field Training Officer and the Probationary Employee shall sign the form.
3. After 7 calendar days of training have been completed the Field Training Officer shall provide the Daily Observation form to the Field Training Supervisor for his review and retention.

B. End of Phase

1. To be completed by the Field Training Officer at the conclusion of each phase.
2. After the completion of this form the Field Training Officer and the Field Training Supervisor should discuss the form and any findings during that phase of the Field Training Program.
3. The Field Training Officer and Field Training Supervisor shall collaboratively discuss the End of Phase form with the Probationary Employee and all parties shall sign the form.

VII. Employment Status Process

- A. The goal of the Field Training Program is to produce a fully trained, competent officer, and the program expects all officers to be successful. Unfortunately, some are not and regardless of the efforts by the personnel involved in the program, some do not reach the level of competence required. Officer sometimes realize their expectations of law enforcement were false ones. Other officers cannot perform multiple tasks. Still others are unable to deal with the stress present in the job. There are many reasons, but the fact is that some people do not make it, and therefore, must be terminated.

Termination is stressful, not only for the Probationary Officer, but for program personnel as well. Despite this, in some cases, termination is not only necessary but obligatory. If a Probationary Officer is not progressing in the program and it has been determined that progress to a satisfactory level is not possible, termination is the only logical step.

Field Training Officers often hope to “save” new employees who are failing, and this is laudable but not always fruitful. Personnel should never give up on a Probationary Officer who has the slightest chance of success, but must be realistic with those who do not. Organizationally, the retention of an employee who is not capable of performing the job would place the Department and the Probationary Officer in an untenable position. Not only would liability be ever present, but also such a decision would cost the Department economically and in terms of efficiency. By coming to grips with a Probationary Officer’s failure, the stress experienced by the Probationary Officer will be reduced and the transition to another career will be eased.

The Probationary Officer is, of course, subject to the same rules and regulations that govern all Bastrop ISD Police Department officers, and should they violate a criminal statute or Departmental policy, they will be held accountable as prescribed in the policies.

- B. A recommendation for termination may be initiated at any time during the probationary period when performance is not at an acceptable level. In all cases where possible, the Probationary Officer should be given the benefit of training through the phases before a termination recommendation is considered. However, the Probationary Officer may be terminated at any point in the program if:
  - 1. They are a threat to their safety or the safety of others
  - 2. They reportedly bring discredit or embarrassment to the Department
  - 3. They cannot perform basic tasks necessary to allow them to proceed in the program.

- C. Memorandums and recommendations for termination are forwarded to the Field Training Supervisor.
  - 1. The Field Training Supervisor shall gather all memorandums and ensure that all supporting data is attached.
  - 2. The Field Training Supervisor will prepare a detailed report of employment status recommendation for the Chief of Police.

- D. The Chief of Police will affect the administration decision regarding the request for dismissal.

Employee Discipline

I. POLICY

It is the department's policy to impose any necessary disciplinary action fairly and impartially and to offer adequate appeal procedures to ensure that the rights of employees are protected.

Discipline is a process of taking specific actions which will help train, develop or modify the inappropriate actions of an employee, preferably through positive rather than negative measures. Discipline in the department involves reward of employees for excellence, positive actions, training, counseling, and in some cases sanctions for inappropriate actions or behavior.

II. PURPOSE

The purpose of this order is to establish procedures concerning informal and formal disciplinary practices within the department.

III. DEFINITIONS

A. Days

The term "days," as used herein, means work days provided, however, that if the last day of any time period mentioned herein is a Saturday, Sunday, or holiday, the time period shall be extended to the next day.

B. Moral turpitude

An intentional act or behavior displayed in words or actions which violates public morals or the common sense of the community involving but not limited to intent to defraud, intentional dishonesty for personal gain, lying, perjury, subornation of perjury, cheating, bribery, unlawful possession of controlled substances, sexual harassment, unlawful sexual conduct or excessive use of force.

C. Relief from Duty

IV. PROCEDURES

A. Positive discipline

1. Positive discipline seeks voluntary compliance with established policies, procedures and orders. Methods of positive discipline include:
  - a. Recognition of excellent job performance through rewards or awards.
  - b. When people outside the department compliment an employee's performance the person who receives the information shall make a record of the comments and pass them to the employee's supervisor. When the Chief receives compliments about an employee, he/she should write a thank you note to the individual. Copies of the person's statement and the Chief's response shall be sent to the officer involved, the supervisor and a copy of all correspondence shall be placed in the employee's personnel file.
  - c. Truly exceptional acts shall be clearly and promptly identified to the Chief of Police. These acts may be the basis for special awards or for special recognition by community groups or media coverage.
2. Discussion and counseling
3. Training

B. Consistency in discipline

1. The department abides by the philosophy that discipline must be applied consistently and uniformly.

2. The department provides employees with descriptions of prohibited behavior in the Rules of Conduct Policy and elsewhere in these orders. No list, however, can be all-inclusive. Employees are expected to have a reasonable perception of what constitutes proper behavior, based on training and experience.

C. Relief from duty

1. An employee may be relieved from duty whenever a supervisor, whether the Chief of Police, sergeant, or senior officer, questions an employee's physical or psychological fitness for duty. An internal investigation may follow.
2. The sergeant or senior officer has authority to relieve an employee from duty, for up to 12 hours with pay, but must promptly report this action to the Chief of Police, accompanied by a written report setting forth details and circumstances.
3. If the necessity to relieve from duty is not immediate, the behavior or actions of the employee shall be deemed a matter for internal investigation. In an internal investigation, only the Chief of Police may relieve an employee from duty. Only the Chief of Police, under consultation with the Superintendent or Deputy Superintendent, may suspend an officer without pay.
4. An officer who refuses to obey a direct order in conformance with the department's orders may be relieved from duty by the sergeant or senior officer, who may recommend suspension to the Chief of Police. The Chief, in consultation with the Superintendent or Deputy Superintendent, may then suspend without pay.

D. Penalties

The following options are available:

1. Documented oral reprimand, counseling and training
2. Written reprimand.
3. Demotion or suspension without pay.

4. Dismissal from department.

E. Documented oral reprimand; counseling and/or training

1. Oral reprimands resulting from improper actions, while informal, require documentation with an employee's acknowledgment of such record. The following steps shall be observed:
  - a. At the time of an oral reprimand, the employee receiving it shall be counseled as to correct behavior, and further advised that a written record shall be maintained concerning the reprimand/counseling, and that the employee may read the record.
  - b. The employee shall be further advised that he/she has the right to file a statement in his/her personnel file setting forth his/her position, in case of disagreement.
2. The reprimanding supervisor shall record the reprimand/counseling in a memorandum to the personnel record containing the following information:

counseling by signing the record."

- h. The employee shall sign and date the form following the statement.

3. Oral reprimand/counseling may involve remedial training. This training may be deemed necessary to rectify the improper behavior. Remedial training may include attendance at academy classes, in-service or other training specially created to help the employee correct or modify his/her behavior. Remedial training is reasonably offered until the employee can demonstrate proficiency in the corrected behavior. All training shall be documented.
4. If the employee's actions did not result in a formal internal investigation and employee has not behaved improperly following counseling for two years, the record of counseling shall be expunged from the employee's personnel file. Accumulation of three oral reprimands in a twelve month period may result in a written reprimand or suspension, depending on circumstances.
5. Supervisors are expected to informally counsel employees regularly without waiting on instances of poor performance. Most counseling is informal, positive, supportive and often undocumented.
6. Supervisors are responsible for counseling employees concerning job-related matters, within their capabilities. Many things can affect the job and an employee's performance, so job-related counseling may involve family and other individual, personal subjects. Counseling may include identification of unacceptable behaviors or actions, specifically what was done wrong and the desired or acceptable performance. Counseling can attempt to determine the reason for the particular behavior, determine and recommend how to correct or improve performance or to solve the problem.

F. Written reprimand

1. A written reprimand, issued by the Chief of Police, cautions an employee about poor behavior, sets forth the corrected or modified behavior mandated by the department, and specifies the penalty in case of recurrent poor behavior. A written reprimand becomes a permanent part of the employee's personnel record.
2. An employee may appeal a written reprimand in writing within ten days of its receipt. The employee may appeal the reprimand to the Superintendent who shall be the final arbiter.

G. Demotion or suspension without pay

1. If the situation warrants, the Chief of Police, in consultation with the Superintendent or Deputy Superintendent, may demote an employee, suspend without pay, or take other measures normally considered equivalent, such as the forfeiture of vacation or compensatory time.
2. Suspensions without pay will normally apply to a period of up to 15 days, as determined by the Chief of Police and Superintendent.
3. If an employee becomes a candidate for suspension a second time within one year after the first suspension, the employee may be dismissed.
4. Suspensions resulting from the arrest or criminal investigation of an employee may be indefinite or result in termination.
  - a. Should an employee be arrested or identified as a suspect in any felony, misdemeanor involving violence or moral turpitude (family violence or DWI) they shall immediately be placed on administrative leave with pay and an internal investigation shall commence. At the conclusion of the internal investigation the Chief of Police may take appropriate disciplinary action based on the results of the internal investigation, including indefinite suspension or termination.
  - b. Terminations may result from other criminal infractions.
  - c. If an employee is acquitted of criminal charges, the employee may yet be disciplined at the discretion of the Chief of Police or reinstated with full or partial back pay.
5. Any member suspended for a period five days or longer shall return all department-owned property. On any suspension, the officer must return to department custody his/her badge, identification card and issued firearm.
6. During a suspension, the employee shall not undertake any official duties.

7. Demotion shall be to the next lowest rank. Demotion shall only apply to the sergeant or senior officer.

8. An employee may appeal a suspension within five days of notice. An employee may appeal a suspension through the Chief of Police to the Superintendent, whose decision is final.

H. Termination

1. Terminations are made in cases of extreme misfeasance, malfeasance or nonfeasance of duty. A complete record of the circumstances of the misbehavior shall be made by all persons having knowledge of the misbehavior.
2. Employees may appeal a dismissal within five days of receipt of notice, and may appeal in accordance with the procedure outlined under Policy Grievance Procedure found in Policy 5.16.

I. Reporting arrests

Any employee arrested for, charged with, or convicted of any crime, or required to appear as a defendant in any criminal or civil proceedings, must so inform the Chief of Police in writing as soon as possible. Employees do not have to report parking tickets. Employees must report summonses or arrests for reckless driving, DWI or any other hazardous or moving traffic offenses. Failure to notify the department of the foregoing shall be cause for dismissal.

V. PROGRESSIVE DISCIPLINE

- A. Except for gross breaches of discipline, moral turpitude, or serious violations of law or conduct, the department generally follows the principles of progressive discipline.
- B. Probationary employees shall be dismissed, suspended, or otherwise disciplined according to the foregoing. The only difference is that a probationary employee has no right of appeal. In the case of a dismissed probationary employee, the official record shall merely indicate that the person was dismissed during probationary employment.

VI. ADMINISTRATION OF SUSPENSIONS, DEMOTIONS, OR DISMISSALS

- A. After an appropriate investigation, should the Chief of Police sustain the allegation and determine that the discipline may be a suspension, demotion, or termination; the Chief may request review of the investigation by the officer's chain of command to obtain their recommendations for disciplinary action.

- B. Upon receipt of the recommendations, if the Chief of Police believes the discipline should be greater than a written reprimand, the Chief shall request the officer read the written investigation summary and initial each page. The review will take place in the presence of the investigating officer or other staff member. The employee will be allowed to add a written statement to the investigative package stating any arguments with the evidence or investigation process. This statement will be prepared and added before leaving the review site.
- C. The Chief of Police will meet with the employee and allow the employee to make any statement regarding the evidence or investigation, and review any written statement provided by the employee. The Chief of Police will then have the employee report back after a period determined by the Chief.
- D. The Chief of Police will again review the investigation, considering the employee's input and may then decide on the discipline or send the investigation back for further investigation.
- E. The Chief will meet with the employee to inform him/her of his/her decision. The Chief will present the employee with a letter outlining the discipline, the effective date of the discipline, the reason for the discipline and the employee's appeal rights.

Performance Evaluations

I. POLICY

The department bears an obligation to the public and its own personnel to hire and retain the best qualified officers. Further, the department's community-oriented policing philosophy demands that officers exhibit not only competent investigative skills but also succeed in communicating with many different individuals in a variety of contexts. To that end, the department regularly and formally evaluates the performance of officers and other employees. The evaluation system discussed herein serves both the interests of management and employees. The purposes of the evaluation system are to (1) allow fair and impartial personnel decisions; (2) maintain and improve performance; (3) provide a basis and a medium for personnel counseling; (4) assist decisions about the tenure of probationary employees; and (5) identify training needs.

II. PURPOSE

The purpose of this order is to outline and describe the departmental evaluation process.

III. PROCEDURES

A. General

1. All employees shall be evaluated using the departmentally approved form. Supervisors will be trained in the evaluation process prior to conducting the evaluations. (TBP: 4.08, 4.09)
2. Evaluations reflect observations and perceptions by rating personnel and personnel shall be rated as having demonstrated unacceptable, acceptable, or superior behavior.

3. After completion of probation, each officer shall be evaluated annually. To constitute a satisfactory evaluation, an officer must receive an overall 3.0 (or satisfactory). Officers who fail to receive an overall 3.0 may be placed on probation for a period determined by the Chief of Police. 2. Sirens should not be used.
3. The responding officer will request the appropriate dispatcher or communications personnel to attempt to establish telephone contact with persons at the alarm location except for BISD alarms during non-business hours.
4. If the telephone call goes unanswered, responding units shall be so advised.

B. BISD Alarms

PATROL OPERATIONS – DOMESTIC VIOLENCE

I. POLICY

The Department assigns domestic violence (domestic disturbance) calls a high priority. The nature and seriousness of crimes committed between family or household members are not mitigated because of the relationships or living arrangements of those involved. Therefore, law enforcement must exercise leadership and caution in responding to domestic violence. An immediate legal response can make a major difference in the disputants' lives. With all due consideration for their own safety, Department personnel responding to a domestic disturbance call shall (1) end the conflict; (2) arrest persons when probable cause exists that a crime has occurred; (3) provide safety and security for the crime victim(s) and (4) refer participants to appropriate agencies to help prevent future occurrences.

II. PURPOSE

To specify Department guidelines for action during incidents that involves family violence, protective orders, or both.

III. DEFINITIONS

- A. Family - Texas Family Code Section 71.01 (b) (3) §17.003. Individuals related by consanguinity or affinity as determined under Sections 573.022 and 573.024, Government Code, individuals who are former spouses of each other, individual who are the parents of the same child, without regard to marriage, and a foster child and foster parent, without regard to whether those individuals reside together.
- B. Family Violence - Texas Family Code Section 71.01 (b) (2) §71.004. An act by a member of a family or household against another member of the family or household that is intended to result in physical harm, bodily injury, assault, or sexual assault or that is a threat that reasonably places the member in fear of imminent physical harm, bodily injury, assault, or sexual assault, but does not include defensive measures to protect oneself.
- C. Household - Texas Family Code Section 71.01 (b) (4) §71.005. A unit composed of persons living together in the same dwelling, without regard to whether they are related to each other.
- D. Member of a Household - Texas Family Code 71.01 (b) (5) §71.006. A person who previously lived in a household.

IV. FAMILY VIOLENCE

A. General Responsibilities

1. Department personnel shall refer victims of domestic violence to appropriate community resources (mental health agencies, medical doctors, legal assistance agencies, victim/witness assistance programs and domestic violence shelters/programs.) Referrals may help prevent future disturbances.
2. Department personnel shall be trained about domestic violence and its impact. Personnel must be prepared to confront unexpected violence. Disturbance calls can be dangerous to responding officers. Officers are encouraged to consult community resources such as the local domestic violence shelter and the local victim/witness advocacy program.

B. Patrol Responsibilities

1. Upon arrival at scene obtain all available information from the dispatcher prior to and upon arrival.
2. Approaching the scene –
  - a. When possible, officers should arrive in pairs;
  - b. Avoid the use of sirens and other alarms in the vicinity of the scene. The assailant might be dangerous and could turn a weapon upon arriving officers;
  - c. Observe the location of the dispute before contacting the complainant. Consider surroundings. Park the marked car a short distance away.
  - d. Before knocking on the door, listen and look in any nearby window to obtain additional information about the situation (e.g., layout of the house, number of people and weapons).
  - e. Officers must be concerned for their own safety as well as the disputants'. To minimize the possibility of injury, stand to the side of the door when knocking. The unexpected may occur when the door opens.
3. Initial contact with occupant(s) –
  - a. Officers must identify themselves as police officers, give an explanation of the police presence, and request entry into the home (when conditions permit). Officers must ascertain identity of and ask to see the complainant.

- b. If entry is refused, officers must explain that they must make sure there are no injured persons inside.
- c. Refusal of entry or no response to knock at the door may require a forced entrance only if a lawful basis for entry exists. In making the decision to make a forced warrantless entry, officers shall evaluate the following elements:
  - (1) The degree of urgency involved and the time required obtaining a warrant;
  - (2) The possibility of danger to others including officers left to guard the site;
  - (3) Whether the suspected offense involved violence and
  - (4) Whether officers reasonably believe that persons may be armed.
- d. Officers may conduct a search of the premises if consent has been given to do so. Although a consent search eliminates the need for a warrant and for probable cause, such consent must be freely and voluntarily given. If two people have joint ownership or possession of a place or thing, either one may give a valid consent.
  - (1) A spouse can consent to the search of premises used jointly by both husband and wife. This also applies if the man and woman are unmarried co-habitants. If one of them exercises sole control over part of the premises, the other cannot give valid consent to search that part.
- e. Officers may also make a warrantless entry to conduct a limited search if an emergency exists. Officers must have a reasonable belief that such an emergency does exist. (Example: The police believe that someone is in danger and in need of assistance.)
  - (1) Officers shall evaluate the following elements when considering a warrantless entry:
    - (a) The degree of urgency involved and the time required obtaining a warrant;
    - (b) The possibility of danger to others, including police officers left to guard the site;
    - (c) Whether the suspected offense is serious or involves violence and

- (d) Whether officers reasonably believe that persons may be armed.
    - (2) Officers are reminded that they have a lawful right to investigate any situation that they might reasonably believe to be an emergency.
  - f. Once inside, officers establish control by:
    - (1) Inquiring about the nature of the dispute;
    - (2) Identifying disputants;
    - (3) Being aware of potential weapons in surroundings;
    - (4) Determining if persons are in other rooms, whether children or adult and the extent of their injuries. These persons should be separated from the parties involved and kept out of hearing range (so their status as possible witnesses won't be compromised).
    - (5) Protecting the victim from further abuse. Separate from the assailant and arrange for medical attention if victim is hurt. If the victim appears injured and yet refuses medical assistance, carefully document any observed injuries, as well as the refusal of medical treatment.
    - (6) Ascertain whether a protective order has been violated.
- 4. Interviewing the parties (disputants) –
  - a. Ensure safety and privacy by interviewing the victim in a place separate from the actor, if identifiable.
  - b. Critical to the success of the interview is the police officer's manner. Officers must listen, show interest in the disputants and their problem, and remain aware of nonverbal communications signals.
  - c. Officers shall attempt a low-key approach in domestic violence cases. Maintain good eye contact through natural, spontaneous glances (fixed gazes or staring increase fear and hostility). A relaxed stance along with appropriate facial and head movements demonstrates interest and encourages the victim to continue speaking.
  - d. If possible, separate the parties so that they can individually describe the incident without interruption (this may help the parties relieve emotional tension).
  - e. After the parties have given their statements, the officers should ask about details for clarification and summarize the stated account (which allows the parties to point out anything that might be misrepresented).

5. Interviewing witnesses –
  - a. Interview any witnesses to the incident (children, other family members or neighbors) as soon as possible.
  - b. Remember that witnesses may be experiencing significant emotional crisis that might influence the accuracy of their accounts.
  - c. If witnesses provide information about prior assaults, document them to help establish a pattern.
  - d. Children of disputants should be interviewed with care and kindness. Sit, kneel or otherwise be at their level when speaking to them. Signs of trauma or abuse should be noted.

C. Requirements of Officers

1. Texas Code of Criminal Procedure, Article 5.03. Family or household relationship does not create an exception to official duties. If an officer is presented a certified copy of an order that has not yet been interpreted by the Chief of Police or the Chief's designee, the officer shall examine the order with the assistance of a supervisor to determine exactly what provisions are criminally enforceable. The officer/supervisor shall consider the following guidelines in making that determination:
- (a) If the order is a "temporary ex parte" order generally no arrest can be made for violation of its provisions.
  - (b). The spelling of the names of the applicant and respondent should be checked against the identities of the parties alleged to have been involved.
  - (c). The order may prohibit the respondent from engaging in numerous activities, however, the only actions which are criminally enforceable are those described in Texas Penal Code, Section 25.07 (a), "Violation of a Protective Order." The order must state that one or all of these acts is prohibited.

- (d). If the order prohibits the respondent from going to or near the residence, place of employment, business, child care facility or school of a person protected by the order, the officer/supervisor should check to make sure that the order does not contain a provision allowing such approach for child visitation reasons.
  - (e). To be criminally enforceable, the order must contain the three warnings described in the Texas Family Code. Section 85.026(b), “Warning on Protective Order,” which reads: A VIOLATION OF THIS ORDER BY COMMISSION OF AN ACT PROHIBITED BY THE ORDER MAY BE PUNISHABLE BY A FINE OF AS MUCH AS $4,000.00 OR BY CONFINEMENT IN JAIL FOR AS LONG AS ONE YEAR, OR BOTH. AN ACT THAT RESULTS IN FAMILY VIOLENCE MAY BE PROSECUTED AS A SEPARATE MISDEMEANOR OR FELONY OFFENSE. IF THE ACT IS PROSECUTED AS A SEPARATE FELONY OFFENSE, IT IS PUNISHABLE BY CONFINEMENT IN PRISON FOR AT LEAST 2 YEARS.
  - (f). If there is no expiration date, the officer/supervisor shall check to see that the order’s date of issue is not more than two years old. Texas Family Code §85.025 If the order was issued more than two years prior to the officer’s review, the order is not enforceable.
- C. If a person has violated one of the criminal provisions in a protective order [Texas Penal Code § 25.07(a)], a criminal offense has been committed and action shall be taken by the responding officer.
- 1. Offense in the officer’s presence - An arrest shall be made and a complete report shall be written including the taking of field statements when appropriate.
  - 2. Offense not in officer’s presence - Texas Code of Criminal Procedure, Article 14.03 (a) (3) - Authority of Peace Officers (To make arrest without warrant when probable cause exists to believe that a protective order has been violated).     - (a). A complete report shall be written including the taking of field statements when appropriate.
    - (b). An attempt to locate shall be broadcast and enforcement action can be taken if the respondent is located within a reasonable amount of time. A “reasonable amount of time” will vary according to the circumstances and will rely on normal standards of probable cause and the ability to procure a warrant.

- D. An officer shall consult with the officer's supervisor or the appropriate prosecuting authority in any case in which there is some doubt as to whether an arrest is appropriate and shall as soon as practical inform a supervisor that an arrest has been made for Violation of a Protective Order.

PATROL OPERATIONS – MOTOR VEHICLE TOWING AND INVENTORY

I. POLICY

It shall be the policy of the Bastrop ISD Police Department that motor vehicles which are lawfully towed, removed, impounded or stored at the direction of the police officers or placed in the custody of the police department shall be inspected and inventoried according to the procedures in this policy.

A motor vehicle inventory is an administrative measure designed to:

- Protect the motor vehicle as well as any personal property contained in such vehicle
- Protect the police and tow contractor against claims arising from property allegedly lost or stolen while in police custody and
- Protect department personnel and the public from injury or property damage due to dangerous items or substances that may be contained in the vehicle

This Policy and procedure does not apply to searches conducted for the purpose of discovering evidence. Consult this departments' policy regarding searches and seizures where the examination of a motor vehicle or its contents is to be conducted with an investigatory motive.

II. PURPOSE

The purpose of this policy is to establish a uniform procedure for the inventory and impound of vehicles. This policy is also intended to protect the property of the vehicle's owner, protecting police against claims of disputes over lost or stolen property and protecting the police from danger.

III. DEFINITIONS

- A. Impound - To take into custody of the law.
- B. Inspection - An examination of the exterior and interior of the vehicle for damaged or missing parts.
- C. Inventory - An examination and listing of all areas of the vehicle in which personal property may reasonably be found including but not limited to the passenger compartment, trunk, glove box etc. This term does not include any item (briefcase, purse, box or similar container) found inside of the passenger compartment that is locked by any additional means i.e.: padlock or combination lock.

    - b. If impoundment is not necessary for evidentiary purposes, contact the owner and request owner to come to the recovery scene to claim the vehicle. If the owner is unable to respond immediately the car will be removed, towed and impounded at the tow company's storage facility.
  - 2. The vehicle is abandoned, unattended, inoperable and on the roadway and obstructing the flow of traffic.
  - 3. The operator of the vehicle is physically arrested and the vehicle would be left unattended in a public access area or public roadway.
    - a. Officers shall not remove an arrested subject's vehicle if properly parked in a private owned parking area unless posted as no trespassing or absent a request from the owner/representative to remove said vehicle.

- b. A lawful inventory is contingent on the propriety of the impoundment of the vehicle. The impoundment for non-investigatory reasons is generally justified if supported by public safety concerns, danger, theft or potential harm or vandalism if left unattended.
    - c. If the arrestee is accompanied by a licensed driver and the arrestee wishes to release the vehicle to this person the officer shall comply unless presented with a reason for continuing the impoundment.
  4. The vehicles operator is not properly licensed and there are no properly licensed occupants.
  5. The vehicle is not properly registered or is uninsured.
  6. The vehicle, in its current condition, is too unsafe or dangerous to operate.

  8. The operator is unable to remove the vehicle from a public location without continuing its illegal operation.
- B. Responsibility
  1. It is the responsibility of the officer directing that a vehicle be towed, removed, impounded, stored or the officer acting on behalf of the department in accepting custody of a vehicle shall inspect and inventory the vehicle and its contents unless the responsibility for the same has been properly transferred to another officer.

  - d. Provide traffic direction and control as needed
2. Any officer who removes, tows, impounds or stores an abandoned or unattended vehicle will check to see if the vehicle is stolen and will take reasonable steps to determine and notify the registered owner regarding the impoundment.
3. If the vehicle is not a traffic hazard and the owner or operator cannot be contacted the officer shall refer the vehicle to code enforcement, who will handle the vehicle in accordance to the state law for abandoned vehicles.
4. If the vehicle is determined by the officer that the vehicle is a traffic hazard the officer may immediately tow / impound the vehicle.
5. At the time of the tow/impound of an abandoned or unattended vehicle the officer will conduct a visual inspection of any and all damage to the exterior of the vehicle and document any findings on the vehicle inventory form.
6. If the vehicle is unsecured the officer may enter the vehicle to complete the required inventory of the vehicle as per this departments' policy.
7. If the vehicle is secured, a visual inventory of the interior compartments will be conducted and all visible items will be listed on the inventory. The fact that the vehicle was secured will be notated on the inventory form stating that the vehicle was secured at the time of the tow/impound.

8. The inventory shall be documented on an approved vehicle inventory form.
- D. An inventory shall not be conducted in the following situations:
1. The vehicle is disabled, either by mechanical failure or as a result of damage resulting from a motor accident, where the owner/operator is present and makes satisfactory arrangements to have the vehicle removed by someone other than the department's on-call tow company.
  2. The vehicle is towed by the next rotation tow company and the owner/operator accompanies the tow.
  3. The vehicle is released to a licensed driver at the scene and the operator that was initially stopped at the scene is accompanying the vehicle when released.
- E. Inspection and Inventory
1. The standard inventory process will consist of an inspection and inventory of the following areas to include any and all containers. All damaged or missing parts shall be documented on the inventory form.
    - a. Exterior – The exterior of the vehicle shall be inspected for missing or damaged parts to include:
      - i. Front of the vehicle
      - ii. Passenger side
      - iii. Rear of vehicle

  - iii. In many vehicles, a locked trunk may be opened from within the vehicle. In this case the trunk shall be opened and inventoried.
  - iv. For vehicles where the trunk is locked and no key is available, but the trunk may be accessed by folding down the rear seat, this shall be done and the contents inventoried.
  - v. Any unlocked container found inside or on a vehicle subject to an inventory shall be opened and the contents listed.
  - vi. When there is a live animal in the vehicle, animal control shall be notified to take charge of the animal, unless the owner/operator of the vehicle makes other arrangements.
  - vii. If a locked container is located inside of the vehicle and a key or lock combination is available, the container shall be opened and its contents inventoried and documented. All locked containers which cannot be opened shall be noted on the inventory form and shall not be forced open.

F. Warrant required

1. In the event that a vehicle is evidence of a crime guidelines for securing a warrant will be followed.
2. If there is probable cause that any locked container inside of the vehicle contains explosives, weapons, fruits of a crime or any other illegal substance a search warrant shall be obtained unless exigent circumstances make the delay impractical.

G. Discovery of Evidence of a Crime

1. While the purpose for an inspection and inventory of a motor vehicle is not to discover evidence of a crime, such evidence may be found inadvertently and is admissible so long as the inventory is conducted in accordance with this policy, state and federal law.
2. Any article discovered as a result of a motor vehicle inventory may be seized if it is deemed to be:
  - a. Contraband department's pre-approved tow company shall be utilized in order to expedite removal. Requests will not be honored if there is urgency in removing the vehicle.

3. The vehicle will be stored at the towing company's facility unless the vehicle in question is going to be attempted to be seized. In that event the vehicle in question will be towed to an authorized district or law enforcement location and stored until a disposition is provided by the courts.
4. Communications shall record all vehicles removed, stored, or towed at the direction of an officer.

Bias-Based Policing

I. POLICY

The Bastrop ISD Police Department is committed to a respect for constitutional rights in the performance of our duties. Our success is based on the respect we give to our community and the respect members of the community observe toward law enforcement. To this end, we shall exercise our sworn duties, responsibilities and obligations in a manner that does not discriminate on the basis of race, sex, gender, national origin, ethnicity, age or religion. All people carry biases: in law enforcement, however, the failure to control our biases can lead to illegal arrests, searches and detentions, thus thwarting the mission of our department. Most importantly, actions guided by bias destroy the trust and respect essential for our mission to succeed. We live and work in a community that is very diverse in population: respect for diversity and equitable enforcement of the law are essential to our mission.

All enforcement actions, particularly stops of individuals (for traffic and other purposes), investigative detentions, arrests, searches and seizures of persons or property shall be based on the standards of reasonable suspicion or probable cause as required by the Fourth Amendment to the U. S. Constitution and statutory authority. In all enforcement decisions officers shall be able to articulate specific facts, circumstances and conclusions which support probable cause or reasonable suspicion for arrests, searches, seizures and stops of individuals. Officers shall not stop, detain, arrest, search or attempt to search anyone based solely upon the person's race, ethnic background, gender, sexual orientation, religion, economic status, age, cultural group or any other identifiable group. Officers shall base all such actions on a reasonable suspicion that the person or an occupant of a vehicle committed an offense.

All departmental orders are informed and guided by this directive. Nothing in this order limits non-enforcement contacts between officers and the public.

II. PURPOSE

The purpose of this order is to provide general guidance on reducing the presence of bias in law enforcement actions, to identify key contexts in which bias may influence these actions, and emphasize the importance of the constitutional guidelines within which we operate. This policy meets state mandate requirements in the Texas Code of Criminal Procedures, Article 2.132(b), requiring each law enforcement agency in this state to adopt a policy on Racial Profiling.

III. DEFINITIONS

Most of the following terms appear in this order. In any case, these terms appear in the larger public discourse about alleged biased enforcement behavior and in other orders. These definitions are intended to facilitate on-going discussion and analysis of our enforcement practices.

- A. Bias: Prejudice or partiality which may be based on preconceived ideas, a person's upbringing, culture, experience or education.
- B. Biased-Policing: Stopping, detaining, searching, attempting to search, or using force against a person based upon the person's race, ethnic background, gender, sexual orientation, religion, economic status, age, cultural group, or any other identifiable group.
- C. Ethnicity: A cluster of characteristics which may include race but also cultural characteristics or traits which are shared by a group with a common experience or history.
- D. Gender: Unlike sex, a psychological classification based on cultural characteristics or traits.
- E. Probable cause: Facts or apparent facts and circumstances within an officer's knowledge and of which the officer had reasonable, trustworthy information to lead a reasonable person to believe that an offense has been or is being committed and that the suspect has committed it.

- F. Race: A category of people of a particular decent, including Caucasian, African, Hispanic, Asian or Native American descent. As distinct from ethnicity, race only refers to physical characteristics sufficiently distinctive to group people under a classification.
- G. Racial profiling: A law-enforcement initiated action based on an individual's race, ethnicity or national origin rather than on the individual's behavior or on information identifying the individual as having engaged in criminal activity.
- H. Reasonable suspicion: Articulable, objective facts which lead an experienced officer to suspect that a person has committed, is committing or may be about to commit a crime. A well-founded suspicion is based on the totality of the circumstances and does not exist unless it can be articulated. Reasonable suspicion supports a stop of a person. Courts require that stops based on reasonable suspicion be "objectively reasonable".
- I. Sex: A biological classification, male or female, based on physical and genetic characteristics.
- J. Stop: The detention of a subject for a brief period of time based on reasonable suspicion. A stop is an investigative detention.

IV. PROCEDURES

A. General responsibilities

1. Officers are prohibited from engaging in bias-based profiling or stopping, detaining, searching, arresting or taking any enforcement action including seizure or forfeiture activities against any person based solely on the person's race, ethnic background, gender, sexual orientation, religion, economic status, age, cultural group or any other identifiable group. These characteristics, however, may form part of reasonable suspicion or probable cause when officers are seeking a suspect with one or more of these attributes. (TBP: 2.01)
2. Reasonable suspicion or probable cause shall form the basis for any enforcement actions or decisions. Individuals shall only be subjected to stops, seizures, or detention upon reasonable suspicion that they have committed, are committing, or are about to commit an offense. Officers shall document the elements of reasonable suspicion and probable cause in appropriate reports.

3. Officers shall observe all constitutional safeguards and shall respect the constitutional rights of all persons.
  - a. As traffic stops furnish a primary source of bias-related complaints officers shall have a firm understanding of the warrantless searches allowed by law, particularly the use of consent. How the officer disengages from a traffic stop may be crucial to a person's perception of fairness or discrimination.
  - b. Officers shall not use the refusal or lack of cooperation to justify a search of the person or vehicle or a prolonged detention once reasonable suspicion has been dispelled.
4. All personnel shall treat everyone with the same courtesy and respect that they would have others observe to department personnel. To this end, personnel are reminded that the exercise of courtesy and respect engenders a future willingness to cooperate with law enforcement.
  - a. Personnel shall facilitate an individual's access to other governmental services whenever possible and shall actively provide referrals to other appropriate agencies.
  - b. All personnel shall courteously accept, document and forward to the Chief of Police any complaints made by an individual against the department. Further, officers shall provide information on the complaints process and shall give copies of "How to Make a Complaint" when appropriate.
5. When feasible, personnel shall offer explanations of the reasons for enforcement actions or other decisions that bear on an individual's well-being unless the explanation would undermine an investigation or jeopardize an officer's safety. When concluding an encounter, personnel shall thank the individual for cooperating.

6. When feasible, all personnel shall identify themselves by name. When a person requests the information, all personnel shall give their departmental identification number, name of the immediate supervisor, or any other reasonable information.
7. All personnel are accountable for their actions. Personnel shall justify their actions when required.

B. Supervisory responsibilities

1. Supervisors shall be held accountable for the observance of constitutional safeguards during the performance of their duties. Supervisors shall identify and correct instances of bias in the work of their subordinates.
2. Supervisors shall use the disciplinary mechanisms of the department to ensure compliance with this order and the constitutional requirements of law enforcement.
3. Supervisors shall be mindful that in accounting for the actions and performance of subordinates, supervisors are the key to maintaining community trust in law enforcement. Supervisors shall continually reinforce the ethic of impartial enforcement of the laws and shall ensure that personnel, by their actions, maintain the community's trust in law enforcement.
4. Supervisors are reminded that biased enforcement of the laws engenders not only mistrust of law enforcement, but increases safety risks to personnel. Lack of control over bias also exposes the department to liability consequences.
5. Supervisors shall be held accountable for repeated instances of biased enforcement of their subordinates.
6. Supervisors shall ensure that all enforcement actions are duly documented per departmental policy. Supervisors shall ensure that all reports show adequate documentation of reasonable suspicion and probable cause if applicable.
7. Supervisors shall facilitate the filing of any complaints about law enforcement service.

C. Disciplinary consequences

Actions prohibited by this order shall be cause for disciplinary action up to and including dismissal.

D. Training (TBP: 2.01)

1. Officers shall complete all training required by state law regarding bias-based profiling.

V. COMPLAINTS

- A. The department shall publish “How to Make a Complaint” folders and make them available at all district facilities and other public locations throughout the district. The department’s complaint process and its bias-based profiling policy will be posted on the department’s website. Whenever possible, the media will be used to inform the public of the department’s policy and complaint process.
- B. Complaints alleging incidents of bias-based profiling will be fully investigated as described under Policy 4.7.
- C. Complainants will be notified of the results of the investigations when such investigation is completed.

VI. RECORD KEEPING

- A. The department will maintain all required records on traffic stops whether a citation/warning is issued or where an arrest is made subsequent to a traffic stop pursuant to state law.
- B. The information collected above will be reported to the school board annually as per State Statute.
- C. The information will also be reported to TCOLE in the required format, pursuant to Texas Code of Criminal Procedure, Article 2.132, Article 2.132, and Article 2.134 Law Enforcement Policy on Racial Profiling.

1. Evidence produced by the Safety-Vision In-Car and Body camera system will be handled according to the Departmental policies and State law. The custodian of evidence will maintain custody and control of any and all copies of Safety-Vision In-car and Body Camera audio/video footage. No additional copies of any Safety-Vision In-car and Body Camera recordings for the purposes other than evidence will be made without proper authorization or unless otherwise directed by the Chief or the Chief's designee.
2. Recorded media that is considered evidence shall not be destroyed, altered or erased by officers in any manner. Tampering with any recorded media shall be cause of disciplinary action.
3. Once the recorded media is no longer of any evidentiary value, it may be properly erased from the Bastrop ISD Police Department's Audio and Visual Police Server.
  - a. The recorded media shall be retained for twenty-five (25) months from the date of the recording. After the time has lapsed the department's authorized agent(s) will erase the media.

E. Duplication of media data

1. Except for evidentiary purposes, reproduction of media data by agency personnel is prohibited unless authorized by the Chief or the Chief's designee
2. Only the recorded video of the requested incident will be copied. The original media data will be retained by the agency and handled in accordance with all applicable departmental evidence policy, court orders, State retention schedule and State statute of limitations.
3. Unusual or exceptional incidents related to law enforcement activities generate the interest of many. However, officers shall not afford individuals the opportunity to review a segment of any recorded media without prior authorization of the Chief or the Chief's designee.

Vehicle Operations and Pursuits

I. POLICY

All personnel operating Department vehicles shall exercise due regard for the safety of all persons. No task, call, or incident justifies disregard of public safety. Further, the public expects its police officers to demonstrate exemplary driving behavior. All Department personnel who operate police vehicles will comply with safe driving procedures outlined herein with particular attention to responding to calls for service or engaging in pursuits. Emergency warning devices shall be minimally used consistent with both legal requirements and the safety of the public and police personnel.

II. PURPOSE

To establish procedures governing the operation of police vehicles with special attention to emergencies and pursuits.

III. DEFINITIONS

- A. Normal or Routine Driving: That driving which dictates vehicle speed consistent with the normal flow of traffic, obedience to vehicle laws and posted signs, adherence to commonly-understood "rules of the road," and courtesy.
- B. Pursuit Driving: That driving concerned with the pursuit and apprehension of a violator or violators in a motor vehicle. Pursuits are conducted using emergency equipment—both warning lights and siren.

- C. Emergency Driving: That driving in response to a life-threatening or other serious incident (based on available information) which requires emergency equipment in operation. Sections 546.001; 546.002 and 546.005 of the Texas Transportation Code
- D. Emergency Equipment: Flickering, blinking, or alternating emergency lights and a siren, whistle or air horn designed to give intermittent signals automatically.

IV. PROCEDURES FOR ALL RESPONSES (TBP: 7.15)

A. General

1. All Departmental vehicles shall be driven safely and properly in full compliance with all traffic laws and regulations. Police vehicles are conspicuous symbols of authority on the streets and the actions of police drivers are observed by many. Each police driver must set an example of good driving behavior and habits.
2. Under certain emergencies as defined below, the Texas Transportation Code; Sections 546.001, .002 and .005 authorizes disregard of traffic regulations; however, both the operator and the Department are not released from civil liability for failure to use reasonable care in such operation. Improper driving can cost each police driver, personally, civil damages while inflicting harm or injury to the driver, other law enforcement personnel, other citizens or causing property damage, and damaging the image of the Department and law enforcement generally.

B. Routine Operation

In case of accident or damage to any police vehicle, the driver shall immediately request either the driver's supervisor or a Texas State Trooper to conduct an investigation which shall be reported immediately on a state accident investigation form if appropriate under the circumstances of the accident. The Chief of Police shall review all such reports and take appropriate action, to include coordination with the BISD Superintendent.

1. Vehicles used in routine or general patrol service shall be conspicuously marked. Conspicuous marking increases safety, serves as a warning to potential violators, and provides citizens with a feeling of security.

2. Unmarked cars shall not be used for pursuit, unless exceptional circumstances (such as a fleeing felon) exist and no marked unit is available to take over the pursuit; but may be used for patrol. They may be used to stop vehicles provided they are equipped with appropriate emergency lighting.
3. Standard lighting equipment on most marked vehicles includes hazardous warning lights, spotlights and alley (side) lights on the rooftop light bar. Hazardous warning lights shall be used at any time the police vehicle is parked where other moving vehicles may be endangered. If equipped, alley lights and spotlights may be used when the vehicle is stationary or moving at low speeds and shall not be used in a manner which will blind or interfere with the vision of operators of other approaching vehicles.
4. Seat belts and shoulder straps shall be worn by all police personnel and passengers during vehicle operation. Prisoners shall be strapped in with seat belts whenever possible. The only exception is at approach to any scene of an incident or service call where the police officer believes a rapid departure from the vehicle may be required; the officer may release the seat belt. Seat belts shall, however, be worn any time the vehicle is being operated under emergency conditions. (TBP: 7.20)

C. Inspection (TBP: 7.24)

1. Officers are daily responsible to check the cleanliness, fluid levels (oil, brake fluid, gas), and general operability of equipment of their assigned vehicles.
2. Officers shall examine their vehicles at the beginning and end of their shifts for damage, overall condition and maintenance needs. Officers shall report any damage immediately to the Chief of Police or to their immediate supervisor. Checklists for these examinations will be provided by administration and must be completed and turned in daily.
3. Officers shall examine their vehicles at the beginning and end of their shifts to search for evidence, contraband, or property discarded by prisoners or others.

4. Officers who discover a police vehicle in need of extensive repairs shall immediately inform their immediate supervisor.
5. Vehicle damage resulting from abuse or neglect caused by an officer may result in disciplinary action.

D. Driving Rules

1. Circumstances permitting, the driver must check the safety features of the vehicle before commencing operation. The check shall include (but not be limited to) all lights, brakes, siren, horn, and steering.
2. No driver shall modify, remove, de-activate, or otherwise tamper with the vehicle safety belts, emission control device, or any other part of the vehicle which affects its operation.
3. During periods of inclement weather when police vehicles cannot be washed regularly, the driver must assure that headlight and tail-light lenses are kept clean, insofar as circumstances permit.
4. No officer or employee shall operate any police vehicle that the officer or employee reasonably believes to be unsafe.
5. The driver shall carefully observe the surrounding conditions before turning or backing any vehicle.
6. A police vehicle shall not be left unattended either unlocked or with its engine in operation.
7. The driver must recognize the variable factors of weather, road surface conditions, road contour, and traffic congestion, all of which directly affect the safe operation of any motor vehicle, and shall govern the operation of the vehicle accordingly in both emergency and normal driving conditions.
8. The nature of certain crimes-in-progress may call for the use of the siren to be discontinued upon close approach to the location of the occurrence, and although such action is permitted by authority of this order, police vehicle operations under these conditions require extreme caution.

9. Emergency driving to the scene of a motor vehicle accident is permissible only when an emergency exists, or when specific information indicates that conditions at the scene require the immediate presence of an officer.
10. Upon approaching a controlled intersection or other location where there is an increased risk of collision, the driver who is responding under emergency conditions shall reduce the speed of the vehicle and control it to avoid collision with another vehicle or pedestrian, stopping completely, if necessary, before entering and traversing the intersection. When faced with a red traffic signal, the officer shall stop the vehicle and assure by careful observation that the way is clear before proceeding through the intersection.
11. Regardless of the seriousness of the situation to which the driver is responding, and exigent circumstances that are clearly beyond the driver's control, the operator of a police vehicle shall be held accountable for the manner in which the vehicle is operated.
12. At the scene of a crime, a motor vehicle crash, or other police incident, a police vehicle shall be parked in such a manner so as not to create an obstacle or hazard to other traffic. The emergency lights and four-way flashing lights shall always be used to warn other drivers approaching the location.
13. If necessary and if circumstances safely allow, the driver shall lower one front door window far enough to hear other sirens and traffic warning signals.
14. Operators of police vehicles must bear in mind that traffic regulations requiring other vehicles to yield the right of way to any emergency vehicle do not relieve the emergency vehicle operator from the duty to drive with due regard for the safety of all persons using the highways, nor shall they protect the driver from the consequences of an arbitrary exercise of such right of way. Texas Transportation Code Section 546.005.

V. PROCEDURES FOR EMERGENCY DRIVING

A. General

1. No fixed rule can apply to every circumstance that may arise governing emergency driving. Although an officer may receive information that leads to responding to a call with emergency lights and siren activated, in the majority of such cases an officer discovers, upon arrival, that an emergency response was not justified.
2. Recognizing that protection of human life is paramount, the responding officer must remember that the officer's objective is to get to the location of the occurrence as soon as possible--safely--without danger to the officer or to others. The Texas Transportation Code imposes a duty upon all drivers of emergency vehicles to operate the vehicle with appropriate regard for the safety of others – regardless of conditions. Transportation Code Section 546.005

B. Call response

1. Calls for service are classified as Code 1 or 3 depending on circumstances. The codes are as follows:
  - a. Code 1: Units responding to Code 1 calls shall respond to the location without delay by the most direct route, complying with all traffic regulations and shall not use emergency warning devices.
  - b. Code 3: Units responding to Code 3 calls as the primary and back-up units shall respond rapidly to the location of the emergency by most direct means, using all emergency warning devices with a paramount consideration for the safety of the public and the assigned officers.
2. Dispatcher assignments - Code 3 classification applies to those calls for police service which indicate a felony in progress or where the violator is armed, and all other requests alleging an implied or immediate threat to the safety of a person. Examples of Code 3 calls (not all inclusive) are:
  - a. police officer (or station) needs urgent help;
  - b. burglary in progress;
  - c. robbery in progress;

- d. person with deadly weapon;
  - e. serious injury accident;
  - f. riot or large disturbance with fighting or injuries or damages occurring; or
  - g. other circumstances presenting an immediate threat to public safety.
3. All units responding to robbery- and burglary-in-progress calls, before coming within hearing distance, may discontinue the use of the siren and at that time fully comply with all traffic laws. Before coming within sight of the location, officers shall discontinue the use of the emergency warning lights.
- a. In situations requiring silent response, e.g., alarm response and prowler calls, officers shall respond as rapidly as possible, obeying all traffic laws and signs.

4. Officer-initiated response:

When, in the reasonable discretion of the officer, an emergency is imminent or exists, or that activation of emergency warning devices is necessary to protect life or render the necessary police service, the Department authorizes an emergency response. Examples include:

- a. At the scene of any incident where the use of emergency lights constitutes a necessary warning for the safety of life (such as scenes of fires, accidents or disasters).
- b. As a visual signal to attract the attention of motorists stopped for traffic violations, or to warn motorists of imminent dangers.
- c. Responding to a non-Code 3, where the officer has previous or additional information which would have resulted in the call being dispatched as Code 3.

- d. Where because of location, distance to be traveled, or traffic conditions, the officer determines that emergency operating conditions are essential in order to provide an appropriate police response.
- e. In response to an officer's emergency request for assistance.

VI. PROCEDURES FOR PURSUITS (TBP: 7.13)

- A. Officer Responsibilities - The officer who undertakes a pursuit does so using discretion taking into consideration the factors listed below. The officer's primary responsibility in a pursuit is the safe operation of the vehicle. The officer shall notify the appropriate dispatcher of the pursuit, direction of travel, description of the pursued vehicle, and location.
- B. Supervisor's Responsibilities - The patrol supervisor shall monitor the pursuit and respond. The supervisor may end the pursuit at any time that the supervisor believes circumstances warrant.
- C. Back-up Responsibilities - The first back-up unit to respond shall assist the primary officer in making the arrest. The back-up unit shall also assume the responsibility of updating the dispatcher with the location and direction of travel of all vehicles involved, thereby allowing the primary officer to focus attention on the pursuit driving.
- D. Justification for Pursuit - Any law enforcement officer in an authorized emergency vehicle may initiate a vehicular pursuit when the suspect exhibits the intentions to avoid apprehension for a felony or misdemeanor which would result in jail, by refusing to stop when properly directed to do so. Pursuit may also be justified if the officer reasonably believes that the suspect, if allowed to flee, would present a danger to human life or cause serious injury. In all pursuits, the officer will consider the need to apprehend against the risk of injury to the officer or others from the pursuit. This consideration will apply both to the decision to initiate the pursuit and to the continuous decision to maintain the pursuit throughout until the conclusion or abandonment of the pursuit. If it appears at any time during the pursuit that the risk of injury outweighs the need to apprehend, the pursuit will be abandoned immediately by the pursuing officer or on order of the officer's supervisor.

- 1. Pursuits will not be initiated for Class C traffic offenses alone.

2. The decision to initiate pursuit must be based on the pursuing officer's conclusion that the immediate danger to the officer and the public created by the pursuit is less than the immediate or potential danger to the public should the suspect remain at large.

E. Considerations in deciding to engage or continue pursuit:

1. Officers shall not operate a vehicle at a rate of speed that may cause loss of control. The Department expects an officer to end the pursuit whenever the risks to the officer's own safety, or the safety of others, outweighs the need to apprehend.
2. The decision to begin, responsibility for continuing, and the choice of method of pursuit rests primarily, if not solely, with the individual officer(s) involved. In deciding, the officer is faced with a dilemma because, although the law does not prevent the officer from using emergency speeds while engaged in pursuit, it may hold the officer criminally and civilly responsible. Therefore, officers must exercise sound judgment and carefully consider the seriousness of the offense, the possible consequences, and the safety of citizens. Such considerations include the following:
  - a. Does the seriousness of the crime warrant a chase at higher than normal speed?
  - b. What is the possibility of apprehension?
  - c. Will the pursuit take place on residential streets, a business district or freeway?
  - d. When a police officer begins pursuit of a fleeing vehicle, the officer must remember that citizens using public highways do not expect their travel to be interrupted by a high-speed chase or to become involved in an accident as a consequence. Children playing on the side of the street are likely to be drawn towards a police car with the siren and emergency light operating, rather than cautioned away from it.
  - e. Street and traffic conditions.
  - f. The weather conditions.

- g. Road conditions and lighting (visibility).
        - h. Balancing the pursuit's danger to the public against allowing the suspect to escape.
        - i. Is there sufficient identification of the suspect to allow later arrest?
- 3. Intersections are a particular source of danger. Officers, when approaching an intersection where signal lights or stop signs control the flow of traffic, shall:
  - a. Decelerate and be prepared to apply the brakes.
  - b. Enter the intersection only when safe, when all other vehicles are aware of the officer's presence, and at a reduced speed.
  - c. Resume pursuit speed only when safe. When using emergency lights, siren, and headlamps, the officer is requesting the right of way and does not absolutely have the right to run a red traffic light or stop sign if doing so constitutes reckless disregard for the safety of others.

F. Rules of Pursuits

- 1. Unless necessary to protect the public from an immediate threat of serious physical injury, officers shall not ram, bump, or collide with a fleeing vehicle nor shall officers pull alongside such vehicles in an attempt to force them off the road or into an obstacle. Officers shall not use their vehicles in any manner other than to provide transportation during the pursuit. Use of the vehicle as an instrumentality to force an end to a pursuit is considered, except in very low-speed and controlled circumstances, a use of deadly force and is governed by deadly force principles.
- 2. Pursuits shall be limited to three police vehicles, a primary, a secondary (which will call the pursuit, and a third unit to assist in the apprehension. Other police vehicles shall not leave their assignments to join the pursuit. Additional units may participate but only under order by the senior officer on duty or the sergeant.

3. Officers shall not fire their weapons from a moving police vehicle. Officers may only fire weapons at a vehicle under conditions that allow the use of deadly force.
4. Whenever the pursuit extends off roadway, as when the fleeing vehicle leaves the roadway and proceeds cross-country, the pursuing officer(s) must carefully consider whether or not the seriousness of the offense outweighs the risk to the officer's safety and the potential damage to the police vehicle or private property. When the risks of pursuit exceed the need to capture the offender, the officer must discontinue the pursuit.
5. Should the person(s) attempting to avoid apprehension stop the fleeing vehicle and proceed on foot, the officer shall stop, give the officer's location, and continue efforts to apprehend on foot. The back-up cars, or second and third police vehicle, shall be dispatched in close proximity to offer assistance.
6. A supervisor may direct that the pursuit be ended. If the pursuing officer receives such an order to stop the pursuit, the officer shall do so immediately and acknowledge the order. Also, the pursuing officer(s) must end the pursuit if at any time during the course of the pursuit the officer(s) loses sight of the fleeing vehicle for an extended time.
7. Only in the case of suspected fleeing felons whose escape poses a danger to life may officers set up a roadblock. The decision to erect a roadblock shall only be made by the senior supervisor on duty. A decision to erect a roadblock may, under most circumstances, be a decision to use deadly force. The decision to erect a roadblock must consider:
  - a. the safety of officers;
  - b. the risk of physical injury to the occupants of the pursued vehicle;
  - c. the protection of citizens and their property.

A roadblock must be clearly visible at a distance sufficient to enable approaching vehicles to stop safely. The officer in charge of the roadblock shall notify the dispatcher of its precise location. The Department stresses that roadblocks constitute a last resort in stopping a fleeing violent felon and should be used in only the most extreme circumstances.

8. Pursuits of misdemeanants shall not proceed beyond the State line. A pursuit of suspected felons may extend beyond the state line, but the pursuit shall be relinquished as soon as possible to police personnel of the entered state. When a pursuit enters another jurisdiction, Bastrop ISD Police officers should, in most circumstances, allow the other jurisdiction to assume the pursuit and Bastrop ISD Police officers should assume a secondary role.
9. Officers, when accompanied by civilian passengers, shall not pursue. If a civilian is in the police vehicle at the beginning of a pursuit, that officer shall turn the pursuit over to another officer, or deposit the civilian at an appropriate, safe location.
10. When the fleeing suspect is apprehended in another county, the pursuing officer shall take the arrested person before a judicial officer of that county.
11. When the fleeing suspect is apprehended within the county, the officer shall take the arrested person before the magistrate serving that county in accordance with the Texas Code of Criminal Procedure. The on-duty supervisor shall confer with the other jurisdiction to determine which jurisdiction shall maintain custody of the suspect based upon the seriousness of the charges and the likelihood of release by the respective magistrate.
12. When two or more vehicles are involved in pursuit, each unit shall maintain a safe distance especially when passing through intersections. Each unit involved in the pursuit shall attempt to use a different siren-sound selection.
13. In case of pursuit, should the violator enter a one-way street against the flow of traffic, or enter a major highway or interstate freeway by proceeding along an exit ramp, the pursuing officer shall not follow the violator but instead transmit via radio detailed observations about the suspect vehicle's location, speed, and direction of travel.

14. Whenever an officer's vehicle is damaged in any way or indicates a malfunction which might potentially affect performance or handling, the officer shall abandon the pursuit immediately.

VII. ABANDONING PURSUIT

This General Order has noted the necessity for a pursuing officer to continuously evaluate the risks and goal of a pursuit. Under some conditions, abandoning a pursuit may prove the most intelligent decision the officer can make. Officers must discontinue pursuit under the following circumstances:

- A. If, in the opinion of the pursuing officer or supervisor, the pursuit creates a danger to the officers and other motorists or pedestrians that outweighs the need for immediate apprehension.
- B. The suspects have been positively identified and can be apprehended later without increasing risk to public safety.
- C. The prevailing traffic, roadway, and environmental conditions render pursuit futile.
- D. The pursued vehicle outdistanced the officer, or its location is not known.
- E. The pursuing officer knows, or is reasonably certain that the fleeing vehicle is operated by a juvenile and the offense constitutes a misdemeanor or non-violent felony (the pursuit may stimulate the juvenile to recklessly disregard public safety).

Discontinuing a pursuit does not mean that the officer cannot follow the vehicle at a safe speed, or remain in the area ready to resume the pursuit if the opportunity presents and circumstances warrant. Officers, when pursuing, shall resist the temptation to follow too closely in an effort to force actions by the pursued offender; but instead simply follow the violator and allow the violator to make the driving mistakes. No officer will be disciplined for discontinuing a pursuit.

VIII. PURSUIT REPORT

- A. At the conclusion of each pursuit, the pursuing officer shall submit a report to the officer's immediate supervisor which includes all reasons for the pursuit, and all circumstances and facts bearing upon the need to initiate and continue the pursuit and upon the risk to the public, the suspect and pursuing officers. The report shall describe the circumstances of the pursuit termination and list all charges and arrests made.
- B. The supervisor to whom the report is submitted will endorse the report as approved or disapproved and provide all information bearing upon the supervision of the pursuit related to the need to pursue, the risk of the pursuit and to the effectiveness of the communication of information to the supervisor during the pursuit relative to the supervision and monitoring of the pursuit.
- C. When the report is completed by the pursuing officer and supervisor, it shall be forwarded to the Chief of Police through the chain of command.

IX. Tire Deflation Devices (TBP: 7.19)

- A. Officers who have been trained in the use of Tire Deflation Devices are authorized to deploy the devices when approved by a supervisor.
  - a. Deployment must be made in safety and in an area that is free of obstructions for at least 100 yards in each direction.
  - b. Deployment is made per manufacturer's instructions always keeping the deploying officer safe from possible vehicular danger.
  - c. The device must be retracted prior to departmental vehicles running over them.
  - d. Officers deploying the device will notify on coming departmental vehicles of the deployment location so that they may slow to avoid running over the devices.
- B. Out-of-jurisdiction pursuits
  - 1. Pursuits beyond the local jurisdiction require the direct approval of the on-duty supervisor and, if approved, shall be conducted according to this order. The dispatcher shall notify the appropriate jurisdiction of the pursuit and request help.

2. Once the pursuit has entered another jurisdiction, if officers from that jurisdiction enter the pursuit, department officers shall cease their emergency driving (unless circumstances require their continued pursuit), turn off emergency equipment, and follow the pursuit while observing all posted speed limits and traffic control devices.
3. If officers from another jurisdiction pursue a suspect into our jurisdiction, department officers shall enter the pursuit only if the other agency specifically requests help and the on-duty supervisor approves our participation. Any non-pursuit assistance (including apprehension of a stopped suspect) may be provided as the circumstances dictate.
4. When the fleeing suspect is apprehended in another jurisdiction, the pursuing officer shall take the arrested person before a judicial officer of that jurisdiction. The officers shall then go before our local magistrate to obtain a warrant and ensure that a teletype is sent to the apprehending jurisdiction as soon as possible, acting as a detainer.
5. When a fleeing suspect from another jurisdiction is apprehended within the county, the apprehending officer shall take the arrested person before a magistrate. The on-duty supervisor shall confer with the other jurisdiction to determine which shall maintain custody of the suspect based upon the seriousness of the charges and the likelihood of release by respective magistrate.

X. FOLLOW-UP REQUIREMENTS (TBP: 7.14)

- A. The on-duty supervisor shall ensure that all participating officers document their involvement in the pursuit whether or not the suspect was stopped. The initiating officer will complete a departmental Pursuit Report. Other officers involved will prepare a supplemental report documenting their participation. Reports shall be completed before the end of the officer's tour of duty.
- B. The supervisor shall collect and secure all video of the pursuit and shall review the pursuit for compliance with policy and forward all documentation to the Chief of Police for Review.

- C. The Pursuit Report with supervisory review will be forwarded to the Chief of Police. The Chief will also review the report and determine compliance with policy. The Chief of Police will inform the supervisor of the Chief's findings. Should a policy violation be identified, the Chief will direct an investigation be conducted as necessary.

- D. Annually, the Chief of Police will cause an analysis of all vehicle pursuits occurring during the previous year to be conducted. The analysis will be designed to determine if the current policy is being followed, whether any changes are needed in the current policy, and any training needs of the department.

Accident and Injury Prevention

I. POLICY (TBP:4.10)

Motor vehicle crashes involving agency vehicles present serious risks to agency personnel and the public as well as considerable financial loss due to injury, loss of manpower, vehicle damage and possible tort liability. Personnel injuries also result in lost time, financial loss and the pain and suffering of our personnel. It is the department's responsibility to minimize these incidents through training, policy development and review of incidents for compliance with policy. The department will utilize a review process for evaluating crashes and injuries in order to determine cause and to institute corrective and preventive actions where needed. The reviews and hearings concerning these crashes and injuries shall be conducted according to policy and procedures established herein.

II. PURPOSE

This policy provides the authority, and operating procedures for review of agency motor vehicle crashes and personnel injuries.

III. DEFINITIONS

- A. Motor Vehicle Accident: For purposes of this policy, a motor vehicle crash is any collision of a vehicle—with another vehicle, stationary object or person—owned by or assigned to this agency that results in property damage (regardless of amount) or personal injury.
- B. Personal Injury: For purposes of this policy, a personal injury is any injury to a member of this department resulting in immediate or subsequent treatment by a physician, lost work time or requiring reporting under workers compensation rules.

- C. Non-preventable Crash or Injury: A crash or personal injury shall be classified as non-preventable when it is concluded that the member/operator exercised reasonable caution to prevent the crash or injury from occurring and observed applicable agency policy, procedures and training.
- D. Preventable Crash or Injury: A crash or injury shall be deemed preventable when the member/operator failed to observe agency policy, procedures or training and/or failed to exercise due caution or appropriate defensive driving or trained defensive tactics.

IV. PROCEDURES:

A. Training

1. The department will provide on-going training to all employees on accident and injury prevention. The Annual Analysis of Accidents and Injuries described in Section E of this order shall be reviewed to identify the training needs of the department.

B. Reporting and Investigating Motor Vehicle Crashes and Injuries.

1. Unless incapacitated, employees are responsible for immediately notifying communications or their supervisor of any motor vehicle crashes and any personal injury sustained while on duty. Communications shall notify the on-duty patrol supervisor.
2. Supervisors shall be responsible for ensuring that crash investigations are conducted by persons with appropriate traffic investigation training. The supervisor will also conduct an investigation and complete any necessary worker's compensation forms needed for treatment or immediate reporting of an injury.
3. Where feasible the supervisor, any accident investigators and the involved officer(s) shall file reports on departmentally approved forms within 24 hours of a crash or injury occurrence.
4. The supervisor shall prepare a memorandum to the Chief that shall include the following information:

- a. Details of the accident or injury and contributory factors to the crash or injury.
  - b. Statements of witnesses.
  - c. Name and insurance information on involved drivers and others involved in a crash and the nature/seriousness of injuries and/or property damage.
  - d. A statement as to whether the supervisor believed the member's injury or crash was "preventable" or "non-preventable"—as defined by this policy—with documentation supporting those conclusions.
  - e. Any recommendations that would help prevent similar crashes in the future.
5. The Chief will review the supervisory investigation and make a determination of whether the accident or injury was Preventable or Non-Preventable.
6. Remedial Action

In addition to any other disciplinary measures taken by the department for a violation of policy members of the department may be required to comply with the following:

- a. Members of the department that have a preventable vehicle crash may be required to undergo additional training, take a defensive driving course or other corrective measures.
- b. If a member of the department has two or more preventable vehicle crashes within a 12 month period, the member may be placed on non-driving status for a period of six months in addition to any necessary training.
- c. If a member has three or more preventable vehicle crashes in a 24 month period the member may be placed in a non-driving status for up to one year.

- d. More than four vehicle crashes in any 5 year period may result in termination for failure to perform basic job functions in a safe manner.
  - e. Members of the department that have repeated preventable injuries may be terminated due to inability to perform basic job functions in a safe manner.
- C. Annually the Chief of Police shall conduct an analysis of all accidents and injuries and make any recommendations for training, equipment or policy changes needed to reduce employee motor vehicle accidents or personal injuries. The report with its recommendations will be reviewed for and any necessary action.

	Chapter: 8	Revision Date: 05/01/2020
	Policy: 8.1  Reference: TBP: 7.21, 7.22, 7.28a, 7.28b, 7.28c, 7.28d	Total Pages: 15 Chief Bunch's Signature:

Traffic Enforcement and Vehicle Stops

I. POLICY

Traffic law enforcement involves all activities or operations which relate to observing, detecting and preventing traffic law violations and taking appropriate action under the circumstances. It is the policy of this department that motor vehicle stops shall be performed professionally and courteously and with a view towards educating the public about proper driving procedures while recognizing and taking steps to minimize the dangers involved in this activity for the officer, the motorist and other users of the highway.

Overzealous enforcement, however, without considering whether the violator is familiar with the legal requirements or without regard for the circumstances surrounding the violation causes disrespect for the law and poor relations between the department and the community. The emphasis of an officer's traffic enforcement is placed on violations that contribute to accidents and that prevent hazards to vehicular and pedestrian traffic. (TBP: 7.28a)

II. PURPOSE

It is the purpose of this policy to establish guidelines for stopping and approaching motorists in a manner that promotes the safety of the officer and the motorist.

III. PROCEDURES

A. Legal Basis for Stopping Motor Vehicles

1. Officers have legal justification for stopping a motor vehicle as provided by the Fourth Amendment to the U.S. Constitution. Without such justification, evidence of illegal activity discovered during the course of a stop may be inadmissible in court.

2. Officers are prohibited from stopping vehicles under the guise of legal authority when in fact the stop is based solely on the officer's prejudice concerning a person's race, ethnicity, sex or similar distinction.
3. A motor vehicle may be stopped only for a period of time that is reasonable to issue a citation or conduct other legitimate police business.
4. Officers should avoid arrests solely for minor vehicle infractions even if permitted by law when a citation in lieu of arrest is a reasonable alternative.
5. Officers are reminded that they have full discretionary authority in the type of enforcement actions to be taken, subject to the guidelines contained herein. Officers are encouraged to use good judgment, understanding and compassion in making a decision on the proper enforcement activity. (TBP: 7.28b)

B. Types of enforcement actions

1. Warnings

Officers may issue warnings to a violator whenever a minor traffic infraction is committed in areas where traffic accidents are minimal or when the act may be due to ignorance of a local ordinance which may be a unique violation or a violation of which the driver may not be aware. In their discretion, officers must recognize that a properly administered warning can be more effective than any other type of enforcement.

2. Traffic Citation

A traffic citation shall be issued to a violator who jeopardizes the safe and efficient flow of vehicular and pedestrian traffic, including hazardous moving violations or operating unsafe and improperly equipped vehicles.

3. Physical arrest (TBP: 7.28d)

- a. In compliance with Transportation Code 543.002, officers shall make a physical arrest and take the violator before a magistrate when the officer believes that
  - i. the violator has committed a felony; or
  - ii. the violator has failed to stop at the scene of an accident involving property damage or committed any other violation where the punishment is greater than a fine only; or
  - iii. the violator refuses to give a written promise to appear under TRC 543.005 (Promise to Appear).
  - iv. A violator may not be physically arrested, but must be issued a citation for offenses of Speeding or violation of the Open Container law.
- b. If the violator refuses to sign the citation, the officer will write “Refused to Sign” in the signature block and the violator will be arrested for a violation of Texas Transportation Code, Chapter 543, Subchapter A, Section 543.002(a)(2), for refusing to make a written promise to appear in court as provided by this subchapter.

C. Handling special categories of violators

1. Juveniles

- a. Juvenile traffic offenders are prosecuted in Municipal Court. Juveniles over the age of 14 may be issued citations for offenses committed in cars. Juveniles over the age of 10 may be issued citations for offenses on motorcycles, motorized scooters, or ATVs. Officers issuing traffic citations to juvenile offenders shall advise them that a parent or guardian must accompany them when they appear before the court. Juveniles must appear in court with their parents, no prepayment is allowed.

2. Foreign diplomatic or other consular officials

- a. Diplomatic immunity is granted by the United States Government. Generally, immunity may apply to diplomats, members of their families, and employees of diplomatic missions concerning acts performed in the course of their official duties.
- b. Different levels of immunity exist. The burden is on the diplomat to claim immunity and show the appropriate U.S. State Department issued credentials.

3. Members of Congress

- a. Members of Congress may not be detained for the issuance of a summons while they are in transit to or from the Congress of the United States.
- b. Members of Congress stopped for a traffic infraction, upon presentation of valid credentials, shall be released immediately. The officer may then obtain a summons for the member of Congress covering the observed violation and make arrangements to serve the summons at a time when the member of Congress is not in transit to or from Congress or on official business.

D. Information regarding traffic summons

The citation shall be completed whenever a motorist is to be charged with a motor vehicle violation. Officers shall advise drivers of the following:

1. The court appearance schedule and contact information. (TBP: 7.21)
2. Whether the court appearance by the motorist is mandatory.
3. Whether the motorist may be allowed to pay the fine before court and enter a guilty plea.

4. Answer the motorist's questions about the summons as thoroughly as possible.

IV. UNIFORM ENFORCEMENT POLICIES FOR TRAFFIC LAW VIOLATIONS

A. Hazardous violations

Citations may be issued for any hazardous violation which in the officer's experience has caused accidents at the specific location.

B. Equipment violations

With only annual inspections required of vehicles, citations may be issued for any essential equipment defects which creates a danger or hazard to the driver or others or for expired inspection stickers. Officers shall not issue an inspection citation until the 10th day of the month following the month the inspection expired.

C. Public carrier/commercial vehicle violations

In issuing a summons, consider traffic congestion, lack of parking and carrier needs for delivery access. Repetitive violators shall be cited.

D. Multiple violations

Officers may issue summonses for all appropriate violations. In the event of multiple violations officers may issue multiple citations for the most serious violations and warn on others if appropriate.

E. Newly-enacted laws

The law usually does not provide for a grace period when new laws take effect. Officers, though, may use discretion in observing a reasonable grace period before issuing a summons for the following:

1. A violation of a newly enacted traffic law.

2. Speeding violations in an area where the speed limit has been reduced.
3. Expired state license tags or expired state inspection stickers for approximately ten days after their expiration.

V. TRAFFIC LAW ENFORCEMENT PRACTICES - General

Normal traffic enforcement involves patrol by officers who observe and handle traffic violations during the performance of their duties.

- A. Area patrol involves traffic enforcement within the officer's assigned area of responsibility.
- B. Line patrol involves traffic enforcement with concentration on a particular section of roadway.
- C. Directed patrol instructions can specify enforcement in an area, on a line patrol, or at a specific location, depending on the nature of the hazard/violation.
- D. Stationary observation, either covert or overt, may be used as a technique to make observations about the flow of traffic at a particular location.
- E. Officers are encouraged, when completing reports or doing other activities which will keep them out of service for a short while, to park their patrol vehicles in a conspicuous location where the mere presence of the vehicle will serve to remind other drivers to comply with traffic laws.
- F. Objectives of traffic stops
  1. The two primary objectives of any traffic stop are
    - a. to take proper and appropriate enforcement action; and
    - b. to favorably alter the violator's future driving behavior.
  2. Achievement of these objectives requires the officer to evaluate the violator's mental and physical condition when assessing the facts of the violation itself. In achieving these objectives, officers must exhibit flexibility to minimize conflict or argument with the violator.

G. Stopping a Violator / Issuing a Citation (TBP: 7.28c)

1. Rules to be followed in all traffic stops:

- a. Be alert at all items for the unexpected.
- b. Be absolutely certain that the observations of the traffic violation were accurate.
- c. Present a professional image in dress, grooming, language, bearing and emotional stability.
- d. Be prepared for the contact by having the necessary equipment and forms immediately available.

2. Before making a vehicle stop:

- a. Maintain a reasonable distance between the violator and the patrol vehicle.
- b. Locate a safe spot to stop the vehicle.
- c. Activate the emergency lights and, when necessary, the siren to signal the vehicle to stop.
- d. Advise the dispatcher of the intention to stop the particular vehicle and give the following information:
  - i. The location of the stop.
  - ii. The vehicle's license tag number and a description when necessary.
- e. The officer shall position the patrol vehicle approximately one-half to one car length behind the violator's vehicle. The patrol vehicle shall be positioned so that it will offer the officer some protection from oncoming traffic. This position shall be two feet outside and to the left of the violator's vehicle.

3. Additionally, when stopping a vehicle in which the occupant(s) is deemed to present a hazard to the officer's safety, perform the following actions.

- a. Request a backup unit and calculate the stop so that the backup unit is in the immediate area before making the actual stop;
- b. Train the unit's auxiliary lights (spotlight) on the occupant(s) of the vehicle when applicable;
- c. When necessary use the vehicle's public address system to give instructions to the occupant(s) of the violator's vehicle.

4. Hazards

- a. On multi-lane roadways, the officer shall insure the safety of the violator during lane changes by gradually changing from lane to lane with the violator until the right side of the roadway is reached.
- b. Should the violator stop abruptly in the wrong lane or in another undesirable location, the officer shall direct the violator to move to a safer location. Officers shall use the public address system to instruct violators to move to a safer location. If the officer's oral directions and gestures are misunderstood, the officer shall quickly leave the patrol vehicle and instruct the violator.
- c. At night, officers shall exercise caution in selecting an appropriate place for the traffic stop. Once the violator has stopped, to maximize officer safety, use the spotlight and set the headlights for high-beam and employ emergency bar lights and emergency flashers.

5. Approaching the violator (right side approach)

- a. The following steps in stopping and approaching a traffic violator are intended to provide maximum safety for the officer, the violator and other users of the roadway. Varying conditions regarding the engineering of the particular traffic way, the urgency to stop the violator (drinking driver) and the existing volume of traffic may require adjusting or altering the recommended procedure. Follow these procedures unless circumstances dictate another reasonable method.

- b. After properly advising the dispatch of the traffic stop, location and vehicle license number, the officer shall leave the patrol vehicle and be continuously alert for any suspicious movement or actions on the part of the violator or other occupants in the violator's vehicle.
- c. The officer shall approach from the rear of the violator's car on the right side of the vehicle opposite the active traffic lane, look into its rear seat and stop behind the trailing edge of the right front door. This position shall be maintained if there are only occupants in the front seat of the vehicle. From this position, the officer can communicate with the violator and at the same time keep all occupants of the vehicle in view.
- d. In cases where the violator's car has occupants in both the front and rear seats, the officer shall approach to the trailing edge of the right front door, alert for any unusual actions on the part of the occupants and choosing a path so the door cannot be used as a weapon against the officer. From this position the officer can communicate with the violator and keep all occupants in view.
- e. In traffic stops made by two-officer patrol vehicles, the passenger officer shall handle all radio communications, write all notes and act as an observer and cover for the fellow officer.

6. Communicating with the violator

In transacting business with the violator, the officer shall observe the following rules:

- a. Greet the violator courteously with an appropriate title.

- b. Inform the violator what traffic law has been violated and the intended enforcement action (do not keep the violator in suspense).
- c. Ask for and accept only the violator's driver license and vehicle registration. If the driver offers money, the officer shall refuse it and advise the driver of the illegality of the offer.
- d. If the driver has no driver's license, obtain another document of identification.
- e. Allow the driver to discuss the violation. Do not argue, berate, belittle or otherwise orally abuse the violator.
- f. Complete the forms required for the enforcement action or give an oral warning, if appropriate.
- g. If the enforcement action requires a court appearance, make sure the violator knows where and when to appear. Explain any alternatives to the violator, but do not predict the actions of the court.
- h. Be alert to any emotional stress exhibited by the driver. If stress is present, the instructions may have to be repeated or the violator may need to calm down before resuming driving.

7. Conducting the transaction

- a. Return the violator's driver's license, registration, and a copy of the citation or warning, if given.
- b. Release the defendant after the defendant signs the summons, and receives a copy of the summons.
- c. Assist the violator in safely re-entering the traffic flow.
- d. Do not follow the violator.

VI. CITATION ACCOUNTABILITY

A. Citation Accountability

1. Officers who discover errors after citations have been sent to Municipal or Justice Court must prepare a memorandum for request for dismissal, or a request that the violations be amended including any pertinent information regarding said changes and send the request through their supervisor to the Chief of Police for approval and forwarding to Court.

B. Voided Citations

Citations marked void will be received by municipal court and entered into a voided document system.

VIII. DWI/DUI ENFORCEMENT PROCEDURES

A. Laws

It is unlawful for any person to drive or operate any motor vehicle, engine or train while under the influence of alcohol or while under the influence of any narcotic drug of any nature.

B. Responsibilities

Officers shall be alert for suspected DWI offenders. Officers shall use and document standardized roadside sobriety tests. Officers must carefully document the behavior of the DWI beginning with observations of driving. Once the violator has been stopped, the officer shall note the suspect's appearance, responses to stimuli, speech, admissions of drinking or drug ingestion.

C. Intoxilyzer

1. The security and care of the Intoxilyzer and all physical evidence obtained from it is every officer's responsibility.
2. The Intoxilyzer is located at the Bastrop County Sheriff's Department.

D. Sobriety tests

1. Officers shall administer a minimum of three field sobriety tests from the following list. The list names the most commonly administered tests.
  - a. Horizontal Gaze Nystagmus (only if properly certified).
  - b. Walk and turn.
  - c. One-leg stand.
  - d. Reciting the alphabet.
  - e. 10 count.
  - f. Nose find.
  - g. Coin lift.
2. If an officer suspects that the vehicle operator was driving under the influence of both alcohol and drugs, or drugs alone, the officer may require the operator to have a blood test performed in addition to testing for alcohol. Blood samples shall be analyzed by the Texas Department of Public Safety for evidence of alcohol and for various illegal, prescription and over-the-counter drugs.
3. The officer shall make a full written report of the circumstances of the DWI arrest, formation of probable cause, and witnesses' observations.

E. Arrest

1. The arresting officer shall perform the following:
  - a. Advise the arrestee that any person, whether or not licensed by Texas, who operates a motor vehicle in this state gives implied consent to have a sample of the arrestee's blood or breath taken for a chemical test to determine the alcoholic content of this blood or for the presence of drugs if such person is arrested for DWI.
  - b. Advise the arrestee that either a breath or blood sample may be elected, when available, but not both unless the officer suspects the presence of drugs. It is not a matter of defense for the driver in court that neither test was available.

- c. If the arrestee refuses the available test, advise the arrestee that unreasonable refusal of the test constitutes grounds for the revocation of the driver's license and that a separate charge shall be placed to which the arrestee will have to answer in court.

F. Blood test procedure

1. Take the arrested person to a physician, registered professional nurse, graduate laboratory technician or other technician designated by order of the court who shall withdraw blood for the purpose of determining its alcoholic content and drugs.
2. The arresting officer shall also witness the doctor or technician taking the blood sample and ensure that an alcohol solvent is not used to cleanse the withdrawal location. The officer shall initial the vial labels (on two vials) before the doctor or technician seals the vials in their containers.

The initial shall be placed on the label where it does not interfere with the date written by the doctor or technician who took the blood sample.

- a. The medical person taking the sample shall place the medical person's name and the name of the accused on the label of each vial with the date and time the blood was taken.
- b. The arresting officer shall take possession of the two vials and seal them in two containers designed to hold them.
- c. The arresting officer shall further perform the following:
  - i. Place the name of the arrested person, officer's name, date, and time of arrest on the containers.

G. Breath analysis

1. Chemical analysis of a person's breath shall be performed by anyone possessing a valid license, issued by the Department of Public Safety. This may include the arresting officer or anyone participating in the arrest. In the event the Intoxilyzer is inoperable or a licensed operator is not available, this test is deemed not available.
2. The type of equipment and the methods used to perform breath analysis shall accord with the regulations of the Department of Public Safety.
3. The testing officer shall sign the certificates of breath alcohol analysis which indicates that the test was conducted per the Department of Public Safety specifications.

H. Accident investigation

If the DWI suspect has been involved in a traffic accident, officers shall also undertake the following:

1. Identify any witnesses who saw the suspect operating a motor vehicle.
2. Question the witness about the suspect's condition, actions and statements immediately after the accident.
3. Establish a time lapse from the time of the accident to the time of arrest.
4. Question the witnesses and the suspect about what, if anything, the suspect ingested between the time of the accident and the officer's arrival.

IX. SPECIAL TRAFFIC PROBLEMS

- A. Identification and referral of driver recommended for reexamination to the Texas Department of Public Safety (DPS). During routine traffic law enforcement activities, officers frequently encounter persons whom they suspect of being incompetent, physically or mentally disabled, or having other conditions that might prevent them from exercising reasonable and ordinary care over a motor vehicle. In all such cases, in addition to whatever enforcement the officer may take, the officer shall notify DMV of these findings or suspicions, giving the violator's full name, date of birth, operator license number, and a brief description of the disability noted.

B. Pedestrian and bicycle safety

The chief of police shall review the traffic accident records at least annually to determine what enforcement actions are needed to provide a proactive pedestrian/bicycle safety enforcement program. The chief may recommend to officers enforcement measures including steps to:

1. Reduce or eliminate human environmental factors leading to accidents.
2. Reduce or eliminate the behavior, decisions and events that lead to the accidents.

C. Off-road vehicles (including dirt bikes, motorized scooters and ATVs)

1. Accidents involving off-road vehicles that do not occur on a public highway do not require a traffic accident report. If the responding officer finds it convenient, the officer may complete an accident report and attach it to the offense report.
2. Any officer observing an unlicensed off-road vehicle on the highways that cannot be operated legally on public highways shall order it removed and enforce appropriate laws.
3. Officers shall enforce compliance with vehicle registration laws as they pertain to off-road vehicles.
4. Officers shall enforce laws, rules and regulations concerning the operation of off-road vehicles on public-owned trails, parks or property.

X. ESCORTS

A. General rules

1. Officers shall not provide emergency or non-emergency escorts for private vehicles. If a medical emergency exists then an ambulance should be summoned.
2. Officers may provide escorts of vehicles with oversize or hazardous loads, dignitaries and public officials, and authorized public school events. These escort duties shall be conducted under the authorization of the chief of police or the on-duty supervisor. The chief shall coordinate the escort with the authority having control over the escorted vehicles. Further, the escort shall take place only per a written plan approved by the chief.

B. Funeral escorts

1. Funeral escorts may be provided for a law enforcement officer, fire fighter, civilian member of Bastrop ISD or their immediate family member. Before conducting a funeral escort, officers shall confer with the funeral home director to:
  - a. Plan the route to be taken to account for the most direct method, expected traffic density and anticipated obstacles.
  - b. Determine the circumstances of the escort to include which traffic lanes to use, speed of travel to the destination and how to handle adverse weather.
2. Officers shall not lead funeral processions into an intersection on a red light. Once the procession has entered an intersection on a green light, the escorting officer shall take reasonable measures to allow the entire procession to continue even though the light changes.
3. No escorts shall be provided if the body of the deceased is not in the procession.

Vehicle Impoundment and Inventory

I. POLICY

A motor vehicle is an important piece of personal property that must be properly managed and supervised if it enters police custody. Abandoned vehicles constitute a public nuisance, a hazard to traffic, and members of our community view their removal as an essential police service. Likewise, vehicles involved in accidents or crimes may require towing and inventorying for evidentiary purposes. When towing is performed at an owner's request, the owner will be given the option of specifying a towing company. The department will select a tow company in other cases. Officers will also specify a tow company if there is a traffic hazard and an individual's tow company cannot arrive in a timely manner.

II. PURPOSE

To establish procedures for towing and inventory of vehicles.

III. AUTHORITY TO TOW

A. Accident

1. Any vehicle involved in an accident shall be removed to the shoulder of the road or elsewhere as soon as possible after officers have obtained necessary investigative information. Vehicles shall be removed from the shoulder without unnecessary delay.
2. Vehicles may be removed to the shoulder of the road or other legal parking spot, which does not obstruct or impede vehicle travel on the roadway. Officers shall not use departmental vehicles to push cars unless equipped with push bars and the officer has been trained in its use.

3. If the procedure above is not possible and a traffic hazard results, the officer may order towing of the vehicle at the owner's expense.
4. Vehicles may be impounded if the vehicle is needed for purposes of the investigation. Such cases may but do not necessarily involve custody of the operator.
5. Following motor vehicle crashes, an officer may request impoundment when the operator is unwilling or unable to take charge of the vehicle, and;
  - a. The vehicle cannot be legally parked and sufficiently secured at the scene, or
  - b. There is property in or attached to the vehicle that cannot be sufficiently secured at the scene or placed in the custody of a responsible third party.

B. Emergency

Any vehicle found illegally parked in the vicinity of a fire, traffic accident or area of emergency which creates a traffic hazard or interferes with the necessary work of police, fire, or other rescue workers may be towed on an officer's orders at the owner's expense. Vehicles being used by radio, T.V., and press are exempt unless they obstruct police, fire, or rescue operations, or creates an unreasonable traffic hazard.

C. Impeding/danger to traffic

No vehicle shall be stopped in such a manner as to impede or render dangerous the use of the highway by others, except in cases of mechanical breakdown or accident. If a disabled vehicle is not promptly removed and creates a traffic hazard, the officer may order the vehicle towed at the owner's expense.

D. State/county/municipal vehicles

Paragraphs A, B, and C above shall not apply to any vehicle owned or controlled by the state or a local unit of government while actually engaged in construction or highway maintenance.

E. Blocking driveway or parking area

Any officer discovering or having a report of any motor vehicle, trailer, or other vehicle blocking a driveway or parking area, or obstructing or interfering with the movement on any driveway or parking area on District property may order the vehicle towed at the owner's expense.

F. Unattended traffic hazard/violation of law

Officers may tow any unattended motor vehicle found on District property that constitutes a traffic hazard or is parked in such a manner as to be in violation of the law.

G. Unattended vehicle

Whenever any motor vehicle is left unattended for more than ten days upon any District property, the officer may order it towed at the owner's expense.

H. Abandoned vehicle

1. Whenever any motor vehicle is abandoned on District property, the officer may order it towed at the owner's expense.
2. A vehicle may be presumed abandoned if it lacks a current license plate, a current county, city, or town tag or sticker or a valid state inspection, and it has been left unattended on district property (other than an interstate or primary highway) for more than 48 hours.

I. Evidence/crime involvement

1. Upon supervisory approval, vehicles that are of an evidentiary value or involved in the commission of a crime shall be towed at the request of the officer to an approved impound location at department expense.

2. Impoundment of stolen vehicles or suspected stolen vehicles is appropriate when the following circumstances exist:

- a. The owner cannot be contacted,
- b. The owner is contacted and cannot or will not respond in a reasonable amount of time, or
- c. Immediate removal is necessary for safety reasons or purposes of safekeeping.
- d. Officers should document reasonable efforts to contact owners with means readily available. Towing of reported stolen vehicles is at the owner's expense.

J. Prisoner's vehicles

1. Vehicles belonging to arrested persons, if left at the scene of the arrest may be at substantial risk of theft or damage to the vehicle or personal property contained therein. It is therefore the policy of this department to tow all prisoners' vehicles to an impound lot at the owner's expense for protection of the vehicle, unless:

- a. There is a friend or relative at the scene and the arrestee wishes to release the vehicle to the friend/relative, the friend/relative possesses a current driver's license, and the arrestee consents to the release either in writing or on the audio/video in-car recording system.
- b. The arrestee agrees to lock and leave the vehicle in a legal parking space, where a parking violation will not occur before arrangements can be made to recover the car.

2. The officer may tow the vehicle if the officer believes the above methods of vehicle release would not properly protect the vehicle or its contents.

3. A vehicle shall be towed if a subject is arrested and one of the following circumstances exists:

- a. The vehicle was used in a crime.
- b. The vehicle contains evidence of a crime that cannot be processed at the scene.

4. Officers should not unnecessarily impound motor vehicles for purposes of gathering evidence when such processing can be reasonably, effectively, and safely conducted at or near the scene.

5. A “hold” may be placed on any vehicle impounded for evidence for such a period of time necessary to complete evidence collection.
  - a. Holds on vehicles must be approved by an agency supervisor.
  - b. Investigating officers shall complete their investigation of the vehicle in a timely manner so that it can be released to the owner.

K. Impoundment for Forfeiture

Officers may impound a motor vehicle with the intent of initiating forfeiture proceedings when the vehicle is used in the commission of a crime as specified by state law. Officers should contact a supervisor before initiating forfeiture proceedings and shall follow forfeiture procedures as provided by this agency.

IV. TOWING PROCEDURES

- A. Motor vehicles shall not be impounded for purposes other than those defined by statute or ordinance, (e.g., not as a form of punishment, or as a means of conducting vehicle searches when probable cause does not exist or consent to search cannot be obtained).

- B. When impoundments are ordered, the operator and any passengers should not be stranded. Officers shall take those measures necessary to ensure that the operator and any passengers of the vehicle are provided transportation.

- C. Vehicle operators may be permitted to remove unsecured valuables of a non-evidentiary nature from the vehicle prior to its removal for impoundment. The nature of these valuables shall be noted on the appropriate reporting document.

- D. Officers shall know under which provisions (subparagraphs A-L above) and laws the vehicle shall be towed.
- E. If possible, use the vehicle owner's or operator's choice of towing company.
- F. If the owner/operator does not wish to specify a towing firm or is not available to make a choice, the officer shall ask the dispatcher to send a wrecker.
- G. In an emergency involving major traffic congestion owing to a disabled vehicle, the officer shall notify the dispatcher and shall request a wrecker.
- H. If the vehicle involved in an emergency is larger than the normal passenger vehicle or pickup size, the officer shall advise the dispatcher who has a separate list of specially equipped wrecker services.
- I. Dispatchers shall log each instance of calling a tow service. The dispatcher shall log the time the tow service was called.
- J. When the wrecker arrives on the scene, the officer shall advise the dispatcher of time of arrival and any other subsequent problems.
- K. Dispatchers shall be notified of all requests to tow vehicles by officers or owners of private property and shall record date, time, place towed from and to, license number, make or model, and color of vehicle in the towed vehicle log.
- L. Contracted towing companies agree to respond to scenes within 30 minutes of a call. If a wrecker does not arrive within the allotted time, the officer may ask the dispatcher to cancel the original wrecker and send the next available wrecker on rotation list.

V. INVENTORY

A. Authority and purpose

- 1. A motor vehicle inventory is an administrative procedure designed to protect vehicles and their contents while in departmental custody. The purpose of the inventory is to protect the owner's property and to protect the department against claims and possible dangers. Inventories may be conducted without a warrant or probable cause when:

- a. The vehicle has been lawfully seized or impounded.
- b. Before towing the vehicle for violations, safety reasons, or other purposes as defined by law.

B. Inventory vs. search

1. An examination of the contents of a motor vehicle pursuant to a criminal investigation or with the intent to search for evidence is not an inventory but a vehicle search and as such is governed by Policies 15.1 and 15.2.
2. Vehicles that are towed at the request of the owner/operator or vehicles that are left legally parked shall not be inventoried. Officers are reminded of the "plain view doctrine" and the limitations upon the authority to search incidental to a lawful arrest. See Policy 15.2 for further details.
3. A vehicle inventory report shall be completed whenever an officer assumes responsibility for towing a vehicle, and shall complete an inventory at the location where the vehicle was seized unless reasons of safety or practicality require the inventory to take place later.
4. Before the vehicle is removed, officers shall obtain the signature of the tow truck driver on the inventory report and provide the tow driver a duplicate copy of the report.

C. Inventory procedures

1. The owner or operator of the vehicle shall be asked to remove, if possible, all valuables from the vehicle prior to impoundment. If such items cannot be removed, they shall be inventoried before the vehicle is removed, and the owner/operator shall be requested to verify the completeness of the inventory by signature.
2. The scope of the inventory includes all open and closed containers and compartments and any locked containers or compartments as long as the officer has a key. Locked or sealed items shall not be forcibly entered if doing so will damage them. Locked items that are not searched will be noted on the Impound report. In general, the inventory extends to all areas of the vehicle in which personal property or hazardous materials may reasonably be found.

3. Officers shall not force open a vehicle's trunk or glove compartment to inventory the contents if a key is not available.
4. Any evidence, contraband, fruits or instrumentalities of a crime discovered during an inventory shall be handled per evidence procedures.

Investigations

I. POLICY

The primary purpose of an investigation is to collect facts leading to the identification, arrest and conviction of an offender and to organize and present the facts for a successful prosecution. The single most important criterion which determines a successful investigation is correctly obtaining and handling information supplied by a victim or witness immediately after the crime. The Bastrop ISD Police Department expects officers to treat investigations as a skill developed through training and experience, a skill that demands intelligence, logic and discipline.

Not every preliminary investigation will result in the identification of a suspect, an arrest or the recovery of property. The solution of crimes often is a function of the physical evidence left at the scene or information provided by victims and witnesses. Follow up investigations are therefore necessary. Because our resources are limited, prioritization of investigative resources is an unfortunate necessity. The department will therefore strive to investigate those crimes that are the most serious in nature and those that have the highest likelihood of solution.

II. PURPOSE

To establish guidelines for the general conduct of preliminary and follow-up investigations.

III. PROCEDURES - PRELIMINARY INVESTIGATIONS

A. General

The preliminary investigation begins when the first officer arrives at the scene of a crime (or a citizen requests help) and continues until a specialized Detective arrives and assumes responsibility. Patrol officers are responsible for the preliminary offense report in all cases unless specifically directed by a supervisor.

B. Caution

Officers who first arrive at a possible crime scene must take care not to enter hastily. The crime scene may pose a threat to the officer: an armed suspect may still be at the scene, toxic chemicals or infectious materials may be present or evidence may be destroyed if the officer enters. When practicable, officers shall first note the total environment of the scene including, for example, whether doors and windows are open or closed, lights on or off, presence of odors and the condition and circumstances of the victim.

C. After forming an impression of the entire scene and ensuring that no threat exists, the officer shall proceed with the preliminary investigation which consists of, but is not limited to, the following activities:

1. Providing aid to the injured.
2. Defining the boundaries of and protecting the crime scene to ensure that evidence is not lost or contaminated. Erect barricade tape, rope or cordon off the immediate crime scene. Record any alterations to the crime scene because of emergency assistance, the immediate necessity to handle evidence or the actions of witnesses, victims or suspects at the scene.
3. Determining if an offense has actually been committed and, if so, the exact nature of the offense.
4. Determining the identity of the suspect or suspects and making an arrest if it can be accomplished either at the scene or through immediate pursuit.
5. Furnishing other officers with descriptions, method and direction of flight of suspects and other relevant information concerning wanted suspects or vehicles.
6. Determining the identity of all witnesses.

7. Collecting evidence. Patrol officers who have been trained in collecting evidence will collect physical evidence to the limit of their ability and training. When additional evidence requires collection, is beyond the capabilities or training of the officer or is evidence in a serious crime, the patrol officer shall contact appropriate Crime Scene Investigation officers.
8. Obtaining written statements from the victim, witnesses and suspects.
9. Arranging for follow-up surveillance of the crime scene if appropriate.
10. Accurately and completely recording all pertinent information on the prescribed report forms.

D. Follow-up

1. The initial stages of all preliminary investigations, including crime scene processing in some cases, shall be conducted by patrol officers.
2. Patrol officers will conduct follow-up investigations in most misdemeanor crimes. In certain serious crimes as defined in Section IV below, Detectives shall assume responsibility for completion of the investigation.

E. Supervisory responsibilities

1. The on-duty supervisor shall ensure that an adequate and complete preliminary investigation has been made and shall review, screen and approve the officer's preliminary report. Screening shall include a review of facts to ensure that all essential information is included, along with legibility, clarity and completeness. Supervisors shall review, approve and sign crime reports.
2. Supervisors shall limit access to crime scenes to those persons immediately and directly connected with the investigation. This rule applies to other officers of the department, other agencies or members of the community regardless of rank or position.
3. The supervisor shall authorize the call-out of a trained evidence technician or detective if appropriate.

4. The supervisor may enlarge the preliminary crime scene if necessary by assigning officers to canvass the area for possible witnesses or suspects.

IV. ASSIGNMENT OF FOLLOW-UP INVESTIGATIONS

- A. All felony offenses, all sex crimes, all crimes involving juveniles as victims and all domestic violence and hate crimes shall be followed up by a Detective. Officers who conduct preliminary investigations of these offenses shall contact a Detective as soon as practicable.

The initial responding officer is responsible for completing the original offense report with all details of the preliminary investigation included in the report. If the Detective is unable to respond to the scene, the report will be forwarded to the Detective at the end of shift.

- B. All other offenses will be investigated by the responding officer unless otherwise directed by the on-duty supervisor. Should the responding officer believe the follow-up investigation is either beyond the officer's ability (either because of lack of expertise, shift assignment or other reason), the officer will contact the officer's supervisor for direction.
- C. The Supervisor and Investigations supervisor shall confer to determine follow up responsibility.

V. PROCEDURES: FOLLOW-UP INVESTIGATIONS

- A. Occasionally, additional investigation will be required at the end of the tour of duty of the assigned officer. In these cases, the on-duty supervisor shall determine whether the investigation should be discontinued until the assigned officer's next tour of duty, assigned to the next available officer or a Detective or overtime authorized.
- B. Except where the investigation might be jeopardized by its temporary discontinuance, the original assigned officer shall handle the case.
- C. A supplemental report must be prepared by each officer who works on the case, but not necessarily for each occasion that the officer works on it. A supplement recording the investigating officer's activity, information developed and case status shall be prepared at least every 10 days and forwarded to investigations. The officer or Detective shall maintain a case file to include supplemental reports.

- D. Officers and Detectives conducting follow-up investigations shall continue the investigation of criminal offenses until conclusion or until there are no additional workable leads that would likely result in the identification of a suspect or recovery of property. If the officer's time is limited, follow-up of cases will be prioritized by seriousness of the crime and likelihood of identifying a suspect. Officers and Detectives shall consult with their supervisors for additional assistance if cases with workable leads are unable to be completed.
- E. Victims will be kept informed of the status of the case periodically and when the case is closed or suspended.
- F. Supervisors, both patrol and investigative, shall maintain a log of cases being worked by officers under their command. This log will be updated regularly when 10 day status supplements are received or when the case is closed or suspended. Officers, Detectives, and supervisors will keep the Chief of Police informed of the status of significant criminal cases.
- G. A follow-up investigation consists of, but is not limited to, the following activities:
  - 1. For most non-criminal cases:
    - a. Interviewing complainants and witnesses.
    - b. Locating missing persons.
    - c. Determining if information or suspicious activity relates to criminal activity.
    - d. Distributing information to the proper persons or agencies.
    - e. Locating lost property and returning same to the owner.
    - f. Investigating deaths, overdoses, suicides and injuries to determine if a crime was committed.

- g. Making necessary notifications or conducting necessary inspections.
- h. Recording information.

2. For most Criminal Cases

- a. Reviewing and analyzing reports of preliminary investigations.
- b. Recording information.
- c. Reviewing departmental records for investigative leads.
- d. Seeking additional information (from other officers, informants, contacts in community and other Detectives/agencies).
- e. Interviewing victims and witnesses.
- f. Interrogating suspects.
- g. Monitoring social media sites of potential suspects, victims and witnesses for information related to the case.
- h. Monitoring posted comments to on-line news stories about an offense.
- i. Arranging for the dissemination of information as appropriate.
- j. Planning, organizing and conducting searches.
- k. Collecting physical evidence.
- l. Recovering stolen property.
- m. Arranging for the analysis and evaluation of evidence.
- n. Reviewing results from laboratory examinations.
- o. Identifying and apprehending the offender.

- p. Checking the suspect's criminal history.
- q. Consulting with the prosecuting attorney in preparing cases for court presentation and assisting in the prosecution.
- r. Notifying victims and witnesses when their presence is required in court.
- s. Testifying in court.
- t. Arranging for polygraph examinations, if necessary.

VI. REPORT WRITING

A. Field notes

All formal reports begin with field notes. Field notes are important for the following reasons:

1. To create a permanent record of events.
2. To aid the investigation.
3. To ensure accurate testimony in court.
4. To protect the officer from false accusations.

B. Formal reports shall include the following information:

1. Date, time of arrival at the scene.
2. Relevant weather or situational conditions at the scene upon arrival (e.g., a fire, crowd).
3. Circumstances of how the crime was discovered and reported.
4. Identity of other officers or emergency personnel at the scene.
5. Physical evidence present at the scene and the officers responsible for its collection.
6. Names, addresses telephone numbers of victims or witnesses.

7. Results of interviews with the complainant, victim, or witnesses to include the identity or description of suspects.
8. Diagrams, sketches, photographs or videotape taken at the scene and the identity of the photographer or artist.
9. Recommendations for further investigation.

VII.SOURCES OF INFORMATION

A. Informants

Information is available from many sources, e.g., members of the community who wish to remain anonymous, criminals who have firsthand knowledge of illegal activity, and relatives or friends of those involved in crime. These sources shall be kept in mind when conducting investigations and interviews. Officers are cautioned to determine the motivation of people who provide information in order to evaluate it. For guidance on handling informants, consult Policy 9.11.

B. Interviews and interrogation

1. Field interviews

Field interviews are a productive tool and source of information for the department. They shall be used only in the pursuit of legitimate enforcement goals. When used properly, field interviews can discourage criminal activity, identify suspects and add intelligence information to the files of known criminals.

2. Victim/witness interviews

- a. Officers must recognize the trauma/stress to which the victim or witness has been subjected and shall conduct the interview in such a manner as to reduce stress.
- b. The age, physical limitations and credibility of witnesses shall also be considered when evaluating their information.

C. Interrogation of suspects

1. Custodial Statements and Confessions.

- a. Miranda warnings are required and shall be administered prior to any “custodial interrogation.”
- b. The following represent examples of situations that are not “custodial” and do not require issuance of Miranda warnings.
  - i. Investigatory stop and frisk.
  - ii. Questioning during a routine traffic stop or for a minor violation; to include driving while intoxicated (DWI) stops until a custodial interrogation begins. During routine questioning at the scene of an incident or crime when the questions are not intended to elicit incriminating responses.
  - iii. During voluntary appearances at the police facility.
  - iv. When information or statements are made spontaneously, voluntarily and without prompting by police. (Note: Follow-up questions that exceed simple requests for clarification of initial statements may require Miranda warnings.)

2. Administering Miranda.

- a. Miranda warnings shall be read by officers from the card containing this information to all persons subjected to custodial interrogation.
- b. Freelancing, recitation from memory or paraphrasing the warnings is prohibited as it precludes officers from testifying in court as to the precise wording used.
- c. Officers shall ensure that suspects understand their right to remain silent and their right to an attorney. Suspects may be interrogated only when they have knowingly and intelligently waived their rights. Threats, false promises or coercion to induce suspect statements is prohibited.
- d. Waivers of one or both of the Miranda rights must be performed affirmatively. Oral waivers are often sufficient but written waivers, particularly in felony charges, are preferred and should be obtained whenever possible on the appropriate agency form.
- e. Officers arresting deaf suspects shall notify their immediate supervisor and make arrangements to procure the assistance of an interpreter in accordance with this agency's policy and state and federal law.
- f. Officers arresting suspects whom they believe may have limited English proficiency shall notify their immediate supervisor and make arrangements to procure the assistance of an interpreter in accordance with this agency's policy and state and federal law.

3. Invoking the Right to Silence

- a. When a suspect invokes the suspect's right to remain silent all interrogation shall terminate immediately.
- b. Officers may interrogate a suspect who has previously invoked the right to silence, if, after the passage of time the suspect initiates communication with officers. However, prior to questioning; Miranda warnings shall be re-administered and a waiver obtained.

4. Invoking the Right to Counsel

- a. If a suspect waives the right to counsel, a written waiver shall be obtained prior to questioning. When a suspect makes reference to counsel but the suspect's intentions are unclear, officers may question the suspect further to clarify the suspect's intentions. When a suspect invokes the right to counsel, all interrogation shall cease immediately.
- b. The suspect may not again be interrogated about the crime for which the suspect is charged, other crimes, or by other officers (from this or other agencies) unless the suspect's attorney is present at the questioning or
- c. There has been a break in custody of more than 14 days and the individual is re-advised of the individual's Miranda rights and indicates the individual is waiving the right to counsel (written waiver) or
- d. The suspect initiates new contact with the police. In this later case, Miranda rights must again be administered and a waiver obtained before any questioning may take place. Officers shall also document and, if possible, obtain written verification that the suspect initiated the communication.
- e. Officers shall cooperate in any reasonable way with efforts by counsel to contact or meet with suspects in custody.

D. Recording of Statements and Confessions

1. The circumstances surrounding the conduct of interrogations and recording of confessions shall be fully documented. This includes but is not necessarily limited to;
  - a. location, date, time of day and duration of interrogation;
  - b. the identities of officers or others present;
  - c. Miranda warnings given, suspect responses and waivers provided, if any, and

- d. the nature and duration of breaks in questioning provided the suspect for food, drink, use of lavatories or for other purposes
2. Officers shall electronically record, using both visual and audible means, custodial interrogations conducted in a place of detention involving major crimes as defined by this department. Officers are not required to record noncustodial interviews with suspects, witnesses or victims during the initial interview phase of an investigation but may do so where deemed necessary, in accordance with law and departmental policy.
3. If electronic recordings cannot be conducted due to equipment failure, lack of suspect cooperation or for other reasons deemed pertinent to successful interrogation by the case manager, the basis for such occurrences shall be documented. This includes but is not limited to spontaneous declarations or other statements not elicited by police questioning.
4. Transporting officers need not refrain from questioning a suspect who has indicated a willingness to talk either at the scene or en route to the place of detention. However, officers shall not purposefully engage in custodial interrogations involving major crimes as defined by this policy in order to avoid this department's requirement for electronic recording.

5. Recording Protocol

- a. Suspects do not have to be informed that they are being recorded.
- b. The primary interviewer shall, where possible, obtain a signed waiver from the suspect before beginning the interview. If the suspect elects not to be recorded or refuses to engage in the interview, the suspect's rejection shall be recorded when reasonably possible.
- c. Interviews and confessions shall be recorded in their entirety starting with the interviewer's entrance into the interview room and concluding upon departure of the interviewer and suspect.

- d. When commencing the recording, the primary interviewer shall ensure that voice identification is made of officer(s), suspect(s) and any others present, and that the date, time and location of the interview is verbally recorded.
- e. When beginning a new recording, the interviewer shall announce the date and time that the interview is being resumed.
- f. An authorized member of the department shall be assigned to monitor recording time to ensure the recording does not run out.
- g. Each recording shall include the following:
  - i. Declaration of the time the recording began.
  - ii. Declaration of the start of the interview.
  - iii. Concurrence by the suspect that the interview has begun.
  - iv. Administration of Miranda warnings, even if the recording is a follow up to a prior interview or the suspect has been previously advised of their Miranda warnings.
  - v. Notation of the time the interview ends.
  - vi. Any lapse in the recording for comfort breaks or other reasons shall be accounted for on the recording. As an alternative, during a short recess the recording may continue without interruption. Recording attorney-client conversations is prohibited.
  - vii. At the conclusion of the interview, the interviewer shall state that the interview is concluded and note the date and time of termination. The recording shall continue until all parties have left the interview room.

- h. Recordings of interviews are considered evidence and shall be handled as such. In addition, the following shall apply:
  - i. Unused recording media shall always be used for interview.
  - ii. Both the original and copies of all recording media shall be protected from re-recording.
  - iii. Only one interview shall be recorded on each recording media.
  - iv. The identifying information items supplied on the recording label shall be completed and the recording marked either as an original or a copy.
  - v. The reporting Detective's follow-up report shall note if and how the interview was recorded.
  - vi. All recordings shall be governed by this department's policy and procedures for the handling and preservation of evidence.

E. Collection, preservation, and use of physical evidence

1. Physical evidence is of major importance in all cases, particularly those without witnesses. The successful prosecution of a case often hinges on the quality of the physical evidence collected and preserved.
2. All officers are responsible for the preservation of evidence and for maintaining and documenting the chain of custody of all evidence that is in their charge.

VIII.CONSTITUTIONAL REQUIREMENTS: GENERAL

Compliance with constitutional requirements during criminal investigations

1. All officers when conducting criminal investigations shall take all precautions necessary to ensure that all persons involved are afforded their constitutional protections. Officers shall ensure that:

- a. All statements or confessions are voluntary and non-coercive.
- b. All persons are advised of their rights in accordance with this general order.
- c. All arrested persons are taken promptly before a magistrate for formal charging.
- d. All persons accused or suspected of a criminal violation for which they are being interviewed are afforded an opportunity to consult with an attorney.
- e. Prejudicial pre-trial publicity of the accused is avoided so as not to interfere with a defendant's right to a fair and impartial trial.

IX. RELATIONSHIP WITH PROSECUTING ATTORNEY

- A. All personnel shall respond to requests for appointments from the prosecuting attorney, be on time and have the subject for discussion ready.
- B. In every contested case, misdemeanor or felony, the officer involved shall make an appointment with the prosecuting attorney or the assistant district attorney to discuss the case before trial.
- C. During any investigation (or during planning for arrest or pretrial stages), any questions of law or criminal procedure shall be addressed to the prosecuting attorney. Questions on law enforcement procedures shall be addressed to the Chief of Police.
- D. The prosecuting attorney may advise the Chief of Police of any cases where a decision was made not to prosecute or where the case was dismissed because of mishandling or error by an officer.

X. DISPOSITION OF CASES

- A. The officer or detective shall maintain files of all cases assigned to the officer/detective. All case files shall be appropriately labeled with the date of incident, name of victim, or name of suspect or arrested person. The file shall contain the original incident report, any supplementary reports, statements, photographs, lab reports, reports of disposition of any property stolen, confiscated, recovered or otherwise pertinent to the case, arrest reports, and anything else the Detective deems pertinent.

B. When the investigation is complete, the Detective shall close the case under (and include in the file a statement giving) one of the following labels:

1. Cleared - An arrest has been made in this case.
2. Exceptional Clearance - The identity and address or exact location of the culprit is known and sufficient evidence to obtain a warrant exists. However, due to some reason outside the control of the police, no arrest will be made. Examples: Complainant will not prosecute; prosecuting attorney will not prosecute; perpetrator is dead; subject arrested by another jurisdiction and no charges will be placed by the department.
3. False Report - The reporting party lied in order to mislead the police concerning the incident. Do not confuse unfounded and false report. It is a violation of the law to deliberately make a false report. An unfounded report is usually made in the belief that the offense actually occurred, but in fact, it did not.
4. Unfounded - The offense did not really occur in the first place, although at the time of the original report it was believed to have occurred. If the investigation has exhausted all leads yet the possibility remains that new facts may come to light given future inquiry the case shall remain open.
5. Suspended - All leads have been exhausted. No further investigation is possible or practical until new leads develop.

C. The officer's or Detective's supervisor shall approve the case closure.

D. Upon closing the case the case file is forwarded to the records custodian for filing.

CHILD ABUSE

I. POLICY

It is the policy of the Bastrop ISD Police Department to protect and ensure the safety and welfare of the children in this jurisdiction. All police officers must be knowledgeable about child abuse and neglect, their effect on children and help the children who become victimized. Coordination with other criminal justice and social service agencies is a necessity. Initial responsibility for investigation of such cases lies with the Bastrop ISD Police Department. Law enforcement must assume leadership in the prevention of child victimization and in the prosecution of offenders.

II. PURPOSE

To establish guidelines for investigating crimes in which the victims are children.

III. PROCEDURES

A. General Responsibilities

1. "Child" refers to any person under the age of 18 years.
2. Department personnel shall be aware of local social service agencies for cases involving child victims. Officers shall know how and when to contact agency representatives, especially Child Protective Services (CPS) and Juvenile and Domestic Relations Court.
  - a. In circumstances involving no imminent danger to a child, a police officer shall record complainant's name, address, telephone number, and pertinent information concerning the alleged abuse or neglect and transmit this information immediately to CPS. CPS shall jointly determine the proper course of action.

- b. If the officer finds a child in a situation that presents an imminent danger to the child's health or life, the officer should immediately notify the appropriate State agency – usually Child Protective Services. The officer should also be alert to violations of family violence provisions which may allow for arrest and protection from further harm.
- 3. All officers shall know the sections of the Texas Penal Code and Family Code that pertain to crimes most commonly committed against children.
- 4. The Bastrop ISD Police Department shall work with local schools and agencies to educate children to identify and prevent their own victimization and to provide community awareness.

B. Patrol Responsibilities

- 1. Arrival at scene: Obtain all pertinent information from any available witnesses or sources.
- 2. Initial contact:
  - a. If the patrol officer suspects child abuse, the officer shall explain the police role in ensuring the health and safety of the child.
  - b. If entry to a home is refused and the officer reasonably feels entry is necessary to insure the safety of any person, the officer may gain entry in one of several ways:
    - (1) In a non-emergency, obtain a court order or a search warrant.
    - (2) In an emergency, forced entry without a warrant is legal when there is probable cause that a child is in danger.
  - c. The officer shall immediately ensure the safety of the child. Summon an ambulance or administer First Aid, if necessary. Reassure the child that the child is safe now and that has done nothing wrong. The officer is encouraged to solicit assistance from competent persons in communicating to the child in a reassuring manner.

3. Transport the child victim to a safe place, if necessary. This may include a local court-approved juvenile shelter.
4. If the child is a victim of sexual assault refer to sexual assault procedures.
5. Interviewing the victim:
  - a. Child victims require special treatment. To minimize the number of times the child will have to tell the story, coordinate with Children's Advocacy Center and other agencies (example: CPS, the courts) before interviewing. If the child is the victim of possible parental abuse, some strategies to consider include the following.
    - (1) The child's age – the child may be too young to interview (a child's capacity to deal with information differs from an adult's).
    - (2) Interviewing the child may deteriorate even further the parent-child relationship.
    - (3) Observe and note child's reactions during the initial contact.
    - (4) Interviewing the victim of child sexual abuse requires particular skills (see sexual assault).
    - (5) Usually the parents should not be present during the interview of the child (the child may be afraid to tell the truth).
    - (6) The officer must be sensitive to the emotional stress of the child due to the interview itself (some children may not even understand that the behavior of the parents has been abusive or neglectful).

- (7) Inform the child of the parents' awareness of the interview.
  - (8) The officer shall not appear to be taking sides against the parents. Children will generally become defensive if someone criticizes their parents even if they agree.
  - (9) The interview shall be conducted in language the child understands.
  - (10) The interview shall always include what will happen next and how the officer will use the child's information.
  - (11) Provide reassurances to an anxious child victim by expressing belief in the child's story and an understanding of the child's dilemma.
- b. Allow a supportive person to be present during the interview for a child's emotional comfort (e.g., non-abusive parent or child advocate).
  - c. At the beginning of the interview, officers shall attempt to gain the child's confidence. The officers shall introduce themselves to the child, give the purpose of their presence, and attempt to conduct the interview on an informal, friendly basis with the child. If the interview is tape-recorded, a voice test by the child should be allowed.
  - d. The officer must try to determine the emotional state of the child. Is the child ready to tell the truth and to talk about the incident? If not, delay the interview to a more appropriate time. Whenever doubt exists, the officer should delay the interview until specially trained personnel are available to speak with the child.
  - e. Detectives should be aware of the principal of "contamination". This is when a child's rendition of facts may be based upon what someone else -- especially an adult -- has told the child rather than the child's personal knowledge. Officers and Detectives should be alert to the possibility that a child's description of events has been contaminated as well as to avoiding contamination opportunities.

- f. Encourage young child victims to be active (play with a toy, draw a picture, hold a stuffed animal, etc.) during the interview. This will relax the child and allow for a more thorough interview.
  - g. If the officer decides that the child is in need of supervision the child cannot or is not getting in the home, the officer shall so inform the child. In deciding whether protective custody is needed the officer shall be guided by:
    - (1) The maltreatment in the home, present or potential;
    - (2) Evidence of abuse, torture or neglect by the parent;
    - (3) The parents' refusal to obtain needed medical or psychological care of the child;
    - (4) Parental anger and discomfort by the officer's investigative efforts which are directed toward the child;
    - (5) Evidence that the parents cannot provide for the child's basic needs;
    - (6) A history of prior offenses/allegations in which the child is the victim.
6. Interviewing witnesses (including the parents/guardians):
- a. Create an atmosphere of support and understanding. Remain non-judgmental until all the facts are known.
  - b. The officer must communicate in a friendly manner and allow the adults to express their anger and fears concerning the incident.

- c. Assess resistance to the interview. It may be in the form of denial, uncooperative attitude or explanations of how uncontrollable the child is.
- d. If the officer prepares to interview a suspect, the officer shall give Miranda warnings in accordance with applicable law.
- e. If parental child abuse is suspected, interview each parent separately and be alert to any apparent vagueness or inconsistencies in the explanations each gives for the allegation. Parents shall be told the reason for the interview and be treated with respect.
- f. Witnesses may be reluctant to discuss a family incident with an officer (due to fear of retaliation or because of breaking confidentiality). Officers shall explain the use of any information provided and that efforts will be made to maintain the identity of witnesses in confidence.

Crime Scene

I. POLICY

Proper documentation, collection, preservation, and submission of physical evidence to forensic laboratories may provide the key to a successful investigation and prosecution. Through evidence located at the scene, suspects are developed or eliminated, investigative leads are established, and theories concerning the crime are substantiated or disproved. It is imperative, therefore, that each officer carefully process a crime scene not to overlook or contaminate or destroy evidence. Physical evidence appears in many shapes, sizes and forms, thereby necessitating various recovery, preservation, and submission techniques. The officer or Detective shall be prepared to collect, identify, and package the evidence so that it will not be changed in form and value when it reaches the laboratory. The officer collecting the evidence shall maintain a chain of custody of that evidence in order to ensure that it is presented to the court professionally and in compliance with the law.

II. PURPOSE

To establish responsibilities for officers/Detectives in processing crime scenes and to establish guidelines for the proper documentation, collection, packaging, and submission of physical evidence to the forensic laboratory.

III. DEFINITIONS

- A. Chain of custody - The chain of custody is the series of documented links between the time the evidence was obtained until presented in court. The links are officers who handled the evidence, and where and when they did so.

- B. Exclusionary rule - The exclusionary rule requires that evidence seized or discovered in violation of the suspect's Fourth, Fifth, and Sixth Amendment rights cannot be admitted in court.
- C. Evidence - Any substance or material found or recovered in connection with a criminal investigation.
- D. Evidence custodian - The evidence custodian is the employee designated by the Chief to have administrative oversight over all found or confiscated property which comes into departmental possession.

IV. PROCEDURES - General crime scene processing

- A. Depending on the nature of the crime and the type of evidence present, patrol officers will normally collect and submit physical evidence to the extent they have been trained and have the equipment to do so. Normally patrol officers will collect and submit evidence on misdemeanor offenses and some felony offenses where a document and or video evidence is the only physical evidence present.
- B. The department has a number of detectives trained and equipped to collect physical evidence. Patrol officers will contact dispatch and request a Crime Scene officer when the offense is a felony, any sex crime, and child abuse, where photographs are needed, or where the evidence present is beyond the capabilities of the officers training or equipment.
- C. The officer/Detective responding to a crime scene shall make a determination of equipment needed for processing. The Bastrop ISD Police Department maintains a complete evidence collection kit to include a camera, film, sketching equipment, fingerprint recovery tools, blood recovery materials, tweezers, scissors, boxes, bags, envelopes, tape, marking tools, evidence tags, and materials for lifting impressions (footprints, tire tracks).
- D. The property and evidence form shall be used to document all property and evidence coming into custody of the department.
- E. Officers and Detectives shall use the following general order of processing crime scenes unless reason dictates otherwise.
  - 1. Before moving objects or collecting evidence at major crime scenes (except where necessary to help a victim, apply first aid, or handle a suspect), officers will photograph the scene. Photographs should start at the edge of the property and progress into the scene as needed to show the scene and relationship of the evidence present. Close up photographs of each piece of evidence will be taken with and without a measuring device in the picture.

2. At major crime scenes, officers will also prepare a sketch of the scene. Sketches of any crime scene will be done if it will show relationships or locations of where evidence is collected.
3. Before collecting any item of evidence, take measurements using triangulation or the coordinate method and record.
4. Collect perishable evidence first. Perishable evidence such as fresh blood, blood-stained objects, physiological stains and tissue, or biological material shall be collected only by a trained evidence technician who shall arrange to submit the material to a lab.
5. If the immediate destruction of evidence is not a concern, work through the scene systematically, collecting in a logical sequence, trying to avoid disrupting other items of evidence.
6. Collect comparison samples: The forensic laboratory can only compare known items with those showing similar characteristics. Sufficient specimens or controls must be submitted for comparisons of such items of hairs, fibers, paint, glass, soil, and tool marks.
7. Once perishable and other evidence has been collected, fingerprints shall be identified and lifted where possible. If transporting evidence may damage or destroy the latent prints on it, then the evidence shall be processed for prints at the scene.
8. Taking overall measurements, obtaining wall, room, and building measurements is one of the last operations to be performed in processing the crime scene. The overall measurements are vital in the production of the final crime scene sketch but must be obtained last so as not to damage or destroy items of evidence.
9. Conduct a final organized search. Conduct a final, thorough search of the crime scene in case evidence may have been overlooked.

Wherever possible, on a final search use an officer who has not participated in processing the scene.

10. The officer processing the crime scene shall list each item collected on the evidence recovery log. Note the following information for each item.
  - a. A complete description of the item (including make, model, and serial numbers, if any);
  - b. The source (from whom or location from which the item was obtained); and
  - c. The name of the person collecting the item.

11. The officer/Detective processing a crime/incident scene shall prepare a report giving an accurate account of events. This information shall be placed in a supplement to the offense/incident report.

12. All evidence shall be properly and prominently tagged or identified. In addition to the property and evidence form, the recovering officer shall complete a chain of custody form for the property custodian.

13. Officers shall observe principles regarding the legal use of physical evidence. Officers shall rigorously maintain the chain of custody of all evidence and shall always remain mindful of constitutional safeguards. If officers are not scrupulous in observing these safeguards, then the exclusionary rule may prohibit key evidence from being introduced at trial and the case may be lost or dismissed.

V. PROCEDURES - Evidence and property control

A. Collection of evidence

1. When collecting evidence, the officers shall use tongs or tweezers where possible. The officers shall avoid touching the evidence with their hands or anything that might contaminate the item.

2. Officers shall wear latex gloves while processing any crime scene. When collecting and tissue or bodily fluid evidence, officers shall discard the gloves and put on a new set after collecting each separate evidentiary item.

3. In collecting evidence, officers shall remain mindful about the possibility of contagion if the crime scene contains body fluids. Further, some evidence may consist of hazardous chemicals or waste products, explosives, or highly combustible materials. The evidence custodian in consultation with an evidence technician shall decide the best disposition of such items.
4. If a firearm is present at the crime scene, do not unload it. The evidence technician shall unload the weapon: the evidence technician must examine the weapon in its exact condition as when it was discovered.

B. Marking evidence

1. In many instances, marking and labeling evidence may represent a single process. In instances where the evidence is large, complete identifying data may be recorded directly on the evidence to include the officer's name, date, time, location of recovery, item number, and case number.
2. In other instances, the small size or nature of the item collected will not permit complete information to be noted directly on the item. In these instances, the container or attached tag shall be marked with appropriate information.
3. The evidence technician or the officer searching the crime scene shall mark similar items in the same place to save time and embarrassment in looking for the identifying marks when asked to identify the evidence in court.
4. Instruments which may be used for marking physical evidence include permanent markers (felt tip pens), scribes (diamond tip or awl), or where labels are used, ballpoint pens.
5. The officer who collects the evidence shall mark it.
6. Each officer or detective shall develop personal identifying mark, normally the officer's or detective's initials.

C. Packaging items of evidence

1. The officer who collects the evidence shall choose a container suitable to the type of evidence for packaging. Considerations in choosing the proper container include the following:
  - a. The size and weight of the item.
  - b. Whether the item is moist or wet (which could rot or deteriorate if packaged in plastic or an airtight container for an extended time).
  - c. Avoid any contamination of evidence by packaging all items separately.
  - d. Pack the item to minimize interior movement within the package.
  - e. Seal the package with evidence tape and initial or sign across the seal.
  - f. Label the exterior of the package before placing the evidence within it.

2. Special circumstances

- a. Weapons
  - i. No officer shall, under any circumstances, personally retain custody of any found or confiscated weapon.
  - ii. Officers bringing weapons into custody shall inspect them to ensure their safe storage. All firearms shall be unloaded before storage.
  - iii. The recovering officer or Detective shall check all confiscated or found weapons against NCIC/TCIC files.
- b. Drugs and Narcotics are to be collected and preserved as defined in the evidence collection procedures found in the Texas Department of Public Safety's Physical Evidence Handbook.
- c. Alcohol
  - i. All containers of alcoholic beverages shall be sealed or contained to avoid any chance of leakage.

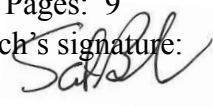

- ii. The only alcoholic beverages that are considered contraband are those seized from underage persons whose possession is in itself illegal. If not destroyed at the scene on video, the contraband alcoholic beverages shall be destroyed upon conclusion of legal proceedings.
- iii. Alcoholic beverages seized or recovered which are not contraband or evidence shall be returned to the owner.

D. Preservation and submission of evidence to the forensic laboratory

1. Under normal circumstances, the officer or Detective who processed the crime scene is responsible for submitting evidence to the forensic laboratory.
2. Where more than one officer processed the scene, the on-duty supervisor shall choose an officer to take custody of all collected evidence and submit it to the laboratory for analysis.

E. Preservation of perishable or deteriorating items:

1. When a rapidly deteriorating item of evidence has been collected (for example, a liquid sample of semen, a blood-soaked shirt), it shall be transported to the forensic laboratory the same day, if at all possible.
2. Any time an officer transports a perishable item to the laboratory for immediate analysis, the laboratory shall be called first so they will be ready to receive it.
3. In cases where immediate transport to the forensic lab is not possible, air dry (no more than one week) and transport to the lab.
4. Where appropriate, submit known specimens of evidence so that comparisons can be made. The investigating officer shall be responsible for obtaining any required known specimens and submitting them, along with the items of evidence, to the forensic lab for analysis and comparison.

Officer Involved Shooting Investigation

I. POLICY

It is the policy of this agency that officer-involved shooting incidents be investigated with the utmost thoroughness, professionalism and impartiality to determine if officer actions conform to the law and this agency's policy on use of force.

II. PURPOSE

It is the purpose of this policy to provide guidelines for the investigation of officer-involved shooting incidents and to provide guidelines to minimize the chances that involved personnel will develop or suffer from post-traumatic stress disorder.

III. DEFINITIONS

- A. Post-Traumatic Stress Disorder: An anxiety disorder that can result from exposure to short-term severe stress, or the long-term buildup of repetitive and prolonged milder stress.
- B. Officer-Involved Shooting Incident: A line-of-duty incident where shooting causes death or serious bodily injury to an officer or other person.

IV. PROCEDURES

- A. Officer's Responsibility when involved in a Shooting Incident

1. Officers involved at the scene of a shooting incident shall take those measures that are reasonably possible and appropriate to protect their safety and others and to preserve evidence essential to the investigation. This includes the following actions, undertaken in the order deemed appropriate.
  - a. Ensure that the threats to officer safety and the safety of others are over.
  - b. Notify Communications of the shooting incident and request immediate assistance.
  - c. Secure and separate any suspects.
  - d. Relay information on any fleeing suspects to communications and other field units and work with them to establish a containment area.
  - e. Request a supervisor and emergency medical services, if necessary, and any other assistance required immediately.
  - f. If injured, administer emergency first aid to one-self first. Then, administer basic first aid to suspects and others, as necessary, pending arrival of emergency medical assistance.
  - g. Holster any involved handguns or secure them in place as evidence. Secure long guns in the prescribed manner or in place as evidence. Do not open, reload, remove shell casings or in any other manner tamper with involved firearms. Take note of the time, survey the entire area for relevant facts, individuals who are present and who departed the scene, witnesses, potential suspects and suspect vehicles.
2. As time and capabilities permit before supervisory and other assistance arrives:
  - a. Secure the area, establish a perimeter with crime scene tape and limit access to authorized persons necessary to investigate the shooting and assist the injured. Protect evidence from loss, destruction or damage that is likely to occur before backup can arrive. Ensure that evidentiary items are not moved or, if moved, note the original location and position of persons, weapons and other relevant objects and evidence.

- b. Record the names, addresses and phone numbers of all witnesses and other persons present at the shooting scene and request that they remain on hand in order to make a brief statement whether or not they say they saw the incident.

B. Supervisor Responsibilities

1. A supervisor shall be dispatched to the scene of the incident, and shall assume primary responsibility for protecting the scene and caring for involved personnel.
2. Ensure the safety and determine the condition of the officer(s), suspect(s) and third parties. Summon emergency medical service providers if not yet summoned for officers, suspects and third parties.
3. If the officer has been shot or otherwise injured in the shooting:
  - a. Ensure that an officer accompanies and remains with the officer at the hospital.
  - b. Ensure that the officer's family is notified on a priority basis and in person when possible. Ensure that they are assigned transportation to the hospital or other location where they are needed as soon as possible. Do not release the officer's name prior to the family's being notified.
  - c. Assign an officer to the family for security, support, control of the press and visitors, establishment of communications and related matters.
  - d. Ensure that the clothing of officers and other injured persons is collected for potential evidentiary purposes and that related equipment of the officers is safeguarded.

4. The supervisor should contact Communications and advise them of the condition of the officers and suspects and the exact location of the incident and request they immediately contact:
  - a. The Chief of Police
  - b. Superintendent
  - c. Detectives
  - d. Crime Scene Search personnel
  - e. Bastrop ISD Communications Department
  - f. Police Chaplain or advocate
  - g. Prosecuting Attorney
  - h. BISD General Counsel
5. Establish a Command Post and appoint a recorder to make a chronological record of all activities including any personnel who entered the crime scene. The recorder shall prepare a supplement report detailing their activities and observations and the original chronological record will be placed in evidence after the scene is cleared.
6. Ensure all audio/video recording systems (including squad car video systems at the scene at the time of the incident) are stopped and secured to protect any evidence thereon.
7. If the officer is not immediately transported to the hospital, the supervisor shall briefly meet with the involved officer(s).
  - a. Only minimal, preliminary questions should be asked about the incident. The officers should be advised that a more detailed debriefing will be conducted at a later time. The supervisor must however obtain sufficient information to protect the scene and begin an investigation. At a minimum the supervisor should determine:

- i. If any other suspects are at large and any descriptions
  - ii. Approximate number and direction of shots fired (to protect crime scene and ensure no other persons are injured)
  - iii. Description and location of any known victims or witnesses;
  - iv. Description and location of any known evidence; and
  - v. Any other information necessary to ensure officer and public safety and to assist in the apprehension of at-large suspects.
8. During any period where the involved officer is required to remain on the scene, but has no immediate duties to fulfill, the officer should be taken to a quiet area away from the scene of the incident. If available, a peer counselor or other supportive friend or officer should remain with the officers, but should be advised not to discuss details of the incident.
9. The officers should be advised that they may seek legal counsel.
10. Any standard investigations that will occur concerning the incident should be discussed with the involved officers. The investigations shall include a criminal and internal investigation.
11. The officers should be advised not to discuss the incident with anyone except a personal or agency attorney, or departmental Detective, until the conclusion of the preliminary investigation.
12. The supervisor will ask all officers present at the time of the incident if they are carrying any firearms other than their primary duty weapon. If so, these weapons will need to be examined prior to leaving the scene by crime scene personnel.
13. The supervisor shall determine whether the circumstances of the incident require that the officer's duty weapon be taken for laboratory analysis. Where the duty weapon is taken, the supervisor shall:

- a. Take custody of the officer's weapon in a discrete manner; and
- b. Replace it with another weapon, or advise the officer that it will be returned or replaced at a later time, as appropriate.

14. Involved officers should notify their families about the incident as soon as possible. Where an officer is unable to do so, an agency official shall personally notify the officer's family, and arrange for their transportation to the hospital if needed.

15. At all times, when at the scene of the incident, the supervisor should handle the officer and all involved personnel in a manner that acknowledges the stress caused by the incident.

17. Upon arrival of Detectives, the supervisor will brief the appropriate personnel on the details of the incident. The supervisor shall prepare the original basic offense report concerning the incident and prepare a detailed supplement report of the supervisor's activities after being notified. The supervisor shall also complete a departmental Use of Force Report on the incident.

C. Investigation

1. Two different investigations may be conducted after an officer-involved shooting incident.
  - a. If the officer was shot at, injured, killed or otherwise the victim of a criminal offense, a criminal investigation will be conducted to determine the identity of the suspect and for subsequent prosecution.
  - b. If an officer shot at a suspect, an administrative investigation shall be conducted to determine compliance with departmental policy.
  - c. If an officer shot at and hit a suspect, a criminal investigation shall be conducted to determine if the officer is criminally culpable for the officer's actions.
2. These investigations, if both are required, may run simultaneously, with the criminal investigation taking precedence.
3. The Chief of Police may request another agency conduct either investigation if circumstances warrant.
4. Detectives will be well versed in the issues of Garrity v. NY to avoid improper contamination of the criminal investigation.
5. Upon arrival of detectives, they will first ensure the tasks itemized above have been completed. They shall then conduct their investigation to include:
  - a. Receive a general briefing and walk-through by the supervisory officer regarding the circumstances surrounding the shooting. The decision to conduct a walk through with the involved officer at this time must be made based on:
    - i. The type of investigation being conducted
    - ii. The physical and mental state of the officer

- iii. The availability of the officer's attorney

- h. Conduct the interview in a private location away from sight and hearing of agency members and others who do not have a need and a right to the information. Advise the officers not to discuss the incident with anyone except a personal or agency attorney, union representative or departmental Detective until the conclusion of the preliminary investigation.
- i. Be cognizant of symptoms of post-traumatic stress, to include time and space distortions, confusion, hearing and visual distortion and emotional impairment including shock. (Defer tape-recorded interviews if these symptoms are evident.)Take any weapon fired by the officer(s) into custody and handle it as evidence. Firearms shall be taken from officers in a discrete manner and the OIC shall ensure that arrangements are made to replace them with other firearms or advise the officers that they will be returned or replaced at a later time.

- j. Contact the coroner and obtain the autopsy of the officer and/or suspect if required. Determine entrance and exit wounds, estimates of the shooter's position, the presence of alcohol or controlled substances or other related evidence.

6. The results of any criminal investigation conducted will be presented to the Grand Jury for independent review.

D. Post-Incident Procedures

1. Involved personnel shall be removed from line duties pending evaluation but shall remain available for any necessary investigations.
2. All officers directly involved in the shooting incident shall be required to contact an agency designated specialist for counseling and evaluation as soon as practical after the incident. Involved support personnel should also be encouraged to contact such specialists after a shooting incident. After the counseling sessions, the specialist shall advise the agency:
  - a. Whether it would be in the officers' best interest to be placed on administrative leave or light duty and for how long;
  - b. Where the officers were relieved of their duty weapons after an incident, at what point they should be returned;
  - c. What will be the best continued course of counseling? The agency strongly encourages the families of the involved officers to take advantage of available counseling services.
  - d. If placed back on full duty, and another deadly force situation presented itself in the first work shift, would the officer be capable of defending themselves or another with the use of deadly force.

3. Any agency investigation of the incident shall be conducted as soon and as quickly as practical.
4. The agency should conduct a general briefing to other agency members concerning the incident so that rumors are kept to a minimum.
5. All personnel involved in a shooting incident should be advised that they are not permitted to speak with the media about the incident. Officers shall refer inquiries from the media to a designated agency spokesperson, unless otherwise authorized to release a statement pertaining to the incident.
6. In order to protect against crank or abusive calls, officers should be advised to have phone calls answered by another person for several days if their names are released to the public.
7. Officers directly involved in the shooting incident shall be required to re-qualify as soon as practical.

E. Daily Stress Recognition

1. As post-traumatic stress disorders may not arise immediately, or the officers may attempt to hide the problem, each supervisor is responsible for monitoring the behavior of unit members for symptoms of the disorder.
2. If a supervisor believes that stress may be disrupting the officer's job performance or other life skills, the Chief of Police should be informed immediately. The Chief of Police may inject the officer into a behavioral cause investigation or refer the officer back into counseling.

WANTED AND MISSING PERSONS

I. POLICY – WANTED PERSONS

The Texas Crime Information Center (TCIC) and the National Crime Information Center (NCIC) communication networks provide several different information files, two of which assist law enforcement in locating wanted persons and those reported missing. The effectiveness of the system and Departmental liability depend on accurate and prompt entry of accurate information as well as immediate cancellation of entries when no longer required.

Each officer is responsible for dealing with reports of missing or wanted persons to conduct proper investigations, prepare necessary reports and request appropriate TCIC/NCIC entries. Each officer submitting an entry must ensure that the entry contains accurate and complete information and that necessary delays in making or removing the entry are avoided.

II. PURPOSE

To establish Department guidelines explaining investigation of wanted/missing persons and the making of appropriate entries into TCIC and NCIC. In addition to these procedures the requirements and procedures of TCIC and NCIC shall be followed.

III. PROCEDURES

A. Wanted Persons

1. In order for a person to be entered into TCIC/NCIC files as wanted, one of the following criteria must be met:
  - a. a federal warrant is outstanding;

- b. a felony or serious misdemeanor warrant is outstanding;
  - c. probation and parole violators meeting the criteria listed in a. or b. above; or
  - d. any juvenile meeting the criteria in a. and b. above, provided the juvenile will be tried as an adult for the charges placed.
2. Making the entry:
- a. The requesting officer shall complete a TCIC/NCIC entry request form and forward it to the Chief of Police.
  - b. Upon review of the request, the Chief of Police shall contact the prosecuting attorney to confirm or decline extradition if the suspect is located.
  - c. If the prosecuting attorney confirms that extradition will be authorized, the TCIC/NCIC entry shall be submitted to the Bastrop ISD Police Department Communications Division for entry.
  - d. If extradition is declined, no TCIC/NCIC entry shall be made and outstanding warrants/detention orders shall be filed in the warrant file should the subject be located at a later date.
  - e. Municipal warrants on which extradition is not contemplated may be entered into TCIC or into regional databases at the discretion of the Chief of Police.
3. Retention of wanted person records - The Communications Division is responsible for taking action to clear an entry when a wanted subject is located or when a decision is made by the prosecuting attorney not to extradite a wanted person who has already been entered into the system.

IV. POLICY – MISSING PERSONS

Many missing person reports involve individuals who have voluntarily left home for personal reasons while other reports are often unfounded or quickly resolved.

However, there are many instances in which persons disappear for unexplained reasons and under circumstances where they may be considered at risk. The roles of the complaint taker and initial responding officer are critical in identifying the circumstances surrounding missing persons and in identifying those persons at risk.

Therefore, it is the policy of this agency that (1) all reports of missing persons be given full consideration and attention by members of this agency to include careful recording and investigation of factual circumstances surrounding the disappearance in accordance with this policy, and (2) that particular care be exercised in instances involving missing children and those who may be mentally or physical impaired or others who are insufficiently prepared to take care of themselves.

V. PURPOSE

To establish responsibilities and guidelines for the investigation of missing persons

VI. PROCEDURES

3. Individuals may be considered "missing-critical" who meet the foregoing criteria and who, among other possible circumstances:
  - a. may be the subject of foul play;

- b. because of age (young or old), may be unable to properly safeguard or care for themselves;
  - c. suffers from diminished mental capacity or medical conditions that are potentially life threatening if left untreated/unattended;
  - d. is a patient of a mental institution and is considered potentially dangerous to themselves or others;
  - e. has demonstrated the potential for suicide; or

- 4. Reports of juveniles who have voluntarily left home (i.e., "runaways") should be classified as such only after thorough investigation.
  - 5. Based on the outcome of initial inquiries, a decision may be made concerning the potential danger posed to the missing person and the urgency of police response.

B. Initial Report Taking

- 1. The initial report taker must gather as much pertinent information as possible in order to properly classify a missing person report and initiate proper response. This includes the following information:
  - a. Name, age and physical description of the subject and relationship of the reporting party to the missing person;
  - b. Time and place of last known location and the identity of anyone accompanying the subject;
  - c. The extent of any search for the subject;

    - b. may have been the subject of a parental abduction; and/or
    - c. has previously run away from home, has threatened to do so or has a history of explainable or unexplainable absences for extended periods of time.
  3. A supervisory officer shall be notified immediately upon classification of a report as “missing-critical.”
- C. Preliminary Investigation - The preliminary investigation is intended to gather additional information and to take those steps that will aid in the search for and location of a missing person. This includes gathering the following types of information and materials:
  1. Complete description of the subject and a recent photograph.
  2. Details of any physical or emotional problems identified in items B1-e and f of this policy.
  3. Identity of the last person(s) to have seen the subject as well as friends, relatives, coworkers or associates who were or may have been in contact with the subject prior to disappearance.
  4. Plans, habits, routines and personal interests of the subject including places frequented or locations of particular personal significance.

5. Indications of missing personal belongings, particularly money and other valuables.
6. Any suggestions of foul play or accident.
7. In the case of missing children, officers shall be particularly cognizant of information that may suggest the potential for parental abduction or the possibility of stranger abduction, as well as:
  - a. the presence of behavioral problems;
  - b. past instances of running away;
  - c. signs of an abusive home environment or dysfunctional family situation;
  - d. whether the child is believed to be with adults who may pose a danger; and,
  - e. the name and location of the school attended by the child and any persons who may be responsible for private transportation to and from the location.
8. When possible, officers should gain permission to search a missing child's home and school locker, as appropriate.
9. Upon verification of a missing person, a missing person report shall be completed and appropriate entries made in state and national information databases in accordance with established procedures (e.g.: NCIC and The National Center for Missing and Exploited Children). Pursuant to State Law, the Department of Public Safety (DPS) Missing Child report form shall be completed and immediately forwarded to the DPS Clearinghouse missing children database.
10. In the case of persons designated as "missing-critical," a supervisory officer may direct that:
  - a. the dispatcher broadcast to all persons on duty all information necessary to identify the missing person, and

- b. request that the shift commander authorize mobilization of resources necessary for an area search.

D. On-going Investigation - Investigations of missing persons should include but should not be limited to the following actions and activities:

1. Request release of dental records, blood type, DNA sample and any fingerprints available.
2. Contact hospitals and the coroner's office as appropriate for injured or deceased persons fitting the description of the missing person.
3. Thoroughly check the location at which the missing person was last seen and conduct interviews as appropriate with persons who were with the individual or who may work in or frequent the area.
4. Conduct interviews with any additional family, friends, work associates, schoolmates and teachers as well as school counselors and social case workers, as appropriate, to explore the potential for foul play, voluntary flight or in the case of juveniles, parental kidnapping or running away.
5. Provide identification and related information to all elements of this agency, the state police missing persons' authority, neighboring police agencies and, if parental or stranger-to-stranger abduction is suspected, the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI).
6. Decisions to use local media to help locate missing persons shall be made with the approval of the Police Chief and the missing person's family.
7. The lead Detective shall maintain routine on-going contact with the missing person's closest relative concerning progress of the investigation. These and other relevant individuals shall be informed that they must notify the lead Detective as soon as any contact is made with the missing person.

E. Recovery of Missing Persons and Case Closure

1. Competent adults, having left home for personal reasons, cannot be forced to return home. Officers locating such individuals shall:

- a. advise them that they are the subject of a missing person investigation;
  - b. ask if they desire the reporting party or next-of-kin to be notified of their whereabouts; and
  - c. make provisions to transmit this information to the reporting party or next-of-kin if permitted by the missing person.
2. In all cases, reporting parties shall be informed of the well-being of located missing persons. Unless criminal matters necessitate other action, desires of missing persons not to reveal their whereabouts shall be honored.
3. Missing persons shall be questioned to establish the circumstances surrounding their disappearance and whether criminal activity was involved.
4. In cases involving juveniles, officers shall ensure that
  - a. the juvenile receives medical attention if necessary in a timely manner;
  - b. initial questioning of the youth identifies the circumstances surrounding the child's disappearance, any individuals who may be criminally responsible and/or whether an abusive or negligent home environment was a contributory factor, and
  - c. that parents, guardians and/or the person reporting the missing youth are notified in a timely manner.
5. Upon location of a missing person, all agencies and information systems previously contacted for assistance will be notified or updated. This will include NCIC/TCIC and any other local, regional, State or national databases into which the information has been entered.
6. Where indicated, follow-up action shall include filing of an abuse and neglect report with the state youth service agency.

7. The case report shall include a complete report on the whereabouts, actions and activities of children while missing.
8. Where indicated, criminal charges shall be filed with the prosecutor's office.

I. POLICY:

Fire Investigator Personnel shall adhere to the incident command system put in place by the Bastrop County Emergency Management Coordinator. The Bastrop Fire Department has adopted the Incident Command System (ICS) which is recognized by the National Fire Association 1561, Standard on Fire Department Incident Management System. The System follows the National Incident Management System (NIMS). The System consists of procedures for controlling personnel, facilities, equipment, and communications. The structure of the ICS can be established and expanded depending upon the changing conditions of the incident. It is staffed and operated by qualified personnel from any emergency service agency and may involve personnel from a variety of agencies.

As such, the system can be used for any type of size of emergency, ranging from a minor incident involving a single unit, to a major emergency involving several agencies. The ICS allows agencies to communicate using common terminology and operating procedures. It also allows for the timely combining of resources during an emergency.

The ICS is designed to be used in response to emergencies caused by fires, floods, earthquakes, hurricanes, tornadoes, tidal waves, riots, terrorist acts or any other natural or human-caused incidents.

- A. The Incident Command System shall be established at all emergency incidents. Upon arrival at the emergency situation a command structure will be established. This command structure can increase and decrease in size in relation to the size and scope of each incident.

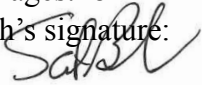

- B. Accountability- Fire Investigator Personnel shall advise dispatch of their response and arrival to all emergency call-outs. Investigator personnel shall report to the incident commander or designated staging area of their presence at said incident. After completing an assigned discipline or leaving an area of responsibility, said Investigator shall report to the Officer in Charge.

- C. Fire Investigators will not be issued protective clothing or a self-contained breathing apparatus (SCBA) and shall never enter into an environment that is an immediate danger of life and health (IDLH). Fire Investigators shall only enter into an incident scene when the Officer in Charge has deemed the scene as a non IDLH atmosphere.

II. PURPOSE:

The purpose of this policy is to provide for the safety and well-being of the investigator as to the investigator's role in the determination of fire cause and origin.

III. TRAINING:

Each Fire & Arson Investigator will be trained in the use of the incident command Management system. Training will consist of the following curriculum: National fire academy- Course title-Incident Command System, National Incident Management Training NIMS Course Titles IS-700, IS-100, IS-200 and IS-800.

EYEWITNESS IDENTIFICATION

I. POLICY

Eyewitness identification is a frequently used investigative tool. This Policy is designed to maximize the reliability of identifications, minimize unjust accusations of innocent persons and to establish evidence that is reliable and which conforms to established legal procedure.

II. PURPOSE

It is the purpose of this policy to establish department guidelines for photographic line-up identification and field identification procedures. The procedures in this policy are applicable when a person is known to a Detective and is suspected of criminal involvement in the incident under investigation.

III. DEFINITIONS

- A. Administrator. The person charged with presenting a photographic line-up to a witness.
- B. Assigned Detective. The officer is primarily responsible for investigating an incident.
- C. Blind Administrator. An administrator who does not know the identity of the suspect or the suspect's position in the photographic line-up.
- D. Blind Manner. The presentation of a photographic line-up by either a blind administrator or a blinded administrator.

- E. Blinded Administrator. An administrator who may know the identity of the suspect, but does not know the suspect's position in the photographic line-up.
- F. Field Identification. The presentation of a suspect to a witness following the commission of a crime for the purpose of identifying and/or eliminating a possible suspect.
- G. Fillers. The photographs used in a photographic line-up whose race, sex, age, height, weight, hair style and general appearance resemble the suspect.
- H. Folder Method. A photographic line-up where the photographs are placed in separate folders or envelopes and randomly shuffled prior to presentation so that the assigned Detective does not know which photograph the witness is viewing.
- I. Illiterate Person. An individual who speaks and understands English but cannot read and write English.
- J. Interpreter. An individual with the necessary skills that enable the individual to communicate with an illiterate person or a person with limited English proficiency to the degree the individual can ensure the person clearly understands all instructions given then prior to viewing a suspect in any identification procedure.
- K. Live Lineup. The presentation of individuals, including a suspect, in person to a witness, usually in a manner preventing the individuals from seeing or identifying the witness, for the purpose of identifying and/or eliminating suspects.
- L. Person with Limited English Proficiency. An individual who is unable to communicate effectively in English with a level of fluency that is typical of a native English speaker. Such a person may have difficulty speaking, reading, or writing in English and includes persons who can comprehend English, but are physically unable to write.
- M. Photographic Line-up. A collection of photographs including a suspect photograph and filler photographs that are placed in random order and shown to a witness for the purpose of identifying and eliminating suspects.

- N. Sequential Viewing. An identification procedure in which photographs are shown one at a time to a witness.
- O. Simultaneous Viewing. An identification procedure in which all photographs are shown at the same time to a witness.
- P. Suspect. An individual who has been specifically identified by the investigation as possibly being the person who committed the crime.
- Q. Witness. A term referring to a complainant, victim, eyewitness or any other form of witness to an incident.

IV. GENERAL PROCEDURES FOR LINE-UPS

- A. Live line-ups will not normally be used due to the difficulty of administration and the difficulty in obtaining sufficient numbers of individuals with similar physical characteristics. Should an officer determine a need for a live line-up, the officer should contact the prosecuting attorney for procedural and technical assistance and the line-up should be carried out with the intent of this policy in mind.
- B. Photographic Line-ups are approved for use by this department if the following procedures are followed. Photographic identification of suspects by witnesses should supplement other investigative actions and/or evidence.

V. PREPARING PHOTOGRAPHIC LINE-UPS

- A. The assigned Detective is responsible for:
  - 1. Preparing the photographic line-up including selecting the fillers and ensuring each of the photographs are numbered or lettered for later reference.
  - 2. Determining before any presentation if the witness is deaf, illiterate or has limited English proficiency. If the witness is deaf, illiterate, is non-English speaking or has limited English proficiency, the Detective will arrange for assistance to translate the Photographic Lineup Form in the language of the witness or otherwise assist the witness in understanding the instructions before proceeding. The identification of the assisting individual will be documented as well as the assistance provided.

3. Preserving the photo line-up, whether identification is made or not, together with full information about the identification process for future reference, by placing the photos in their original condition, the Photographic Lineup Form into the case file after the procedure.
4. Preparing the photographic line-up; the assigned Detective should:
  - a. Include only one suspect in each identification procedure.
  - b. Select fillers that generally fit the witness' description of the perpetrator. Fillers should be selected where no person stands out from the others.
  - c. Use photographs of individuals who are reasonably similar in age, height, weight and general appearance and of the same sex and race. Avoid use of fillers that so closely resemble the suspect that a person familiar with the suspect might find it difficult to distinguish the suspect from the fillers.
  - d. If multiple photos of the suspect are reasonably available to the Detective, select a photo that resembles the suspect's description or appearance at the time of the incident.
  - e. Include a minimum of five fillers per identification procedure.
  - f. Avoid reusing fillers in lineups shown to the same witness if showing a new suspect.
  - g. Ensure that no writings or information concerning previous arrest(s) will be visible to the witness. Do not mix color and black and white photos.
  - h. Use photos of the same size and basic composition. Mug shots should not be mixed with other photos. If mug shots are to be used, cover any portions that provide identifying information about the subject.

- i. All individuals in the photographic line-up and/or the origin of the photos should be known to the Detective, if possible.
- j. Photos should be reasonably contemporary.
- k. Do not use more than one photo of the same suspect.
- l. If there is more than one suspect, include only one suspect in each line-up presentation.
- m. View the array, once completed, to ensure that the suspect does not unduly stand out.

B. Administrators are responsible for:

- 1. Ensuring they are familiar with the contents of this policy and the line-up presentation process.
- 2. Ensuring the photographic line-up is presented in a manner consistent with this policy.
- 3. Documenting the conduct and results of the line-up presentation in the manner approved within this policy.
- 4. Returning all line-up materials and documentation to the assigned Detective.

VI. PRESENTING PHOTOGRAPHIC LINE-UPS

- A. It is the intent of this department to present all photographic line-ups to witnesses in a blind manner and using a sequential presentation of the photographs.
- B. If a department sworn member is not available to conduct the lineup a blind administrator or a sworn member of another local agency may be used. The assigned Detective preparing the lineup should ensure the assisting officer is aware of the procedures prior to presenting a lineup to a witness.
- C. If another sworn officer is not available within a reasonable period of time the assigned Detective may present the line-up to a witness using the folder method. The witness is shown only one folder at a time. The Photographic Line-up Form is changed to indicate the procedure used and the same presentation procedures are used below and the process used thoroughly documented. The Detective should also document the reasons for not being able to use a blind administrator.

- D. Police personnel present at the presentation should not make any suggestive statements, or take any other actions that may influence the judgment or perception of the witness.
- E. Prior to beginning the presentation, determine if the witness has seen the suspect at any time since the crime occurred (whether in person or in newspaper or television reports, etc.) If so, contact the assigned Detective to determine if the identification process should continue. Document this action in the supplement report.
- F. Provide the witness with a Photographic Lineup Form and explain the instructions for the line-up. Instructions given the witness prior to viewing a photographic line-up can facilitate an identification or non-identification based on the witnesses' memory. Read the instructions and admonitions verbatim from the form, and obtain the witness's signature indicating the witness understands the procedure, and signs the form as administrator. Ensure the witness understands the instructions before proceeding.
- G. Show the witness the photographs in a random order, one at a time, sequentially, and document the order shown. Remove each photograph from the witness prior to providing a new one. Allow the witness to see only one photograph at a time.
- H. If the witness identifies a suspect, record the number or other identification of the photograph and ask the witness for a statement of how confident the witness is about the identification. Show the remaining photographs even if a suspect is identified.
- I. Complete the Statement of Witness portion of the form, including documenting the witness's confidence statement in the witness's own words, regarding how certain the witness is of any identification. Have the witness complete and sign the appropriate portion of the form. Return all files, photographs, and forms to the assigned Detective and complete an offense supplement on the identification procedure.

- J. Do not provide any feedback of any kind to the witness during the procedure including whether or not the witness picked the suspect.

VII. DOCUMENTATION OF PHOTOGRAPHIC LINE-UPS

- A. All photographic line-ups will be documented in the method reasonably available to the administrator at the time of presentation. Acceptable methods of documentation include:

1. Video and Audio Recording
2. Audio Recording
3. Written documentation of the Line-up Presentation process.

In all cases, the administrator will, at a minimum, document in an offense supplement report the details of the line-up presentation process and result, and return the supplement, the Photographic Line-up Form, any video/audio recordings, and all original photographs and documents to the assigned Detective.

VIII. FIELD IDENTIFICATION PROCEDURES

The use of field identification should be avoided whenever possible in preference for the use of a photographic or live lineup. If there is some question regarding whether an individual stopped in the field may be the right suspect, an attempt at field identification may prevent the arrest of an innocent person. Therefore, when circumstances require the use of field identification the following guidelines should be followed:

- A. Procedures to Using Field Identifications
  1. Supervisory approval should be obtained prior to any Field Identification. The officer is responsible for ensuring the witness is able to understand the instructions given by officers. If the witness is deaf, illiterate or has limited English proficiency, the officer will provide for an interpreter or other assistance or not continue with the field identification.
  2. Single suspect field identification shall not be used if there is adequate probable cause to arrest the suspect.

3. A complete description of the suspect should be obtained from the witness prior to conducting a field identification. If the witness indicates the witness is unsure if the witness can identify the individual, a field identification will not be done.
4. Whenever possible, the witness should be transported to the location of the suspect rather than bringing the suspect to the witness.
5. Field identifications should not be attempted more than two hours after the commission of a crime.
6. Field identification should not be conducted when the suspect is in a patrol car, handcuffed or physically restrained by police officers, unless such protective measures are necessary to ensure safety.
7. Field identification should only be conducted with one witness present at a time. If the field identification is conducted for more than one witness it should be done separately. If one witness positively identifies the individual, consider making an arrest and using the above photographic lineup procedures for other witnesses.
8. The same suspect should not be presented to the same witness more than once in either field or photographic line-ups.
9. Field identification suspects should not be required to put on clothing worn by the perpetrator, to speak words uttered by the perpetrator or to perform other actions of the perpetrator.
10. Words or conduct of any type by officers that may suggest to the witness that the individual is or may be the perpetrator will be avoided.

B. Documentation of Field Identifications

1. The officer conducting a field identification, after supervisory approval, should use the Field Identification Form to inform the witness of the procedure and obtain evidence of the witness's understanding of the procedure.

2. The Officer will video/audio tape the witnesses viewing using the squad car video and audio recording system and document the witness' comments regarding the suspect on the Field Identification Form. The Form will be given to the assigned Investigating Officer who will include the form in the original Case Report. The Video/Audio recording will be pulled and placed in evidence and the evidence number included in the offense or supplement report.

	Subject: Domestic Violence and Protective Orders	Issue Date: 11/30/2015
	Chapter: 9	Revision Date: 06/01/2020
	Policy: 9.9	Total Pages: 14 Chief Bunch's signature:

Domestic Violence and Protective Orders

I. POLICY

The department assigns domestic or family violence (domestic disturbance) calls a high priority. The nature and seriousness of crimes committed between family or household members are not mitigated because of the relationships or living arrangements of those involved. Therefore, law enforcement must exercise leadership in the community in responding to domestic violence. An immediate criminal justice response can make a major difference in the disputants' lives. With all due consideration for their own safety, department personnel responding to a domestic disturbance call shall (1) restore order; (2) arrest persons when probable cause exists that a crime has occurred; (3) provide safety and security for the crime victim(s); and, (4) help participants contact appropriate agencies to help prevent future occurrences.

II. PURPOSE

To define domestic violence and related offenses, outline a safe procedure for handling violent incidents and calls, describe measures to end violence and protect victims.

III. DEFINITIONS

A. Assault

Intentionally, knowingly, or recklessly causes bodily injury to another including the person's spouse or threatens to cause imminent bodily injury to another including the person's spouse. This definition is not all inclusive as family violence may also entail aggravated circumstances, sexual assault, as well as other offenses. See Chapter 22 and 25 of the Texas Penal Code.

B. Domestic violence shelters/programs

Services that are provided (usually 24 hours a day) for women and their children who have been physically or emotionally abused or who have been threatened with abuse by their spouses or partners. Services include crisis intervention, counseling, shelter, escort to court, food, clothing and transportation.

C. Family abuse

Any threat or act of violence, including forceful detention, which results in physical injury or places one in reasonable apprehension of bodily injury and which is committed by a person against such person's family or household member.

D. Family or household member

1. Spouses, whether or not residing in the same home.
2. Former spouses, whether or not residing in the same home.
3. Persons who have a child in common, whether or not they have ever been married or resided together.
4. Parents, children, stepparents, stepchildren, grandparents, grandchildren, brothers and sisters half-brothers and half-sisters regardless of whether they reside in the same home with the suspect.
5. Parents-in-law, children-in-law, brothers- and sisters-in-law regardless of whether they reside in the same home with the suspect.
6. Persons, whether or not related, who cohabitate or who previously cohabited with the suspect and any children of either who then resided in the same home as the suspect.
7. (See Sections 71.003, 71.004, and 71.005 of the Family Code.)

E. Protective Order

A court order of protection on behalf of an abused family/household member that restrains the abuser from further acts of violence, may order the abuser to refrain from further contact, vacate the residence, relinquish custody of a vehicle, provide temporary child support plus other measures. A protective order may be valid up to two years. Types of protective orders:

1. Emergency protective order
2. Protective order
3. Temporary Ex Parte Orders: an order that is issued without the person who committed family violence present; a person subject to an order (the actor) who violates an ex parte order may not be arrested unless it is established the actor had been served with the order prior to the commission of the act(s) violating the order. In the event that an officer arrives and the actor is not aware of the order, the officer may assist the protected person in informing the actor subject of the existence of the order. The officer shall then remain at the scene until the actor has complied with any wording that requires the actor to leave the residence. If the order does not require the actor to leave, the officer shall remain at the scene while the protected person gathers necessary items to leave. See Texas Family Code Chapter 83 for additional information.

IV. PROCEDURES - General responsibilities

- A. Department personnel shall refer victims of domestic violence or serious bodily injury crimes to appropriate community resources (mental health agencies, medical doctors, legal assistance agencies, victim/witness assistance programs and domestic violence shelters/programs), and shall provide victims with the name, address and telephone number of the prosecuting attorney and the investigating law enforcement agency. Where possible, officers shall help victims directly access referral agencies.
- B. Department personnel shall be trained about domestic violence and its impact. Personnel must be well trained to confront unexpected violence. Disturbance calls can be dangerous to responding officers. Officers are encouraged to consult community resources such as the local domestic violence shelter and the local victim/witness advocacy program.

V. PROCEDURES - Patrol responsibilities

- A. Arrival at the scene

1. Obtain all available information from the dispatcher before arrival.
  2. When possible, officers should wait for back-up, discuss a strategy and approach the dispute scene in pairs.
- B. Avoid the use of sirens and other alarms in the vicinity of the scene. The suspect might be dangerous and could turn a weapon on arriving officers.
- C. Observe the location of the dispute before contacting the complainant. Consider the surroundings. Park the marked car a short distance away. Each officer should follow a separate approach to the scene of the dispute, maintaining maximum cover and an escape route. From this point on officers should remain within sight of one another, if possible.
- D. Before knocking on the door, listen and look in any nearby window to obtain additional information about the situation (e.g., layout of the house, number of people, weapons, evidence of violence or damage).
- E. Officers must be concerned for their own safety as well as the disputants'. To minimize the possibility of injury, stand to the side of the door and not in front of windows when knocking. The unexpected may occur when the door opens.

1. Initial contact with occupant(s).
  - a. Identify selves as law enforcement officers by name, give an explanation of your presence and request entry into the home (when conditions permit). Ascertain identity of complainant and ask to see the complainant and any other person at the home.
  - b. Officers shall not accept statements from any disputant or witness that the call was a mistake without investigating further. Officers shall not leave without interviewing the complainant.
  - c. If entry is refused, officers must explain that they must make sure there are no injured persons inside. If no one responds to knocking, officers shall try to establish voice contact by shouting for an answer.

- d. Refusal of entry or no response to a knock at the door may require a forced entrance only if officers have a reasonable belief that the safety of people inside is in jeopardy.
  - e. Officers may conduct a search of the premises if consent has been given to do so. Although a consent search eliminates the need for a warrant and for probable cause, such consent must be freely and voluntarily given. If two people have joint ownership or possession of a place or thing, either one may give a valid consent. However, the other, if present, may legally object. Once a party refuses consent, officers must obtain a warrant to search or articulate another exception to the warrant requirement.
  - f. A spouse can consent to the search of premises used jointly by both husband and wife. This also applies if the man and woman are unmarried cohabitants. If both are present, either one may legally object. Once a party refuses consent, officers must obtain a warrant to search or articulate another exception to the warrant requirement.
- F. Officers may also make a warrantless entry to conduct a search if an emergency exists. Officers must have a reasonable belief that such an emergency does exist (example: officers believe that someone, perhaps the victim or a child, is in need of emergency assistance).
- 1. Officers shall evaluate the following elements when considering a warrantless entry:
    - a. The degree of urgency involved and the time required to get a warrant.
    - b. The possibility of danger to others, including officers left to guard the site.
    - c. Whether the suspected offense is serious or involves violence.
    - d. Whether officers reasonably believe that persons may be armed.

- e. Finally, officers are reminded that they have a lawful right and duty to investigate any situation which they reasonably believe to be an emergency.
2. Once inside, establish control by:
    - a. Inquiring about the nature of the dispute.
    - b. Identifying disputants.
    - c. Being aware of potential weapons in surroundings.
    - d. Determining if persons are in other rooms, whether children or adults, and the extent of any injuries (these persons should be separated from the parties involved and kept out of hearing range so their status as possible witnesses won't be compromised).
    - e. Protect the victim from further abuse. Separate the victim from the suspect and arrange for medical attention if victim is hurt. If the victim appears injured and yet refuses medical assistance, carefully document any observed injuries, as well as the refusal of medical treatment. Photograph the victim's injuries if possible.
    - f. Ascertain whether a protective order has been violated.
    - g. If weapons (whether firearms, knives or any other object which could be used as a weapon) are present, secure them away from the disputants, if practicable, while the disputants are being interviewed. If appropriate seize weapons for evidence.
    - h. Transporting family/household members to the hospital, safe shelter or magistrate.
  3. Officers shall transport victims to a safe location as they wish or as the circumstances require.
  4. If a complainant seeks officers' help in entering the complainant's residence to obtain personal property, the officers must determine that the complainant has lawful authority to do so; must advise all parties that they are accompanying the complainant to obtain items for immediate personal (or children's) use; that the officers' function is to maintain order; and that any dispute over property is a matter for the courts to decide.

G. Interviewing all disputants

1. Ensure safety and privacy by interviewing the victim in a place separate from the suspect, if identifiable.
2. Critical to the success of the interview is the officer's manner. Officers must listen, show interest in the disputants and their problem, and remain aware of nonverbal communications signals.
3. Officers shall attempt a low-key approach in domestic violence cases. Maintain good eye contact through natural, spontaneous glances. (Fixed gazes or staring increase fear and hostility.) A relaxed stance and appropriate facial and head movements demonstrate interest and encourage the victim to continue speaking.
4. If possible, separate the parties so that they can individually describe the incident without interruption. (This may help the parties relieve emotional tension.) Although the disputants may be separated, officers shall remain within sight and hearing of each other.
5. After the parties have given their statements the officers should ask about details for clarification and summarize the stated accounts (which allows the parties to point out anything that might be misrepresented).
6. Be aware that parties may make excited utterances which may have evidentiary value. Record these utterances when practicable and note them in the report.

H. Interviewing the victim

1. Ascertain the following information from the victim:
2. What happened.
3. Any injuries, who caused them, and what weapons or objects were used.

4. Relationship to suspect.
5. Any threats made against victim or others.
6. Forced sexual contact against victim's will.
7. Any court cases pending against suspect or any protective orders in effect.
8. Is suspect on probation or parole.
9. Did suspect threaten others, particularly children, damage property or hurt pets.

I. Interviewing witnesses

1. Interview any witnesses to the incident--children, other family members, neighbors--as soon as possible.
2. Remember that witnesses may be experiencing significant emotional crisis that might influence the accuracy of their accounts.
3. If witnesses provide information about prior assaults, document them to help establish a pattern.
4. Children of disputants should be interviewed with care and kindness. Sit, kneel or otherwise be at their level when speaking to them. Signs of trauma or abuse should be noted.

J. Collection of Evidence

Officers should ensure they treat a family violence offense with the same seriousness as other criminal offenses and conduct a preliminary investigation in the same manner to include:

1. Collecting any physical evidence or calling crime scene personnel to do so.

2. Photograph any damages or injuries received by any parties.

VI. PROCEDURES - Arrests

- A. Officers may make an arrest without a warrant if they have probable cause to believe that the individual has committed an assault resulting in bodily injury to a member of the person's family or household. Further, the department promotes a policy of arrest when the elements of an appropriate offense are present.
- B. If officers cannot identify a predominant physical aggressor and do not make an arrest, they shall nevertheless thoroughly document the incident. Further, officers shall not threaten to arrest all parties involved for the purpose of discouraging future requests for law enforcement intervention.
- C. In cases where the conditions of a protective order have been violated, officers shall review the victim's copy of the order, checking it for validity. If a protective order exists and its terms ("no contact," "no trespass," or "no further abuse") are violated then the officer shall arrest the violator if probable cause exists.
- D. Officers making arrests for family violence may petition for an emergency protective order if so requested by the victim or if the officer believes there is a significant danger of future assaults.
- E. If children are involved in the incident, officers shall contact the on-call Child Protective Services worker if a child is abused or neither parent can reasonably look after the child's safety and well-being (neglect is a separate reportable offense).
- F. In determining probable cause, the officer shall not consider:
  1. Whether the parties are married or living together, their race, sex, ethnicity, social class or sexual orientation.
  2. Whether the complainant has not sought or obtained a protective order.
  3. The officer's own preference to reconcile the parties despite the complainant's insistence that an arrest be made.

4. That the complainant has called for law enforcement protection previously and has not pursued or has withdrawn the criminal complaint against the abuser.
5. That the complainant has not begun divorce proceedings.
6. Assurances of either disputant that violence will stop.
7. The lack of visible bruises or injuries.
8. Denial by either disputant that violence occurred.

G. Factors favoring the decision to arrest

1. Arrest is the most appropriate response when these factors are present:
  - a. Serious, intense conflict.
  - b. Use of a weapon.
  - c. Previous injury or damage.
  - d. Previous court appearance against the offending party.
  - e. Previous attempt to sever the relationship.
  - f. Previous calls for law enforcement help.
  - g. When a felony has occurred.
  - h. Evidence of drugs or alcohol use at the assault.
  - i. Offenses committed with the officer present.
  - j. Valid warrants on file for other crimes.
  - k. A protective order has been violated.
  - l. Aggressive behavior toward anyone, pets or any other threatening behavior

H. Making the arrest

1. Arrest the suspect if the suspect is present, apply handcuffs, inform the suspect that the decision to arrest is a law enforcement one, and transport securely to the jail/magistrate.
2. If the suspect is absent, transport (or arrange transportation for) the victim to a safe shelter or other appropriate place. Circulate a "be-on-the-lookout" message describing the suspect if necessary and arrange for an arrest warrant.
3. If an arrest must be made because a protective order has been violated, verify its validity by:
  - a. Examining the victim's copy, if available.
  - b. Having communications search TCIC or contact the jurisdiction that issued the order to confirm its currency.

I. If the abusive person is not arrested

1. Complete an incident report and give a copy or arrange to have a copy given to the victim.
2. Inform the victim that the department will begin proceeding to procure a warrant for the offender if an offense occurred.
3. Advise the victim of the importance of preserving evidence.
4. Explain to the victim about protective orders and how to obtain them and offer to help the victim obtain them later.
5. If the victim wants to leave the premises to ensure safety, remain at the scene while the victim packs essentials. Advise the victim to take only personal items plus important papers.
6. Regardless of whether an arrest is made, the officer shall provide the "Notice to Adult Victims of Family Violence" to the victim, which explains legal and community resources available, including the name, address and telephone number of the prosecuting attorney and the investigating law enforcement agency

7. Assure the victim that the Bastrop ISD Police Department shall assist in future emergencies and explain measures for enhancing the victim's own safety.

J. Gathering evidence:

1. Physical evidence takes three forms in domestic violence cases: the injuries of the victim, evidentiary articles that substantiate an attack and the crime scene itself.
2. The victim's account of injuries sustained should be corroborated by a physician if possible.
3. When feasible take photographs of injuries.
4. Photograph the crime scene to show that a struggle occurred.
5. Collect evidence according to the same principles as applied to any crime scene.
6. Seize any weapons that the predominant physical aggressor used or threatened to use in the commission of any crime
7. Obtain statements from all witnesses, particularly noting any excited utterances that bear on the incident.

K. Documenting the incident

1. All incident reports on domestic violence shall follow general reporting procedures.
2. Include in all reports of domestic violence:
  - a. Facts and circumstances of domestic violence including a description of why one disputant was deemed the predominant physical aggressor.
  - b. Victim's statements as to the frequency and severity of prior incidents of abuse by the same family or household member.
  - c. The victim's statements as to the number of prior calls for law enforcement assistance.

L. The disposition of the investigation.

1. In any case involving domestic violence, thoroughly document probable cause to arrest.
2. If an arrest is not made for domestic violence the incident must still be documented where either no probable cause existed, or circumstances dictated another course of action. In such cases, in addition to the above considerations, officers shall note:
  - a. What referral information was given
  - b. The name of any counselor contacted.
  - c. Why no arrest was made, nor any warrant issued.
3. If children were present, make a report of abuse or neglect, if appropriate, and forward it to Child Protective Services
4. Regardless of whether an arrest is made, the officer shall provide the "Notice to Adult Victims of Family Violence" to the victim which explains legal and community resources available, including the name, address and telephone number of the prosecuting attorney and the investigating law enforcement agency.

M. Arrests of law enforcement personnel

1. If the predominant physical aggressor or abuser is an employee of this agency, the responding officer shall summon the field supervisor, who shall in turn notify the supervisor's chain of command.
2. The scene shall be secured and medical attention summoned, if required. The employee shall be disarmed or removed from access to weapons. The possibility exists that the employee's departmental weapon may be evidence of an offense.
3. The on-call Detective shall be summoned and shall begin an internal criminal investigation

- a. If probable cause to arrest exists, the Detective shall arrest and gather evidence (including taking photographs) consistent with this general order.
  - b. The assigned Detective shall work with the responding patrol officer to ensure that the victim receives medical attention, if necessary, is transported to a hospital or safe shelter and that all reports are completed, evidence gathered and photographs taken. The responding patrol officer shall assist in obtaining an emergency protective order.
  - c. The Detective shall speedily present the case to the prosecuting attorney.
4. Upon termination of the criminal investigation, the Chief may assign an officer to undertake an internal administrative investigation into the incident consistent with Policy 4.7. The Chief may suspend the employee pending the outcome of the investigation.
  - a. Suspended employees shall immediately turn in all agency-issued weapons, vehicles, badges and identification to their supervisor.
  - b. If the internal administrative investigation supports a violation of agency policy, the Chief shall take appropriate action consistent with Policy 5.12. Further, if the investigation confirms that domestic violence occurred, the chief may require counseling, psychological evaluation, demotion or termination of employment.
  - c. Federal law states that any person (including a law enforcement officer) convicted under any state or federal law for a misdemeanor involving the use of, attempted use of physical force or the threatened use of a deadly weapon when committed by a current or former spouse, parent or guardian of the victim, a person sharing a child in common or a cohabitant of the victim (past or present), is prohibited from shipping, transporting, possessing, or receiving firearms or ammunition. The offense may have occurred at any time. Law enforcement officers convicted of offenses involving weapons or threats of force may therefore be unable to maintain their certification.

- d. Note that officers who are the subject of a protective order shall not carry firearms. Officers who are the subject of a protective order shall turn in all agency-issued weapons.

VII.PROCEDURES - Issuing an emergency protective order

A. Emergency protective orders (EPO) (domestic violence)

1. The EPO aims to protect the health or safety of a victim of domestic violence. It is issued only if the offender is arrested. The judge or magistrate who arraigns the offender after the arrest may issue the EPO on the magistrates own initiative, upon request of the victim, the guardian of the victim, a peace officer or an attorney representing the state.

If an officer has at least a reasonable belief that an assault has occurred and there exists probable danger of further abuse, the officer shall request the judge or magistrate to issue an EPO.

- a. If circumstances make it impossible or inappropriate for an officer to obtain the EPO, the officer shall advise the victim that the victim can request an EPO directly from a magistrate or the prosecuting attorney.
  - b. The victim does not need to press charges or swear a warrant. The presence of the victim or suspect is immaterial to obtaining an EPO.
  - c. An EPO may order a stop to abusive behavior, prohibit contact between parties, order the abuser out of a shared home, possessing a firearm and provide other relief.
2. An officer can petition for an EPO by telephone or in person.
  3. The EPO remains in effect for up to 61 days but not less than 31 days. The victim can petition for a permanent protective order before the expiration of an EPO.
  4. The offender is served with a copy of the order at the time of arraignment. The victim will be contacted and informed that an EPO has been issued and will be provide with a copy and informed of its requirements.

5. A copy is also delivered to the Chief of Police and communications center for the jurisdiction where the victim resides.

B. Protective Orders from Other States

Officers shall enforce protective orders from other states or possessions of the United States as if they were issued in Texas. This applies to all orders in which the respondent has received notice and opportunity to attend a protective order hearing. Enforcement of out-of-state protective orders does not require that they be registered in Texas. If officers are unable to verify an outstanding protective order, they must nevertheless honor it. Officers cannot arrest for violation of the order, however, if the violator has not been served with it.

Accident Investigations

I. POLICY

An objective of the Bastrop ISD Police Department is the reduction of motor vehicle accidents. To accomplish this, the department performs a variety of functions such as providing emergency service to the injured, protecting the accident scene, conducting accident investigations and follow-ups, preparing reports, and taking proper enforcement action. The purpose of accident investigation is to determine the cause of an automobile crash and use the information to develop enforcement that will reduce accidents. Accident reports are used by the Texas Department of Public Safety and the Texas Department of Transportation at the state level and locally to study the frequency of crashes at a given location and time, the causes, and the road conditions that existed at the time. The reports are also used to develop selective enforcement programs, engineering studies and to promote street and highway safety.

II. PURPOSE

The purpose of this policy is to establish guidelines for the proper handling of traffic accidents and for the collection and use of data that will reduce automobile accidents resulting in property damage, injury, or death.

III. PROCEDURES – General (TBP: 7.16)

Officers shall also be assigned to respond to any accident involving disturbances between drivers/passengers or which create major traffic congestion as a result of the accident or where vehicles are damaged to the extent that towing is required. Patrol vehicles may be assigned to any other accident, not listed above, to assist persons involved with information exchange. Time permitting, officers may investigate and report these accidents as supervisors direct.

B. Responding to the Accident Scene

1. Officers shall respond to minor accident scene code one, unless the dispatcher or supervisor directs otherwise.
2. Officers shall respond code three to major accidents where there exist injuries or major road or highway blockages or where information provided indicates the immediate need for an officer on scene.
3. The officers responding shall park their vehicles as necessary to protect victims and the accident scene while still leaving room for egress for emergency services.

C. Accident scene responsibilities

3. In case of accidents that occur on private property, accident reports need not be filled out if property damage does not exceed $1000, unless the supervisor directs.
4. In case of extremely inclement weather where an accident involves only property damage, the officer may, with the supervisor's approval, perform the following:
  - a. Obtain information over the phone to complete the accident report and request that the involved drivers come to the department and file a report in person within 48 hours of the incident.
  - b. Complete a report showing the name, address, operator license number and telephone number of each driver.

IV. PROCEDURES - Accident scene

Expert assistance shall be requested through a supervisor.
3. At the accident scene, the officer may take immediate enforcement action and issue a citation for observed violations. In death cases, the prosecuting attorney may decide the appropriate charge.
4. If the investigating officer concludes that the accident was caused by a person driving under the influence of intoxicants (DWI) and the defendant is still at the scene, the DWI arrest shall be made before transport.
5. If the driver is transported to the hospital before the officer arrives and if the officer later concludes DWI, an arrest warrant shall be obtained. If the driver is hospitalized, then the warrant will be served when the driver is released.
6. In other traffic related investigations, when the officer leaves the scene of the offense and later identifies an offender or offense, arrest warrants may be obtained. The citation can be issued at the hospital after the accident scene has been processed.

C. Accident scene procedures

1. Upon notification of an accident, the officer assigned shall proceed promptly. The patrol vehicle shall not be parked at the scene in a manner that will endanger other pedestrians or motorists. The officer shall consider using the vehicle as a shield to protect the scene as well as protecting the officer. The officer shall leave the vehicle emergency lights on.

2. At all times when investigating an accident on the streets or highways the officer shall wear a reflector safety vest. If necessary, officers shall use turbo-flares (available in each patrol vehicle) to create an illuminated warning pattern to alert other drivers.
3. In case of fire danger from leaking or ruptured gas tanks or where the accident may involve hazardous materials, the on-scene officer shall summon the fire department.
  - a. All patrol vehicles are equipped with a copy of the current emergency response guidebook to aid in identifying vehicles carrying hazardous materials. The guidebook illustrates hazardous materials placards and identifies and describes the relevant hazard, appropriate emergency procedures and evacuation procedures.
  - b. Any officer arriving at the scene of such an accident who sees hazardous materials placards shall immediately summon the fire department. The fire chief will assume control of any scene involving hazardous materials and all officers shall provide support as required. The investigation of the accident shall begin after approval by the fire chief.
4. Any property belonging to accident victims shall be protected from theft or pilferage and, if owners are not present, it shall be taken into custody, tagged and held for safekeeping until the victims claim it.
5. The person clearing a wrecked or damaged vehicle from a highway is responsible for the removal of any glass or other injurious substance dropped upon the highway. Where the quantity of accident debris is too great for the wrecker operator to do this, the fire department shall assist in washing down combustible substances.
6. If either driver is not present at the accident scene, do not assume that it is a hit/run unless further inquiry indicates the possibility. Perform the following actions if the incident appears to be a hit/run.

- a. As soon as practicable, transmit the description of the vehicle and driver to dispatch, along with the direction of travel and time elapsed since the incident.
- b. Process the accident scene as a crime scene.

D. Accident report

1. A report shall be filed on all accidents that occur on District property, or publicly accessed District property within the District if it meets any of the normal reporting criteria (death, personal injury, property damage in excess of $1000 or involves government operated vehicles). Public property is any highway, roadway, street or public parking lot maintained by the state, county or city.
  - a. Publicly accessed private property is a private access way or parking area provided for a client of a business, but not residential property or private parking where a fee is charged for parking.

2. Owing to the risk to radio and emergency equipment, officers shall not connect jumper cables to a patrol vehicle to start a person's vehicle. Summon a wrecker if a jump start is required.

3. Officers shall direct motorists who are low on gas to the nearest station. If completely out of gas and no station in town is open, summon a wrecker on behalf of the motorist.

	Subject: Informants	Issue Date: 11/30/2015

	Policy: 9.11 Reference: TBP: 7.11 and 7.12	Total Pages: 7 Chief Bunch's signature:

Informants

I. POLICY

In many instances, a successful investigation cannot be conducted without the use of confidential informants (“CI”). While the use of a CI is an effective tool in investigations, it can be undermined by the misconduct of the CI or the officer utilizing the informant. Therefore, it shall be the policy of this law enforcement agency to take necessary precautions by developing sound informant control procedures.

II. PURPOSE

The purpose of this policy is to provide regulations for the control and use of CI’s.

III. DEFINITIONS

- A. Confidential Informant: An individual who provides services or information to the police, with or without being paid, but wishes to remain anonymous.
- B. Confidential Informant File: File maintained in order to document all information that pertains to confidential informants.

IV. PROCEDURES

- A. Establishment of an Informant File System
  - 1. The commanding officer in charge of the criminal investigations function shall be responsible for developing and maintaining confidential informant files.
  - 2. A file shall be maintained on each confidential informant (CI) used by officers. Each file shall be coded with an assigned informant control number and shall contain the following information:

- a. Informant's name;
  - b. Informant payment record, kept on top of the file. This record provides a summary of informant payments.
  - c. Receipts for purchase of information
  - d. Copies of statements made by informant;
  - e. Name of officer initiating use of the informant;
  - f. Informant's photograph, fingerprints and criminal history record;
  - g. Briefs of information provided by the CI and its subsequent reliability. If an informant is determined to be unreliable, the informant's file shall be placed in the unreliable informant file;
  - h. Signed informant agreement; and
  - i. Update on active or inactive status of informant.
3. Confidential informants that at any time provide officers with false, erroneous information or statements, shall have the notation "Unreliable" and the details of the erroneous information placed in the CI file. Officers shall not use any information provided by an individual who had previously been designated an unreliable informant.
  4. Informant files shall be maintained in a secured area within the criminal investigations section.
  5. Access to the informant files shall be restricted to the Chief of Police, the supervisor of criminal investigations or their designees.
  6. Sworn personnel may only review an individual's informant file upon the approval of the supervisor of criminal investigations.

B. Recruitment and Use of Informants

Individuals have varied motivations for becoming a confidential informant. It is critical that officers use good judgment and understand the reasoning behind an individual serving as an informant. Some are providing information as a means to eliminating or reducing a criminal case against them, others for money and others because of a sense of civic responsibility.

1. Officers may recruit informants in the following manner:
  - a. From the members of the public who may have information about specific criminal activities occurring in the District.
  - b. From individuals arrested for non-violent crimes such as possession of controlled substances. No CIs will be recruited for purposes of reducing or eliminating any charges where there is a victim of a crime or any involving Family Violence,
  - c. From individuals who volunteer to be a CI (for payment or not).
  - d. Juveniles (Under age of 21) shall not be used. While officers may receive information and act on confidential information given by a juvenile, they shall not be considered a CI nor encouraged or paid any monies (other than through the Crime Stopper program) for any work done. The use of juveniles for tobacco or alcohol sting operations is permitted if approved by the Chief of Police and with the approval signature of both custodial parents.
  - e. Before using any individual who is currently on Probation or Parole, the permission of the controlling Probation or Parole officer must be obtained.
2. Before using an individual as a CI an officer must receive initial approval from the CID supervisor.
3. The officer shall compile sufficient information through a background investigation in order to determine the reliability and credibility of the individual.

4. After the officer receives initial approval to use an individual as a CI, an informant file shall be opened.
5. All persons determined to be unsuitable for use as a CI shall be referenced as unreliable in the informant file.

C. General Guidelines for Handling CIs

1. All CIs are required to sign and abide by the provisions of the departmental informant agreement. The officer utilizing the CI shall discuss each of the provisions of the agreement with the CI, with particular emphasis on the following:
  - a. Informants are not law enforcement officers. They have no arrest powers, are not permitted to conduct searches and seizures and may not carry a weapon;
  - b. Informants will be arrested if found engaging in any illegal activity. They will receive no special legal considerations; and
  - c. Informants are not to take, and the department will not condone, any actions that may be considered entrapment. Entrapment occurs where the informant encourages, persuades or otherwise motivates a person to engage in criminal activity.
2. No member of this agency shall knowingly maintain a social relationship with CIs while off duty, or otherwise become personally involved with CIs. Members of this agency shall not solicit, accept gratuities or engage in any private business transaction with a CI.
3. Whenever possible an officer shall always be accompanied by another officer when meeting with a CI.

D. Payments to Informants

1. The department maintains a confidential fund for payment to informants. Payments to informants (CIs) will be approved by the Chief of Police in advance of any payment. Officers wishing to pay an informant for information shall:

- a. Prepare a Request for Funds form with the CI's number, a short explanation of what information is being purchased and what case of incident the information pertains to and present to the officer's supervisor. The supervisor will determine if the payment is appropriate and forward the request to the Chief of Police.
- b. If approved by the Chief of Police, the CID supervisor will log out the money to the officer and have the officer sign receipt of the money on the request form. The supervisor shall also note the disbursement in the confidential funds log.
- c. The officer will meet with the informant with at least one other officer or supervisor present and obtain the information and make payment to the CI. The CI will sign a receipt for the funds.
- d. If no payment is made, the funds will be returned to the CID supervisor before the end of shift.
- e. The receipt will be returned to the CID supervisor along with a summary of the information provided and will note place the original of the receipt in the confidential fund log.
- f. A copy of the receipt and the summary of information given will be placed in the CI's file.

2. Narcotics Informants

- a. Payment for any covert drug purchase should follow all standard protocols for proving reliance including searching the informant prior to the purchase, providing only purchase cash, surveillance to and from the purchase and a complete search following the purchase witnessed by at least two officers.

- b. If at all possible, a single CI should not be allowed to identify a narcotics target and make a purchase for the prosecution of that target. A separate CI should be used if possible to prevent a CI from using the law enforcement system to their advantage.

3. Maintenance of the confidential fund. (TBP: 7.12)

- a. The CID supervisor is assigned the responsibility for maintaining the informant fund. The fund will be maintained in a locking cash box and locked in the safe in the CID supervisor's office.
- b. At no time will the funds be greater than $500 in the fund.
- c. The confidential fund custodian shall make disbursements from the confidential fund only to authorized personnel for the following purposes:
  - i. Payments that are to be made directly to confidential informants;
  - ii. Investigative funds for the purchase of illegal drugs, contraband and other criminal evidence;
  - iii. Purchases of food and beverages for a confidential informant;
  - iv. Expenditures for authorized undercover operations; and
  - v. Flash and front money.
- d. The confidential fund custodian shall not be permitted to make personal (i.e., the custodian) disbursements from the confidential fund.
- e. A disbursement log and receipt book will be maintained inside the cash box with the funds. Entries in the log will be made for every disbursement or return as well as replenishment of the fund.

- f. The disbursement log shall record the beginning balance, date of withdrawal, amount, officer receiving, CI number, case number if any and ending balance.
- g. After an officer returns with a receipt signed by the informant, the CID supervisor will check the signature to ensure a match with the signature on file, copy the receipt, and place a copy of the receipt in the informant file along with a statement of the information or service received. The original of the receipt will be kept in a file in the safe with the cash box.
- h. When the amount of funds in the informant fund drops below $100, the CID supervisor will request replenishment from the District Finance Department.
- i. At least every 6 months, the Chief of Police or designee not connected with the management of the fund, will conduct an audit of the fund and operational procedures. The audit will be documented and forwarded to the Chief of Police and the District Finance Department. A notation of the audit will also be made in the disbursement log.

Development of Policies and Procedures

I. Policy

- A. In 1973, the Texas Legislature enacted Title 3 of the Texas Family Code, the statutory basis for juvenile law. The Family Code attempts to balance the needs and rights of the child against the needs for a safe community.

The two state agencies primarily involved in the juvenile justice system are the Texas Youth Commission and the Texas Juvenile Probation Commission. While both state agencies provide juvenile justice services at the state level, the juvenile justice system in Texas functions primarily at the local county level. Most juvenile offenders are processed through county courts, under the guidance of the county juvenile boards.

The Bastrop ISD Police Department in the development of the agency's policies and procedures relating to juveniles solicited and encouraged review and comment by other elements of the juvenile justice system, such as the Bastrop County Juvenile Probation Department and the Bastrop County Juvenile Board. This Administration continues to utilize other elements of the juvenile justice system in the development of agency policies and procedures relating to juveniles, including:

1. JUVENILE JUSTICE HANDBOOK FOR CITIES, published by the Texas Attorney General's Office; and
  2. JUVENILE JUSTICE PROCEDURES funded and developed in 1999 by the Office of the Governor, Criminal Justice Division.
- B. The Juvenile Justice Procedures Course Manual was developed through the Juvenile Justice Video Instruction Project, which was funded by the Office of the Governor, Criminal Justice Division, Grant No. JA-96-

J02-13151. The primary purpose of this project was to train police officers across the state, regarding juvenile procedures. All sworn police officers shall be trained in juvenile procedures.

II. Definitions

- A. Bastrop County Juvenile Board is composed of local judges, which governs the operation of the juvenile justice system at the local level, including the juvenile detention facility.
- B. Bastrop County Juvenile Probation is the county agency responsible for administering juvenile probation's services at the local level, including a safe and suitable detention facility. The Bastrop County Juvenile Probation Department functions at the direction of the Bastrop County Juvenile Board.
- C. Texas Family Code is the state law, which regulates the treatment of juvenile offenders.
- D. Texas Juvenile Probation Commission (TJPC) was created in 1981 as the state agency in charge of overseeing juvenile probation services in the State of Texas.
- E. Texas Youth Commission (TYC) is the state agency charged with holding, treating, and rehabilitating the most serious juvenile offenders. TYC's responsibilities include
  - 1. Rehabilitation
  - 2. Parole supervision

III. Purpose

To encourage communication, cooperation, and coordination among the various components of the juvenile justice system in the development of the agency's policies and procedures, relating to juveniles.

	Subject: Agency Referrals	Issue Date: 11/30/2015
	Chapter: 10	Revision Date: 06/01/2020
	Policy: 10.3	Total Pages: 3 Chief Bunch's signature:

Agency Referrals

I. Purpose

To encourage officers to use the least coercive among reasonable alternatives, diverting juveniles, who commit petty crimes, from the Juvenile Justice System; while restricting juvenile referrals to those areas, involving serious criminal conduct, violent behavior or repeated criminal violations.

II. Definitions

- A. CINS: is an acronym for Conduct in Need of Supervision. CINS is defined as conduct, other than a traffic offense, that violates laws that are punishable by fine only; or penal ordinances of any political subdivision, such as Public Intoxication.
- B. Status offense: is conduct under state law that is generally not a crime if committed by an adult, such as runaway, truancy or juvenile curfew violations.
- C. Delinquent Conduct: is conduct, other than a traffic offense, that violates a penal law of this state or of the United States, punishable by imprisonment or by confinement in jail.

III. Policy

- A. Law Enforcement Agencies have a wide range of alternative remedies they may employ, ranging from warnings, citations and referral to juvenile court. Officers may handle a juvenile either informally or formally, in accordance with the Texas Family Code Sec. 52.03 or the Education Code, depending upon existing circumstances. The Bastrop ISD Police Department recognizes the need to prevent juvenile delinquency, to divert juveniles from the juvenile justice system (minor offenses), and to pro-actively enforce the law, while holding juvenile offenders accountable.
  - 1. Informal disposition is when the officer diverts minor violations from the Juvenile Justice System, by outright release with no further action, or under warning to the juvenile's parents or guardians or the issuing of written citations.
  - 2. Formal disposition requires referral to the Bastrop County Juvenile Probation Department, Juvenile Court or District Attorney.

- B. When dealing with juvenile offenders, officers shall use the least coercive among reasonable alternatives, consistent with preserving public safety, order and individual liberty, regarding juvenile custody, release and detention. In accordance with the Texas Family Code, warnings, written citations or summons should be used rather than taking the child into police custody. Officers will notify the parents or guardians. A copy of the citation will be mailed to the juvenile's parents or guardians.

The diversion of juvenile offenders for minor violations should be at the mutual agreement of the Bastrop ISD Police Department, Bastrop County Juvenile Probation Department, and/or Bastrop ISD Administration that it would be in the best interest of the juvenile. If in doubt, officers are instructed to contact their immediate supervisor or converse with a representative of the Bastrop County Juvenile Probation Department before taking informal action. Specific factors should be considered in regards to the possible diversion of juvenile offenders from the Juvenile Justice System as outlined in the following procedures.

Formal legal proceedings (referral to juvenile court), regarding juvenile offenders, shall be restricted to those cases involving serious criminal conduct or repeated criminal violations.

IV. Procedure

- A. Juveniles, alleged to have committed the following offenses, shall be referred to the Bastrop County Juvenile Probation Department.
1. All felonies
  2. A and B misdemeanors, such as:
    - a. Firearm violations;
    - b. Incidents of violence, involving any other weapon;
    - c. Narcotic violations;
    - d. DWI/DUI; and
    - e. Possession of illegal weapons at school or school related activity.
  3. Class A assaults on school employees and public servants, if the assault is connected to their official capacity.
- B. Class C traffic and non-traffic misdemeanors and Status Offense may be referred to Municipal court or the Justice of the Peace. Officers may issue a citation for all fine only offenses to any juvenile age 10 or above. The juvenile's parent or guardian must accompany juveniles, under the age of 17. Officers shall not issue citations to juveniles during school hours or school functions for non-traffic offenses.
- C. Other minor offenses, including status offenses, may be disposed by outright release with no further action. In making the decision to refer a case, consideration should be given to the following factors:
1. Juvenile's age

2. Arrest record
  3. Cooperation of juvenile/parents
  4. Nature of the offense
  5. Complainant's desire for further action in the juvenile justice system
  6. Availability of community-based treatment programs
- D. Cases not referred to the Bastrop County Juvenile Probation Department may be disposed as follows:
1. Referral to an alternative program, such as:
    - a. Behavior adjustment and intervention;
    - b. Catholic Family Services;
    - c. Community Resource Coordination Groups (CRCG).
  2. Brief conference with the juvenile, parent or guardian.
- E. Warning Notices:
1. May be given, at the officer's discretion, when no further intervention is deemed necessary, for the following offenses:
    - a. Status Offenses
    - b. Class A and B Misdemeanors that are not included under mandatory referral policy.
  2. Warning notices do not require an offense report.

Custodial Interrogations

I. Purpose

To safeguard the constitutional rights of juvenile offenders.

II. Policy

Officers of the Bastrop ISD Police Department will strictly adhere to the procedures set-forth, concerning the custodial interrogations of juveniles.

III. Procedure

A. Officers who interrogate a juvenile suspect regarding that juvenile's possible involvement in an alleged criminal offense shall adhere to the following procedures:

1. Identify themselves as Bastrop ISD Police Officers and give notice of their purpose.
2. When appropriate, arrange for the juvenile interrogation to take place at the Bastrop ISD Police Department in one of the approved juvenile processing offices, which has been designated so, by the Bastrop County Juvenile Board.
3. Promptly notify the parents or guardians in regards to the custodial interrogation of juveniles.
4. Promptly contact the Chief of Police to receive permission to interrogate.

5. Interrogating officer shall contact and arrange for a magistrate to advise the juvenile offender of the statutory warnings, under the Texas Family code as follows:
  - a. You have the right to remain silent and not make any statement at all and that any statement that you make may be used in evidence against you;
  - b. You have the right to have an attorney present to advise you either prior to any questioning or during the questioning;
  - c. If you are unable to employ an attorney, you have the right to have an attorney appointed to counsel with you prior to or during any interviews with peace officers or attorneys representing the state;
  - d. You have the right to terminate (stop) the interview at any time.
- B. No juvenile can be compelled to answer any incriminating questions. Once a magistrate is convinced that the juvenile suspect understands the previously described constitutional rights and the nature of the criminal allegation made against the juvenile suspect, then the officer may continue with the interrogation.
- C. Officers will not prolong the interrogation period any longer than is necessary to complete their criminal investigation, but by state law the duration of interrogation cannot exceed six (6) hours.
- D. The interrogation should be limited to two (2) officers.
- E. Because the juvenile may not understand what is happening, the interrogating officer shall inform the juvenile offender of the criminal allegation, explaining agency and juvenile justice system procedures to juveniles being interrogated.
  1. A juvenile shall not be left unsupervised in a juvenile processing office. Officers may allow parents or guardians to confer with their child. If the juvenile requests the parent or guardian to be present during the interrogation, officers shall honor the child's request. If the parent or guardian interferes with the interrogation, the officer should separate the child and parent or guardian until the child is ready to be released after processing. The child has a right to have the child's parents or legal guardian present while being questioned. If the child requests parents to be present and the parents are interfering, the interview may be ended.

- F. School Interviews/Arrests: Schools should request assistance any time delinquent conduct, conduct indicating a need for supervision, or a finable offense is committed at school.
1. When an officer is summoned to a school to investigate any offense involving students, prior to removal or interviewing of students, the office will contact the principal.
    - a. While parental permission to question a student by police is not required, the principal or the principal's designee must notify the student's parents, in accordance with the Education Code.
    - b. The officer shall note in the report, the school official's name and title, the parent notified, and the time of notification. If notification is unsuccessful, the officer shall make a notation of such.
  2. Officers will not remove a student from school, except incidents warranting immediate police attention. The officer should schedule most police/student interviews or interrogations after normal school hours. NOTE: The Education Code requires a school official be present when an officer interviews or interrogates a student at school.
  3. If the nature of the investigation warrants the referral to Bastrop County Juvenile Probation Department, the officer will adhere to the procedures founded within the Texas Family Code, regarding police custodial juvenile interviews or interrogations.
  4. School arrests should be limited to the following situations:
    - a. Pursuant to a court order
    - b. Pursuant to the laws of arrest
    - c. Upon probable cause regarding a violent felony crime

- d. Disruptive or uncontrollable students, requiring immediate removal from the school premise.
5. Weapon offenses: as a preventative measure to control school violence and to keep our schools safe, the Bastrop ISD Police Department and the Bastrop County Juvenile Probation Department, have adopted an arrest policy, based on probable cause, regarding weapon violations on school campuses.
- a. The arresting officer shall promptly arrest and remove any student or person carrying a weapon to school.
  - b. The officer shall notify the principal regarding the student's arrest, providing the student's name, criminal violation, location of the student and name of arresting officer.
  - c. The officer shall verify that the principal or the principal's designee has notified the student's parents regarding the arrest.
- G. Guidelines-Student Searches: The Supreme Court has ruled that students have certain privacy interests such that they have a Fourth Amendment right to be free from unreasonable searches and seizures while at school. However, the Court realizes that the student's privacy rights must be balanced with maintaining discipline at schools. The two court standards govern the legality of student searches, depending on who conducts the search.
- 1. Law Enforcement officials shall be limited to incidents supported by probable cause, in regards to contraband, weapons or evidence of a crime.
    - a. Strip searches or body cavity searches are prohibited, unless authorized by the Chief of Police or at the direction of the prosecuting attorney. Officers must take into account the student's age and sex, the location of the search and the crime.
    - b. All searches must be conducted according to established agency policy, state and federal laws.

2. School officials may conduct reasonable suspicion searches in light of all the circumstances. If school officials decide that a search is necessary, they must use the least intrusive means of conducting the search. To be a reasonable search, a search must be:
  - a. Justified at its inception, and
  - b. Reasonably related in scope to the circumstances, which justified the interference with the student's privacy rights in the first place.
3. A number of factors may contribute to the formation of reasonable suspicion, including the student's past and present behavior, such as:
  - a. Does the student have a history of violent behavior?
  - b. Does the student pose an immediate danger to himself/herself or others?
  - c. How is the student reacting to questioning by school authorities?
  - d. Does the student appear to be hiding something illegal?
4. The officer will adhere to the guidelines, contained in the SCHOOL CRIME AND DISCIPLINE HANDBOOK, published by the Texas Attorney General. (This handbook is located in Chapter 34 of the Bastrop ISD Police Department Policy Manual).

  - B. designing & implementing programs to prevent juvenile delinquency;
  - C. conducting follow-up investigations of cases involving juvenile offenders;
  - D. processing juvenile arrests; and

  - A. release the offender, taking no further action – except issuing a warning, citation, summons or releasing to the parents, etc.
  - B. divert the offender to a social agency;
  - C. refer to another police agency;
  - D. refer to juvenile court or probation department; or

Juvenile Processing Procedures

I. POLICY

The Bastrop ISD Police Department is committed to the development and perpetuation of programs for prevention and control of juvenile delinquency. In dealing with juveniles officers will use the least coercive methods among available alternatives, consistent with preserving public and officer safety, order and individual liberty. Among factors to consider in making juvenile dispositions is the nature of the offense, the offender's age, circumstances and record, availability of rehabilitation programs and juvenile probation or court recommendation for diversion.

In 1973, the Texas Legislature enacted Title 3 of the Texas Family Code, the statutory basis for juvenile law. The Family Code attempts to balance the needs and rights of the child against the needs for a safe community.

The two state agencies primarily involved in the juvenile justice system are the Texas Youth Commission and the Texas Juvenile Probation Commission. While both state agencies provide juvenile justice services at the state level, the juvenile justice system in Texas functions primarily at the local county level. Most juvenile offenders are processed through county courts, under the guidance of the county juvenile boards.

The Bastrop ISD Police Department in the development of the agency's policies and procedures relating to juveniles solicited and encouraged review and comment by other elements of the juvenile justice system, such as the Bastrop County Juvenile Probation Department and the Bastrop County Juvenile Board. This Administration continues to utilize other elements of the juvenile justice system in the development of agency policies and procedures relating to juveniles, including:

1. JUVENILE JUSTICE HANDBOOK FOR CITIES, published by the Texas Attorney General's Office; and
2. JUVENILE JUSTICE PROCEDURES funded and developed in 1999 by the Office of the Governor, Criminal Justice Division.

The Juvenile Justice Procedures Course Manual was developed through the Juvenile Justice Video Instruction Project, which was funded by the Office of the Governor, Criminal Justice Division and Grant Number JA-96-J02-13151. The primary purpose of this project was to train police officers across the state, regarding juvenile procedures. All sworn police officers shall be trained in juvenile procedures.

IV. PROCEDURES – General (TBP: 10.02)

A. Overview

1. All members of the department shall cooperate with juvenile justice authorities and their support activities.
2. Juveniles have all the same constitutional rights as do adults and all requirements for protection of those rights apply to juveniles as well as adults. Additional rules are prescribed by the Texas Family Code. All department personnel are responsible for following the Family Code and this order. (TBP 10.02a)
3. Officers who detain juveniles should first determine if the juvenile is alleged to have been harmed or to be in danger of harm. Those in need of immediate medical treatment will be transported to an appropriate medical facility under the same guidelines as adult prisoners. The Department of Protective and Regulatory Services is to be contacted immediately if there is an indication that the juvenile cannot safely be released to a suitable adult and the juvenile does not meet criteria for transport to the Detention Facility.
4. Children under 10 cannot be held responsible through criminal law or the juvenile justice system. If a child under 10 is found in violation:
  - a. enforcement action cannot be taken,

- b. children under 10 cannot be detained at a police facility for criminal violations; however, children may be kept in a non-secure area of a police facility pending arrival of a suitable adult, and
- c. the officer must document the conduct of children under 10 that would ordinarily be a criminal or juvenile code violation if they were classified as a juvenile on the appropriate report form to include any applicable identifiers.

B. Handling of juvenile offenders - general

1. A juvenile offender shall be handled with firmness and respect.
2. When informed of a situation that is considered administrative or a Class C misdemeanor, officers shall immediately notify administrators. All administrative matters and Class C misdemeanors involving juvenile offenders on school campus and during school hours shall be handled by school administrators. Officers are allowed to assist in administrative and/or Class C misdemeanor matters in a nominal and observational role.
3. The juvenile justice system and laws are designed to give the child a chance to mature without bearing the stigma of a criminal record. The juvenile justice system emphasizes confidentiality of records and the privacy of an adjudicatory hearing. Where appropriate, officers shall reasonably try to keep juveniles out of the criminal justice system.
4. The taking of a juvenile into custody is not an arrest except for the purpose of determining the validity of taking the juvenile into custody or the validity of a lawful search.
5. All investigative detentions and enforcement actions involving juveniles will be documented, either by use of a written warning, citation or incident report. If a written warning or citation is issued and the circumstances of the contact are recorded on the form, no incident report is required. If no written warning or citation was issued, an incident report will be generated to document the contact and actions taken. If possible, all contacts with juveniles will be recorded as best possible on the in-car audio/video system.

C. Authority for Taking a Child into Custody

1. A juvenile may be taken into custody in the circumstances listed in 52.01 of the Family Code, by a Directive to Apprehend as outlined by 52.015 of the Family Code or with probable cause. 52.01 of the Family Code specifies that a child may be taken into custody by a law enforcement officer when a child engages:
  - a. In conduct that violates a penal law of this state or a penal ordinance of any political subdivision of this state,
  - b. In delinquent conduct or conduct indicating a need for supervision, or
  - c. In conduct that violates a condition of probation imposed by the Juvenile Court

2. The section also authorizes officers to release a juvenile with a warning in lieu of custody. If the child is released with a warning it is necessary to forward a copy of the warning to the parent. In making the decision to handle the juvenile either informally with a warning or formally by referral to the Juvenile Court, the officer shall consider the following:
  - a. Seriousness of offenses.
  - b. Prior record of child.
  - c. Child's age.
  - d. Cooperation and attitude of all parties (child, parent and victim) and the possibility of the offense being repeated.
  - e. Degree of wrongful intent, violence, premeditation, knowledge of violation.

D. Enforcement Alternatives

1. Officers dealing with juveniles in enforcement capacities may exercise reasonable discretion as outlined in this policy in deciding on appropriate actions. Alternatives that may be considered include the following , listed in order of severity:
  - a. release without further action, release with verbal warning, referral to parents or responsible adult or informal counseling with contact of parents or responsible adult;
  - b. field release with written warning or citation, limited custody and station house warning, arrest under non-secure custody and release to parents with or without referral to Juvenile Court or First Offender Program; and
  - c. arrest and secure custody, with transfer to detention and referral to Juvenile Court
2. Enforcement criteria for the use of these alternatives are provided below.
3. Even when a juvenile is being handled informally, the juvenile has all the constitutional rights that an adult would have in the same situation.
4. In all cases where a juvenile is believed to have committed a violation, regardless of the disposition, officers shall make every reasonable attempt to notify parents or guardians and inform them of the circumstances of the contact.

V. ENFORCEMENT CRITERIA

Use of Force

I. POLICY

This department values the protection and sanctity of human life. It is therefore the policy of this department that officers use only the force that is reasonably necessary to effectively bring an incident under control, while protecting the lives of the officer and others. The use of force must be objectively reasonable. The officer must only use that force which a reasonably prudent officer could use under the same or similar circumstances. The officer's actions will be reviewed based upon the information known to the officer at the time the force was used. Information discovered after the fact will not be considered when assessing the reasonableness of the use of force.

Officers are prohibited from using any force as a means of punishment or interrogation.

II. PURPOSE

The purpose of this policy is to provide law enforcement officers of this agency with guidelines for the use of deadly and non-deadly force. This policy does not set forth a higher standard of care with respect to third party claims.

III. DEFINITIONS

A. Deadly force

Any use of force that creates a substantial risk of causing death or serious bodily injury.

B. Non-deadly force

Any use of force other than that which is considered deadly force. This includes any physical effort used to control or restrain another, or to overcome the resistance of another.

C. Objectively Reasonable

1. This term means that, in determining the necessity for force and the appropriate level of force, officers shall evaluate each situation in light of the known circumstances, including, but not limited to, the seriousness of the crime, the level of threat or resistance presented by the subject and the danger to themselves and the community.
2. In evaluating the reasonable application of force, officers may consider their own age, size, strength and skill level with department weapons, state of health and the number of officers opposing the number of suspects.

IV. PROCEDURES

A. Use of Non-deadly Force

1. Where deadly force is not authorized, officers may use only that level of force that is objectively reasonable and necessary to bring an incident under control. (TBP: 6.01)
2. Officers are authorized to use department approved, non-deadly force techniques and issued equipment when one or more of the following apply:
  - a. To protect the officer or others from physical harm.
  - b. To lawfully restrain or subdue a resistant individual.
  - c. To bring an unlawful situation safely and effectively under control.

B. Use of Deadly Force

Law enforcement officers are authorized to use deadly force when one or both of the following apply:

1. To protect the officer or others from what is reasonably believed to be an immediate threat of death or serious bodily harm. (TBP: 6.02)
2. To prevent the escape of a fleeing violent felon who the officer has probable cause to believe will pose a significant threat of death or serious physical injury to the officer or others. Where practicable prior to discharge of the firearm, officers shall identify themselves as law enforcement officers and state their intent to shoot.

C. Deadly Force Restrictions

1. Warning shots shall not be fired. (TBP: 6.09)
2. Firearms shall not be discharged at a moving vehicle in an attempt to disable the vehicle.
3. Because of the low probability of penetrating a vehicle with a handgun, officers threatened by an oncoming vehicle should attempt to move out of its path, if possible, instead of discharging a firearm at it or any of its occupants. However, if an officer reasonably believes that a person is immediately threatening the officer or another person with deadly force by means of a vehicle, an officer may use deadly force against the driver of the vehicle.
4. Officers may use deadly force to destroy an animal that represents a threat to public safety or as a humanitarian measure where the animal is seriously injured, when the officer reasonably believes that deadly force can be used without harm to the officer or others. In these circumstances, a supervisor shall be contacted prior to the use of deadly force if time permits.

V. LIMITATIONS ON FORCE

The following acts associated with the use of force are prohibited.

- A. Application of choke hold or carotid control holds, except when officers reasonably believe such holds are the only means of protecting themselves or another person from an imminent threat of serious physical injury or death and the use of deadly force would be authorized.
- B. Use of flashlights as batons. Officers may use a flashlight or other object designed for a use other than as a weapon only to defend themselves or another person from imminent serious bodily injury or death and then only if departmentally sanctioned methods are not available or are impractical. The use of a flashlight or other alternative weapon under such circumstances, depending on the manner of use, may be deemed an application of deadly force.

VI. TRAINING

- A. All officers shall receive training in the use of their firearms, all non-lethal weapons, authorized by the department, hands-on arrest and defensive tactics, as well as the Use of Force policy prior to performing any law enforcement duties.
- B. All officers shall be trained and qualified with their firearms at least annually. (TBP: 3.01, 3.02)
- C. All officers shall receive training in the department's Use of Force policy at least annually. (TBP: 3.02)
- D. All officers shall receive hands-on arrest and defensive tactics training at least every two years. (TBP: 3.06)
- E. Officers shall receive training in all non-lethal weapons issued or used by the department and demonstrate proficiency with those weapons at least every two years. (TBP: 3.04)
- F. All Use of Force training shall, at a minimum, comply with the standards established by TCOLE.

VII. REPORTING USE OF FORCE (TBP: 6.03, 6.06)

- A. Officers shall document any application of force except for those arising in training, departmental demonstrations or off-duty recreational activities.
- B. If officers have employed any use of physical force (other than the routine use of handcuffs or use of a firm grip to direct the movements of a subject) or used any impact, electrical, chemical weapons, or pointed or discharged any firearm, they shall first provide for appropriate medical aid for the subject (TBP: 6.07) and then:

1. Immediately notify the on-duty supervisor or the Chief of Police (if the on-duty supervisor is unavailable) of any use of force or discharge of a weapon. The supervisor or Chief of Police shall determine if an immediate investigation is required.
2. Photographs of the subject will be taken as soon as possible after the use of force to document any injury or lack of injury.
3. Submit a Use of Force form to the Chief of Police prior to the end of shift describing the incident, the force used, and any medical aid rendered. The Use of Force form shall be in addition to any other required reports.

VIII. DEPARTMENTAL REVIEW

A. Review

1. The officer's supervisors and the Chief of Police shall review all reported uses of force to determine whether:
  - a. Departmental orders were violated.
  - b. Relevant departmental policy was clearly understandable and effective to cover the situation.
  - c. Departmental training was adequate.
  - d. Departmental equipment operated properly.
2. At least annually, the Chief of Police shall conduct an analysis of use-of force incidents to be made available to the public and to determine if additional training, equipment or policy modifications may be necessary. (TBP: 6.10.)

B. Internal investigations

1. An internal investigation will be conducted on any firearms discharge (other than training), and any other use of deadly force by members of the department. An internal investigation may be conducted on other uses of force incidents if a violation of law or department policy is suspected. In addition to the internal investigation a criminal investigation shall also be conducted in any firearms discharge or other use of force incident where an officer or other person is injured or killed and in any other circumstances where a violation of law is suspected. The criminal investigation may be conducted by another law enforcement agency with concurrent jurisdiction and the results may be presented to the grand jury for review.

2. Procedures for Officer Involved Shooting Investigations are covered in Policy 9.4.

C. Assignment

Pending administrative review, any officer whose actions have resulted in the death or serious bodily injury of another person, either through the intentional use of force or by accident involving a use of force or vehicle accident, shall be removed from line-duty assignment. This action protects both the officer's and the community's interest until the situation is resolved. This re-assignment is not considered punitive in nature. (TBP: 6.08)

	Subject: Conducted Electrical Weapons	Issue Date: 11/30/2015
	Chapter: 11	Revision Date: 06/01/2020
	Policy: 11.2	Total Pages: 7 Chief Bunch's signature:

Conducted Electrical Weapons

I. POLICY

It is the policy of this agency to use only that level of force that reasonably appears necessary to control or otherwise subdue violent or potentially violent individuals. Conducted Electrical Weapons, such as Tasers or Stun guns are authorized for use by the Bastrop ISD Police Department.

II. PURPOSE AND SCOPE

The TASER® is intended to control a violent or potentially violent individual while minimizing the risk of serious injury. It is anticipated that the appropriate use of such a device will result in fewer serious injuries to officers and suspects.

1. PHILOSOPHY

The use of a TASER Device upon a subject by an officer shall only occur when the officer, while in the performance of lawful duties, has an objectively reasonable belief that it is necessary to gain control of the subject.

III. GENERAL POLICY

Personnel who have completed department approved training may utilize any Department provided TASER Device during their assignments. Officers shall only use the TASER Device and cartridges that have been issued by the Department. If an officer is issued a TASER®, the device must be carried as a part of a uniformed officer's equipment in an approved holster.

1. When the TASER Device is carried as a part of a uniformed officer's equipment, the TASER Device shall be carried on the side opposite from the duty weapon.

2. Whenever practicable, officers should carry a total of two or more TASER Device cartridges on their persons while carrying a TASER Device.

IV. *VERBAL WARNINGS

A verbal announcement of the intended use of the TASER Device should precede its application unless it would otherwise endanger the safety of officers or when it is not practicable due to the circumstances.

1. The purpose of the warning is for the following:
  - .01 - Provide the individual with a reasonable opportunity to voluntarily comply.
  - .02 - Provide other officers and individuals with warning that a TASER Device may be deployed.
2. The aiming laser should never be intentionally directed into the eyes of another.
3. The fact that a verbal and/or other warning was given, or the reasons it was not given, shall be documented in any related reports, as well as any responses by the subject.
4. When given, the verbal warning should be "TASER, TASER," to prevent any confusion as to which weapon system is being deployed.

V. *USE OF THE TASER DEVICE

As with any law enforcement equipment, the TASER Device has limitations and restrictions requiring consideration before its use. The TASER Device should only be used when its operator can safely approach the subject within the operational range of the TASER Device. Although the TASER Device is generally effective in controlling most individuals, officers should be alert to the potential for failure and be prepared with other options.

1. Generally, an assisting officer should be present with lethal cover in the event the TASER Device is ineffective or defective and the subject initiates a potentially life threatening confrontation.
2. Officers should never hold both a firearm and the TASER device at the same time.

VI. APPLICATION OF THE TASER DEVICE

Authorized personnel may use the TASER Device when circumstances known to the officer at the time indicate that such application is objectively reasonable to control a subject in any of the following circumstances:

1. Apprehend a subject fleeing lawful arrest or detention.
2. A violent or physically resisting subject.
3. There is reasonable expectation that it will be unsafe for officers to approach within contact range of the subject.
4. Subjects who by words or action have demonstrated an intention to be violent or to physically resist and who reasonably appear to present the potential to harm officers, themselves, or others.

VII. PROHIBITED USES

The following are prohibited uses of the TASER Device:

1. The TASER Device shall not be used to torture, psychologically torment, elicit statements or to punish any individual.
2. Horseplay or practical jokes.
3. Demonstrations, without the permission of a supervisor.
4. Against passively resisting subjects.
5. Individuals who are covered in, or in close proximity to, any combustible material.

VIII. SPECIAL DEPLOYMENT CONSIDERATIONS

The use of the TASER Device should generally be avoided in the following situations unless the totality of the circumstances indicate that other available options reasonably appear ineffective, impractical, or would present a greater danger to the officer, the subject or others, and the officer reasonably believes that the need to control the individual outweighs the risk of using the TASER Device.

1. Obviously pregnant females.
2. Elderly individuals or obvious juveniles.
3. Individuals who are handcuffed or otherwise restrained and under control.
4. Individuals whose position or activity may result in collateral injury (e.g., falls from height, operating vehicles).
5. Because the application of the TASER Device in the drive-stun mode (i.e. direct contact without darts) relies primarily on pain compliance and requires close proximity to the subject, additional caution should be exercised. The application in drive-stun mode should be limited to brief applications in which pain compliance would reasonably appear necessary to achieve control.

IX. TARGETING CONSIDERATIONS

While manufacturers generally recommend that reasonable efforts should be made to target lower center mass and to avoid intentionally targeting the head, neck, chest and groin, it is recognized that the dynamics of each situation and officer safety may not permit the officer to limit the application of the TASER Device darts to a precise target area. As such, officers should take prompt and ongoing care to monitor the condition of the subject if one or more darts strikes the head, neck, chest, or groin until the subject is released to the care of paramedics or other medical personnel.

X. MULTIPLE APPLICATIONS OF THE TASER DEVICE

Only one officer shall deploy a TASER Device on an individual unless it is obvious the deployment was not effective.

1. If the first application of the TASER Device appears to be in gaining control of an individual and if circumstances allow, the officer should consider the following before additional application of the TASER Device:
  - .01 Whether the probes or darts are making proper contact.
  - .02 Whether the application of the TASER Device is interfering with the ability of the Individual to comply.
  - .03 Whether other options or tactics may be more effective.
  - .04 This does not preclude an officer from multiple, reasonable applications of the TASER Device on an individual.

XI. REPORT OF USE

All TASER Device discharges shall be documented in the related incident report/supplements and notification made to a supervisor.

1. Specific information on the use of a TASER Device should include, but is not limited to, the following:
  - .01 Articulate reasons for the use of the TASER Device.
  - .02 Information on the type of individual who was subject to the TASER Device (e.g., age, sex, health conditions).
  - .03 any special circumstances surrounding the use of the TASER Device (e.g., handcuffed prisoner).
  - .04 Whether one or both of the TASER Device darts penetrated a subject's clothing and/ or skin.
  - .05 How many applications/cycles of the TASER Device were used.
  - .06 Whether the TASER Device application was successful.
  - .07 How many cartridges were used.

- .08 Serial numbers of any used cartridge(s).
  - .09 Whether multiple officers used the TASER Device.
  - .10 Any pain compliance use of the TASER Device (e.g., drive stun).
2. Photographs of probe sites should be taken, Anti-Felon Identification (AFID) tags should be collected and the expended cartridge(s) along with all probes shall be submitted into evidence for future reference along with the TASER Device itself. The cartridges serial numbers should be noted and documented on the evidence paperwork as well as the TASER number. The evidence packaging should be marked "Biohazard" if the probes penetrated the subject's skin.
  3. The on-board TASER Device memory will be downloaded through the data port by a Taser control manager and saved with the related incident reports and then the TASER can be released into service.

XII. MEDICAL TREATMENT

Subjects, who have received an electrical charge from the TASER Device or probes shall be treated as follows:

1. Once the subject is safely secured and in custody, if possible a non-deployment officer shall remove the probes in the manner specified by Axon, clean the probe contact points on the skin with alcohol and apply a band aid if needed.
2. Once the subject is safely secure immediately contact EMS to have an on-scene evaluation of the subject.
3. Individuals suspected of being under the influence of drugs/alcohol or exhibiting symptoms of excited delirium (e.g., nudity, profuse sweating, irrational behavior) may be more susceptible to collateral problems and should be closely monitored following the application of the TASER Device until they can be examined by paramedics or other medical personnel.

4. Should a probe enter the groin, buttocks, female breast or any area in the neck or above, notify EMS that the subject has received an electrical charge from the TASER and relay the probe location to EMS.
5. Only medical personnel may remove or direct to be removed, any TASER, probes that are embedded in areas such as those listed above.
6. The on-scene supervisor shall allow medical personnel to determine if the subject should be transported to the hospital if a probe has entered one of the aforementioned areas.
7. Once the probes have been removed, the subject may be transported to jail.
8. If the subject is transported to the ER/Hospital, the subject will be taken to jail after being medically released.

XIII. TRAINING

In addition to the initial department-approved training required to carry and use a TASER Device, all employees carrying a TASER Device shall demonstrate proficiency annually or in accordance with the manufacturer's training requirements.

XIV. TASER CONTROL MANAGER

1. The TASER Control Manager shall receive, inspect and ensures the maintenance and replacement of the Department's TASER devices and related equipment.

2. Establish and maintain systems to record issuance of equipment.
3. Return defective or damaged TASERs and air cartridges to the suppliers
4. Obtain service and/or replacement for any defective or damaged TASER components from the supplier.
5. Document reported uses of a TASER by Department personnel and establish a system for maintaining statistics on TASER use. A trained TASER armorer or Instructor, so authorized by the TASER Control Manager, may also perform this function, to include completion and sending of the TASER Incident report form to TASER International.
6. Ensure Basic certification and yearly re-certification training on the TASER is provided as needed, as well as maintaining a record of the training.
7. All other duties as may become necessary for the employment, maintenance and enhancement of the Department's TASER program

Diversionary Devices

I. POLICY

It is the policy of this agency to use only that level of force that reasonably appears necessary to control or otherwise subdue violent or potentially violent individuals. Diversionary Devices may be used by authorized and trained personnel in accordance with this use of force policy and additional guidelines established herein.

II. PURPOSE

The purpose of this policy is to establish guidelines for the use of Diversionary Devices to effectively deal with any suspects that pose a threat to citizens, hostages or officers and are believed to be armed and/or violent.

III. JUSTIFICATION FOR USE

To provide officers with an additional resource to assist in resolving violent situations with the minimal amount of force necessary to control the situation at hand.

IV. DEFINITIONS

- A. NFDD: Noise/Flash Diversionary Device is a device which produces a loud report and a bright flash with the intent to disorient or divert/distract one's attention
- B. NFDDDO: Noise/Flash Diversionary Device Deployment Officer

- C. Coming Out Location: A safe location to deploy the device should the primary deployment location be determined unsafe.
- D. Deployment Log: A written log kept by the Chief of Police or the Chief's designee that is used to track the use of NFDDs.
- E. Remote Deployment Device: Painters pole or other similar device to assist in deployment of NFDD to allow exact placement in portals or facilitate in deployment above ground level.

V. PROCEDURES

- A. Because of the specialized nature of these devices only department personnel who have successfully completed the approved training course shall be certified/authorized to deploy NFDDs.
- B. Except in emergencies (for example, life threatening situations), NFDDs shall not be deployed without the prior authorization from the Chief of Police.
- C. The use of NFDDs is a decisive action that can assist in achieving the protection of life and property or the restoration of order. These devices should be considered whenever the use of such options would assist in enabling arrest, restoring order, or reducing the risk of more serious injury.
- D. Generally, NFDDs may be used whenever the use of a diversion would facilitate entry, enable arrest or potentially reduce the risk to officers. Circumstances justifying the use of NFDDs shall include but are not limited to
  - 1. Barricaded suspects and/or hostages
  - 2. High risk warrant service
  - 3. Circumstances wherein distraction of violent, mentally deranged persons or those under the influence of alcohol/drugs is believed necessary in order to facilitate apprehension.
  - 4. Situations wherein the authorizing person deems the use of NFDDs necessary to safely resolve an incident.
- E. Deployment Procedures.

1. During deployment of Diversionary Devices the deploying officer should have deadly force back-up.
2. NFDDDO must wear the following safety equipment
  - a. Full eye coverage or department issued chemical agent mask
  - b. Nomex gloves

  - b. Location of deployment to include pre-determined coming out location
  - c. Use of remote deployment devices
4. Prior to deploying the NFDD, available intelligence information and circumstances (for example, the presence of children, elderly or infirm persons, etc.) shall be considered.
5. The use of a NFDD shall be limited to an area visible to the NFDDDO prior to deployment. The only exception to this is an operation in which the risk of visual inspection clearly outweighs the potential danger of a blind deployment. The authority of a blind deployment requires prior approval by the Chief of Police, outside of emergency circumstances.
6. Upon determining that a NFDD will be used inside of an objective, the pre-operation briefing will include a designated coming out location(s).
7. Due to the potential of ignition of flammable materials, a fire extinguisher will be readily accessible whenever NFDD's are to be deployed. When practicable, the fire department will be notified prior to the deployment of the NFDD.

8. The deployment of a NFDD shall be documented in a written report and the deployment log. The NFDDDO name, use of remote deployment devices and location of deployment shall be included.
- F. If a NFDD fails to initiate then the NFDDDO is to follow Render Safe Procedures
- G. The deployment of NFDD against a subject constitutes the use of force, and shall be documented in compliance with this department's use of force policy. The report should include:
1. Type of NFDD used
  2. Number of NFDD used

Implementations and Use of Patrol Rifle

I. POLICY

The Bastrop ISD Police Department has authorized the deployment of rifles and ammunition to specially trained officers and supervisors. The deployment of these officers is to minimize the risk of death or serious bodily injury to officers as well as members of the community. The rifles are a tool to allow the potential resolution of these incidents by providing a tactical advantage not available with more conventional firearms.

II. PURPOSE

To provide guidelines for the deployment and use of rifles by approved officers. The policy will provide guidelines on the qualifications required for carrying, deploying and using the rifle in the performance of police duties.

There may be situations that require specialized weapons in order to allow officers the ability to contain, control and resolve situations.

III. DEFINITIONS

A. Patrol Rifle: For the purposes of this policy, the Bastrop ISD Police Department issued patrol rifle is the Sig Sauer M400 – a semi-automatic rifle in .223 caliber with 11.5 inch barrel and one 30 round capacity magazine or the Sig Sauer MPX - a semi-automatic short barrel rifle in 9mm caliber with 4.5 inch barrel and one 30 round capacity magazine. No modifications will be permitted without prior written approval by the Chief of Police.

1. The rifle will be equipped with a two-point sling where the weapon may be retained “hands free” yet ready for immediate use.

2. The rifle must have either fixed or flip-up iron sights.
3. The rifle will have an optical lighting device i.e.: Sig Sauer Romeo 4T Red Dot sights.

IV. PROCEDURES

A. Deployment of Patrol Rifles

1. Patrol Rifles shall be deployed only in situations that the officer reasonably believes that the tactical advantage afforded by the rifle may be necessary.
2. This policy does not seek to articulate the only situations where patrol rifle deployment is appropriate. The on-scene judgment of the officer or the highest-ranking on-scene supervisor is the first indicator of appropriate deployment.
3. The patrol rifle may be deployed in, but is not limited to, the following situations:
  - a. The officer believes a suspect the officer may encounter is wearing protective body armor or,
  - b. Is believed to be armed with or has immediate access to high powered or shoulder fired weapons or,
  - c. Is believed to be armed and situated in a distant or fortified location which affords the suspect a tactically superior position or,
  - d. Other situations where approval for deployment of patrol rifles is authorized by the highest ranking supervisor on scene.
  - e. The officer is engaged in activities or situations that have a high probability that the suspect(s) may be armed and dangerous such as bank robberies, high-risk felony stops, or calls for service involving weapons.

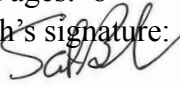

4. All deployment or use of the patrol rifle will be consistent with the Department's Use of-Force Policy.

B. Departmental Guidelines for Patrol Deployment

1. The patrol rifle is issued by the Chief of Police to individual officers and supervisors who have been trained in its use and deployment. These rifles are issued in protective cases with up to 120 rounds of department approved and issued ammunition.
  - a. All rifles shall be stored in either the trunk, in a case, of the officers patrol vehicle, in a Department approved and purchased locking rifle rack inside the cab of the patrol vehicle or within a Department approved and purchased weapon locker located in the law enforcement office of the campus that the officer is assigned.
  - b. Officers are responsible for the safe and secure storage of their issued patrol rifle.
  - c. Rifles will be removed from patrol cars by the officer and stored securely in the police facility or in the officer's residence before delivering cars for any type of service.
2. Physical readiness of the rifle.
  - a. The patrol rifle shall be stored as this policy mandates and always with a magazine inserted in the rifle, chamber closed and empty with the safety activated.
  - b. The patrol rifle should be inspected frequently and adequately maintained. An armorer's inspection of the rifle and its magazines shall occur at a minimum of twice per year.
3. Qualification and Training

- a. Officers shall qualify, in accordance with Department and TCOLE standards, with the rifle a minimum of once per year.
- b. During qualification, failure to fire a passing score will result in a second attempt. Failure to fire a passing score at that time will result in the officer being suspended from the rifle program for a period of not less than three (3) months. At the end of that three month suspension from the program the officer will be required to qualify before the rifle may be re-issued to the officer.
- c. Patrol rifle training shall consist of 16 hours for every calendar year for all officers and supervisors.

Firearms and Qualifications

I. POLICY

The department's policy is to ensure that members are properly trained not only in the use of appropriate firearms and the circumstances of their use, but also in their safety and maintenance, regarding both on and off-duty weapons. Supervisors and the department armorer shall rigorously enforce departmental firearms standards. All personnel shall qualify at least annually with their sidearms and those sidearms used or carried both on and off-duty.

II. PURPOSE

To establish policy and procedures governing the care and maintenance of issued weapons and ammunition, the selection and use of holsters, off-duty weapons, firearms training and qualification.

III. PROCEDURES

A. Authority

1. Sworn police officers who have the authority to make arrests and maintain the peace are authorized to carry and use firearms as necessary in the performance of their duty, subject to the restrictions and guidelines of this order, the department's use of force policy, and state and federal law.
2. Off duty, sworn officers of this department are encouraged to carry firearms, subject to the guidelines of this order, to protect themselves or another from imminent death or serious bodily injury in the event the officers must intervene in an incident off-duty before the arrival of on-duty officers.

B. On-Duty Weapons, Issuance and Use (TBP: 6.04)

Only weapons issued by the department or approved by the Chief of Police will be carried or used while on-duty. The department currently issues the Glock 22, in 40 caliber as the standard duty firearm for officers.

1. The departmental armorer or firearms instructor shall issue departmental weapons to authorized personnel.
2. Department firearms and ammunition are determined by the Chief of Police based on the needs of the agency.

C. Shotguns

Shotguns are assigned to patrol cars and individual officers as appropriate.

1. All shotguns shall be carried fully loaded with approved ammunition, chamber empty, trigger released and safety on.
2. A minimum of 5 extra rounds of approved ammunition shall be carried with each shotgun.
3. All shotguns left at the police department shall be left in an unloaded condition, with the chamber open and stored in a gun vault or other designated location.

D. Patrol Rifles

Patrol rifles, e.g. AR-15, may be issued or used by officers and supervisors who have received appropriate training and have maintained their required qualifications. The department shall issue, to those officers who qualify, a SigM400 Patrol Rifle. These rifles will be stored in a safe in the officer's office.

The officers may carry their own rifles, e.g. AR-15, in their patrol vehicles. The rifle must be approved and inspected by the range master and the officer must successfully qualify with the rifle. The rifle will then be secured either in the trunk or a locked rifle mount in the vehicle.

The department will issue, for special events (graduation, dances, large gatherings, or special meetings), a Sig MPX 9mm that will be carried in a backpack that will stay on the officer's person at all times. Officers assigned to carry this weapon will pass a rifle qualification course and train in the use and deployment.

E. Off-duty or secondary weapons

1. Off-duty or secondary weapons, either revolvers or semi-automatic pistols and their ammunition, are purchased at the officer's expense. The armorer shall inspect and certify the off-duty or secondary weapon before it may be carried. Only weapons manufactured by Colt, Smith and Wesson, Glock, Sig Sauer, Beretta, Ruger, H&K(Heckler & Koch) or American Standard are permitted.
  - a. Officers shall qualify with the off-duty or secondary weapon at the annual qualification.
  - b. The armorer shall approve any concealed holster for an off-duty or secondary weapon.
  - c. The armorer shall maintain a record of all holsters and weapons used by each officer.
2. Officers may carry, while off duty, either an issued weapon or one purchased at officers' expense, subject to this policy.
3. Officers should not carry weapons when socially inappropriate or when consuming alcoholic beverages.
4. Off-duty weapons shall be carried safely and concealed from public view.
5. Officers shall carry the departmental badge and identification if carrying an off-duty weapon.

F. Departmental Ammunition (TBP: 6.04)

1. Only factory ammunition manufactured by Winchester, Federal or Speer will be used in departmental or personal weapons for on or off-duty use. No reloaded ammunition will be used except for practice. The department will select and purchase on-duty ammunition for each qualification and old ammunition will be fired during qualification to ensure fresh ammunition is carried in on-duty firearms. Officers are responsible for the purchase of ammunition for their off-duty weapon.
2. Only Remington, Winchester or Federal factory 00 Buck and slug rounds will be used in departmental shotguns.

ARRESTS AND DETENTIONS

I. POLICY

There are many potential problems associated with a law enforcement officer's power to arrest. Occasionally, situations exist where there are grounds for a lawful arrest; however, circumstances dictate an offender not be arrested. Sometimes, officers choose not to affect an arrest even when a clear violation has occurred and an arrest would have been prudent. Arrests made by police officers can create problems relating to the public's perception of the Department. The Officer, the Department and District may be open to serious civil action unless important issues are carefully considered before affecting an arrest. Therefore, officers shall use good judgment when affecting an arrest.

It is the policy of the Bastrop ISD Police Department that arrests occur only upon probable cause or upon confirmation of a valid arrest warrant pursuant to applicable State and Federal Law, including the Fourth Amendment to the U.S. Constitution. Detentions that fall short of arrest shall only occur based upon reasonable suspicion under applicable State and Federal law and pursuant to the Fourth Amendment to the U.S. Constitution.

II. PURPOSE

To define the authority of officers to arrest, and the mechanism for arrest with and without a warrant.

III. DEFINITIONS

- A. Custodial Interrogations: Questioning initiated by law enforcement officers after persons have been taken into custody or otherwise deprived of their freedom of action in any significant way.

- B. Field Release: A procedure in which an officer detains an actor for a Class C misdemeanor but immediately releases the actor after the actor has met prescribed criteria and has signed a citation promising to appear.
- C. Foreign National: One that owes allegiance to or is under the protection of a nation other than the United States, also a citizen of a nation other than the United States.
- D. Interview: As opposed to an interrogation, may be construed as any conversation with a suspect, witness, victim or citizen.
- E. Probable Cause: Facts and circumstances which is more than mere suspicion that would lead a reasonable and prudent person to believe that an offense has been or is being committed.
- F. Reasonable Suspicion: An officer's rational belief, based on credible and articulable information and circumstances, that a person might be armed or involved in criminal activity. The officer's rational belief will be based upon objective criteria.
- G. Show-Up: Any one-to-one identification proceeding in which only the suspect is viewed by a victim or witness.
- H. Warrant of Arrest: Texas Code of Criminal Procedure, Article 15.01. Warrant of arrest or warrant issued under federal law or a felony warrant from another state.

IV. NON-SEIZURE CONTACT

- A. An officer may approach and converse with any individuals without reasonable suspicion or probable cause but may not physically or verbally detain the individuals or exercise any behavior which would lead reasonable persons to believe that they were not free to leave.
- B. An officer may pat down any individuals with whom the officer is in contact when the officers is reasonably suspicious that the individual may be armed. A quick check of the passenger compartment of a vehicle may be conducted for easily accessible weapons as long as the vehicle has been lawfully stopped.

V. INVESTIGATIVE DETENTION

- A. An officer may stop and detain any individuals, including one in a vehicle, that the officer is reasonably suspicious has committed or is about to commit some crime. Current Fourth Amendment jurisprudence allows officers to control the movements of passengers in a lawfully stopped vehicle. This includes requiring the passenger to remain in the vehicle or requiring the passenger to exit the vehicle. Officers should use appropriate discretion under the circumstances when infringing upon the liberty of any person.

- B. During a detention based only on reasonable suspicion, an officer must be aware of the following factors that could turn the seizure of the person from an investigative detention into an arrest:
  - 1. Time: The investigation to confirm or disprove the officer's suspicion must be diligently pursued without delay.
  - 2. Movement: Any movement of the person without consent must be for valid reasons of safety or security.
  - 3. Force: Any use of force must be reasonable under the circumstances. Handcuffing and/or placement of the person into a police vehicle for reasons of safety or security may turn the detention into an arrest.

- C. A person not under arrest does not have to be read the Miranda Warning during questioning by police officers even if the person is a suspect. The Fifth Amendment right against self-incrimination:
  - 1. When Miranda applies - The voluminous case law covering Miranda (Miranda v. Arizona) warnings has established several guidelines for officers to help decide when warnings must be administered. Miranda applies only to custodial interrogation. As to what constitutes custody, if a reasonable person in the suspect's position believes that the person is not free to leave, then Miranda applies. Note that the officer's view of what constitutes custody and that of the suspect may differ. Officers must remember that the reasonable belief of the subject is determinative.
  - 2. Circumstances for administering Miranda - In determining whether a suspect is free to leave the police officer's presence, a court will look at the circumstances of the interview. If police questioning is conducted in a police car or at a police station, the environment may be construed a coercive one, and the interview custodial. Practically speaking, an arrest or physical restraint of a suspect places the suspect in custody, and Miranda warnings must be administered before the officer asks questions about the offense. In short, then, Miranda warnings must be given when:

- a. suspects reasonably believe that they are in custody; and
- b. the suspects are interviewed.

D. Show-Ups

1. Show-ups shall be conducted in such a manner as to guard against any possible misidentification by the witness. Factors to consider:
  - a. witness opportunity to view the criminal at the time of offense;
  - b. mental and emotional condition of the witness;
  - c. accuracy of the witness description of the criminal.
2. If a suspect is detained in the general vicinity of the offense within an hour of the time of occurrence, the suspect will be held at the location of detention for identification by the witness. The detention shall not exceed thirty minutes and the witness shall be brought to the location of the suspect's detention as soon as possible.
3. Detaining officer(s) shall not create a situation that is obviously prejudicial or unnecessarily suggestive to the witness. The suspect shall not be viewed while handcuffed and/or in a police vehicle.
4. If circumstances exist that make it impossible to bring the witness to the suspect and probable cause does not exist to arrest the suspect, a photograph will be taken for a photo line-up to be conducted at a later date. A suspect will not be transported back to a crime scene for identification by a witness.
5. The officer shall document all circumstances surrounding the show up. The report shall include: lighting conditions; distance between suspect and witness; names of persons present during the show up; and remarks made by any persons present.

VI. ARREST - GENERAL PROVISIONS

- A. When to arrest. Refer to Texas Code of Criminal Procedure, Article 2.13. Duties and Powers (of Peace Officers to make arrests)
  - 1. Officers may arrest when probable cause exists pursuant to the Texas Code of Criminal Procedures and/or
  - 2. Upon confirmation of a valid warrant.
- B. When not to arrest. Any decision not to arrest must be reached only after the officer has carefully weighed the following guidelines.
  - 1. Would the arrest cause a greater risk of harm to the general public if the offender remained at large? For example, in a crowded situation the officer's decision to arrest may aggravate tension and lead to a riot or other serious disorder.
  - 2. Are police resources stretched to the limit? For example, on a particularly busy night, arrests for very minor offenses may consume an officer's time, preventing the officer from responding to more serious crimes. (Officers should remember that even though an arrest may not be made at the time the offense occurs, a report can later be prepared for the purpose of securing the issuance of a warrant.)
- C. Arrests Off-Duty and Out of Uniform. Officers of this Department while off-duty or out of uniform shall not:
  - 1. Make arrests in their own quarrels, in those of their families, or in disputes arising between their neighbors unless the arrest is made in self-defense, to prevent injury to another or when a serious offense has been committed;
  - 2. Make any arrest after the consumption of alcoholic beverages, except when necessary to prevent death or serious bodily injury;
  - 3. Make arrests for any Class C misdemeanor except to prevent injury or to prevent a continuing breach of the peace;

4. Enforce any traffic law.
- D. Off-Duty and Out of Jurisdiction Arrests - Anytime an off-duty officer makes an arrest while outside the officer's jurisdiction, the officer shall immediately comply with Texas Code of Criminal Procedure, Article 14.03 (d) and, as soon as practical, notify the officer's immediate supervisor who will notify the Chief of Police via the chain of command. Any off-duty arrest that does not conform to this General Order shall be considered outside the course and scope of employment with Bastrop ISD.

VII. ARREST WITHOUT WARRANT

- A. Authority - Refer to Texas Code of Criminal Procedure, Chapter 14. Arrest without Warrant. Refer to Texas Code of Criminal Procedure, Article 18.16. Preventing Consequences of Theft
- B. Procedures
1. Arrests made under authority of Texas Code of Criminal Procedure, Article 14.03 a. (1):
    - a. The arresting officer must allege an offense and shall diligently develop probable cause for the suspected offense or shall turn the investigation over to the appropriate investigative agency or division.
    - b. If probable cause cannot be confirmed within eight (8) hours of the arrest, the arresting officer or Detective, with supervisory approval, shall see that the suspect is photographed, fingerprinted and released at that time.
    - c. However, officers are reminded that the Fourth Amendment to the U.S. Constitution has been construed to require a reasonable belief that probable cause exists at the time of the arrest. It is the policy of the Bastrop ISD Police Department that arrests be made only upon probable cause supported by a valid and confirmed warrant or by reasonable belief that probable cause exists.
  2. Arrest occurring in counties bordering Bastrop County: Refer to Texas Code of Criminal Procedure, Article 14.06. Must take offender before magistrate (Persons arrested should be brought to the Bastrop County Jail.)

3. Arrests occurring in a county not bordering Bastrop County: Refer to Texas Code of Criminal Procedure, Article 14.06. (Persons arrested must be taken before a magistrate in the county of arrest.)
- C. Reports: All arrests made without a warrant, as detailed herein, shall be accompanied by an incident report including a statement of the probable cause for the arrest.
- D. Arrests for Class C Misdemeanors and Field Release
1. Generally:
    - a. An officer's decision to conduct a field release does not limit the officer's authority, established by law or Departmental policy, to engage in police investigative techniques such as search and seizure, collection of evidence, interview and/or completion of written reports
    - b. When appropriate a citation must be completed on all Class C misdemeanor arrests.
  2. Criteria for Field Release citation: An officer may conduct a field release when the officer has probable cause and authority to make an arrest without warrant for the alleged offense and if the following factors are present.
    - a. The actor has a Texas address and sufficient personal identification with photograph to fully identify the actor.
    - b. The officer has no valid reason to believe that the actor will fail to appear in court as agreed.
    - c. The officer has no valid reason to believe that after field release the actor will likely suffer injury, continue the violation, or commit a more serious violation. If there is any possibility that the actor's physical condition would lead to the actor's or anyone's injury, the actor shall be released to a responsible adult without being arrested, however, the Texas Code of Criminal Procedure, Chapter

14. Article 14.06 (b), prohibits a field release for the offense of Public Intoxication.

- d. The actor is not the subject of an outstanding arrest warrant.

E. Execution of Arrest Warrants

1. Officers shall not enter any location or conduct driver's license checks with the primary intent of asking for identification and checking for warrants.

  - c. exigent circumstances.
3. Officers shall not select the time and place of arrest solely to create the opportunity to embarrass, oppress, or inconvenience the arrestee.

F. Execution of local warrants by other departments

1. Whenever another law enforcement agency within Texas holds a prisoner on a warrant from this Department, Department personnel shall either pick up the prisoner within five days or notify the holding agency to release the prisoner. 2. Whenever an out of state agency notifies this Department that the agency has executed a Bastrop ISD Police Department arrest warrant, that agency will be asked to pursue a waiver of extradition from the person arrested. 3. Pursuant to State law, warrants of arrest may be transmitted between agencies "by any method that ensures the transmission of a duplicate of the original warrant, including secure facsimile transmission or other secure electronic means..." Code of Criminal Procedure, Article 15.08

This shall include access to telephones and the furnishing of transportation.
- B. The supervisor shall submit a detailed brief administrative memorandum and all incident reports and related paperwork shall be forwarded to the Chief of Police for review.
- C. Anytime that there is an indication of improper police action and/or lawsuit potential the supervisor shall notify the Chief of Police and forward the file to the appropriate District official.

X. DETENTION OF FOREIGN NATIONALS

The following is quoted from the United States “Department of State Guidelines Regarding Foreign Nationals Arrested or Detained in the United States” and shall be considered the policy of the Bastrop ISD Police Department:

“The U.S. Department of State requires the assistance of state and local enforcement authorities in carrying out the following international obligations of the United States concerning the detention or arrest of foreign nationals in this country. These obligations are embodied in bilateral treaties with specific countries and in the multilateral Vienna Convention on Consular Relations, to which the U.S. is a party and which the U.S. regards as customary international law binding on parties and non-parties alike. The Department of State wishes to remind state and local governments that these obligations are legally binding on them. The legal requirements are as follows:

- Whenever a state or local authority arrests, imprisons or otherwise detains a foreign national, such authority must promptly inform the detainee of the detainee’s right to have the detainee’s government informed of such event.
- If the detainee asks to exercise this right, the detaining authority should inform the appropriate foreign consulate or embassy without delay and make a written record of such notification.
- Subject to local laws and regulations regarding access to detained persons, consular officers have the right to visit their nationals who are in prison, custody, or detention, to converse and correspond with them and to arrange for their legal representation. A foreign consular officer should not take action on behalf of such a person if the person being held expressly opposes such action.
- While the above requirements are universally applicable, law enforcement personnel must be aware that treaties exist with certain countries which require mandatory notification when those nationals are confined or detained. In these cases, the foreign national has no choice regarding notification, and law enforcement authorities must notify the consulate or the embassy of the situation without delay. The foreign national should be advised that the foreign national’s consul has been notified.

XI. ARREST PROCEDURES - An officer, upon making an arrest, shall follow the procedures set out in this section.

- A. Complaint Procedures: The arresting officer shall be responsible for confirming that a criminal complaint has been completed and signed on all applicable charges against the arrestee. If a citizen is involved in signing the complaint, the citizen must meet the officer at the jail to sign the complaint unless a complaint is completed and notarized in the field.

- B. On View Arrests - When an on-view arrest is made by an officer, the following procedures will be followed prior to placing a prisoner in jail.
1. A prisoner shall be searched for weapons prior to arrival at the jail. Officers are cautioned to be mindful that contraband and/or weapons may be hidden in boots. If circumstances arise that the prisoner cannot be searched at the scene of the arrest, the prisoner shall be searched prior to entering the facility. Upon entering the jail, the person's footwear shall be removed for the purpose of locating weapons and/or contraband. If there is suspicion that a weapon may be inside of a prisoner's boot, the boot shall be removed and searched prior to entering the facility. Otherwise, the boot shall be removed inside the jail. A prisoner shall also be restrained (handcuffed), as per other directives, prior to arrival at the jail.
  2. A complete warrant check shall be conducted through communications prior to arriving at the jail.
  3. In case of a Driving While Intoxicated, the prisoner shall be taken to the designated Intoxilyzer room for testing prior to the continuation of the booking process.
  4. Upon arrival at the jail, a complete search of the arrestee shall be conducted by the arresting officer for the purpose of locating any contraband or potential weapons.

XII. TRANSPORTING OF NON-VIOLENT PRISONERS

- A. Prisoners, regardless of age or sex, should be handcuffed behind their body and placed in the back seat with the seat belt latched, unless there are specific articulable objective reasons for other action.
- B. There may be some instances where it is appropriate to handcuff a prisoner in front of the prisoner's body or to not handcuff at all. However, these instances are rare and such action should be objectively and reasonably justified by the officer.

- C. In all instances the seat belt shall be latched.
- D. Leg irons and hobble restraints will not be used on prisoners simply because the prisoners remove their seat belts.
- E. Officers will inspect the back seats and floorboard areas at the beginning and end of each shift and after each prisoner transport. Officers will check for damage to the seat or seat belt, dirt, debris, contraband, weapons and/or body fluids.

XIII. TRANSPORTING OF VIOLENT PRISONERS

- A. Prisoners should not be removed from patrol units to be restrained, unless there is no other reasonable alternative.
- B. A prisoner that becomes violent or tries to damage District property, after being placed into a patrol unit, should be restrained while still inside unless to do so would likely cause injury to the officer or prisoner.
  - 1. The leg irons or a hobble should be placed on the prisoner and secured in order to prevent kicking.
  - 2. A single officer should request assistance from a second officer to assist in this process.
- C. Prisoners will not be re-handcuffed at any time whether or not the prisoners have succeeded in placing the handcuffs partially or fully in front of their bodies.
- D. Handcuffs will not be removed if they are found to be too tight. The handcuffs will be unlocked and allowed to open just enough for proper circulation and then locked again.
- E. Prisoners that are violent prior to being placed in the car may be restrained using the leg irons and hobble restraints.
  - 1. If the prisoner discontinues the violence upon being restrained, the hobble restraint will be used only to the extent that the prisoner can still stand and sit upright as described below.

2. If the prisoner continues the violence, the prisoner will be fully restrained as described below.
3. When it is necessary to fully restrain a prisoner, officers will notify their supervisor.

XIV. USE OF LEG IRONS AND HOBBLER

- A. Leg irons and hobbles will be stored in the supervisor's vehicle so they are readily available for use.
- B. Leg Irons and Hobbles
  1. Will be applied with one cuff or strap on each ankle of the prisoner.
  2. Key holes should face the upper portion of a prisoner's body.
  3. Will not be secured so tightly as to restrict circulation.
  4. Once applied, will be double-locked.
  5. Leg irons or other restraints on prisoners' legs shall not be connected to handcuffs when a prisoner is handcuffed behind the back. This method of restraint, sometimes referred to as "hog-tying" is prohibited.

XV. TRANSPORTING OF FEMALES - When male officers are transporting a female prisoner, witness, victim, stranded motorist etc., Officers shall notify Communications, by radio, of their beginning location, vehicle mileage and destination. Upon arrival, Officers shall notify communications of their ending vehicle mileage.

XVI. INJURED OR HANDICAPPED PRISONERS - If a person requests medical attention due to an injury suffered before or during an arrest or due to a serious medical condition or if an arrested person reasonably appears to need immediate medical attention, the officer having custody of the person shall immediately secure such medical attention or release the person to the county jail and inform jail personnel of the request or apparent need for medical attention. All requests for medical attention or observations of apparent medical needs will be fully documented by the arresting officer along with all responsive action.

Officers shall request whatever reasonable assistance is necessary in order to transport handicapped prisoners with a minimum of discomfort, risk and loss of dignity. This may include seeking aid of other officers, medical personnel or an ambulance. Alternatives to arrest should always be considered in these circumstances. The arresting officer shall make reasonable effort to insure the handicapped or disabled prisoner has access to necessary special equipment or medication. If there is little danger of escape or injury, the officer should consider whether restraint devices are necessary.

XVII. ENFORCEMENT ACTIONS WITH PRISONERS IN CUSTODY - Officers will not engage in enforcement actions while a prisoner is in custody unless emergency conditions which present an immediate and serious danger exist and require immediate enforcement action. In no circumstance will an officer engage in a pursuit while a prisoner is in the officer's custody.

XVIII. INTERVIEWS AND INTERROGATIONS

A. Definitions

1. An interview, as opposed to an interrogation, may be construed as any conversation with a suspect, witness, victim or the citizen.
2. An interrogation, according to the Supreme Court, includes the following, per Rhode Island v. Innis, “. . . express questioning or its functional equivalent . . . any words or conduct on the part of police (other than those normally attendant to arrest and custody) that the police should know are reasonably likely to elicit an incriminating response from the suspect.”
3. Officers are reminded that an interrogation does not rely solely or exclusively on words: conduct can be the "functional equivalent" of asking questions.

B. Rights Admonition

1. In order to achieve uniformity in administering Miranda warnings, police officers will be issued cards with the Miranda warnings and waiver on them. Officers will advise suspects, verbatim:
  - a. "You have the right to remain silent."

- b. "Anything you say can and will be used against you in a court of law."
  - c. "You have the right to talk to a lawyer and have [the lawyer] present with you while you are being questioned."
  - d. "If you cannot afford to hire a lawyer, one will be appointed to represent you before any questioning, if you wish one."
  - e. "You may cease talking at any time."
2. After the warning, in order to secure a waiver, the officer shall ask and receive affirmative replies to the following questions:
- a. "Do you understand each of these rights I have explained to you?"
  - b. "Having these rights in mind, do you wish to talk to us now?"
3. After the rights have been read, understood, and the person wishes to waive them, the officer will have the suspect sign the waiver of rights form. Officers must cease questioning whenever the suspect invokes the right to silence or requests the presence of counsel.
- a. After the suspect has been charged, officers shall not try to elicit incriminating evidence unless the suspect waives the right to counsel.
  - b. If a suspect, once in custody, requests counsel after being advised of Miranda rights, the suspect will not be interviewed again unless (1) the counsel is present during the interview or (2) the suspect initiates the interview. Officers therefore cannot obtain a waiver under these circumstances unless the suspect initiates an interview. If the suspect initiates the interview, the officer must carefully document all facts, which indicate such initiation and which establish that the suspect has voluntarily submitted to further interview.

4. Officers will take care when advising juveniles of their rights to ensure that the rights are understood before obtaining a waiver. Officers should honor a children's request to speak to a parent or guardian before waiving their rights.

C. The Fifth Amendment Right against Self-Incrimination

1. When Miranda applies: The voluminous case law covering Miranda (Miranda v. Arizona) warnings has established several guidelines for officers to help decide when warnings must be administered. Miranda applies only to custodial interview. As to what constitutes custody, if a reasonable person in the suspect's position believes that the person is not free to leave, then Miranda applies. Note that the officer's view of what constitutes custody and that of the suspect may differ. Officers must remember that the reasonable belief of the suspect is determinative.
2. Circumstances for administering Miranda: In determining whether a suspect is free to leave the police officer's presence, a court will look at the circumstances of the interview: if police questioning is conducted in a police car or at a police station, the environment may be construed a coercive one, and the interview custodial. Practically speaking, an arrest or physical restraint of a suspect places the suspect in custody, and Miranda warnings must be administered before the officer asks questions about the offense. In short, then, Miranda warnings must be given when:
  - a. The suspect reasonably believes that the suspect is in custody; and
  - b. The suspect is interviewed and asked specific questions about a specific crime.
3. Voluntariness of confessions: The courts have provided officers with much latitude in interviewing suspects. If a suspect claims coercion into confessing, the courts will examine the interview according to the totality of the circumstances. If interview methods appear to overcome the suspect's will, then the courts will find any resulting confession to be involuntary. Officers must:

- a. carefully assess the suspect's background, age, education, mental impairment and physical condition to determine vulnerability to coercion; and
- b. coupled with the background characteristics, choose an appropriate mix of interview tactics and environmental factors to convince the suspect to confess without overbearing the suspect's will. Note that Miranda warnings would have been given before the interview takes place, in most instances.

D. Exemptions/Special Cases

1. Miranda warnings do not apply to the following situations:
  - a. brief on-scene questioning;
  - b. identification procedures such as fingerprinting, conducting a line-up or sobriety tests;
  - c. volunteered, spontaneous statements (Once the officer has heard the suspect express spontaneous incriminating statements, the officer shall then advise the suspect of Miranda rights and obtain a waiver before undertaking additional questions.);
  - d. brief investigative detention;
  - e. roadside questioning during routine traffic stops;
  - f. routine booking questions attendant to arrest; or
  - g. questioning by private persons.
2. Public safety exception - When an officer urgently needs information from a suspect because lives are in imminent danger, officers may delay giving Miranda warnings until the officers have received information sufficient to dispel the emergency. Officers are advised that a genuine, life-threatening emergency must exist. In such a circumstance, the statements of the suspect may not be admissible at trial.

3. No firm guidelines exist governing when fresh warnings must be given. In considering whether previously-administered Miranda rights have become legally stale, Detectives must consider:
    - a. the length of time between first warnings and later interview;
    - b. whether warnings and later interview were given in the same place;
    - c. whether warnings and later interview were by the same or different officers;
    - d. the extent to which the later statement differed from a previous one; or
    - e. the apparent intellectual and emotional state of the suspect.
  4. If there is doubt that the person to whom the warning is given understands the English language sufficiently to understand the warning and make a knowing waiver, the warning should be provided in that person's native language to be effective.
- E. Limitations on Police Authority by the Superintendent and Chief of Police - Limitations on police enforcement actions by BISD School Board, Superintendent or the Chief of Police include, but are not limited to:
1. parking violations; and
  2. enforcement of traffic, Class C misdemeanor and local Ordinance violations.
- F. Changes in Laws/Interpretational Limitations - Periodically, changes take place which may impose new limitations on police authority or remove or alter existing limitations. Normally, annual updates on such changes are provided to all personnel by the State and/or County prosecutors or other competent authority. In case immediate changes in departmental operations are required, the State and District attorney's office or other competent authority may provide information orally and confirm it in writing.

XIX. CONSTITUTIONAL REQUIREMENTS: GENERAL

A. Compliance with Constitutional Requirements during Criminal Investigations

1. All officers when conducting criminal investigations shall take all precautions necessary to ensure that all persons involved are afforded their constitutional safeguards. Officers will ensure that:
  - a. All statements or confessions are voluntary and non-coercive;
  - b. All persons are advised of their rights in accordance with this general order;
  - c. All arrested persons are taken promptly before a magistrate for formal charging;
  - d. All persons accused or suspected of a criminal violation for which they are being interviewed are afforded an opportunity to consult with an attorney;
  - e. Prejudicial pre-trial publicity of the accused is avoided so as not to interfere with a defendant's right to a fair and impartial trial.

B. Constitutional Rights of Arrested Persons

1. Detentions shall occur only based upon reasonable suspicion and arrests shall occur only upon probable cause or upon warrants which have been confirmed by the issuing agency.
2. No officer may use force, which under the circumstances, is deemed excessive under the U.S. Constitution and applicable case law.
3. Officers will be cognizant of and protect the Constitutional rights of all persons detained or arrested.

C. Use of Discretion by Officers

1. Officers, by the nature of their job, are required to exercise discretion in the performance of their duties. The department provides officers with written policies, rules, departmental orders, directed patrol assignments and training in order to aid them in making decisions which govern discretion in performing their duties.
2. With the exception of departmental rules and regulations, departmental policy generally gives officers guidelines to consider in exercising their discretion. It is up to the individual officer to consider the relevant facts, the situation, and then, using knowledge, training and good judgment, make appropriate decisions. Supervisors must closely observe the use of discretion by their subordinates and point out factual errors or alternatives that may be more appropriate.

D. Alternatives to Arrest/Pre-Arrest Confinement

1. Under certain circumstances, officers are faced with situations where an arrest and pre-arrest confinement will not be possible or feasible under the circumstances. In this case, officers may elect to exercise certain alternatives such as the issuance of summonses, referral to a social service agency, or simply a warning. Examples may include:
  - a. Mentally or emotionally disturbed persons;
  - b. Domestic situations where counseling may be appropriate. (Except where applicable law requires an arrest.);
  - c. Juvenile offenders;
  - d. Transient persons who need shelter and food; or
  - e. Certain misdemeanor cases.
2. Authority to issue citations in lieu of arrest/confinement:
  - a. Officers may issue citations to appear in lieu of arrest in appropriate circumstances authorized by law.

- b. The use of summonses by officers: In determining whether a summons should be used, the officer should
  - (1) Consider whether the offense committed is serious.
  - (2) Consider whether the accused poses a danger to the public or the accused.
  - (3) Consider, based on circumstances, whether the person may disregard a summons.
- 3. Informal handling of criminal matters: Officers often deal with situations where the public interest would be better served by social service agencies or crisis and professional organizations. When in the judgment of the officer a better solution to the problem will be achieved by use of alternatives to enforcement the officer should consider such alternatives.
- 4. Use of warnings as an alternative to arrest: The use of warnings may sometimes provide a satisfactory solution to a problem and may enhance the public perception of the department. Normally, the use of a warning occurs in traffic offenses, but occasionally may be applied to criminal offenses. In determining if a warning should be issued, the officer should consider:
  - a. The seriousness of the offense.
  - b. The likelihood that the violator will heed the warning.
  - c. The reputation of the violator, i.e., known repeat offender, has received previous warnings, etc.
- 5. Custodial arrests for Class C offenses:
  - a. Officers are authorized by applicable law, with certain statutory exceptions, to arrest persons for violations of class C offenses which carry a fine only penalty upon conviction. Officers will use good judgment and discretion in determining whether to arrest or issue a citation for such violations. As a rule, officers will issue citations for non-jail offenses unless the violator refuses to sign the promise to appear or other extraordinary circumstances are present.

- b. The following factors must be considered and documented by the officer upon making an arrest for any offense which carries a fine only penalty upon conviction:
  - (1) Danger to others if the violator is released;
  - (2) Probability that the violator will or will not appear for court;
  - (3) Whether the violator a repeat offender;
  - (4) Other charges or aggravating factors; or
  - (5) Whether enforcement goals may be equally achieved with a citation rather than with a custodial arrest.
- c. All arrests for offenses which carry a fine only penalty shall be approved in advance, or as soon as possible, by a supervisor.

XX. RACIAL PROFILING PROHIBITED

- A. Purpose: This general order is intended to reaffirm the Bastrop ISD Police Department's commitment to unbiased policing, to clarify the circumstances in which officers may consider race/ethnicity when making law enforcement decisions and to reinforce procedures that serve to assure the equitable provision of police service to the community.
  - 1. to reinforce procedures that serve to ensure public confidence and mutual trust through the provision of services in a fair and equitable fashion;
  - 2. to provide guidelines for officers to prevent such occurrences;
  - 3. and to protect our officers from unwarranted accusations of misconduct when the officers act within the dictates of departmental policy and the law.
- B. Policy: It is the policy of this department to police in a proactive manner and, to aggressively investigate suspected violations of law. Officers shall actively enforce state and federal laws in a responsible and professional manner, without regard to race, ethnicity or national origin. Officers are strictly prohibited from engaging in racial profiling as defined in this policy. This policy shall be applicable to all persons, whether drivers, passengers or pedestrians.

Officers shall conduct themselves in a dignified and respectful manner at all times when dealing with the public. Two of the fundamental rights guaranteed by both the United States and Texas constitutions are equal protection under the law and freedom from unreasonable searches and seizures by government agents. The right of all persons to be treated equally and to be free from unreasonable searches and seizures must be respected. Racial profiling is an unacceptable patrol tactic and will not be condoned.

This policy shall not preclude officers from offering assistance, such as upon observing a substance leaking from a vehicle, a flat tire or someone who appears to be ill, lost or confused. Nor does this policy prohibit stopping someone suspected of a crime based upon observed actions and / or information received about the person.

- C. Discussion: A fundamental right guaranteed by the Constitution of the United States to all who live in this nation is to equal protection under the law. Along with this right to equal protection is the fundamental right to be free from unreasonable searches and seizures by government agents. Citizens are free to walk and drive our streets, highways, and other public places without police interference so long as they obey the law. Citizens also are entitled to be free from crime and from the depredations of criminals and drive and walk our public ways safe from the actions of reckless and careless drivers.

This law enforcement agency is charged with protecting these rights, for all, regardless of race, color, ethnicity, sex, sexual orientation, physical handicap, religion or other belief system.

Because of the nature of their business, law enforcement officers are required to be observant, to identify unusual occurrences and law violations and to act upon them. It is this proactive enforcement that keeps our citizens free from crime, our streets and highways safe to drive upon and that detects and apprehends criminals.

This policy is intended to assist law enforcement in accomplishing this total mission in a way that respects the dignity of all persons and yet sends a strong deterrent message to actual and potential lawbreakers that if they break the law, they are likely to encounter the police.

D. Definitions:

1. Racial-Profilng: A law enforcement-initiated action based solely upon an individual's race, ethnicity or national origin rather than on the individual's behavior or on information identifying the individual as having engaged in criminal activity. Racial profiling pertains to persons who are viewed as suspects or potential suspects of criminal behavior. The term is not relevant as it pertains to witnesses, complainants, persons needing assistance or other citizen contacts.
2. Acts Constituting Racial Profiling: The detention, interdiction, search or seizure of any person based solely upon the person's age, gender, sexual orientation, race, color, creed, ethnicity, national origin or similar personal characteristic, rather than upon the individual's behavior, information identifying the individual as having possibly engaged in criminal activity or other lawful reasons for the law enforcement action.
3. Traffic Stop: As it pertains to this policy, means the stopping of a motor vehicle by a police officer who is operating a marked police patrol car, for an actual or suspected violation of law or ordinance regulating traffic.
4. Pedestrian Stop: As it pertains to this policy, means the detention of an individual by a police officer for the purpose of a criminal investigation in which the individual is not under arrest.
5. Race or Ethnicity: Relating to a particular descent, including, but not limited to, Caucasian, African, Hispanic, Asian or Native American.
6. MVR: Shall refer to the mobile video/audio recording equipment. This includes both the equipment installed in the police vehicle, as well as the equipment worn by the officer, i.e., wireless body microphone and accompanying equipment.

7. Reasonable Suspicion: also known as articulable suspicion. Suspicion that is more than a mere hunch, but is based on a set of articulable facts and circumstances that would warrant a person of reasonable caution in believing that an infraction of the law has been committed, is about to be committed, or is in the process of being committed, by the person or persons under suspicion. This can be based on the observations of a police officer combined with the officer's training and experience and/or reliable information received from credible outside sources. Motorists and pedestrians shall only be subjected to stop, seizures, or detentions upon reasonable suspicion that they have committed, are committing, or are about to commit an infraction. Each time a motorist or pedestrian is stopped, the officer shall radio to the dispatcher the location of the stop.
- E. Prohibition - Officers of the Bastrop ISD Police Department are strictly prohibited from the use of racial profiling in the course of their duties. Race or ethnicity may never be used as the sole basis or motivating factor in making law enforcement decisions.
1. Any officer found, after thorough investigation and review, to have engaged in racial profiling shall be subject to disciplinary action which may include indefinite suspension or termination.
  2. Investigative detentions, traffic stops, arrests, searches and property seizures by officers of the Bastrop ISD Police Department will be based on a standard of reasonable suspicion or probable cause in accordance with the Fourth Amendment to the U.S. Constitution. Officers must be able to articulate specific facts and circumstances that support reasonable suspicion or probable cause for investigative detentions, traffic stops, arrests, nonconsensual searches and property seizures.
  3. Except as provided below, officers of the Bastrop ISD Police Department shall not consider race/ethnicity in establishing either reasonable suspicion or probable cause. Similarly except as provided below, officers shall not consider race/ethnicity in deciding to initiate nonconsensual encounters that do not amount to legal detentions or to request consent to search.

4. Officers may take into account the reported race or ethnicity of a specific suspect or suspects based on trustworthy, locally relevant information that links a person or persons of a specific race/ethnicity to a particular unlawful incident(s). Race/ethnicity may not be used as the sole basis for probable cause or reasonable suspicion.
  5. Detaining an individual and conducting an inquiry into that person's activities simply because of that individual's race, ethnicity or national origin are racial profiling. Examples of racial profiling include but are not limited to the following:
    - a. Citing a driver who is speeding in a stream of traffic where most other drivers are speeding because of the cited driver's race, ethnicity or national origin.
    - b. Detaining the driver of a vehicle based on the determination that a person of that race, ethnicity or national origin is unlikely to own or possess that specific make or model of vehicle.
    - c. Detaining an individual based upon the determination that a person of that race, ethnicity or national origin does not belong in a specific part of town or a specific place.
    - d. A law enforcement agency can derive at two principles: Police may not use racial or ethnic stereotypes as factors in selecting whom to stop and search:
      - a. Police may use race in conjunction with other known factors of the suspect;
      - b. Racial profiling is not relevant as it pertains to witnesses, etc.
- F. Complaint Process - Any person or persons alleging racial profiling may file a complaint against the specified employee or officer(s) and said complaints will be processed in accordance with the Bastrop ISD Police Department General Orders. All complainants will be informed of the Internal Affairs process. No persons shall be discouraged, intimidated or coerced from filing a complaint, or be discriminated against because they have filed a complaint.

1. Corrective Action: Any peace officer who is found, after investigation, to have engaged in racial profiling in violation of this policy shall be subject to corrective action, which may include reprimand; diversity, sensitivity or other appropriate training or counseling; paid or unpaid suspension; termination of employment, or other appropriate action as determined by the Chief of Police.

G. Patrol and Field Operation Procedures

1. Personnel supplied with MVR equipment will utilize it on all detention contacts with the public, including but not limited to, traffic and pedestrian stops.
  - a. During the contact officers will ensure that the video and audio transmitter is on in order that the complete contact between the officer(s) and the contact is recorded.
  - b. An officer may deactivate the audio portion of the MVR equipment during private conversations among officers outside the presence of the public or suspects.
2. When a citation is issued or an arrest is made as the result of a traffic stop, the officer must document the following information:
  - a. The race or ethnicity of the individual detained;
  - b. Whether a search was conducted, and if so, whether the person detained consented to the search;
  - c. If contraband is recovered.
3. Each audio and video recording shall be retained for a minimum of 90 days, unless a complaint has been filed alleging that an officer has been engaged in racial profiling with respect to a traffic or pedestrian stop, in which case the recording shall be retained until final disposition of the complaint.
4. The Chief of Police or the Chief's designee shall periodically conduct reviews of a randomly selected sampling of video and audio recordings recently made by Officers in order to determine if patterns of racial profiling exist. If any acts of racial profiling or patterns of racial profiling are discovered, the Chief of Police shall initiate an investigation.

H. Administrative Reporting

1. During January of each year the Chief of Police or the Chief's designee will prepare an annual report reflecting an analysis of citizen detentions and including the data and analyses required by applicable law.
2. The Chief of Police will provide a copy of the annual report to the Superintendent and BISD School Board at the beginning of each calendar year but no later than March 1st of each year.

Field Interviews and Detentions

I. POLICY

The agency expects and encourages officers to conduct field interviews. Field interviews are important contacts with individuals that aid in preventing and investigating crime. The agency expects officers to gather information with proper observance of constitutional safeguards. Strict constitutional guidelines exist that protect both the civil rights of all persons and the need of officers to obtain information crucial to the reduction and prevention of crime.

II. PURPOSE

To clearly establish the difference between a Field Interview and an Investigative Detention or Stop. To assist officers to determine when field interviews and frisks for weapons are necessary and useful, and to establish procedures for conducting both safely. (TBP: 7.07)

III. DEFINITIONS

A. Field interview (consensual encounter)

A brief interview of a person to determine the person's identity and gather information or to resolve the officer's suspicions about possible criminal activity or determine if the person has information about a criminal offense. Field interviews require voluntary cooperation of the subject. A field interview contrasts with a detention or stop which is based on reasonable suspicion of criminal behavior.

B. Frisk

A "pat-down" search of outer garments for weapons.

C. Reasonable suspicion

Articulable facts that, within the totality of the circumstances, lead an officer to reasonably suspect that criminal activity has been, is being or is about to be committed. The reasonableness of an officer's actions will be determined by reviewing the totality of circumstances known to the officer at the time the officer takes the action.

D. Detention (Stop)

An involuntary detention of a subject for a brief period of time for the purpose of investigating the actions of the individual. In order to make the stop, the officer must have reasonable suspicion to believe that criminal activity is afoot and that the person to be detained or stopped is involved. A stop is an investigative detention. The following characteristics may, under the circumstances, give rise to reasonable suspicion for a stop. This list is not all-inclusive nor is the presence of any one of these circumstances alone always sufficient for reasonable suspicion.

1. Officer has knowledge that the person has a criminal record.
2. A person fits the description of a wanted notice.
3. A person has exhibited furtive conduct such as fleeing from the presence of an officer or attempting to conceal an object from the officer's view.
4. The appearance, behavior, or actions of the suspect suggest that the suspect is committing a crime.
5. The time of day or night is inappropriate for the suspect's presence in a particular area.
6. The officer observes a vehicle that is similar to that of a broadcast description for a known offense.

7. A person exhibits unusual behavior, such as staggering or appearing to be in need of medical attention.
8. The suspect is in a place proximate in time and location to an alleged crime.
9. The suspect is carrying an unusual object or the suspect's clothing bulges in a manner consistent with concealing a weapon.

IV. FIELD INTERVIEW PROCEDURES

A. Making the field interview or stop: overview

1. An officer may conduct a field interview at any time if an individual is willing to speak with the officer. A field interview requires voluntary cooperation from the subject. In the absence of probable cause to arrest or reasonable suspicion to justify an actual investigative detention or stop, the individual may discontinue the interview at any time and leave. The individual may also refuse to produce identification or otherwise prove identity. The individual does not have to answer any questions or provide any information.
2. An officer must be able to articulate the circumstances that warranted the interview of the subject. In court, should a field interview result in an arrest, an officer must justify the intrusion by describing "specific and articulable facts which, taken together with rational inferences from those facts, reasonably warrant that intrusion." Articulable facts and circumstances derive from:
  - a. First-hand observations.
  - b. Information from informants or members of the community.
  - c. "Collective knowledge" or information shared by several officers.
  - d. Reasonable inferences made by the officer from information known to the officer.

B. Place of the interview

1. As a general rule, field interviews may be conducted anywhere the officer has a right to be, including:

- a. District-owned or controlled property, normally open to members of the public.
  - b. Areas intended for public use or normally exposed to public view.
  - c. Places to which an officer has been admitted with the consent of the person empowered to give such consent.
  - d. Places where circumstances require an immediate law enforcement presence to protect life, well-being or property.
  - e. Areas where an officer may be admitted pursuant to a lawful arrest or search warrant.
  - f. Any other area in which an officer may affect a warrantless arrest.
2. Field contacts shall not be done to coerce a person to leave an area or place where the person has a legitimate right to be and where no violation of law has occurred.

C. Conduct of Interviews

1. Officers shall clearly identify themselves and, if not in uniform, display identification.
2. As noted above, a person interviewed by the officer may discontinue the interview at any time. To repeat, during a routine field interview, persons shall not be detained in any manner against their will nor shall they be required to answer questions or respond in any manner if they choose not to do so. The fine line drawn between a field interview and a detention or stop must be strictly observed. Since the distinction between an interview and a detention depends to a great extent on whether, under the circumstances, the subject perceives that the subject is free to leave, officers shall comply with the following guidelines:
  - a. All requests during the interview should be phrased with neutral or optional words, such as "may" "would you mind," etc.

- b. The duration of an interview should be as brief as possible unless prolonged by the subject.
  - c. During the interview, officers should confine their questions to those concerning the suspect's identity, place of residence and other matters necessary to resolve the officer's suspicions.
  - d. Miranda warnings are not required during field interviews. The warnings are not required until custodial questioning takes place.
3. The success or failure in obtaining information beneficial to crime analysis and criminal investigation will depend upon an officer's ability to put individuals at ease and establish a rapport. However, during a field interview, if persons should ask whether they must respond, or indicate that they feels compelled to respond, the officer shall immediately inform them of the right to refuse, as well as the right to leave.
- a. When a person refuses or ceases to cooperate during an interview, the refusal itself cannot be used as the basis for escalating the encounter into a detention.
  - b. Individuals cannot be compelled to answer any questions during field interviews.

V. INVESTIGATIVE DETENTION OR STOP (and Frisk when warranted)

- A. The legal authority to conduct an investigative detention or stop (and frisk when warranted) is based in Federal and State constitutions as interpreted by court decisions.
- B. Investigative detentions may involve two distinct acts. The first is the actual detention or stop, which is based on reasonable suspicion. A second component may be a frisk of the detainee for weapons. The frisk must be justified by the officer's reasonable fear for the officer's safety during the detention. The safety concern must arise from the conduct of the detained person, not from safety concerns in general. For example, a frisk could not be justified solely on the claim that “all drug dealers are dangerous.” Not every detention will result in a frisk. Examples of safety factors justifying a frisk may include but are not limited to:

1. The type of crime suspected, particularly those involving weapons.
2. When the officer must confront multiple suspects.
3. The time of day and location of the stop.
4. Prior knowledge of the suspect's propensity for violence.
5. Any indication that the suspect is armed.
6. Age and sex of the suspect (officers shall exercise caution with very young or very old people or persons of the opposite sex).

C. Manner of conducting a frisk

1. Ideally, two or more officers will conduct the frisk, one to search and the other to provide protective cover.
2. The minimally intrusive nature of a frisk permits the suspect to be searched while standing, or with hands placed against a stationary object with their feet spread apart, which is the preferred method.
3. When frisking, officers shall search only the external clothing for objects that reasonably could be weapons and remove them.
  - a. Retrieval of the weapon may give probable cause to arrest. If so, officers may then conduct a complete custodial search of the suspect incident to arrest.
4. If, during a lawful detention based on reasonable suspicion, the officer conducts a frisk and feels an object whose contour or mass makes its identity as contraband immediately apparent, pursuant to the plain touch doctrine, it may be withdrawn and examined.

5. If the suspect is carrying a bag, purse, suitcase, briefcase, sack or other container that may conceal a weapon, officers shall not open it but may place it beyond the subject's reach for the duration of the stop.

D. Protective search

1. Under some conditions, the protective search or the search for weapons may be extended beyond the person detained. This search occurs most often with vehicles. A lawful protective search for weapons, which extends to an area beyond the person in the absence of probable cause to arrest, must have all of the following elements present:
  - a. A lawful detention as defined herein or a lawful vehicle stop.
  - b. A reasonable belief that the suspect(s) poses a danger.
  - c. A frisk of the subject must occur first.
  - d. The search must be limited to those areas in which a weapon may be placed or hidden.
  - e. The search must be limited to an area which would ensure that there are no weapons within the subject's immediate grasp.
  - f. If the suspect has been arrested and restrained or removed from immediate access to the vehicle, a search of the vehicle cannot be made for protective reasons. A search may be made of vehicle if other exceptions to a search warrant exist.

E. Period of detention

1. Investigative detention--as with field interviews--must be conducted as quickly as possible. Once the detaining officer determines that the basis for reasonable suspicion no longer exists, the person detained shall be immediately released. Should the suspicion be reinforced with additional information or the officer develops probable cause, the period of detention could be lengthened. The courts generally permit up to 20 minutes to constitute a reasonable period of time for the interview.

VI. DOCUMENTING THE INTERVIEW OR STOP

For purposes of successful prosecution and defending departmental actions to the public, all field interviews and investigative detentions must be recorded. The following methods will be utilized:

- A. Patrol officers will record all field interviews in their entirety on the in-car audio video systems. Officers will attempt to position the vehicle or camera in a position to record the interview. If not possible, the use of the audio portion is required.
- B. If an interview or investigative detention results in an arrest, the arresting officer will clearly detail the reasonable suspicion that led to the interview or detention in the narrative of the arrest report as well as maintaining the audio/video recording as evidence.
- C. Officers not equipped with in-car or portable audio/video recording systems will obtain a service number and create an incident report entitled “Field Interview” and record the reasonable suspicion and details of the interview of detention. The report will be forwarded through the officer’s supervisor to the records unit.

	Subject: Constitutional Requirements and Officer Discretion	Issue Date: 11/30/2015
	Chapter: 12	Revision Date: 05/01/2020
	Policy: 12.3	Total Pages: 6 Chief Bunch's signature:

Constitutional Requirements and Officer Discretion

I. POLICY

The federal and state constitutions guarantee every person certain safeguards from government intrusion into their lives. These safeguards have become the cornerstone for the application of criminal justice in America. The department expects officers to observe constitutional safeguards. The department further expects that officers understand the limits and prerogatives of their authority to act. Respect for the civil liberties of all persons shall be the paramount concern in all enforcement matters.

II. PURPOSE

The purpose of this general order is to define the legally mandated authority for the enforcement of laws, to establish procedures for ensuring compliance with constitutional requirements during criminal investigations, to set forth guidelines concerning the use of discretion by officers and to define the authority, guidelines and circumstances when officers should exercise alternatives to arrests and pretrial confinement.

III. PROBABLE CAUSE AND REASONABLE SUSPICION

A. Probable Cause

1. Searches and arrests are based on the existence of probable cause. According to the U.S. Supreme Court, "Probable cause exists where the facts and circumstances within their [the arresting officers'] knowledge and of which they had reasonable trustworthy information are sufficient in themselves to warrant a man of reasonable caution in the belief that an offense has been or is being committed."

An officer must have probable cause to make an arrest or conduct a search.

2. When an officer has sufficient probable cause, the officer may arrest a person, conduct a search of the person, record the person's fingerprints, take the person's photograph, and detain the person. The aim of an arrest on probable cause is to make a formal charge. While in some cases, formal charges may not be filed for any number of reasons, officers should only make a custodial arrest if a formal charge is anticipated.

B. Reasonable Suspicion

1. Reasonable suspicion involves a standard less than probable cause, generally defined by the courts as a circumstance or collection of circumstances that would lead a trained, experienced officer to believe that criminal activity may be afoot.

An officer must have reasonable suspicion to temporarily detain a person.

2. When an officer has reasonable suspicion, the officer may undertake a pat-down (frisk) of a suspect's outer clothing for weapons and record the circumstances of the encounter. The aim of a detention based on reasonable suspicion is to resolve an ambiguous situation and determine if criminal activity is occurring.

IV. AUTHORITY AND DISCRETION

A. Law-enforcement authority

State law invests peace officers with authority to prevent and detect crime, apprehend criminals, safeguard life and property, preserve the peace and enforce state and local laws and ordinances.

B. The use of discretion by officers

1. While officers have the authority to arrest an offender under many circumstances, officers seldom are able to arrest individuals for every offense they observe. Officers must prioritize their activities to provide the highest level of service to their community. As a result they must often use discretion in deciding the level of enforcement action based on the circumstances.
2. Departmental policy gives officers procedures to follow for common or critical enforcement tasks. Departmental policies and procedures are to be followed unless unusual or extreme circumstances dictate another course of action. In these cases, officers shall make reasoned decisions in their discretion based on good judgment, experience and training. It is up to the individual officer to consider the relevant facts, the situation, and then, using knowledge, training and good judgment, make appropriate decisions. Supervisors must closely observe the use of discretion by their subordinates and point out factual errors or alternatives that may be more appropriate.
3. The vast majority of persons officers will contact during their shifts are typically law-abiding people who have made a mistake or error in their behavior. In many of these cases there are underlying circumstances that contributed to those mistakes or decisions. Officers are encouraged to exercise understanding and compassion when deciding to take enforcement action, and consider how they or a member of their family would like to be treated in similar circumstances.
4. Officers should understand that their decisions regarding arrests and searches are in all cases subject to review by their supervisors.
5. Supervisors shall observe and review the activities of officers and counsel them as needed regarding the use of discretion.

C. Alternatives to arrest/pre-arraignment confinement

1. Officers are required to arrest suspects for all felony offenses and those major misdemeanor offenses where a victim was injured, property was stolen or damaged or the public or an individual was placed at risk of great harm.

After an arrest has been made in these circumstances, if pre-arraignment detention is not advisable due to the suspect's health, age, infirmity or family situation, the officer should contact a supervisor for disposition. A supervisor can authorize a field release if the individual is known or proper identification is present; or authorize booking and release on personal recognizance.

2. In misdemeanor criminal cases where there is no victim or property loss, where an individual or the public was not placed in danger of great harm and in traffic offenses, officers may occasionally be faced with situations where formal action is not advisable. In such cases, officers may elect to exercise alternatives such as the issuance of citations, referral to a social service agency or simply to give a warning.
3. In determining whether a citation should be used, the officer shall:
  - a. Decide whether the offense committed is serious.
  - b. Attempt to understand the contributing factors to the incident and evaluate whether a reasonable person would be influenced by those factors.
  - c. Make a judgment as to whether the accused poses a danger to the public or the accused.
4. Officers often deal with situations where the public interest would be better served by social service agencies or crisis and professional organizations. When in the judgment of the officer a better solution to the problem will be achieved by use of alternatives to enforcement, the officer should refer the person to an appropriate social services agency.
5. The use of warnings may sometimes provide a solution to a problem and may enhance the public perception of the department. Normally, the use of a warning occurs in traffic offenses, but occasionally may be applied to criminal offenses. In determining if a warning should be issued, the officer shall consider:

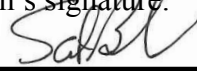

- a. The seriousness of the offense.
- b. Whether a victim was injured or had property damaged by the offender.
- c. Attempt to understand the contributing factors to the incident and evaluate whether a reasonable person would be influenced by those factors.
- d. The likelihood that the violator will heed the warning.

V. PROTECTION OF INDIVIDUAL RIGHTS

- A. Officers will, at all times, act to preserve and protect the rights of all persons.
- B. Officers making arrests will ensure suspects are informed of the rights if they intend to question them about an offense. Miranda warnings are required and shall be administered prior to any “custodial interrogation.” Officers are expected to understand the requirements of Code of Criminal Procedure 38.22 before taking any statements from suspects.
  1. The following represent examples of situations that are not “custodial” and do not require Miranda warnings.
    - a. Investigatory stop and frisk.
    - b. Questioning during a routine traffic stop or for a minor violation; to include driving while intoxicated (DWI) stops until a custodial interrogation begins. During routine questioning at the scene of an incident or crime when the questions are not intended to elicit incriminating responses.
    - c. During voluntary appearances at the police facility.
    - d. When information or statements are made spontaneously, voluntarily and without prompting by police. (Note: Follow-up questions that exceed simple requests for clarification of initial statements may require Miranda warnings.)

2. Administering Miranda.

- a. Miranda warnings shall be read by officers from the card containing this information to all persons subjected to custodial interviews.
- b. Freelancing, recitation from memory or paraphrasing the warnings is prohibited as it precludes officers from testifying in court as to the precise wording used.
- c. Officers shall ensure that suspects understand their right to remain silent and their right to an attorney. Suspects may be questioned only when they have knowingly and intelligently waived their rights. Threats, false promises or coercion to induce suspect statements is prohibited.
- d. Waivers of the Miranda rights must be performed affirmatively. Oral waivers are often sufficient but written waivers, particularly in felony charges, are preferred and should be obtained whenever possible on the appropriate agency form.
- e. Officers arresting deaf suspects or those suspects that appear to have limited proficiency in English shall notify their immediate supervisor and make arrangements to procure the assistance of an interpreter in accordance with this agency's policy and state and federal law.

	Subject: Arrests With and Without a Warrant	Issue Date: 11/30/2015
	Chapter: 12	Revision Date: 06/01/2020
	Policy: 12.4 Reference: TBP: 7.02, 7.03, 10:22	Total Pages: 14 Chief Bunch's signature:

Arrests With and Without a Warrant

I. POLICY

Short of the application of force, an arrest is the most serious action an officer can undertake. An arrest can cause repercussions throughout a person's life, even if eventually found not guilty or never brought to trial. The most important legal question facing an officer at the moment of an arrest is the existence of probable cause: without probable cause, the arrest is illegal and the evidence of criminality that was obtained because of the arrest is inadmissible. Officers shall accordingly exercise critical judgment in making arrests. Critical judgment includes consideration for bystanders, the time, place and location of offenses and the use of force in making the arrests. Officers shall consider alternatives to arrest consistent with their law-enforcement mission.

II. PURPOSE

To define the authority of officers to arrest and the mechanism for making arrests with and without a warrant.

III. DEFINITIONS

A. Arrest

An arrest is a seizure of a person. An arrest is supported by probable cause.

B. Probable cause

According to the U.S. Supreme Court, "Probable cause exists where the facts and circumstances within [the arresting officers'] knowledge and of which they had reasonable trustworthy information are sufficient in themselves to warrant a man of reasonable caution in the belief that an offense has been or is being committed" and that the person to be arrested committed it. An officer must have probable cause to obtain a warrant or make a warrantless arrest.

IV. DISCRETION

- A. Officers shall demonstrate discretionary judgment. Discretion shall be applied reasonably and shall be guided by the oath of office, the limits of authority as established by law, the decisions and interpretations of the courts, the policies of our department and the oral instruction provided by field supervisors.
- B. Officers shall not make arrests or take any enforcement action based in whole or in part by a person's sex, race, creed, color, age, general or assumed attitude, ethnic or natural origin, economic status, disabilities or sexual orientation.

V. ARRESTS WITH A WARRANT (TBP: 7.02)

- A. General Procedures for obtaining an Arrest Warrant and Arresting with a Warrant.
  - 1. Obtaining an Arrest warrant will be made pursuant to Chapter 15 of the Texas Code of Criminal Procedure (TCCP). All officers should become familiar with the specific language/laws concerning obtaining arrest warrants found in Chapter 15 of the TCCP. The following are shortened versions of Articles 15.01, 02, 03, and 05. If departmental approval is received an officer may obtain an arrest warrant by following these requisites:
    - a. (15.01) An arrest warrant is a written order from a magistrate, directed to peace officer commanding the officer to arrest a person accused of an offense, to be dealt with according to law.
    - b. (15.02) A warrant must be issued by a magistrate, in the name of the State of Texas and must specify the name of the person to be arrested or a reasonable, definite description of the person. The warrant must state the person is accused of a crime and name the crime; and must be signed by a magistrate and identify the magistrate's office.

- c. (15.03) A magistrate in the State of Texas may issue an arrest warrant when a person (the officer) makes an oath (affidavit or complaint) that another has committed an offense against the laws of the State of Texas.
    - d. (15.05) An officer's complaint or affidavit must state the name of the accused or some reasonable definite description of the individual. It must show that the person has committed a crime, either directly, or that there is good reason to believe that the person has committed a crime. The complaint/affidavit must state the time and place of the offense, as definitely as can be done by the affiant, and it must be signed by the affiant.
2. Unless assigned as an investigator or detective, officers will obtain supervisory approval before applying for an arrest warrant for any individual.
3. All members of the department will utilize approved affidavit and arrest warrant forms provided by the department. Upon completion of the affidavit and warrant, all officers shall have the documents reviewed and approved by a supervisor prior to requesting judicial approval.
4. Warrants will only be carried to the judge of the Municipal or Justice Court or a County or District Court judge for judicial review. If a warrant approval is refused by any judge, the affidavit and warrant shall not be taken to any other judge without substantial additional information proving probable cause being added to the affidavit. Subsequent reviews will be done by the same magistrate unless unavailable.
5. Except as authorized by the Texas Code of Criminal Procedure, Chapter 14, or Section 18.16, an officer shall not arrest anyone without an arrest warrant.
6. An officer shall not alter any information on an arrest warrant in any manner after a magistrate has issued it.

7. An officer shall presume that any arrest warrant, which appears in proper form, is valid. To be in proper form and valid on its face, an arrest warrant shall:
  - a. Issue in the name of "The State of Texas",
  - b. Specify the name of the person whose arrest is ordered, or provide a reasonable description if the name is not known,
  - c. State that the person is accused of a named offense, and
  - d. Be signed by a magistrate whose office must be named.

8. An officer shall execute a valid arrest warrant as provided by law and departmental policies. If the arrest warrant lacks proper form, the officer shall not execute the warrant, but shall return the warrant to the magistrate who issued it.

9. If an officer has any question about the details or validity of an arrest warrant, the officer shall attempt to verify the information before making an arrest under authority of that warrant. Whenever practical, an officer shall automatically verify the currency of any arrest warrant issued thirty days or more before the date of execution.

10. Any decision to send regional or statewide messages concerning a warrant will be made by a supervisor or the Detective assigned to the case. An officer need not have actual physical possession of an arrest warrant in order to execute it. However, before executing a warrant not in the officer's possession, the officer shall personally determine the location of the warrant and shall ensure that the arrestee sees a copy of the warrant as soon as possible after the arrest.

11. In executing an arrest warrant, whether or not the warrant is in the officer's possession, the officer shall announce to the person being arrested that the arrest is made pursuant to an arrest warrant. If the officer has the warrant in possession, the officer shall show it to the arrestee. If the officer does not possess the warrant, the officer shall advise the arrestee of the charge, bond, and originating agency who issued the warrant.

12. Officers may enter a third party's residence:

- a. with consent to search from the resident or person having control of the property, or
- b. With a search warrant for that residence in order to enter and make the arrest, or
- c. While in fresh pursuit of the wanted person.

B. Warrants from other jurisdictions

1. If an officer has knowledge that another Texas law enforcement agency holds a valid arrest warrant for a particular person, the officer may arrest that person. If an officer makes an arrest on a warrant from another Texas law enforcement agency, the officer shall:
  - a. Arrest the defendant. Notify the agency holding the warrant that this department executed the warrant and give the location of the arrestee.
  - b. Make certain that a supervisor is notified if the defendant is booked into this department so that the defendant can appear before a magistrate within 24 hours of the arrest.
  - c. The department shall hold the arrestee as the magistrate prescribes, until releasing the arrestee to the custody of the department holding the warrant, or until transferring the person to the custody of the Bastrop County Sheriff's Department.
  - d. If the department holding the warrant cannot take custody of the arrestee within 24 hours after the execution of the warrant, or if that department at any time indicates that it will not take custody of the arrestee, the arrestee may be released from our custody.
  - e. An officer shall also execute an arrest warrant telegraphed under the authority of a Texas magistrate.

C. Warrants from Other States

1. Whenever any officer has probable cause to believe that a person stands charged of a felony in another state, the officer shall:
  - a. Arrest the person only after the warrant has been confirmed using accepted methods of warrant confirmation. This arrest is made under the authority granted to Peace Officers in the Texas Code of Criminal Procedure, Chapter 51, Fugitives from Justice.
  - b. Book the arrested person directly into the custody of the Bastrop County Sheriff's Department.
  - c. The existence of a warrant from another state does not provide officers the authority to enter a third person's residence to make the arrest. Officers may only enter a third person's residence in the following circumstances:
    - i. with consent to search from the resident or person having control of the property, or
    - ii. With a search warrant for that residence in order to enter and make the arrest, or
    - iii. While in fresh pursuit of the wanted person.

D. Chance Encounters

1. Whenever an officer lawfully stops or otherwise detains and identifies a person, the officer may concurrently initiate a records check to determine whether any arrest warrant is outstanding against that person.
2. To conduct a records check, an officer may detain a person whom the officer has lawfully stopped for a reasonable period of time. For a routine records check by radio, telephone, teletype, or computer terminal, the detention should not exceed a reasonable amount of time. However, detention may be extended, but no longer than necessary, if the officer has a reasonable suspicion that a warrant is outstanding.

3. The person may be required to wait in the officer's vehicle, in the person's own vehicle, or in some other convenient place.
4. The person may be frisked if the officer can articulate a reasonable fear for the officer's safety.

E. Planned Executions of Arrest Warrants

1. Prior to executing an arrest warrant, the officer in charge shall notify the officer's chain of command.
2. The time of day for executing the arrest warrant shall be based on the following rules:
  - a. Execute during daylight, unless circumstances make this dangerous or impractical.
  - b. Execute when the person named in the warrant is most likely to be present.
  - c. Execute when resistance is least expected and best controlled.
  - d. Minimize the danger or inconvenience to other persons who may be on the premises, unless other circumstances make this impractical.
  - e. Whenever possible, arrests shall be made in a location where the arrest will not pose a threat to the safety of the public (e.g., crowded places where bystanders may be injured should the arrestee offer resistance, particularly resistance involving the use of firearms).
3. An officer may serve the warrant at any place, public or private, where the individual named is reasonably believed to be located (subject to third party private location rule.)
4. Officers need not execute the warrant at the first possible opportunity to do so, but may choose the time and place in accordance with these rules. However, an officer shall not select the time and place of arrest solely to embarrass, oppress or inconvenience the arrestee.

5. An officer shall not use force to enter private premises to execute a misdemeanor arrest warrant.
6. In general, when seeking to enter a private premise, an officer shall ring the doorbell or knock on the door, announce the officer's intentions and purpose, and demand admittance. The officer may then wait for a reasonable time under the circumstances to be admitted.
7. Officers may only enter a third person's residence in the following circumstances:
  - a. With consent to search from the resident or person having control of the property, or
  - b. With a search warrant for that residence in order to enter and make the arrest, or
  - c. While in fresh pursuit of the wanted person.
8. If the execution of an arrest warrant may involve significant risk to officers, a statement of the circumstances of this risk should be included in the affidavit and the magistrate requested to include a "No Knock" authorization to the warrant. If a "No Knock" provision has not been authorized by the magistrate, and articulable circumstances occur at the time of execution of the warrant (such as efforts to destroy evidence, evade arrest or endanger officers) an immediate entry may be made without the required notice and waiting period.
9. If an officer must make a forcible entry, the officer shall enter the premises by the least forceful means possible under the circumstances. Although entry may necessarily include breaking a door or window an officer must strive to inflict as little damage as possible to the premises.
10. Whenever an officer must forcibly enter private premises to execute a felony arrest warrant, the officer in charge of the operation shall have enough officers present, and take other appropriate measures to protect the safety and security of all persons present. To identify the group as officers, at least one fully uniformed officer should lead the entry into the premises.

11. After forcibly entering private premises to execute a felony arrest warrant, officers shall immediately secure the premises by locating and controlling the movement of all persons who reasonably appear to present a threat to the safety of the officers. Officers shall also control any object that may be used as a weapon. An officer may frisk any persons whom the officer reasonably suspects may have a weapon concealed upon their persons.
12. An officer shall leave the premises at least as secure as when the officer entered by leaving it in the hands of a responsible person or by locking all doors and windows. If the premises are left unsecured, a guard will be left until it can be turned over to a responsible party or otherwise secured from illegal entry.

F. No Book Warrant Procedures

1. An officer may allow a violator to pay their fines in full rather than booking the violator into the holding facility for Class C warrants issued by municipal courts.
2. Officers who wish to serve Class C municipal warrants without booking the defendant into the holding facility should follow these procedures:
  - a. Confirm that the warrant matches the identity of the person detained.
  - b. Confirm that the defendant has a sufficient amount of cash to pay the full amount of the fine(s) or the defendant can obtain the cash quickly.
  - c. If the defendant has the cash necessary or can obtain the cash quickly, the officer should ascertain if the defendant has transportation. The officer should follow the defendant to the Municipal or Justice Court Judge.
  - d. The violator will pay the complete amount of all fines to the clerk assigned to the Municipal or Justice Court Judge.

Officers are prohibited from handling any of the cash during any part of this transaction. The officer should insure that the defendant is provided a receipt for the payment.

- e. If after a reasonable time has elapsed as determined by the officer or the officer's supervisor, the defendant is unable to pay the fine then the defendant should be arrested and booked into the Bastrop County Jail.
- f. The officer should turn in the arrest report and the original warrant to the officer's supervisor. Supervisors will forward the warrant the municipal or justice court for a final disposition and removal from the local warrant database.

VI. ARREST WITHOUT A WARRANT (TBP: 7.03)

A. Federal and state constitutions protect individuals from arbitrary and oppressive interference with privacy by law enforcement officials. Further, officers must have probable cause that a crime has been committed, and that the person to be arrested has committed the crime.

B. When warrantless arrests may be made

- 1. The Texas Code of Criminal Procedure, in Chapter 14, gives officers the authority to make warrantless arrests, supported by "probable cause", as follows:
  - a. Officers may arrest persons found in suspicious places and under circumstances which reasonably show that such persons have been guilty of some felony or breach of the peace, threaten or are about to commit some offense against the laws.
  - b. If an officer has probable cause to believe that a person has committed an assault resulting in bodily injury to another and believes that there is danger of further bodily injury to that person the officer may arrest the violator. If an officer has probable cause to believe that the person has committed an offense involving family violence the officer may arrest the violator.

- c. If a person prevents or interfered with an individual's ability to place an emergency telephone call related to family violence an officer may arrest the violator.
- d. Officers shall arrest a person in violation of a valid protective order when committed in the officer's presence. Officers may arrest an offender for any offense committed within the officer's presence or view including traffic violations.
- e. Officers may arrest at the direction of a Magistrate when a felony or breach of the peace has been committed.
- f. Where it is shown by satisfactory proof to a peace officer, upon the representation of a credible person, that a felony has been committed and that the offender is about to escape, so that there is not time to procure a warrant, said officer may, without warrant, pursue and arrest the accused.
- g. Officers may arrest a person who confesses to a felony crime.

2. Warrantless Arrests Outside Officer's Jurisdiction:

- a. Although officers are discouraged from making arrests outside their jurisdiction, officers may make warrantless arrests in compliance with state law. Officers who are outside their jurisdiction may arrest, without warrant, a person who commits an offense within the officer's presence or view, if the offense is a felony, breach of the peace or violation of Chapter 42 or 49 of the Texas Penal Code.
- b. Any officer making a warrantless arrest outside the officer's jurisdiction shall notify the law enforcement agency of proper jurisdiction. The law enforcement agency shall take custody of the prisoner and arraign the prisoner before a magistrate in compliance with state law.

VII. POST-ARREST PROCEDURES

A. Injury before or during arrest

If a person receives an injury before or during an arrest and either requests medical attention or, in the officer's judgment, medical attention is needed, officers shall transport the suspect or arrange for the suspect's transportation to the hospital for an examination before booking.

B. Processing of paperwork

1. Outlined here are the procedures for documenting arrests. Including a provision for supervisory review and approval of reports. Processing and routing procedures should be outlined concerning:
  - a. Offense reports.
  - b. Booking forms.
  - c. Fingerprint cards.
  - d. Photographs.
  - e. CCR reports.
  - f. Copies of summonses.
  - g. Copies of warrant.
  - h. Bond papers.
  - i. Jail committal forms.
  - j. In the case of juvenile offenders.
  - k. Petitions.
  - l. Detention orders.

C. Miranda of Arrestees

1. Arrestees shall be advised of their Miranda rights before any questioning.

2. A waiver of the Miranda rights must be obtained before any questioning of an arrestee.
3. If the arrestee has not waived Miranda rights, no questioning shall be conducted beyond that necessary to accomplish the booking procedure (name, address, etc.).
4. If the arrestee declines to waive Miranda right to counsel, or if the arrestee, after waiving that right, elects to reassert it, questioning must cease immediately and no further questioning may be conducted unless:
  - a. An attorney representing the arrestee is present, or
  - b. The arrestee voluntarily initiates a further interview.
  - c. If the arrestee has not waived Miranda rights, then even though the arrestee is not being directly questioned officers shall refrain from engaging in conversation among themselves in the presence of the arrestee that is calculated to elicit incriminating statements or admissions from the arrestee.

VIII.RELEASE FROM ARREST

A. Officers may encounter a circumstance where probable cause develops to arrest a person for an offense, only to find out shortly thereafter that the person under arrest did not commit a crime, or that the event was not a crime. It is imperative, then, that the officer end the arrest process and release the person as soon as possible.

B. Procedure

1. If the arresting officer determines that probable cause no longer exists to arrest a suspect, and the officer is satisfied that the person under arrest either did not commit the crime or that the crime did not occur then the officer shall release the suspect.
2. When an officer releases a subject from arrest, the officer shall return the person to the place of the arrest, if the location is safe. The officer shall not release the person along the roadside. If a vehicle has been towed, the vehicle shall be returned to the operator/registered owner unless it is required as evidence, or some other legal authority assumes custody of the vehicle.

3. Upon releasing a person in this manner, the officer shall immediately contact the on-duty supervisor and advise the supervisor of the incident.
4. The officer shall document in an incident report:
  - a. The date and time of arrest.
  - b. The person arrested (name, address, date of birth, race).
  - c. The location of arrest.
  - d. Probable cause for the arrest and the specific charge(s).
  - e. The location and time of release from arrest and whether the person was transported.
  - f. The reasons or discovery of information which led the officer to release from arrest.
  - g. Any witnesses to the alleged crime, or to the fact the person arrested was allegedly involved.
  - h. Whether force was used in making the arrest, and if so, the nature of any force used and the consequences (including medical aid).

IX. IMMUNITY FROM ARREST

A. Legislative immunity

1. Members of the United States Congress are exempt from arrest when Congress is in session or when they are en route to or from congressional business except for traffic summonses.
2. Members of the Texas Legislature are exempt from arrest during a legislative session (or allowing for one day for every 20 miles such member may reside from the place where the legislature meets before the beginning or after the ending of any session) except in cases of treason, a felony or a breach of the peace.

B. Diplomatic immunity

1. While a person claiming diplomatic immunity may present any number of identification papers, the only one that is indicative of the level of privilege and immunity is a card issued by the U.S. State Department. The holder's level of immunity will be indicated on the card. If a person claiming immunity does not possess this card and the incident involves a criminal offense, officers may detain the person either at the scene or at the department long enough to verify official status.
2. Upon exhibiting proof of diplomatic immunity, persons shall be released upon being stopped for a misdemeanor traffic violation. If questions arise about this procedure or if an arrest for a felony is necessary, call and advise the U.S. State Department Office of Security (202-647-4415, days, or 202-647-1512, nights and weekends).
3. When encountering a criminal suspect who claims diplomatic immunity, officers shall first take reasonable measures--including pat-downs or other legal searches--to ensure safety to the public or other officers. Verification of the diplomatic claim shall take place after a danger has been neutralized. A criminal investigation shall proceed as if no valid diplomatic immunity claim has been made. Interviews, interrogations, seizures of evidence or issuance of warrants shall proceed per departmental procedure. In a criminal investigation, the chief shall remain in contact with the State Department.
4. Regardless of the claim of immunity, in any case where officers arrest or detain foreign nationals, the suspects shall be advised of their right to have their consular officials notified. In some cases, this notification is mandatory. Note: the list of countries which require mandatory notification of consular officials in the event that one of their citizens has been arrested is extensive. The State Department shall be contacted for guidance. (TBP 10.22)

Prisoner Restraint

I. POLICY

The officer's responsibility for the safe custody of prisoners permits some discretion in the use of handcuffs and restraining devices. The department requires officers to observe their own safety and that of the people they transport by carefully utilizing restraints on prisoners (except children) who must be taken to a jail or other location. See also Policy 12.6, Transporting Prisoners.

II. PURPOSE

To establish guidelines for the use of handcuffs and other restraining devices.

III. PROCEDURES - Arrested Persons

A. General

1. Officers shall handcuff all arrested adults unless the application of handcuffs will aggravate or cause injury due to age, infirmity, physical condition or prior injury. If a prisoner is not handcuffed, the prisoner shall be transported in a vehicle with a prisoner cage and two officers shall conduct the transport. Officers must be able to justify exceptions without unduly risking safety.
2. Juveniles should not be handcuffed unless they have been taken into custody for a violent offense, pose an escape risk or where the officer reasonably believes handcuffing is necessary for the safety of the juvenile or officer.

B. Handcuffs

1. In most circumstances safety concerns mandate that arrested subjects should be handcuffed. Officers must be able to justify exceptions without unduly risking safety. Some possible exceptions are:
  - a. Children under 10 years of age;
  - b. Pregnant females;
  - c. Handicapped or disabled suspects; or
  - d. Elderly suspects.
2. Normally, officers shall handcuff a subject with the hands in back, but they may choose to handcuff hands in front due to the suspect's handicap, size, or disability.
3. When a suspect is handcuffed officers should double lock the handcuffs. This will help ensure prisoner and officer safety. Double locking reduces the chance of picking the lock or of the handcuff accidentally tightening, further restricting circulation.
4. Officers shall apply the handcuffs according to recognized professional standards, always striving to avoid hard strikes to wrists with handcuffs and over-tightening of handcuffs.
5. Individuals will not be handcuffed to any portion of a police vehicle during transport.

C. Body Belt

The body belt allows the officer to handcuff the prisoner in front, yet restricts the movement of the prisoner's arms and hands. The body belt will be used when the officer deems it appropriate.

D. Ankle Shackles

Ankle shackles shall be used by officers when transporting any prisoner they have reason to believe might be an escape risk or when circumstances deem it appropriate.

E. Plastic / Shoelace Handcuffs

Plastic / shoelace handcuffs shall be used when officers take several prisoners into custody, or when a prisoner requires multiple restraints. Officers must understand that once applied, plastic / shoelace handcuffs can only be removed with a knife, scissors or other cutting instrument.

F. Hobble Technique

1. The hobble technique refers to the use of a hobble device to secure a prisoner's feet while in transport in a police car. It involves looping a rope around the prisoner's ankles and then extending the other end of the device onto the door jam and then shutting the door, thus holding the prisoner's feet in place.
2. The hobble device should only be applied to a prisoner's legs when the officer feels that the prisoner poses an imminent threat of physical harm to the prisoner or another with the use of the prisoner's feet or legs, or when the prisoner attempts to damage the inside of the patrol car during transport.

IV. PROCEDURES - Persons not arrested

- A. If officers have a reasonable suspicion that an individual has been involved in a violent offense handcuffs may be applied to potential suspects while officers investigate an incident. Officers should be able to articulate the reasons for their safety concern. Persons not arrested but who are subject to investigative detention may be restrained under the following circumstances.
  1. Suspects shall be handcuffed only as long as necessary to accomplish the investigative goal.
  2. Handcuffing of suspects shall be accomplished with minimal discomfort to the suspect.
  3. Officers shall limit the number and type of restraints used on the suspect to what is reasonably necessary to accomplish the investigation.

- B. If an individual is handcuffed or otherwise restrained for officer safety reasons during an investigation and later released, officers shall document their actions in an offense or incident report and include the reasons officers handcuffed the individual, the approximate length of time of the restraint and the results of the investigation.

V. SPECIAL CIRCUMSTANCES

A. Restraint prohibitions

1. Officers shall not place subjects in a prone position with the hands and ankles bound from behind with handcuffs, belts or other devices.
2. As soon as any suspects who are lying on their stomachs have been handcuffed, officers shall roll the suspects onto their sides or place the suspects in a sitting position. Suspects shall never be transported in a prone/face down position.
3. Intoxication, recent use of drugs or alcohol, the presence of a head injury, obesity, physical disability and recent exertion are all circumstances that can increase difficulty breathing when restrained. All suspects will be monitored during custody and transport for indications of medical problems and medical treatment obtained if required.

	Subject: Arrests of Transgender, Intersex, Gender Nonconforming (TIGN) Individuals	Issue Date: 11/30/2015

Arrests of Transgender, Intersex, Gender Nonconforming Individuals (TIGN)

I. POLICY

It is the policy of the Bastrop ISD Police Department to recognize the rights of all persons and to treat all persons with dignity and respect, which is due every individual as a human being. Personnel will act, speak and conduct themselves in a professional manner, recognizing our obligation to safeguard life and property and maintain a courteous, professional attitude in all contacts with the public. Personnel will not exhibit any bias, prejudice, or discriminate against an individual or group of TIGN individuals and shall take necessary precautions to ensure their safety when arrested and detained.

II. PURPOSE

Inappropriate or disrespectful interactions with transgender, intersex and gender nonconforming (TIGN) individuals can interfere with the ability to provide police assistance. A pattern of this kind of conduct can generate a climate of fear or apprehension in which transgender individuals are afraid or are too uncomfortable to report crime, limiting the department in its ability to provide a safe community. This policy establishes standards for interactions with TIGN individuals to provide safety and respect for all persons. It also defines certain terms which pertain to processing TIGN individuals and establishes procedures for processing and holding TIGN arrestees.

III. DEFINITIONS

- A. Gender – A construct used to classify a person as male, female, both, or neither. Gender encompasses aspects of social identity, psychological identity, and human behavior.
- B. Gender Nonconforming- A person whose appearance or manner does not conform to traditional societal gender expectations.
- C. Gender Identity – The actual or perceived identity of a person as being male, female, both, or neither.
- D. Gender Expression – The actual or perceived behavior of a person as being associated with a gender including mannerisms, clothing, hair style, and choice of activities.
- E. Cisgender—Any person whose gender identity matches the biological gender at birth.
- F. Transgender – Any person whose gender identity or expression differs from the one which corresponds to the person’s sex at birth. This term includes transsexuals, intersex individuals, non-binary individuals, and individuals whose identity is perceived to be gender nonconforming
- G. Transsexual – A person whose body characteristics have been altered to align with the person’s gender identity that conflicts with their anatomical gender at birth.
- H. Intersex – An individual displaying sexual characteristics or a chromosomal pattern that does not seem to fit traditional biological definitions of male or female. Not all intersex people identify as transgender.
- I. Sexual Orientation – An individual’s enduring romantic, emotional, and/or sexual attraction to individuals of the same or different gender or to both genders (heterosexual, homosexual, bisexual, asexual). Sexual orientation and gender identity are not the same.

IV. PROCEDURES

- A. Determining Transgender Status

1. Officers shall follow the procedures below governing interactions with transgender persons when either of these conditions are met:
  - a. An individual explicitly informs an officer that the individual is a transgender person, or
  - b. An officer has good reason to believe that the individual is a transgender. Good reason may be based on apparent intention of gender appearance and presentation, reasonable observation, frisking that inadvertently discloses transgender status, background checks, third-party information, and routine policing procedures.
2. When an individual self-identifies as a transgender person, officers shall not question this identity or ask about the person's surgical status except for compelling and professional reasons that can be clearly articulated.

B. When coming into contact with a TIGN individual, personnel will:

1. Respectfully treat TIGN individuals in a manner appropriate to the individual's gender identity or expression.
2. Use the Preferred Gender Pronoun as requested by a TIGN individual:
  - a. she, her and hers for individual who self-identifies as a female
  - b. he, him and his for an individual who self-identifies as a male
  - c. they or other Preferred Gender Pronoun for an individual who identifies as non-binary
3. When requested, address TIGN individuals by a name based on their gender identity rather than the gender on their government-issued identification.
4. If a custodial arrest is made, conduct field searches as prescribed in Department Policy 15.2 Searches Incident to Arrest.
5. If a custodial arrest is made and the individual has had a gender change operative procedure and identifies as a gender different than at birth, personnel should consider checking for warrants under both traditional genders.

C. Personnel will not:

1. Stop, detain, frisk, or search any person for the purpose of determining that person's gender or in order to call attention to the person's gender identity or gender expression.
2. Use language that a reasonable person would consider demeaning or derogatory, specifically language aimed at a person's actual or perceived gender identity, gender expression, or sexual orientation.
3. Consider a person's gender identification as reasonable suspicion or prima facie evidence that the individual is or has engaged in a crime.
4. Consider the possession of condoms as evidence or intent of criminal activity.
5. Disclose an individual's TIGN identity to other arrestees, the public, or non-department individuals absent a proper law enforcement purpose.

D. Responders to domestic violence situations shall respond to transgender individuals in a manner appropriate with their gender identity. When called out to a domestic dispute or domestic violence situation, officers shall assess every situation for the dominant aggressor and not automatically determine the batterer and survivor based on actual or perceived gender identity and/or sexual orientation.

V. GENDER CLASSIFICATION OF TIGN ARRESTEES:

- A. For purposes of departmental records and operations, an arrestee's gender will be classified as it appears on the individual's government-issued identification card.
- B. The exceptions to the government-issued identification card are those arrestees who are post-operative gender re-assigned.
  1. Male-to-female will be processed as female.

2. Female-to-male will be processed as male.
- C. In the event that a government-issued identification is unavailable, the following criteria will be used in determining gender.
1. The individual has male genitalia; the arrestee will be classified as a male.
  2. The individual does not have male genitalia; the arrestee will be classified as a female.
- D. In the event a TIGN individual objects to any questioning regarding the individual's classification, the officer should attempt to explain the need for searching prior to transport and the officer's attempt not to unduly embarrass the individual by using an inappropriate search method or jeopardize the individual's safety by inappropriate placement in the holding facility.
- E. In the event that there is uncertainty regarding the appropriate classification of an arrestee's gender, a supervisor will be consulted for further guidance on the appropriate classification.

VI. SEARCHING AND TRANSPORT OF TIGN INDIVIDUALS

- A. Searches of TIGN individuals:
1. Field searches will be conducted by a member who is the same gender as the arrestee based on the gender guidelines as prescribed in Section V of this policy and in accordance with established Department search procedures.
  2. Personnel taking a TIGN individual into custody, accepting custody from another, or conducting a custodial search will be responsible for conducting a thorough search in accordance with established Department procedures.
  3. If or when requested by a TIGN individual, department personnel of the TIGN individual's gender identity or expression will be present to observe the custodial search. When practical, the observing member will be a sworn supervisor. Personnel will not conduct more frequent or more invasive searches of TIGN individuals than non-TIGN individuals.

4. Requests to remove identity-related items such as prosthetics, clothing, wigs, and cosmetic items will be consistent with requirements for the removal of similar items for non-TIGN arrestees.
5. The possession of a needle which is purported to be for hormonal use will not be presumed to be evidence of criminal misconduct, specifically if the person or arrestee has documentation from a physician for being in the process of a sex modification.

B. Transporting TIGN Individuals:

1. Whenever practical TIGN arrestees will be transported alone.
2. When requested by a TIGN individual, department personnel of the TIGN individual's gender identity or expression, if available, will be present during the transport.
3. In situations with multiple TIGN arrestees or mass arrests in which a TIGN individual's gender identity or expression is unavailable or where individual transport is not practical, TIGN arrestees will be transported by gender classification.

VII.HOUSING OF TIGN ARRESTEES

- A. In all cases where a TIGN arrestee is turned over to any other authority for processing or holding, it is the officer's responsibility to ensure the receiving officer is made aware of the arrestee's status.
- B. TIGN arrestees will be transported to the Bastrop County Jail to be processed according to Policy 18.1.

Handling Persons with Firearms on School District Property

I. POLICY

The department's goal is to provide clearly defined means for the handling of persons with firearms on school district property. Both federal and state laws begin with a presumption that school premises are gun-free zones. The district retains the right under applicable state and federal laws to restrict firearms on school property.

II. PURPOSE

The purpose of this order is to establish procedures for BISTD Police officers and their response to determining who is permitted to carry a firearm on the premises of the Bastrop Independent School District.

III. DEFINITIONS

A. Firearm

Any device designed, made, or adapted to expel a projectile through a barrel by using the energy generated by an explosion or burning substance or any device readily convertible to that use. Tex. Penal Code § 46.01(3).

B. Premises

A building or a portion of a building. The term includes any public or private driveway, street, sidewalk or walkway, parking lot, parking garage, or other parking area when a school-sponsored activity is occurring. Texas Attorney General Opinion No. KP-0050.

C. School Zone

In, or on the grounds of, or within 1,000 feet from the grounds of a public, parochial or private school. 18 U.S.C. § 921(a)(25).

IV. DISCRETION

- A. Officers shall demonstrate discretionary judgment. Discretion shall be applied reasonably and shall be guided by the oath of office, the limits of authority as established by law, the decisions and interpretations of the courts, the policies of our department and the oral instruction provided by field supervisors.

V. OFFICIALS AUTHORIZED TO CARRY ON SCHOOL PREMISES

- A. A member of the armed forces or national guard, a guard employed by a penal institution, or an officer of the court, while in the conduct of official duties. Tex. Penal Code § 46.03(b).
- B. On or off duty peace officers or special criminal investigators;
- C. Authorized and on duty parole officers;
- D. Authorized and on duty community supervision and corrections department officers;
- E. Active judicial officers licensed to carry handguns;
- F. Honorably retired peace officers, qualified retired law enforcement officers, federal criminal investigators, or former reserve law enforcement officers, with proper identification;
- G. District attorneys and assistant district attorneys, criminal district attorneys, county attorneys, or municipal attorneys licensed to carry handguns;
- H. Bailiffs designated to escort active judicial officers and licensed to carry handguns; and Juvenile probation officers authorized to carry firearms.
- I. School board members who lawfully possess a handgun license may carry a firearm at school board meetings as long as the board has issued written authorization for this action. Tex. Att’y Gen No. GA-1051 (2014).

VI. SCHOOL EVENTS ON AND OFF CAMPUS

- A. Texas law prohibits the unauthorized possession of weapons, including firearms, at school events regardless of the location of the event.
- B. This prohibition applies to all school-sponsored events, regardless of whether the events happen on or off school property. For example, a school-sponsored middle school softball game may take place on school property, but in an outdoor facility that would not meet the statutory definition of premises. Nevertheless, this law would prohibit all firearms at the softball game. Similarly, a high school theater performance may take place in a city auditorium, not owned or leased by the school district, but this law would still prohibit firearms at the performance.

VII. BUSES AND OTHER SCHOOL VEHICLES

- A. Unless a person has special authorization, a person commits an offense (third degree felony) if the person intentionally, knowingly, or recklessly possesses or goes with a firearm, illegal knife, club, or other prohibited weapon, as defined by state law, on a passenger transportation vehicle of a school. Tex. Penal Code § 46.03(a)(1), (g). It is not a defense to prosecution that the person holds a license to carry a handgun. Tex. Penal Code § 46.03(f).

VIII. UNLAWFULLY CARRYING HANDGUN AT SCHOOL BOARD MEETING

- A. A handgun license holder commits an offense (Class A misdemeanor) if the person intentionally, knowingly, or recklessly carries a handgun under the authority of the license in to the room or rooms where an meeting of a governmental entity is held pursuant to the Texas Open Meetings Act, as long as the license holder was given effective notice that handguns were prohibited. Tex. Penal Code §§ 30.06, .07, 46.035(c), (g), (i).

IX. CRIMINAL PENALTIES

- A. Unless a person has special authorization, a person commits an offense (third degree felony) if the person intentionally, knowingly, or recklessly possesses or goes with a firearm, illegal knife, club, or other prohibited weapon, as defined by state law, on the physical premises of a school or educational institution, any grounds or building on which an activity sponsored by a school or educational institution is being conducted, or a passenger transportation vehicle of a school or educational institution, whether the school or educational institution is public or private, unless pursuant to written regulations or written authorization of the institution. Tex. Penal Code § 46.03(a)(1), (g). It is not a defense to prosecution that the person holds a license to carry a handgun. Tex. Penal Code § 46.03(f).

- B. A handgun license holder commits an offense (Class A misdemeanor) if the person intentionally, knowingly, or recklessly carries a handgun on the premises where a high school, collegiate, or professional sporting event or interscholastic event is taking place, unless the license holder is a participant in the event and a handgun is used in the event. Tex. Penal Code § 46.035(b)(2), (g).

- C. A license holder commits a Class C misdemeanor offense if the person carries a concealed handgun, under the authority of the license and without effective consent, onto school district property where firearms are prohibited by either Section 46.03 or Section 46.035, if the license holder received notice by written communication that entry with a concealed handgun is forbidden. In addition, if the license holder receives oral notice that handguns are prohibited and fails to depart, the offense is a Class A misdemeanor. Tex. Penal Code § 30.06.

PRISONERS

I. POLICY

This department does not maintain or operate a holding facility. All adult persons taken into custody are taken directly to the Bastrop County Jail. The policy of this department is to process prisoners without delay and safely transport them to the county jail as soon as possible.

II. PURPOSE

To provide operational procedures for transport of prisoners to the Bastrop County Jail.

III. GENERAL ISSUES

5. Officers who develop information during an arrest, that the individual may be suicidal, or is homosexual, transgender, intersexual, or gender nonconforming, either through observation or self-profession, will ensure holding facility staff is informed of the situation in a manner that does not embarrass or endanger the arrestee.

B. Juvenile Detentions

A copy of the report and warrant is forwarded to the Chief of Police for review and filing.
2. Prior to transporting the prisoner to the medical facility, the officer shall inform the prisoner of the officer's intention to conduct a body-cavity search thus giving the prisoner the opportunity to voluntarily surrender the suspected contraband.

CUSTODIAL STATEMENTS AND CONFESSIONS

I. POLICY

Custodial interrogations of suspects and the statements and confessions that are elicited are vitally important in the preparation of criminal cases. However, to be admissible as evidence, statements and confessions must be given freely and voluntarily and with due consideration for the suspect's right to silence and right to counsel. Therefore, it is the policy of this law enforcement agency that all officers understand and follow this agency policy in order to observe the legal and constitutional rights of suspects and to guard against any charges of police coercion or intimidation during interrogation.

II. PURPOSE

To provide officers with legally sound procedures for conducting custodial interrogations.

III. DEFINITIONS

- A. Custody: A custodial situation exists when an officer tells a suspect that the suspect is under arrest. A functionally equivalent situation exists when a "reasonable person" in the suspect's position would feel that freedom of action by the person has been restricted to the same degree as a formal arrest.
- B. Interrogation: Interrogation includes direct questioning of a suspect about a crime or suspected crime, as well as any words, statements or actions by officers that the officers should know are reasonably likely to elicit an incriminating response from the suspect.

IV. PROCEDURES

A. Custodial Statements and Confessions

1. Miranda warnings are required and shall be administered prior to "custodial interrogation," as defined above.
2. The following represent examples of situations that are not "custodial" and do not require issuance of Miranda warnings.
  - a. Investigatory stop and frisk.
  - b. Questioning during a routine traffic stop or for a minor violation; to include driving while intoxicated (DWI) stops until a custodial interrogation begins.
  - c. During routine questioning at the scene of an incident or crime when the questions are not intended to elicit incriminating responses.
  - d. During voluntary appearances at the police facility.
  - e. When information or statements are made spontaneously, voluntarily and without prompting by police. (Note: Follow-up questions that exceed simple requests for clarification of initial statements may require Miranda warnings.)

B. Administering Miranda

1. Miranda warnings shall be read by officers from the card containing this information to all persons subjected to custodial interrogation. Freelancing, recitation from memory or paraphrasing the warnings is prohibited as it may preclude officers from testifying in court as to the precise wording used.
2. Officers shall ensure that suspects understand their right to remain silent and their right to an attorney. Suspects may be interrogated only when they have knowingly and intelligently waived their rights. Threats, false promises or coercion to induce suspect statements is prohibited.
  - a. Waivers of one or both of the Miranda rights must be performed affirmatively.

- b. Oral waivers are often sufficient but written waivers, particularly in felony charges, are preferred and should be obtained whenever possible on the appropriate agency form.
    - c. When feasible, providing of warnings, waivers and subsequent questioning should be recorded by audio or video in felony cases.
  3. Officers arresting deaf suspects shall notify their immediate supervisor and make arrangements to procure the assistance of an interpreter in order to question the suspect. Suspects who are not conversant in English should, where possible, be questioned in their native language.

C. Invoking the Right to Silence

1. When a suspect invokes the suspect's right to remain silent, all interrogation shall terminate immediately and shall not resume unless a renewed waiver occurs and is documented.
2. Suspects who are not represented by an attorney may not be interrogated for at least 90 minutes after invoking their right to silence and then only after officers have re-administered Miranda Warnings and obtained a waiver.
3. Officers may interrogate a suspect who has previously invoked the right to silence, if, after the passage of time, the suspect initiates communication with officers. However, prior to questioning Miranda Warnings shall be re-administered and a waiver obtained.

D. Invoking the Right to Counsel

1. If a suspect waives the right to counsel, a waiver shall be obtained and documented prior to questioning. When a suspect makes reference to counsel but the suspect's intentions are unclear, officers may question the suspect further to clarify the suspect's intentions.
2. When a suspect invokes the right to counsel, all interrogation shall cease immediately. The suspect may not again be interrogated about the crime for which the suspect is charged, other crimes or by other officers (from this or other agencies) unless:

- a. the suspect's attorney is present at the questioning; or
  - b. the suspect initiates new contact with the police. In this later case, Miranda rights must again be administered and a waiver obtained before any further questioning may take place. Officers shall also document and, if possible, obtain written verification that the suspect initiated the communication.
3. Officers shall cooperate in any reasonable way with efforts by counsel to contact or meet with suspects in custody.

E. Documenting Statements and Confessions –

1. The circumstances surrounding the conduct of interrogations and recording of confessions shall be fully documented. This includes but is not necessarily limited to:
  - a. location, date, time of day and duration of interrogation;
  - b. the identities of officers or others present;
  - c. Miranda warnings given, suspect responses and waivers provided, if any;
  - d. the nature and duration of breaks in questioning provided the suspect for food, drink, use of lavatories or for other purposes; and
  - e. description of the premises.
2. Investigative officers are encouraged to use video and audio taping capabilities, if available, for purposes of recording statements and confessions in an overt or covert manner consistent with Federal and State law.
3. The Chief of Police or the Chief's designee may decide in which cases audio or video tape recordings may be appropriate and whether covert or overt procedures may be used. Tape recordings designated as evidence shall be handled in the following manner:

- a. Original tape recordings shall be duplicated and each copy stored separately;
- b. Tape recordings shall be stored in a secure location under controlled access as designated by the evidence/property officer; and
- c. All tape recordings shall be inventoried on a routine basis.

JUVENILE PRISONERS

I. POLICY

It is the responsibility of all members of this Department to familiarize themselves with juvenile procedures and established procedures for handling both criminal and noncriminal juvenile incidents as defined in this policy. Officers should bear in mind that only a small percentage of juveniles commit the majority of juvenile crimes. While this small percentage may require secure custody, the vast majority of juvenile offenders are likely candidates for non-secure custody and positive diversion and intervention strategies. With this in mind officers shall, whenever reasonable and justified under this policy, take those measures necessary to effect positive changes in juvenile offenders that are consistent with state law and the safety and security interests of the community.

II. PURPOSE

To provide guidelines for officers when dealing with juveniles in enforcement and custody situations.

III. DEFINITIONS

- A. Status Offender: A juvenile who is charged with an offense that would not be a crime if committed by an adult.
- B. Responsible Adult: In the absence of a juvenile's parents or legal guardian, a responsible adult is one who is responsible for the physical custodian of a juvenile or who is another adult acquaintance of the juvenile's parents or legal guardian who agrees and reasonably demonstrates the ability to provide supervision for the juvenile until parents, legal guardian or next of kin can assume that responsibility.

- C. Non-secure Custody: A condition under which a juvenile's freedom of movement is controlled by members of this agency and, during such time, the juvenile:
1. is held in an unlocked multi-purpose area that is in no way designed for residential detention use, such as a report-writing room or an office;
  2. is at no time handcuffed to any stationary object;
  3. is held only long enough to complete identification, investigation and processing and then released to a responsible adult or transferred to a juvenile facility or court; and,
  4. is under continuous supervision until released.
- D. Secure Custody: A condition in which a juvenile is physically detained or confined in a locked room, set of rooms or a cell that is designated, set aside or used for the specific purpose of securely detaining persons who are in law enforcement custody or when the juvenile is physically secured to a cuffing rail or other stationary object.

IV. PROCEDURES

- A. Enforcement Alternatives - Officers dealing with juveniles in enforcement capacities may exercise reasonable discretion as outlined in this policy in deciding on appropriate actions. Alternatives that may be considered include:
1. Release without further action;
  2. Informal counseling to inform the youth of the consequences of the youth's actions;
  3. Informal referrals to community services;
  4. Referral to parents or responsible adult;
  5. Informal counseling of parents or responsible adult;
  6. Limited custody and station house warning;

7. Issuance of a summons or complaint;
  8. Arrest under non-secure custody; and
  9. Arrest under secure custody.
- B. Enforcement Criteria - The following general guidelines may be used in determining appropriate enforcement and related actions that may be taken when dealing with juvenile incidents.
1. Release without further action or following informal counseling referral to community resources or parents may be appropriate in incidents where property damage or personal injury is not involved but intervention is necessary to avoid potential delinquent actions and when the youth has had no prior enforcement contacts with the police. Examples of these incidents include, but are not limited to:
    - a. curfew violations;
    - b. loitering;
    - c. minor alcohol violations; and
    - d. other minor Class C violations.
  2. Officers may elect to transport the youth home or direct the youth to return home; make personal, telephone, or mail contact with the youth's parents or guardians to provide them with information and counseling on their child's actions; refer the youth to appropriate community service agencies with or without follow-up; or detain the youth at the police department until the youth is released to a parent or guardian when:
    - a. the nature of the incident is of a more serious or potentially serious nature than exemplified in item B-1 of this policy;
    - b. the youth involved is fully aware of the seriousness or potential seriousness of the actions and/or is acting in alliance or collusion with others to commit such acts;
    - c. the youth fails to cooperate or to positively respond to police intervention and direction;

- d. the youth has received prior informal warnings or referrals or has engaged in delinquent acts, and/or
  - e. the youth's parents or responsible adult have apparently failed to provide appropriate control and supervision.
3. Officers may file delinquency charges against a juvenile when the circumstances surrounding the incident meet or exceed the seriousness of those cited as examples in item B-2 of this policy. Officers should file delinquency charges against juveniles when they commit:
- a. acts that if committed by an adult would be felonies;
  - b. delinquent acts involving deadly weapons;
  - c. serious gang-related offenses;
  - d. delinquent acts involving assault;
  - e. delinquent acts while on probation or parole or when they have charges pending against them;
  - f. delinquent acts as repeat offenders or when they have refused to participate in diversion or intervention programs; or
  - g. when it has been determined that parental or other adult supervision is ineffective.
4. An officer may also take a juvenile into custody if the youth is lost, seriously endangered or is a runaway. In all such cases these juveniles shall be held in non-secure custody and officers shall contact the child's parents or guardian as soon as possible. Where parents or guardians cannot be contacted or refuse to accept custody, the officer shall contact the departmentally approved youth services agency for placement.
5. In cases of alleged child abuse, officers shall contact a youth officer or their immediate supervisor in order to conduct an investigation of the complaint unless probable cause justifies immediate action in order to protect the safety and well-being of the child.

C. Status Offenses

1. Based on the seriousness of and circumstances surrounding the offense, the background and demeanor of the juvenile and other relevant factors, an officer may release a juvenile to the juvenile's parents, guardian, or other responsible adult.
2. Juveniles taken into custody for status offenses should normally be frisked for weapons prior to being transported and may be handcuffed or otherwise restrained at any time if, in the judgment of the officer, the juvenile poses a physical risk to the officer or others.
3. Officers shall pay particular attention to juveniles under the influence of alcohol or drugs to determine whether emergency medical services are warranted.
4. Juveniles taken into custody for status offenses shall be held in non-secure custody as provided by state law and for the briefest time necessary to conduct identification, investigation and related processing requirements to facilitate their release to a parent or responsible adult or transfer to a juvenile facility.
5. Transportation of a juvenile in a caged vehicle is not considered secure custody.
6. Status offenders and other juveniles taken into temporary non-secure custody for noncriminal-type offenses should not be fingerprinted or photographed for purposes of record.
7. Status offenders in temporary custody shall not be placed in a holding area with adult suspects and shall also be:
  - a. under constant supervision;
  - b. afforded reasonable access to toilets and washing facilities;
  - c. provided food if in need of nourishment to include any special diets necessary for health or medical purposes;

- d. provided with reasonable access to water or other beverages; and
- e. allowed reasonable access to a telephone.

D. Criminal-type Offenses

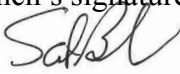

1. Juveniles arrested for criminal-type offenses are subject to the same security requirements as adults and may be handcuffed or otherwise restrained as necessary during transport and processing.
2. Juveniles accused of criminal-type offenses may be securely detained only for the period of time and in the manner prescribed by state law to allow for identification, investigation, processing and release to parents or a responsible adult, or transfer to the juvenile facility or court.
3. Fingerprints and photographs shall be taken of all juveniles taken into custody for criminal-type offenses. The fingerprint card and mug shot shall be marked "Juvenile" and shall be maintained in this agency's central repository for such purposes separately from adult fingerprints and mugshots and shall be subject to controlled dissemination as provided by state law.
4. The Bastrop ISD Police Department does not maintain or operate secure detention facilities for either juveniles or adults. Therefore, Bastrop ISD Police officers will only detain juveniles in the following manner:
  - a. Field detention for investigation;
  - b. Non-secure detention only for the limited time necessary to complete investigation and identification procedures;
  - c. Secure detention in a state approved juvenile detention facility; or
  - d. Transportation directly to one of the above.
5. If, prior to or during questioning the juvenile, the juvenile's parents or responsible adult express the desire to speak with an attorney, all questioning shall cease and shall not be renewed until permission is granted.

6. In the absence of a parent or guardian, a juvenile may be questioned and may provide statements if reasonable assurances can be made that the juvenile fully understands the juvenile's constitutional rights. If possible, the questioning should be recorded in its entirety.
7. Interview of juveniles should not extend over periods of time that could be considered unreasonable or harassing and, whenever possible, should be conducted by only one officer at a time.
8. The juvenile should be informed of the procedures that will be followed with regard to custody, release and transport to another facility or to a custody hearing.

E. Recordkeeping

1. Officers who select noncustodial alternatives or engage in informal enforcement contacts with juveniles shall complete appropriate field interview and/or incident reports as required by this agency. These reports shall clearly identify the juveniles involved, the nature of the incident and the rationale for the officer's disposition.
2. Juveniles taken into custody for criminal-type offenses shall be subject to the same reporting requirements as adults. Such reports shall be clearly marked "Juvenile," maintained in a separate location from adult arrest records and be subject to state law regarding dissemination and access.
3. Records or information pertaining to or identifying juveniles is confidential under law. Such information will not be released to the public or to any person other than Court personnel or juvenile authorities without the express authorization of the Chief of Police or the Superintendent except that certain records may be released in accordance with Section 58.007 of the Family Code. Employees who are unsure of the application of applicable law will consult with the Chief of Police or the Superintendent prior to releasing or refusing to release juvenile records.

Prisoner Transportation

I. POLICY

Transportation of persons in custody is a constant requirement and a frequent activity. Transportation usually occurs in two instances. The first is immediately after arrest when the arrestee is taken by the arresting officer for booking and holding or transfer to another facility. The second concerns the movement of prisoners from the detention facility, such as the county jail, to a hospital, doctor, dentist or other medical facility, to court and for other reasons. Transporting prisoners is a potentially dangerous function. Therefore, it is the policy of this law enforcement agency to take the precautions necessary while transporting prisoners to protect the lives and safety of officers, the public and the person in custody.

II. PURPOSE

The purpose of this policy is to establish procedures to ensure that prisoners are transported safely.

III. PROCEDURES (TBP: 10.01)

A. General

1. Unless no other type of vehicle is available, all prisoners shall be transported in secure, caged vehicles.
2. In no case shall a juvenile known or believed to be under the age of 17 years be transported with adults suspected of or charged with criminal acts.
3. When picking up a prisoner from any facility the officer shall verify the identity of the prisoner.

4. The transporting officer shall obtain from the custodian of the prisoner any paperwork, property or medical records that should accompany the transfer of the prisoner.

B. Searching the prisoner

1. The transporting officer shall always search a prisoner before placing the prisoner into the vehicle. Officers must never assume that a prisoner does not possess a weapon or contraband or that someone else has already searched the prisoner. The transporting officer shall conduct a search of the prisoner each time the prisoner enters custody of the officer.
2. When handling and searching prisoners, officers shall remain mindful of the department's infectious diseases exposure control plan and shall use personal protective equipment when necessary.
3. Any items removed from the prisoner prior to transport will be securely maintained and returned to the prisoner or turned in to the booking officer upon arrival at the location of detention for placement in the prisoner's property. (TBP: 10.10)

C. Searching the police vehicle

The transporting officer shall search the vehicle immediately before each prisoner transport to ensure that no weapons or contraband are available to the prisoner. Further, after delivering the prisoner to the prisoner's destination, officers shall again search the police vehicle to ensure that the prisoner did not hide contraband or other evidence. (TBP 10.01)

D. Transport equipment

1. Most marked vehicles are equipped with a metal or plastic screen separating the front and rear compartments. Normally, these vehicles will be used in all prisoner transports in order to prevent prisoner access to the driver's compartment.
2. All vehicles equipped with metal screen barriers and used in transporting prisoners have the rear interior door and window handles removed in order to minimize the risk of escape by prisoners while transporting.

3. Vehicles used for transporting prisoners should be checked for proper security measures and any contraband at the beginning of each shift and before transporting prisoners.

E. Positioning of prisoners in the transport vehicle

1. When an officer transports a prisoner in a caged vehicle, the prisoner shall be positioned in the rear seat and secured with seat belts. Prisoners shall be handcuffed with their hands behind their backs, palms outward, except for the exceptions detailed in Policy 13.5.
2. When a single officer transports a prisoner in a non-caged vehicle, the prisoner shall be placed in the right front seat and secured with a seat belt. The prisoner shall be handcuffed with the prisoner's hands behind the back, palms outward. A single officer shall never transport two or more suspects in a non-caged vehicle unless directed by the on-duty supervisor.
3. If more than one officer transports prisoners in a non-caged vehicle, the following procedures shall be observed.
  - a. One officer shall be positioned in the rear of the transporting vehicle behind the driver with the prisoner (seat belted) on the rear passenger side.
  - b. In a situation where more than one prisoner is transported by two officers in the same vehicle, the prisoners shall be positioned on the front and rear passenger side (seat belted) and the assisting officer should be positioned behind the driver's seat in order to see the prisoners at all times and protect the driver.
4. Officers shall not transport prisoners who are restrained in a prone position. Doing so increases the risks of medical complications.

F. Control of prisoners while transporting

Observation and Medical Assistance (TBP: 10.12)

1. During custody and transportation, officers shall continually observe the prisoner, even when it becomes necessary to allow the prisoner the use of a toilet.
2. If a prisoner appears lethargic, particularly after an active confrontation with officers, or appears unresponsive, immediate medical help may be necessary. Observe the suspect carefully and if the officer is in any doubt about the prisoner's health, summon medical assistance immediately. Officers should ask an apparently ill prisoner if the prisoner wishes medical assistance.
3. The transporting officer shall advise the receiving officer or deputy of any medical conditions of the prisoner, or any suspicions or concerns about the prisoner's medical or mental health state.
4. Prisoners shall not be left unattended at any time during transport with the exception of situations in Section G. below.

G. Stopping to provide law enforcement services while transporting

1. When transporting a prisoner, the transporting officer shall provide law-enforcement services only when:
  - a. A need exists for the transporting officer to act immediately in order stop or prevent a violent act and prevent further harm to a victim.
  - b. A person has been injured and assistance is required immediately.
2. In all of the above situations, the transporting officer shall ensure at all times that the prisoner is secured and protected.
3. Under no circumstances shall an officer transporting a prisoner engage in a pursuit.

H. Escape (TBP: 10.17)

If a prisoner escapes while being transported, the transporting officer shall observe the following procedures.

1. Request assistance immediately from the jurisdiction the officer is in at the time of the escape. The transporting officer shall immediately provide dispatch with the following information:
  - a. Location.
  - b. Direction and method of travel and means of escape.
  - c. Name and physical description of escapee.
  - d. Possible weapons possessed by the escapee.
  - e. Pending charges.
2. Try to recapture the escapee as soon as possible.
  - a. The transporting officer shall submit a written report to the chief of police as soon as practicable explaining the circumstances of the escape.
3. Prisoner communication
  - a. The transporting officer shall not allow prisoners to communicate with other people while in transit unless the situation requires it. The officer shall use judgment when deciding whether to allow a conversation to take place between the transported prisoner and another party.

I. Arrival at destination

When transporting prisoners from one facility to another, upon arriving at the destination, the transporting officer shall observe the following procedures:

1. Firearms shall be secured in the designated place at the facility being entered. If there are none, secure firearms inside the locked trunk of the police vehicle.
2. Restraining devices shall be removed only when directed to do so by the receiving facility or when the officer is sure that the prisoner is properly controlled and secure.

3. The proper paperwork (booking sheet, arrest report, property form, etc.) shall be submitted to the receiving facility and, in situations that require it, the officer shall ensure that proper signatures are obtained on paperwork to be returned to the department.

J. Sick/injured prisoners and medical facilities

1. At any time before, during or after the arrest that the prisoner is injured or becomes sick, the officer shall seek medical attention immediately. Medical attention shall be obtained before transporting the prisoner to the jail if the injury/sickness happens before arrival there.
2. The transporting officer shall use discretion in applying restraining devices on sick or injured prisoners. Obviously, if a prisoner is injured or sick enough to be incapacitated, restraining devices may not be appropriate. As a rule, do not remove a prisoner's handcuffs at the hospital unless ordered to do so by the attending physician.
3. If the prisoner refuses treatment, the prisoner shall be asked to sign a Medical Refusal or notation of such on a hospital release form. Have the attending physician or a nurse sign the form as witnesses. If the prisoner refuses to sign the form, obtain two witnesses to the refusal (hospital staff, another officer or fire/rescue personnel). The form must be given to the jail during booking.
4. If the prisoner must be admitted to the hospital, the officer shall release the prisoner only after consulting the on-duty supervisor. The supervisor, in turn, shall consult a magistrate. The supervisor shall observe the following procedures to ensure control of the prisoner:
  - a. If the prisoner is admitted and the prisoner was arrested for a felony, arrange for guards. Request the presence of a magistrate and arrange for the magistrate's transportation to the hospital so that bail can be set.
  - b. Assist the magistrate in arraigning the prisoner, if necessary, or stand by while the magistrate issues a warrant.
  - c. Serve the warrant, if one has been issued. If the magistrate will not release the arrestee on personal recognizance, then maintain the guard until the prisoner makes bond or the case is filed. When the case is filed attempt to transfer responsibility to the Sheriff's Office.

- d. Until relieved by the sheriff's office, the supervisor shall brief every officer on the duties of guards and shall ensure that guards have radios.
- e. The supervisor shall ensure that guards are checked periodically and relieved as necessary until sheriff's deputies relieve them.
- f. The prisoner shall be kept under observation at all times and, normally, restraining devices shall be used. Officers shall consult with medical personnel concerning the use of restraining devices.

K. Special transport problems

- 1. Transport of prisoner by officer of different sex than prisoner.
  - a. When transporting a prisoner of one sex by an officer of another sex, an additional officer may be requested to accompany the transport.
  - b. At a minimum the transporting officer shall:
    - i. Contact the dispatcher by radio and request that the time and odometer mileage be logged.
    - ii. Go directly to the destination by using the shortest practical route.
    - iii. Upon arrival at the destination, contact the dispatcher by radio and request that the time and the odometer reading be logged.

L. Prisoner with disabilities

- 1. When transporting a prisoner with disabilities, the transporting officer shall request help when needed to complete the transport conveniently, comfortably and safely for both the prisoner and the officer. The officer may request the dispatcher to contact the fire department or ambulance for assistance in transporting. The transporting officer shall take whatever special equipment or medicine is necessary for the prisoner.

2. With a disabled person in custody, the transporting officer must use common sense. When the disability is such that no danger of escape or injury to the prisoner or officer exists then restraining devices may be inappropriate.
3. Any wheelchairs, crutches, prosthetic devices and medication shall be transported with, but not in the possession of, the prisoner.
4. Transportation of dangerous/security-risk prisoners. When a prisoner is considered dangerous or a security hazard, the receiving agency or the sheriff's courtroom security personnel shall be notified before the transport takes place in order to plan how best to minimize any chance of escape or injury to the prisoner or anyone else.
5. Department personnel have an obligation to provide a "reasonable accommodation" for disabled prisoners. This obligation requires officers to ensure disabled prisoners are not subjected to the possibility of injury or handling of a disrespectful nature during arrest and transportation procedures.

M. Restraining devices

1. When prisoners are restrained during transport, the following procedures shall be followed unless circumstances require an alternate method.
  - a. A single prisoner shall be handcuffed with both hands behind the prisoner's back.
  - b. Leg and waist belt restraints may also be used in order to minimize the risk of injury or escape.
  - c. Under no circumstances shall a prisoner be handcuffed to a part of the transport vehicle itself, such as the floor post, protective screen barrier, etc.

- d. Officers shall use ankle shackles or plastic handcuffs to immobilize legs when transporting any prisoner that might pose an escape risk.

N. Documentation

Officers shall document all prisoner transports and shall note any unusual circumstances or events in the arrest report. Officers shall document the circumstances of any apparently ill or injured prisoners and their medical treatment. Officers will give names (and badge numbers, as appropriate) of personnel from and to whom the prisoner was released or transferred.

PRISONER RESTRAINTS

I. POLICY

The officer's responsibility for the safe custody of prisoners permits some discretion in the use of handcuffs and restraining devices. The department requires officers to observe their own safety and that of the people they transport by carefully utilizing restraints on prisoners (except children) who must be taken to a jail or other location. See also Policy 13.4, Prisoner Transportation.

II. PURPOSE

To establish guidelines for the use of handcuffs and other restraining devices.

III. PROCEDURES - Arrested Persons

A. General

1. Officers shall handcuff all arrested adults unless the application of handcuffs will aggravate or cause injury due to age, infirmity, physical condition or prior injury. If a prisoner is not handcuffed, the prisoner shall be transported in a vehicle with a prisoner cage and two officers shall conduct the transport. Officers must be able to justify exceptions without unduly risking safety.
2. Juveniles should not be handcuffed unless they have been taken into custody for a violent offense or pose an escape risk or the officer reasonably believes handcuffing is necessary for the safety of the juvenile or officer.

B. Handcuffs

1. In most circumstances safety concerns mandate that arrested subjects should be handcuffed. Officers must be able to justify exceptions without unduly risking safety. Some possible exceptions are:
  - a. Children under 10 years of age;
  - b. Pregnant females;
  - c. Handicapped or disabled suspects; or
  - d. Elderly suspects.
2. Normally, officers shall handcuff a subject with the hands in back, but the officer may choose to handcuff hands in front due to the suspect's handicap or disability. If handcuffed in the front, officers should attempt to secure the handcuffs to the body by use of a belt if possible.
3. When a suspect is handcuffed, officers should double lock the handcuffs. This will help ensure prisoner and officer safety. Double locking reduces the chance of picking the lock or of the handcuff accidentally tightening, further restricting circulation.
4. Officers shall apply the handcuffs according to recognized professional standards, always striving to avoid hard strikes to wrists with handcuffs and over-tightening of handcuffs.
5. Individuals will not be handcuffed to any portion of a police vehicle during transport.

C. Body Belt

The body belt allows the officer to handcuff the prisoner in front, yet restricts the movement of the prisoner's arms and hands. The body belt will be used when the officer deems it appropriate.

D. Ankle Shackles

Ankle shackles shall be used by officers when transporting any prisoner they have reason to believe might be an escape risk or when circumstances deem it appropriate.

E. Plastic / Shoelace Handcuffs

Plastic/Shoelace handcuffs shall be used when officers take several prisoners into custody, or when a prisoner requires multiple restraints. Officers must understand that, once applied, plastic handcuffs can only be removed with a knife, scissors or other cutting instrument.

F. Hobble Technique

1. The hobble technique refers to the use of a hobble device to secure a prisoner's feet while in transport in a police car. It involves looping a rope around the prisoner's ankles and then extending the other end of the device onto the door jam and then shutting the door thus holding the prisoner's feet in place.
2. The hobble device should only be applied to a prisoner's legs when the officer feels that the prisoner poses an imminent threat of physical harm to the prisoner or another with the use of the prisoner's feet or legs, or when the prisoner attempts to damage the inside of the patrol car during transport.
3. A prisoner that requires the hobble device requires a two officer transport so that one officer can monitor the status of the prisoner while in transport, e.g. prevent prisoner head strikes against windows etc.

IV. PROCEDURES - Persons not arrested

A. If officers have a reasonable suspicion that an individual has been involved in a violent offense, handcuffs may be applied to potential suspects while officers investigate an incident. Officers should be able to articulate the reasons for their safety concern. Persons not arrested but who are subject to investigative detention may be restrained under the following circumstances.

1. Suspects shall be handcuffed only as long as necessary to accomplish the investigative goal.
2. Handcuffing of suspects shall be accomplished with minimal discomfort to the suspect.

3. Officers shall limit the number and type of restraints used on the suspect to what is reasonably necessary to accomplish the investigation.
- B. If an individual is handcuffed or otherwise restrained for officer safety reasons during an investigation and later released, officers shall document their actions in an offense or incident report and include the reasons officers handcuffed the individual, the approximate length of time of the restraint and the results of the investigation.

V. SPECIAL CIRCUMSTANCES

A. Restraint prohibitions

1. Officers shall not place suspects in a prone position with the hands and ankles bound from behind with handcuffs, belts or other devices.
2. As soon as any suspects who are lying on their stomachs have been handcuffed, officers shall roll the suspects onto their sides or place the suspects in a sitting position. Suspects shall never be transported in a prone, face down position.
3. Intoxication, recent use of drugs or alcohol, the presence of a head injury, obesity, physical disability and recent exertion are all circumstances that can increase difficulty breathing when restrained. All suspects will be monitored during custody and transport for indications of medical problems and medical treatment obtained if required.

MENTALLY ILL PERSONS

I. POLICY

It is the policy of this Department to protect an emotionally or mentally unstable person from harming themselves, others or property. Police work brings officers into contact with persons who are emotionally or mentally unstable. This instability may be due to any number of factors, including alcohol/drug dependency, emotional trauma or some form of mental illness. Our primary concern in these cases is the safety and welfare of that person, the community and the officer. When an officer has probable cause to believe that an emotionally or mentally unstable person presents an immediate threat of harm to the person or another person, the person shall be taken into protective custody and transported to a facility where trained professionals can evaluate the emotional and mental status of that person.

II. PURPOSE

To provide officers with guidance on the handling of calls involving the mentally ill.

III. PROCEDURES

A. Recognizing Abnormal Behavior

1. Mental illness is often difficult for even the trained professional to define in a given individual. Officers are not expected to make judgments of mental or emotional disturbance but rather to recognize behavior that is potentially destructive and/or dangerous to self or others. The following are generalized signs and symptoms of behavior that may suggest mental illness although officers should not rule out other potential causes such as reactions to narcotics or alcohol or temporary emotional disturbances that are situationally motivated. Officers should evaluate the following and related symptomatic behavior in the total context of the situation when making judgments about an individual's mental state and need for intervention absent the commission of a crime.

2. Degree of Reactions. Mentally ill persons may show signs of strong and unrelenting fear of persons, places or things. The fear of people or crowds, for example, may make the individual extremely reclusive or aggressive without apparent provocation.
3. Appropriateness of Behavior. An individual who demonstrates extremely inappropriate behavior for a given context may be emotionally ill. For example, a motorist who vents frustration in a traffic jam by physically attacking another motorist may be emotionally unstable.
4. Extreme Rigidity or Inflexibility. Emotionally ill persons may be easily frustrated in new or unforeseen circumstances and may demonstrate inappropriate or aggressive behavior in dealing with the situation.
5. In addition to the above, a mentally ill person may exhibit one or more of the following characteristics:
  - a. abnormal memory loss related to such common facts as name, home address, (although these may be signs of other physical ailments such as injury or Alzheimer's disease);
  - b. delusions, the belief in thoughts or ideas that are false, such as delusions of grandeur ("I am Christ.") or paranoid delusions ("Everyone is out to get me.");
  - c. hallucinations of any of the five senses (e.g. hearing voices commanding the person to act, feeling one's skin crawl, smelling strange odors, etc.);
  - d. the belief that one suffers from extraordinary physical maladies that are not possible, such as persons who are convinced that their heart has stopped beating for extended periods of time; and/or

- e. extreme fright or depression

B. Determining Danger

1. Not all mentally ill persons are dangerous while some may represent danger only under certain circumstances or conditions. Officers may use several indicators to determine whether an apparently mentally ill person represents an immediate or potential danger to the person, the officer, or others. These include the following:
  - a. The availability of any weapons to the suspect.
  - b. Statements by the person that suggest to the officer that the individual is prepared to commit a violent or dangerous act. Such comments may range from subtle innuendo to a direct threat that, when taken in conjunction with other information, paint a more complete picture of the potential for violence.
  - c. A personal history that reflects prior violence under similar or related circumstances. The person's history may be known to the officer, or family, friends or neighbors may be able to provide such information.
  - d. Failure to act prior to arrival of the officer does not guarantee that there is no danger, but it does in itself tend to diminish the potential for danger.
  - e. The amount of control that the person demonstrates is significant, particularly the amount of physical control over emotions of rage, anger, fright or agitation. Signs of a lack of control include extreme agitation, inability to sit still or communicate effectively, wide eyes and rambling thoughts and speech. Clutching one's self or other objects to maintain control, begging to be left alone or offering frantic assurances that one is all right may also suggest that the individual is close to losing control.
  - f. The volatility of the environment is a particularly relevant factor that officers must evaluate. Agitators that may affect the person or a particularly combustible environment that may incite violence should be taken into account.

IV. APPROACH AND INTERACTION – General Guidelines

- A. The following general guidelines detail how to approach and interact with a person who may have mental illnesses and who may be a crime victim, witness or suspect. These guidelines should be followed in all contacts, whether on the street or during more formal interviews and interrogations. Officers, while protecting their own safety, the safety of the person with mental illnesses and others at the scene should:
1. Recognize that these events are dangerous and officers must be prepared to protect themselves and others. The person may be suffering from mental instability, extreme emotions, paranoia, delusion, hallucinations or intoxication;
  2. Remain calm and avoid overreacting, surprise may elicit a physical response, the person's "fight or flight" may be engaged;
  3. Approach the individual from the front, be helpful and professional;
  4. Provide or obtain on-scene emergency aid when treatment of an injury is urgent;
  5. Check for and follow procedures indicated on medical alert bracelets or necklaces;
  6. Indicate a willingness to understand and help, use active listening, and paraphrase responses;
  7. Use the person's name and your name when possible, speak slowly, simply and briefly, and move slowly;
  8. Remove distractions, upsetting influences and disruptive people from the scene;
  9. Understand that a rational discussion may not take place;
  10. Recognize that sensations, hallucinations, thoughts, frightening beliefs, sounds ("voices") or the environment are "real" to the person and may overwhelm the person;
  11. Be friendly, patient, accepting, and encouraging, but remain firm and professional;

12. Be aware that their uniform, gun, and/or handcuffs may frighten the person with mental illnesses and attempt to reassure the person that no harm is intended;
13. Attempt to determine if the person is taking any psychotropic medications;
14. Announce actions before initiating them;
15. Gather information from family or bystanders;
16. Use patience and communications to control, use physical force only as a last resort;
17. Don't be afraid to ask direct questions about what the person is experiencing, e.g. "Are you hearing voices? Are you thinking of hurting yourself? Are you in need of something?"

B. While each incident will be different when dealing with a person who may have mental illnesses, officers should be aware that their own actions might have an adverse effect on the situation. Actions that officers should generally avoid include:

1. Moving suddenly, startling the person, giving rapid orders or shouting;
2. Forcing discussion;
3. Cornering or rushing;
4. Touching the person (unless essential to safety);
5. Crowding or moving into the person's zone of comfort;
6. Expressing anger, impatience, or irritation;
7. Assuming that a person who does not respond cannot hear;
8. Using inflammatory language, such as "mental" or "mental subject";
9. Challenging delusional or hallucinatory statements;
10. Misleading the person to believe that officers on the scene think or feel the way the person does.

C. The Department shall provide training to all Department personnel. This training shall be provided to all newly hired personnel during their first week of employment, with refresher training given to all personnel at least every three (3) years.

V. EMERGENCY APPREHENSION AND DETENTION

- A. HSC 571.003 defines "Mental illness" as an illness, disease or condition, other than epilepsy, senility, alcoholism or mental deficiency, that:
1. substantially impairs a person's thought, perception of reality, emotional process or judgment; or
  2. grossly impairs behavior as demonstrated by recent disturbed behavior.
- B. HSC 573.001 empowers peace officers to take into custody a person, without a warrant, if the officer:
1. has reason to believe and does believe that:
    - a. the person is mentally ill; and
    - b. because of that mental illness there is a substantial risk of serious harm to the person or to others unless the person is immediately restrained; and
    - c. believes that there is not sufficient time to obtain a warrant before taking the person into custody.
  2. A substantial risk of serious harm to the person or others under Subsection (a)(1)(B) may be demonstrated by:
    - a. the person's behavior; or
    - b. evidence of severe emotional distress and deterioration in the person's mental condition to the extent that the person cannot remain at liberty
  3. The peace officer may form the belief that the person meets the criteria for apprehension:
    - a. from a representation of a credible person; or
    - b. on the basis of the conduct of the apprehended person or the circumstances under which the apprehended person is found

4. A peace officer who takes a person into custody shall immediately transport the apprehended person to:
  - a. the nearest appropriate inpatient mental health facility; or
  - b. a mental health facility deemed suitable by the local mental health authority, if an appropriate inpatient mental health facility is not available
5. A jail or similar detention facility may not be deemed suitable except in an extreme emergency.
6. A person detained in a jail or a non-medical facility shall be kept separate from any person who is charged with or convicted of a crime.

C. Juvenile Mentally Ill Patients

1. The emergency detention procedure for juveniles is the same as for adults.

VI. TAKING A PERSON INTO CUSTODY FOR EMERGENCY DETENTION

- A. If an officer determines that an Emergency Detention is necessary, the following procedures will be utilized:
1. A minimum of two officers should be present before any action is taken to take the subject into custody.
  2. Should a patient refuse an officer entry into the patient's home for the purpose of apprehension, the officer will not force entry unless a life is in immediate danger.
  3. Take the person into custody and apply handcuffs for transport. Explain that handcuffs are necessary for everyone's protection. Use front cuff with belt restraint if possible. (If officers believe the subject will not resist, inform the subject of your intentions beforehand and explain your reasoning. If officers believe the subject will resist, immediate forceful action may be necessary to restrain the individual. Officer safety is paramount.)
  4. Officers are reminded that the use of force is authorized to the extent necessary to take the subject into custody.
  5. Proceed to the mental health facility and turn the subject over to the center staff.

6. Complete an Application for Emergency Detention. The application should detail the actions of the subject that led you to believe the subject was a danger to the subject or others.
7. Complete an Incident Report detailing the event and a copy of the petition shall be attached to the report.
8. Consider providing the mental health facility with a copy of your vehicle AVR tape for review by the interviewing doctor.

B. Physically Ill Mentally Disturbed Persons

1. When a mentally ill person is also physically ill or injured requiring transport by ambulance an officer will ride in the rear of the ambulance with the person.

VII. CRIMINAL OFFENSES INVOLVING THE MENTALLY ILL

- A. Individuals who commit criminal acts but are believed by the officer to be exhibiting symptoms of mental illness and are an immediate danger to themselves or others should be taken into custody and taken to the mental health facility under an Application for Emergency Detention. The officer will prepare an offense report providing all the details of the offense and the subject's behavior. Should the individual be determined to be competent after evaluation, the individual shall be filed on for the offense and a warrant obtained for the individual's arrest.
- B. Individuals who commit criminal acts and are believed by the officer to be exhibiting symptoms of mental illness but there is no evidence that the person is an immediate danger to themselves or others:
  1. If the offense is a misdemeanor, be released to a competent adult caregiver or booked into jail. If booked into jail, every attempt will be made to locate a caregiver and release the person to the caregiver on personal recognizance.
  2. If the offense is a felony, the individual will be booked into jail and every attempt will be made to contact a caregiver. The individual will be required to make bond.
  3. In cases of family violence, a supervisor or the Chief of Police should be consulted to determine an appropriate response.
  4. In any case where a suspected mentally ill individual is booked into jail, the individual shall not be housed with other inmates. Every effort will be made to monitor the individual's safety and process the individual as quickly as possible to remove the individual from the facility.

5. Suspected mentally ill, non-violent juveniles who are being cared for by a responsible person will not be detained unless a felony has been committed.
6. Suspected mentally ill, violent juveniles, or those who have committed a felony, will be transported to the mental health facility.

VIII.REPORTING

- A. If a criminal incident involving a mentally ill person is reported, all pertinent information involving the offense must be included in that report.
- B. Certain individuals may habitually display unusual behavior which is and may become well known to the Department.
- C. Any information which is requested to be included into the Record Management System (RMS) regarding a mentally ill person who is a hazard to police officers should be accomplished in writing by a supervisor to the Communications Supervisor.

IX. REFERRALS TO MENTAL HEALTH FACILITIES

- A. When a police employee receives a telephone call and the caller appears to be mentally disturbed or irrational:
  1. Obtain the caller's name, telephone number and address or location from where the individual is calling.
  2. If the caller indicates that the caller's or another life may be in danger, an officer will be sent and the on-duty patrol supervisor advised of the situation.
  3. If the caller is not an immediate threat to themselves or others, a suggestion can be made to contact a local mental health center for assistance.
  4. Attempted Suicide: When an officer is dispatched to a call in which a person has attempted suicide or is threatening suicide, the officer shall make certain that the immediate situation is stabilized. The officer shall also attempt to locate a relative, close friend or other responsible party that is available. The officer shall then contact the appropriate mental health facility/provider for assistance and/or emergency detention. An Incident Report shall be completed regarding the attempted suicide.

SEARCH WARRANTS

I. POLICY

The federal and state Constitutions guarantee all persons the right to be secure in their persons, houses, papers, and effects against unreasonable searches and seizures. Supreme Court decisions regarding search and seizure place the responsibility on the police to ensure that person's Fourth Amendment rights are protected. Officers shall scrupulously observe constitutional guidelines when conducting searches and always remain mindful of their lawful purpose. Search warrants, in particular, are one of the most valuable and powerful tools available to law enforcement officers. Because of the potential harm to members of the community, the risks to officers' safety and to the department image in the community, officers shall have a thorough knowledge of the legal requirements in obtaining and executing search warrants.

II. PURPOSE

The purpose of this general order is to establish guidelines and procedures which officers must follow when conducting searches and seizures.

III. DEFINITIONS

- A. Search Warrant: A written order issued by a magistrate and directed to a peace officer commanding the officer to search for any property or thing and to seize the same and bring it before such magistrate or commanding the officer to search for and photograph a child and deliver to the magistrate any of the film exposed pursuant to the order.
- B. Search Site: The premises to be searched, as explicitly stated in the search warrant.
- C. Lead Detective: The officer primarily responsible for the investigation, preparing, planning and implementing the search warrant.

D.SRT Commander: The officer responsible for planning and supervising tactical operations to include dynamic entry and other tasks requiring special weapons and tactically trained officers.

E.Protective Sweep: Quick and limited search of premises incident to an arrest or service of a warrant performed in order to identify weapons or other dangers to officers or others. Officers must be able to articulate a reasonable basis for conducting a protective sweep.

F.Curtilage: Curtilage usually refers to the yard, garden or piece of ground which adjoins a private residence. While the term has no absolute definition that applies under all circumstances, the curtilage of a private residence, for instance, is determined by whether the area is enclosed; the nature and use of the area; the proximity of the area to the home and any measures taken by the owner to protect the area from observation.

IV. PROCEDURES - General

A. State Law

1. Chapter 18 of the Texas Code of Criminal Procedure controls the use of search warrants in Texas. It states that a judge or magistrate may issue a search warrant if the following circumstances exist:
  - a. There is probable cause to do so, and
  - b. There is a complaint on oath supported by an affidavit.
2. Search warrants may be issued for the search of or for specified places, things or persons and seizure there from of the following things as specified in the warrant:
  - a. Weapons or other objects used in the commission of a crime.
  - b. Articles or things the sale or possession of which is unlawful.
  - c. Stolen property or the fruits of any crime.
  - d. Any object, thing or person including documents, books, records, paper or body fluids constituting evidence of a crime.

B. Supreme Court decisions

1. The Supreme Court of the United States issues decisions which must be used as guidelines in conducting searches. Because the Fourth Amendment to the Constitution prohibits unreasonable searches and seizures, officers bear the burden of proving that the search was reasonable. The court will examine reasonableness according to the answers to these questions:
  - a. Was there probable cause to issue the search warrant?
  - b. Was the scope of the search appropriate?

C. Exceptions to search warrant requirements are discussed in Policy 15.2.

V. PROCEDURES - Obtaining a search warrant

- A. Prior to obtaining a search warrant, officers should consult a departmental supervisor for review of the probable cause and approval to seek a search warrant. This review may be conducted by telephone if necessary. If the supervisor approves the warrant application, the supervisor shall notify the Chief of Police immediately and inform the Chief of the circumstances surrounding the offense and the need for the warrant.
- B. The approving supervisor will be in charge of the warrant execution. While the lead detective or officer may develop the case information, construct the affidavit, obtain the warrant and seek assistance from SRT if needed, the approving supervisor is responsible for the proper and safe execution of the warrant including compliance with this policy.
- C. Essential legal requirements
  1. To obtain a search warrant an officer must show probable cause to believe that specific evidence, contraband or fruits of a crime may be found at a particular place.
  2. The officer shall carefully document in an affidavit specific facts that constitute probable cause. Two kinds of facts must be considered:

- a. The facts from which the officer concluded that the person or thing is probably located at the place to be searched.
  - b. The facts which address the reliability of the source of the officer's information.
3. The court considers only those facts presented in the warrant and affidavit. Conclusions and suspicions are not facts. Facts must be recent.
4. Apart from the officer's personal knowledge or observations, facts may derive from a reliable informant.
5. Reliability of facts is established by:
  - a. Personal observation or knowledge by an officer.
  - b. Eyewitnesses who have first-hand knowledge.
  - c. Informants (if proven reliable or corroborated by personal observation of an officer).

D. Affidavits

1. The accuracy of the affidavit is vital to the validity of the search warrant. On the designated form, officers shall provide the information listed below. CCP 18.01 requires officers to swear to the facts of the affidavit before a judge or magistrate.
2. The affidavit shall include the following elements:
  - a. A detailed description of the place, thing or person to be searched.
  - b. A description of the things or persons to be searched for.
  - c. A substantial allegation of the offense in relation to which the search is to be made.
  - d. An allegation that the object, thing or person to be searched constitutes evidence of the commission of the offense.

- e. Material facts which would show that there is probable cause for issuing the search warrant.
- f. Facts that establish probable cause and that the item to be seized is at the location to be searched.

E. Language of the warrant

1. Only the things specified in the search warrant can be seized (for a discussion of exceptions to this, such as plain-view seizures and searches incident to arrest, see Policy 15.2). The warrant shall specify the areas to be searched and the areas shall be precisely stated. If officers wish to search a home and its surroundings, the affidavit must specify a "premises" search and its curtilage and must identify outbuildings or garages as appropriate.
2. If motor vehicles to be searched are on the premises, the warrant shall so specify.
3. If searches of specific persons (other than frisks) are to be included during the search, the warrant shall so specify. If the warrant states that all persons present shall be searched, then probable cause to do so must be justified in the affidavit.
4. The items to be searched for shall be precisely described. If an item to be searched for may be dismantled (e.g., firearms), then the warrant must specify the search for parts, pieces or components of the item.
5. If officers anticipate searching for and seizing computers or similar, complex technology, then experts must be consulted to determine the appropriate language to list in the affidavit and for outlining appropriate guidelines in the warrant for seizure of hardware and software.

6. If time and opportunity permit, the affidavit and warrant should be reviewed by the prosecuting attorney or legal counsel prior to presenting it to a magistrate.
7. If officers believe it is in the best interest of officer safety or that evidence may be destroyed if advanced warning is given and wish to utilize a “no-knock” warrant execution, the reasons for that belief should be clearly explained in the affidavit. The magistrate should be requested to review and authorize the no-knock entry.

VI. PROCEDURES - Executing a search warrant

A. When a search warrant must be executed

1. An officer is required to execute a warrant within the limitations imposed by statute. If it has not been executed during that time, the officer shall void the warrant and return it to the magistrate who issued it.
2. An officer may execute a search warrant either during the day or at night. The time of day selected to execute the warrant should take into consideration the likelihood that specific individuals will or will not be present. (Example: children or elderly.) Officer safety will also be considered in determining when to execute a warrant.

B. Preparing to execute the warrant

1. Before executing the warrant, the on-duty supervisor shall review the warrant and the affidavit; and brief the search team officers on the procedures to be followed. The supervisor shall ensure that the entire warrant process is documented. Written reports shall be supplemented with photographs or videotape if available and appropriate.
2. All members of the search team shall be in uniform or wear a clearly marked jacket with “POLICE” in large letters on the front and back.
3. All members of the search team shall wear protective body armor during the execution of all warrants.

C. Gaining entrance to premises

1. Prior to execution of the warrant, the lead detective shall attempt to determine if any circumstances have changed that make executing the search warrant undesirable at that time. Where possible, pre-search surveillance shall be conducted up to the point at which the warrant is executed. The lead detective shall make a final assessment of the warrant's accuracy in relationship to the location to be searched.
2. The search team shall first deploy around the premises to be searched, ensuring that all exits are covered. Uniformed officers shall be the most visible members of the search team and shall conduct the initial entry.
3. In most cases the officer shall do all of the following before entering the premises to be searched:
  - a. The officer must announce the officer's presence as a law-enforcement officer.
  - b. The officer must announce that the officer's purpose is to execute a search warrant.
  - c. The officer must wait a reasonable time either to be admitted or refused admission to the premises.
4. When entrance is refused

If the officer is refused entrance after a reasonable time, the officer may use force to enter the premises using force applicable to the circumstances. "Reasonable time" in this context depends on the circumstances. A refusal may be expressed or implied. A refusal can be implied in two circumstances:

- a. No one has admitted the officer within a time in which it would be reasonable to expect someone to let the officer in if the officer is going to be admitted at all.
- b. The officer waiting to be admitted sees or hears suspicious circumstances, such as flushing toilets or footsteps running away from the door, which indicate that someone might be concealing or destroying evidence or trying to escape.

5. No-knock or exigent entry

In some circumstances a police officer may enter the premises to be searched without announcing the officer's presence and purpose before entering. The judicial authority issuing the warrant may add a no-knock entry provision to the warrant. If not, the decision to make a no-knock entry may be made by the on-scene supervisor based on facts that would lead the supervisor to believe that an announcement would result in:

- a. Bodily harm either to the officer or to someone within the premises to be searched.
  - b. The escape of the person to be searched or arrested.
  - c. The destruction of evidence.
6. If circumstances require a no-knock or exigent entry, then the first officer to cross the threshold into the premises shall announce that law-enforcement officers are executing a warrant. Officers shall also command the occupants to take the appropriate action to ensure their safety, such as "Police, search warrant, get down."

D. Conduct of the search

1. Upon entry the occupant shall be given a copy of the search warrant.
2. The supervisory officer shall ensure that a protective sweep of the site is performed immediately.
3. After the site has been secured, a photographic and/or videotape record of the premises shall be made prior to conducting the search.
4. Once all the evidence being searched for is located the search must cease at that point.
5. Officers shall not use a search warrant to conduct a fishing expedition, i.e., if the search warrant is for a television, or large item, small places such as jewelry boxes may not be searched.

6. An officer may seize only the property listed in the warrant with two exceptions:
  - a. The other evidence is reasonably related to the offense for which the search warrant was issued.
  - b. It is property which the officer knows or has probable cause to believe is evidence of another crime.
7. Cash and currency taken as evidence shall be verified by a supervisor and be transported to a separate safe as designated by department policy.
  - a. Officers should exercise reasonable care in executing the warrant to minimize damage to property. If damage occurs during an entry to premises that will be left vacant and the damage may leave the premises vulnerable to security problems, arrangements shall be made to guard the premises until it can be secured.
  - b. If damage occurs, justification for actions that caused the damage and a detailed description of the nature and extent of the damage shall be documented. Photographs of the damage should be taken where possible.
8. If items are taken from the search site, an itemized receipt shall be provided to the resident/occupant, or in the absence of the same, left in a conspicuous location at the site.

E. Searches of persons found on premises

1. A person's presence on the premises to be searched with a warrant does not, without more, give rise to probable cause to search that person beyond a frisk for officers' safety.
2. A warrant to search the premises for contraband does carry with it the authority to detain the occupants of the premises while a search is being conducted. If the search of the premises gives rise to probable cause to arrest the detainee, the detainee may be arrested and the detainee's person searched incident to arrest.

3. A person on the premises may be searched if the officer has probable cause to believe that items listed in the warrant are concealed on the person. Mere presence on premises does not constitute probable cause.

VII. PROCEDURES: High Risk Warrant Execution

- A. A high risk warrant is any situation where it is likely that any special obstacle to the safe, effective execution of the warrant is present, the location has been fortified or officers may meet armed resistance and/or deadly force. This suspicion should be corroborated by intelligence information (i.e., CCH, C.I. statements, history of location, Detective's personal knowledge).
- B. High risk search warrants will utilize SRT (or the appropriate tactical unit within the jurisdiction) for entry and the securing of the premises.
- C. The supervisor in charge of the warrant's execution will notify the SRT Commander through the proper channels and will provide a copy of the warrant and affidavit.
- D. Upon notification by any supervisor that SRT will be needed to execute a warrant, the SRT Commander will contact the lead Detective and obtain the details of the warrant execution. This will include a physical inspection of the target and verification of the address and physical description.
  1. Upon completion of the scouting report, together they will formulate a plan of execution.
  2. The SRT Commander will notify the number of SRT officers required and when/where they are to report.
  3. Use of on-duty patrol officers should be coordinated with the on-duty supervisor to avoid depleting manpower.
- E. A warrant execution briefing will be held. The warrant execution briefing will include the supervisor in charge of the warrant's execution, the lead Detective, the SRT Commander, the communications supervisor and all officers participating in its execution or who will be at the scene.
  1. They shall detail procedures for executing the warrant to all team members in a warrant service briefing. The plan briefing shall be conducted by both the lead Detective and the SRT Commander and will include but not necessarily be limited to the following:

- a. The specific items subject to the search as defined in the warrant and any available information on their location.
- b. Information concerning the structure to be searched and surroundings, to include floor plans where available, mockups, photos and diagrams of the location identifying entrances, exits, obstructions, fortifications, garages, outlying buildings, suspect vehicles and all other points of concern.
- c. Suspects and other occupants who may be present at the location—incorporating photos or sketches whenever possible—with emphasis on suspect threat potential as well as the presence of children, the elderly or others who may not be involved with suspects.
- d. A complete review of the tactical plan to include the staging area, route of approach; individual assignments for entry, search, management of evidence, custody and handling of seized vehicles, custody of prisoners and post-execution duties such as securing the location and conducting surveillance on the site for additional suspects.
- e. Personnel, resources or armament necessary for gaining entry, safety and security of officers or for conducting the search.
- f. If a joint agency task force operation, all officers participating in the warrant service shall be present and identified as members of the warrant service team.
- g. Contingency plans for encountering hazardous materials, canines, booby traps, fortifications or related hazards; measures to take in case of injury or accident, to include the nearest location of trauma or emergency care facilities.
- h. Procedures for exiting the location under emergency conditions.

2. The entry team shall at all times include uniformed officers who shall be conspicuously present where the warrant is served. All non-uniformed officers shall be clearly identified as law enforcement officers by a distinctive jacket or some other conspicuous indicator of office.
3. All members of the search team shall wear body armor or ballistic vests as designated by the lead Detective.
4. Prior to execution of the warrant, the lead Detective shall attempt to determine if any circumstances have changed that make executing the search warrant undesirable at that time. Where possible, pre-search surveillance shall be conducted up to the point at which the warrant is executed.
5. The lead Detective shall make a final assessment of the warrant's accuracy in relationship to the location to be searched.
6. The lead Detective shall ensure that the entire search warrant execution process is documented until the search team leaves the premises. A written record shall be supported by photographs and, if practical, videotaping of the entire search process.

F. Entry Procedures

1. If an advance surveillance team is at the target site, radio contact shall be made to ensure that the warrant can be served according to plan.
2. The search personnel shall position themselves in accordance with the execution plan.
3. An easily identifiable police officer shall knock and notify persons inside the search site in a voice loud enough to be heard inside the premises, that the officer is a police officer and has a warrant to search the premises and that the officer demands entry to the premises at once.
4. Following the knock and announce, officers shall delay entry for an appropriate period of time based on the size and nature of the target site and time of day to provide a reasonable opportunity for an occupant to respond (normally between 15 and 20 seconds). If there is reasonable suspicion to believe that the delay would create unreasonable risks to the officers or others, inhibit the effectiveness of the investigation or would permit the destruction of evidence, entry may be made as soon as practicable.

5. Once the entry has been made and the scene secured, the lead Detective will perform the search as required in Section VI, D, above.

VIII.PROCEDURES - Return of the search warrant

A. After an officer has finished a search, the officer shall perform the following:

1. Note the date of execution on the search warrant.
2. The officer must make an inventory of all the property seized and leave a copy with the person in charge of the premises.
3. Within three days following the execution of the search (excluding Saturdays, Sundays or legal holidays) make return of the warrant to the magistrate who issued the warrant. The following
  - a. The search warrant.
  - b. The affidavit.
  - c. Either the inventory of articles seized or a notation that nothing was seized during the search.

B. Responsibility for property seized

1. All property seized must follow a rigorous chain-of-custody procedure. Documentation must appear in all narrative reports pertaining to the chain of custody of any items seized. The department evidence tag shall be used to identify all seizures.
2. Officers shall place evidence in the property room or locker reserved for the purpose prior to the end of shift.
3. Observe the property and evidence procedures as detailed in Policy 16.1.

SEARCH INCIDENT TO ARREST AND OTHER SEARCHES WITHOUT WARRANT

I. POLICY

In order to ensure that constitutional rights are protected, officers will obtain search warrants upon probable cause in all appropriate criminal cases except for the following circumstances. Search warrants are discussed under Policy 15.1.

Searches without a judicial warrant are strictly limited to those circumstances where the courts have granted officers limited exceptions. One of those exceptions was described in Policy 12.2 where, if during an investigative stop, an officer has reasonable suspicion that an individual may be armed with a weapon the officer may conduct a limited pat-down of the individual's clothing to protect the officer. Other exceptions to the search warrant requirement are provided in this policy.

II. PURPOSE

To establish guidelines for searches incident to arrest and other searches without a warrant.

III. SEARCH INCIDENT TO ARREST

- A. The general rule is that a reasonable search may follow a valid arrest. The officer has the authority to make a search which may extend to articles carried by the suspect and to the suspect's immediate surroundings. The purpose of this search is to remove any weapons from the arrested person which could be used against the officer while in custody, to remove any items that might facilitate an escape and to prevent the destruction of any evidence by the arrested person.

- B. A search incident to an arrest must occur in such a way that it and the arrest are part of a continuous, uninterrupted transaction. Two conditions are necessary for this to occur:
1. The search must be made as soon as practical after the arrest.
  2. The search must be made at or near the place of the arrest.
- C. An officer making a search incident to an arrest may search only the following permissible places:
1. The entirety of the person being arrested.
  2. The area within the immediate control of the person being arrested into which the suspect might reach for a weapon or for evidence.
- D. Accessories carried by the suspect may be searched incident to a full custodial arrest for the accessories are within the area in which the defendant might reach to grab a weapon or an item of evidence.
- E. Vehicles may be searched contemporaneous with the arrest of the occupant or driver only if:
1. The arrested vehicle occupant is unsecured and within arm's reach of the passenger compartment at the time of the search, or
  2. The officer has a reasonable belief that evidence related to the crime of the arrest is located within the passenger compartment.
  3. Once an occupant has been secured and is unable to effectively reach the passenger compartment, the authority to search the vehicle for safety reasons is removed. Officers may conduct a search of a vehicle passenger compartment in such circumstances if other warrantless search exceptions apply or by obtaining a search warrant.
- F. Strip searches (TBP: 10.14)
1. Strip searches shall not be conducted of persons arrested for traffic violations, Class C or B misdemeanors; unless the officer has an articulable, reasonable suspicion to believe that the person is concealing a weapon or contraband. Reasonable suspicion may be based on, but is not limited to, the following criteria.

- a. Nature of the offense.
  - b. Arrestee's demeanor and appearance.
  - c. Circumstances of the arrest or evidence of a major offense in plain view or during the course of the arrest.
  - d. Arrestee's criminal record, particularly a history of narcotics offenses or violence.
  - e. Detection of suspicious objects beneath the suspect's clothing during a search incident to an arrest.
2. Strip searches shall be performed by persons of the same sex as the person arrested and at the jail or lock-up where the search cannot be observed by persons not physically conducting the search. No strip searches will be conducted in the field.
  3. In every case, the on-duty or on-call supervisor must review the need and expressly authorize the strip search.
  4. When authorized by the supervising authority, strip searches may be conducted only in the following:
    - a. in conformance with approved hygienic procedures and professional practices.
    - b. in a room specifically authorized for this purpose.
    - c. by the fewest number of personnel necessary and only by those of the same sex.
    - d. under conditions that provide privacy from all but those authorized to conduct the search.
  5. Following a strip search, the officer performing the search shall submit a written report to the supervisory authority that details, at a minimum, the following:
    - a. Date and place of the search

- b. Identity of the officer conducting the search.
- c. Identity of the individual searched.
- d. Those present during the search.
- e. The identity of the approving supervisor
- f. A detailed description of the nature and extent of the search.

G. Body-cavity searches (TBP: 10.15)

1. Department personnel do not conduct body cavity searches other than an individual's mouth. If an officer has reasonable cause to believe a body cavity search is needed to detect weapons, drugs or other contraband, the following procedures apply:
  - a. The on duty police supervisor is notified;
  - b. A search warrant is secured;
  - c. The detainee is transported to an appropriate medical facility.
  - d. The search is conducted by the on-duty emergency room physician, while officers stand by to take control of any evidence and provide security to the physician conducting the search.
  - e. Body cavity searches are documented in the officer's arrest report and will detail the officer's justification for such search, the approving supervisor's name, the location and persons present during the search and the results of the search. A copy of the report and warrant is forwarded to the Chief of Police for review and filing.
2. Prior to transporting the prisoner to the medical facility, the officer shall inform the prisoner of the officer's intention to conduct a body-cavity search thus giving the prisoner the opportunity to voluntarily surrender the suspected contraband.

IV. OTHER WARRANTLESS SEARCHES

A. Consent Searches

A search warrant is not necessary where a person who has authority or control over the item or place searched consents to the search. Note that the officer does not have to have reasonable suspicion nor probable cause to request a consent search: the officer may merely ask for permission from someone with control over the item or premises. If that person grants permission, the search may take place. The sole justification for a consent search is the existence of knowing, intelligent and voluntary consent.

1. Consent searches must observe the following rules:
  - a. Generally, the person granting consent must use, access or control the property. A person having use, access or control of only a part of a jointly-owned property can only give consent for a search of that part.
  - b. If two people have joint ownership of property, either person may give consent if that person is the only one present. If possible, have all the consenting parties present sign a written permission to search form. If both or multiple parties with joint ownership are present and any party objects to the search, the search cannot be performed.
  - c. A landlord, including a hotel or motel manager, cannot consent to a search of a tenant's premises, unless the tenant has been evicted or has abandoned the property.
  - d. A husband or wife, or one member of a cohabiting unmarried couple, may consent to a search of areas in common ownership or use if the person is the only one present. If both or multiple parties with joint ownership are present and any party objects to the search, the search cannot be performed.
  - e. A parent may consent to a search of premises occupied by a child under the age of majority if the parent also has access to the premises. If a dependent child is present and is over the age of majority, the child may legally object to the search of an area that is jointly owned or possessed.

- f. An employee cannot give valid consent to a search of the employer's premises unless the employee has been left in custody of the premises.
- g. An employer may generally consent to a search of premises used by employees, except premises used solely by another employee (e.g., a locker).
- h. Consent must be given voluntarily. If an officer requests consent from a person under circumstances which a reasonable person would consider coercive, the search would not be consensual and the officers should seek a warrant. The officer may have the burden of demonstrating voluntariness.
- i. A person who initially gives consent may withdraw it at any time. Officers shall then secure the premises and seek a warrant if probable cause exists.
- j. Refusal to give consent, in itself, cannot justify further law-enforcement action.
- k. The scope of a consent search is limited to the area for which consent has been given, and within this area officers may search only into areas where the objects sought could reasonably be hidden.

2. Documentation of Consent Searches

- a. Although verbal consent is valid, police officers will carry and use the Voluntary Consent to Search form. The form should be completed and signed by the consenting parties. All Consent to Search forms shall be forwarded to the Records Unit for filing.
- b. If a person gives verbal consent but refuses to give written consent, Police officers should consider the severity of the case along with viable options (i.e., obtaining a search warrant or some other exception to the search warrant requirement) before proceeding with the search.

- c. If a police officer proceeds to search on verbal consent, it should be remembered that the burden of proof is always on the government.
- d. Police officers will not only have to prove the consent was voluntary, but that it was actually given (officer's word against defendant). Officers should attempt to take additional steps to eliminate this argument (i.e., tape record the verbal consent, have an impartial third party witness the consent by signing the form).
- e. Police officers should make every effort to minimize conditions which could be offered as "threat or intimidation"; such as:
  - i. Number of Police officers present (especially in uniform);
  - ii. Amount of force used to detain or arrest - i.e., displaying firearms, use of handcuffs, etc.;
  - iii. Language and tone of voice used in requesting consent;
  - iv. Other non-verbal communications.

B. Emergency searches

1. A search warrant is not necessary in an emergency. An emergency is sometimes termed "exigent circumstances."
2. Police officers may make a warrantless search of any person or anything, whether personal belongings, vehicles, or buildings, anytime they have a probable cause to believe it is necessary to save a life, prevent injury or prevent the destruction of evidence.
3. Police officers who observe criminal activity occurring inside a private place from outside the private place may not always be able to secure a proper warrant in a timely manner and will adhere to the following guidelines:

- a. If the offense is a misdemeanor, police officers will not enter unless:
    - i. Valid consent is given by a person with apparent authority to grant such permission, or
    - ii. There is reason to believe there is an immediate need to protect the safety of some person inside the location.
    - iii. Circumstances where alcohol and/or illegal drugs are present and the health and safety of minors is a legitimate concern.
  - b. If the offense is a felony, police officers will not enter unless:
    - i. Valid consent is given by a person with apparent authority to grant such permission.
    - ii. There is probable cause to believe the destruction of contraband or other evidence is imminent if it is not immediately recovered, or
    - iii. There is reason to believe there is an immediate need to protect the physical safety of some person inside the location.
  - c. Where police officers enter private property under felony circumstances as described above and misdemeanor violations are also observed, they may take appropriate action with regard to all criminal conduct regardless of the kind of offense or the age of the individuals engaged in any criminal or status offense.
4. If officers enter premises with probable cause to believe that critical evidence may be destroyed or removed unless immediate action is taken, they may enter without a warrant, secure premises, and obtain a search warrant before proceeding further unless they have obtained consent to search or some new circumstances arise necessitating another warrantless search.

C. Plain view

A plain-view seizure is, technically, not a search. To make a plain-view seizure of property (contraband, fruits or instrumentalities of the crime), two requirements must be met:

1. From a lawful vantage point, the officer must observe contraband left in open view; and
2. It must be immediately apparent to the officer that the items the officer observes may be evidence of a crime or contraband or otherwise subject to seizure.

D. Plain feel

During a lawful frisk (stemming from a lawful stop), if an officer detects an object that is or might reasonably be an item that is contraband or other criminal evidence then the object may be seized. Threatening items such as weapons may always be removed during frisks. Non-threatening items may be removed only if their contraband or evidentiary nature is immediately apparent.

E. Abandoned property and open fields

A search warrant is not required for property that has been abandoned.

1. To constitute abandoned property, three conditions must apply:
  - a. Property was voluntarily abandoned.
  - b. The abandonment was not a result of police misconduct.
  - c. Property was discarded outside the area in which someone has a reasonable expectation of privacy.
2. Open fields are not protected by the Fourth Amendment, but officers must distinguish them from curtilage, searches of which require a warrant. Curtilage is the area of a dwelling which is necessary, convenient and habitually used by the family for domestic purposes.

The extent of curtilage of a private residence is determined by whether the area is enclosed; the nature and use of the area; the proximity of the area to the home; and any measures taken by the owner to protect the area from observation. Note that under some circumstances surveillance (e.g., aerial surveillance) of activities within curtilage may take place without a warrant.

V. VEHICLES

A. In recent years, the U.S. Supreme Court has modified and expanded the conditions under which officers may search vehicles. Preferably, officers shall search vehicles under the authority of a warrant whenever sufficient time exists to obtain one. Nevertheless, warrantless searches of vehicles may take place under a number of conditions and circumstances. It is imperative that officers understand the different types of vehicle searches and their limitations.

B. Definitions

1. For the purposes of this section, a motor vehicle is any vehicle operating or capable of being operated on public streets or highways, from trucks to automobiles to mobile homes. A vehicle that has been immobilized in one location for use as a storage facility or home is not a motor vehicle for Fourth Amendment purposes.
2. For the purposes of this section, a search is an examination of a motor vehicle with an investigative motive, that is, to discover evidence or to examine the vehicle identification number (VIN) to ascertain ownership.

C. When warrantless vehicle searches may be performed

1. As noted earlier, warrants shall be obtained to search vehicles, if feasible, unless an emergency exists. Any vehicle that has been disabled with little chance of its being driven away shall be searched with a warrant. In all other cases, vehicles may be searched without a warrant with the following limitations:

- a. With a warrant, a search may extend anywhere within the vehicle, unless limited by the warrant itself.
- b. When probable cause exists, a search may extend anywhere within the vehicle, unless the probable cause is limited to a specific part of the vehicle.
- c. When consent has been obtained from the driver, officers may search the vehicle subject to any limitations specified by the consenting person. Consent shall be obtained in writing, if feasible.
- d. Searches incident to the arrest of an occupant shall be limited to any area within reach of the arrestee. The area within reach is deemed to be the passenger compartment. The trunk, engine compartment and any locked compartments shall not be searched unless immediately accessible to the suspect. (See Section III above for a fuller treatment of searches incident to arrests and restrictions. Once an individual is restrained or removed from the immediate area of the vehicle the authority to search the area within reach is removed.)
- e. Frisks for weapons shall be confined to the passenger area. Any place not immediately accessible to the occupants, such as a locked glove compartment, shall not be frisked. If the contents of a container are immediately accessible to the subject, a closed container may be searched for weapons. Note that an officer can order the suspect from the vehicle and frisk both the suspect and the vehicle.
- f. An entry into the vehicle to examine the VIN or otherwise determine ownership must be limited to these purposes.
- g. An emergency search of the vehicle may be conducted but the extent of the search must not exceed whatever is necessary to respond to the emergency.
- h. Note: If the initial search under the above conditions gives rise to probable cause that evidence, contraband, fruits or instrumentalities of the crime might be found elsewhere in the vehicle, officers may search those areas that might reasonably contain such items.

D. Containers within the vehicle

1. As a rule, no container within a vehicle shall be searched unless it might contain the item(s) sought.

2. Procedures for unlocked containers

a. In a probable cause search, containers may be opened wherever found in the vehicle.

b. When the passenger area is searched incident to an arrest, containers within the passenger area may be opened.

c. During a consent search, containers may be opened provided that the terms of the consent either so permit or reasonably imply permission.

d. Containers found in or discarded from a vehicle under circumstances not amounting to probable cause or in connection with a search incident to an arrest shall not be searched but shall be secured until a warrant is obtained.

e. The abandonment doctrine does apply to containers thrown from a vehicle by a suspect.

3. Procedures for locked containers

a. Under most conditions, locked containers shall be opened under a warrant unless one of the following circumstances has been met:

i. Consent has been given.

ii. Probable cause exists to search the vehicle and the object of the search might be found in the container. (Even in this circumstance, a warrant is preferred.)

iii. Inventory, only if a key is present.

E. Conduct of the vehicle search

1. When possible, searches of vehicles shall be conducted contemporaneous with the stopping or discovery of the vehicle. As a general rule, vehicle searches shall be conducted as soon as reasonably possible.
2. When possible, officers shall avoid damaging a vehicle or its contents and shall minimize the intrusiveness of the search and any inconvenience suffered by the passengers or owner.
3. As vehicles may contain sharp or pointed objects, and perhaps even syringes or other materials with body fluids on them, officers shall take precautions to minimize exposure to communicable diseases.

F. Vehicle Inventory

While not a search for evidence or contraband, a vehicle inventory may be conducted if the vehicle is to be impounded. Vehicle impound procedures are provided in Policy 8.2.

Property and Evidence

I. POLICY

Proper documentation, collection, preservation and submission of physical evidence to forensic laboratories may provide the key to a successful investigation and prosecution. Through evidence located at the scene suspects are developed or eliminated, investigative leads are established and theories concerning the crime are substantiated or disproved. The purpose of Property and Evidence Management is to maintain those property items coming into the possession of the department in such a manner as to secure the items from theft, loss, or contamination and to maintain the items for easy retrieval as needed.

II. PURPOSE

The purpose of this order is to establish property room procedures and protect the integrity of the property and management system.

III. ORGANIZATION AND ACCOUNTABILITY

- A. The Chief of Police will appoint a primary and alternate Property Custodian. The Property Custodian is responsible for maintaining security and control of property and evidence that the department acquires through normal duties and responsibilities. The alternate serves as backup when the assigned Property Custodian is unavailable.
- B. The Property Custodian reports to the Chief of Police.
- C. The Property Custodian shall satisfactory complete a TCOLE approved basic course on the management of the property function, on the job training and other related training courses, seminars and/or conferences as appropriate.

D. Duties and Responsibilities

1. The primary duty of the Property Custodian is to log, classify, store, dispense, destroy and release property and evidence to its rightful owner, for court presentation and/or for destruction or auction. Additional duties include but are not limited to the following:
  - a. Maintain evidence or property in such a manner that the individual items are secure from theft, loss or contamination, and can be located in a timely manner.
  - b. Maintain property reports and other documentation associated with the “chain of custody” for all property.
  - c. Ensure the timely and legally correct notification of owners and release/disposal of property recovered, found or seized by the police services.
  - d. Operate computer terminals to access information regarding case dispositions and other related information involving the classification and proper disposition of property/evidence.
  - e. Coordinate the disposal of unclaimed and/or surplus property and the special disposal of narcotics, weapons, explosives and hazardous materials pursuant to law.
  - f. Release of property for court, auction, disposal or person legally entitled to the item.
  - g. Provide in-service training to department personnel regarding the appropriate logging, packaging, documenting and storage of property and evidence.
  - h. Provide effective liaison between the department and local, county, state and federal law enforcement agencies.
  - i. Represent the department while attending state and local associations involved with the management of property and evidence.

- j. Stay abreast of local, state and federal law involving property and evidence handling. Recommend and facilitate appropriate changes.
- k. Maintain a clean and orderly property storage facility

IV. FACILITIES SECURITY (TBP: 12.04)

A. Access

1. The Property Room is maintained as a secure location. Access to the Property Room and all other temporary or long-term property storage areas is restricted to the Property Custodian, and alternate Property Custodian. All other persons entering the property room will sign in and out on the Property Room entry log.
2. Other department personnel do not enter property storage areas unless escorted by a Property Custodian. Except for the Property Custodians, all Department personnel, visitors, contractors, etc. who enter the Property Room must be listed on the visitor's log (citing the date, duration and purpose of the visit).
3. Property or evidence is only removed from its storage location by the Property Custodian or the authorized designee.
4. The doors, gates or other closure devices to any storage area are secured whenever the Property Custodian or other authorized personnel leave or are not present.

B. Key Control

1. Two keys are required to open the main property room doors. The Property Custodian and alternate are the only individuals with both keys.
2. The keys to all other property storage facilities are kept in the key box located inside the main property room. The duplication or unauthorized possession of keys to secured property storage areas is strictly prohibited.

3. A complete set of other storage facility keys, safe combinations, alarm codes, etc. are in a sealed property envelope, initialed and dated by the Property Custodian and Investigations Supervisor. That envelope stays in the Police Chief's safe as a backup for property room personnel. Inspection of this envelope is part of all property room audits and inventories.
4. Property room personnel may not relinquish property room keys, combinations or alarm codes to anyone other than authorized personnel.

C. Alarms and Other Security Systems

1. The main property room has an internal audible alarm system. Only authorized personnel have access codes (codes change as required)
2. Authorized personnel entering the main property room deactivate the alarm keep it deactivated during normal business hours and when occupying the room.
3. The alarm system is activated upon closing, during non-business hours or whenever the property room is unattended.
4. The Property Custodian tests the alarm system at least once a month to ensure it is functioning.
5. Firearms storage is separate from other property in the property room, secured in the safe or long gun storage area. The safe remains locked at all times unless property is being stored, removed or inventoried.
6. Controlled substances storage is separate from other property in the property room and secured in the safe. The safe remains locked at all times unless property is being stored, removed or inventoried.
7. Money is separate from other property in the property room and secured in a locked safe. The safe remains locked at all times unless property is being stored, removed or inventoried.

V. CATEGORIES OF PROPERTY

A. For the purpose of these procedures, property in police custody falls into these categories:

1. Evidence. Evidence is property that comes into the custody of a police department employee when such property may tend to prove or disprove the commission of a crime, or the identity of a suspect, pursuant to an official criminal investigation. Evidence or assets seized for forfeiture are handled in the same manner as other evidence.
2. Found Property. Found Property is property of no evidentiary value, which comes into the custody of an agency employee and whose rightful owner may or may not be known to the finder or the department. Due diligence must be exercised to discover the rightful owner. If the owner cannot be located, the Department will dispose of the property in a time and manner prescribed by law.
3. Safekeeping. Safekeeping is property of no evidentiary value surrendered to an employee of this agency for temporary custody. This arrangement comes with the understanding that the person surrendering the property has the legal right to do so, and that the property will be returned to the rightful owner(s) at the end of a specified period; unless disposition by the Department, in a manner prescribed by law, is requested by the owner(s).

VI. DOCUMENTATION & RECEIPT OF PROPERTY (TBP: 12.01)

A. Documentation of Property

The police employee accepting that property documents the details upon taking property in to the Department. That report contains a description of the item, along with all other pertinent details of how the item came into possession. The report must also include complete information on the person who found the property or from whom it was seized or recovered.

B. Receipt of Property

1. The Property Custodian provides a receipt to any person when taking property regardless of the classification of that property.

C. Computer Inquiry & Entry

1. All employees make the appropriate inquiries to the TCIC on all serialized or identifiable items collected or seized prior to placing the item into storage. This determines if the property is reported stolen or otherwise entered into the statewide system.
2. Dispatch verifies all "hits" prior to confiscating the item. After verification, a dispatcher sends the "locate" information.
3. The offense and property report reflects the status of the property items. The report also indicates that a "locate" was sent to the originating agency. It is the originating agency's responsibility to update the TCIC information from stolen to recovered status.

D. Property Forms

The property and evidence function requires the use of the following forms:

1. Evidence Bags and Boxes
  - a. Evidence Bags and boxes serve as the primary method for submitting property for storage. A listing of the case number, date, location, applicable names, description of property and officer's name and ID number properly identify the property and its origin.
  - b. Chain of Custody Form submitted with each property container (bag, box, etc), tracks the movement or release of the item.
  - c. Property Tag. Officers affix a property tag securely to items that do not fit into evidence bags or boxes. This tag designates the case number, date of submission and name and ID number of the submitting officer.
  - d. Money Form. This form serves as the sole method for logging cash money into the property room. Cash is defined as coin and/or currency. Checks, credit cards or other negotiable items do not require the use of a money envelope. The Property Custodian does not accept money not packaged or logged appropriately, according to the following procedures:

- i. Itemize money by denomination, listing subtotals and total amounts.
  - ii. All money logged into the property room requires at least two officers or employees to verify the count.
  - iii. All money envelopes must contain at least two signatures verifying the amount listed and enclosed. The entering officer and verifying officer sign their names and numbers to the front of the envelope and seal the envelope with tamper-proof security tape. Both officers then initial the back of the envelope prior to entering it into the property locker. For accuracy, conduct two separate counts on large amounts of cash.
  - iv. Extremely large amounts of coin and/or currency seized which, because of the container or quantity of money, make it impractical to package in a money envelope (e.g., coins stored in a large piggy bank or bottle, large amount of bills in a briefcase or satchel, etc.). In those rare cases, it is acceptable to log the container as it. However, the need for a money count and money form still applies. Officers submitting the money secure the container with evidence tape to prevent tampering and tape the money form to the container.
  - v. Suspected counterfeit bills require a money form, but have no cash value. Make a notation on the outside of the money envelope reflecting that the contents contain suspected counterfeit bills.
  - vi. The money form is not for foreign currency. If used, the outside of the envelope reflects that the envelope contains foreign currency.
- e. Property Receipt Form. The Property Receipt Form serves as a receipt for property taken into custody and documents the release of property to other entities. The Property Release Form also authorizes the release of property. No property is released without a completed release Form.

VII.LOGGING PROPERTY & EVIDENCE

- A. Officers who seize property and are able to determine ownership in the field may release the property immediately to the owner if the property is not needed for prosecution in a criminal case. Officers should make contact with the investigating officer or the prosecuting attorney's office if necessary to determine prosecutorial need. If the property can be released in the field, the officer will complete a Property Release Form and have the owner sign for receipt of the property. The form will be turned in to the property room where the Property Custodian will enter the property into the system and show it released in the field. The Property Release Form will be forwarded to CID for inclusion in the case file. (TBP: 12.06)

- B. Property that is seized by the department and not immediately released to the owner will be entered into the computer system and secured in the Property Room as soon after seizure as possible. Personal lockers, files or desks are not approved storage for property or evidence items. Officers will log all property and evidence into the property room before the end of their shift. (TBP: 12.03)

- C. Maintaining property/evidence in a case file may be acceptable when it is necessary for the proper investigation of the case by the assigned Detective; however, the property/evidence must first be logged into the property system and then signed out. The Detective signing out the property /evidence is responsible for the evidence until returning it to the property room. The Detective is also responsible for the integrity of the evidence while checked out.

- D. Marking and Packaging
  - 1. All collected property is marked for identification and packaged to avoid contamination.

  - 2. Permanent and distinctive marks such as initials, ID numbers and case numbers should be marked directly on objects collected (when possible) without damaging the evidence.

3. When unable to mark the exhibit itself (such as in the case of stains, hair, blood, controlled substances, etc.), place the item in a vial, envelope, container or other suitable package, then seal and mark the container.
4. There are a variety of containers and materials for use in packaging physical evidence and other property. Officers strive to use the size and type container appropriate for the type of property. An assortment of packaging materials and supplies for this packaging are near the processing room. The Property Custodian is responsible for maintaining property packaging and storage supplies.
5. Always package FIREARMS, MONEY, AND CONTROLLED SUBSTANCES separately from other property or evidence items.
6. Firearms Evidence - The collection of firearms is appropriate for both criminal and non-criminal cases. Due to the very nature of these items, extreme care is taken to ensure the safe handling of the weapon and preservation of its evidentiary value.
  - a. Firearms: NEVER PLACE A LOADED FIREARM INTO AN EVIDENCE STORAGE LOCKER. All firearms logged into evidence shall be placed into a designated firearms box and secured in that box with zip ties. Prior to being placed into evidence officers shall use the zip ties to secure the weapon with the breech opened and the zip ties running down the length of the barrel.

Exception: Officers who cannot unload a weapon due to a mechanical defect must attach a warning note to the weapon indicating it is loaded. The Property Custodian arranges for the range master (or qualified designee) to unload the weapon prior to placing it in storage or transporting it to the laboratory. Unfired cartridges may be left in the magazine provided the magazine is removed from the gun. Weapons are unloaded ONLY after noting the position of the bullets, empty cartridges, safety, bolt, breechblock, hammer, cylinder, magazine, etc.

7. Hazardous Materials / Devices: NEVER transport or store any unexploded (or suspected unexploded) device in or about the police facility. NEVER transport or store any Class A explosive such as dynamite, desensitized nitroglycerin, fireworks or black powder in or about the police facility.

8. Money: Itemize all monies by denomination and quantity on the approved money form before placing it into a property locker.
9. Jewelry: Package jewelry items individually in an envelope, box, bag or other suitable container as appropriate.
10. Bicycles: All bicycles or portions thereof retained by police services are placed into the departments' storage building inside of the fenced area. Different levels of security for the storage of bicycles may be utilized dependent on the property classification of the bicycle (Evidence vs. Found Property).
11. Motor Vehicles: Motor vehicles requiring retention are stored at an approved wrecker impound facility. Small motorized scooters are stored in departments' storage building inside of the fenced area. Note: Vehicles may be temporarily stored at a police facility while being processed during a crime scene search. The keys for motor vehicles retained as long-term evidence (homicides, fatal traffic accidents or serious hit and runs) remain in the ignition of the vehicle if mechanically feasible. Otherwise, those keys are logged into evidence. Vehicles that are intended to be seized are to be stored at the departments' storage building until a disposition can be obtained.
12. License Plates: License plates are the property of the Department of Motor Vehicles (DMV) from the state of jurisdiction. The public is permitted to use the license plate when the annual fees have been paid. License plates maintained as evidence are logged into evidence. Officers attempt to return found license plates to their owners. If that is not feasible, the officer logs the plates into property.

The Property Custodian is then responsible for returning the plates to the owner or DPS.

13. Alcohol: Open containers of alcohol are not logged into the property room. The investigating officer pours out the contents at the scene. The officer then describes the condition of the container and its contents in the police report. Officers avoid booking large quantities of alcoholic beverages into evidence. In rare situations when a sample of the evidence is necessary for prosecution, retain one unopened container (bottle, can, etc.), photograph and destroy the remainder on video.

VIII. TEMPORARY STORAGE FACILITIES

A. After property is marked for identification and packaged, officers deposit the property into one of the following temporary storage areas:

1. Metal Storage Lockers: Individual metal property lockers may be located in the wall of the property room. Officers lock the property into one of these lockers.
2. Large Enclosure: All bicycles, large items or parts thereof, are temporarily stored in the property room.
3. Refrigerator/Freezer: A refrigerator and freezer are located in the property room. Items that require refrigeration are placed into this temporary locker or, during normal business hours, given directly to the Property Custodian for securing in property.
4. Hazardous Materials Storage Locker
  - a. All flammable materials are placed in the hazardous materials storage drums before being stored in the fenced property storage area.
  - b. Fireworks are not stored, but instead photographed. Officers destroy all confiscated fireworks by drowning and physical destruction in view of a video recording device.

IX. PROPERTY ROOM COLLECTION, INVENTORY & STORAGE

A. Property Collection

1. On a daily basis, the Property Custodian or alternate inspects all temporary storage lockers, bins and annexes to remove and process all property items.
2. The Property Custodian or alternate also complete the following:
  - a. Assigns a bar code label to each property item submitted,

- b. Makes the appropriate entries into the automated property system,
- c. Stores each item in the approved locations.
- d. Arrange for transportation to the laboratory for examination as required, and
- e. Arrange for destruction, release to owner, auction or other authorized disposition as appropriate.

B. Property Inventory

1. The Property Custodian accounts for every item submitted into the property system. This process begins at intake.
  - a. The Property Custodian or alternate compares items listed on the property forms with those actually found in temporary storage. If any item is missing, the Property Custodian immediately notifies the on-duty supervisor. The submitting officer and/or supervisor then correct the discrepancy.
  - b. If the Property Custodian cannot find a missing item(s), the item is entered into the “Unable to Locate” (UTL) file and the Property Custodian notifies the Chief of Police via email, explaining the circumstances surrounding the missing property. The supervisor forwards a copy of the email to the employee’s supervisor. Property connected to the case will not be processed until the missing item(s) are found or the discrepancy has been corrected.

C. Improperly Submitted Property – “Right of Refusal”

1. Officers submit every item into property in a safe and thorough manner consistent with these guidelines and policy.
  - a. The Property Custodian has the authority to refuse acceptance of any property item submitted in an unsafe, incomplete or otherwise improper manner as defined in this manual.

- b. Property room personnel SHALL NOT accept any money or controlled substances in which the seal, envelope, packaging or container has been opened, tampered with or otherwise improperly submitted.
- c. The Property Custodian immediately notifies the on-duty supervisor, who follows up with the submitting officer's supervisor.
- d. All personnel immediately correct a breach in safety protocol.

D. Property Storage

The following types of property and evidence are stored separately and according to the listed guidelines. Other miscellaneous types of property may be stored separately as the Property Custodian determines.

1. Firearms

- a. The Property Custodian stores all firearms in containers (boxes) specifically designed for handgun, rifle and/or shotgun. Exceptions can be made for those weapons which, due to size or other considerations, are not compatible for storage in such containers. Officers will utilize zip ties to prevent the breech from closing.
- b. The Property Custodian segregates all firearms from other types of property retained. All firearms, REGARDLESS OF PROPERTY CLASSIFICATION, are stored in the weapons safe inside the property room. The safe remains locked at all times unless property is being stored, removed, inventoried or inspected. NEVER store ammunition with firearms. All ammunition is stored in the ammunition bin.

2. Controlled Substances

- a. The Property Custodian segregates all drugs and narcotics from other types of property retained. All controlled substances, REGARDLESS OF PROPERTY CLASSIFICATION, are stored in the narcotics safe inside the property room. The safe remains locked at all times unless property is being stored, removed, inventoried or inspected.

- b. Officers count, verify, and weigh controlled substances (or suspected controlled substances) prior to sealing them in containers or bags. The officer then weighs the bag and notes "BW" (for bag weight) and the total weight in grams on the outside of the bag. The bag weight is entered in the property description line as "Marijuana BW 13 grams" or similar.
- c. Property Custodian only opens sealed containers to facilitate the transportation and/or destruction of the item.

3. Money

- a. The Property Custodian segregates all money from other types of property retained. All money, REGARDLESS OF PROPERTY CLASSIFICATION, is stored in the safe or, if over $100.00, deposited with the district financial officer.
- b. The Property Custodian deposits money (over $100) with the district financial officer either the same or next working day. The Property Custodian seals the receipt in the original property envelope with the Money Form and returns it to the safe. The Property Custodian then makes notations, in the computer system, showing the money transferred to the cashier.
- c. The Property Custodian deposits smaller amounts of money with the cashier when the cumulative total of deposits reaches $100 or more.
- d. Exception: When the money itself is evidence, subject to forfeiture (drugs) or examination, it remains in the safe until a supervisor clears it for deposit.
- e. The Property Custodian only opens sealed containers to release the money to its rightful owner or transfer the money to a financial institution. At least one other police employee is present when opening any money envelope.

- f. The Property Custodian secures negotiable stocks, bonds, or bank securities in the safe with other money items. The Property Custodian assigns no value to the securities for purposes of showing a recovery value.

4. Homicides

- a. The Property Custodian stores all items of evidence associated with a homicide case together, unless that evidence requires storage elsewhere for additional security, safety or preservation measures.
- b. All homicide cases remain segregated from other types of property retained by the Department.

5. Hazardous Materials

- a. The Property Custodian transfers and stores all hazardous materials in containers designated for that purpose.
- b. The Property Custodian segregates all hazardous materials from other types of property retained. All hazardous materials, REGARDLESS OF PROPERTY CLASSIFICATION, remain stored within a hazardous materials storage container, clearly marked and designed for the storage of these materials.

6. Photographs

- a. The Detective submits a Property Form and enters the photographs into evidence. A set of photographs remain with other items associated with the case. The Detective may retain a separate set of photographs as a working copy during follow-up. After finishing, the Detective forwards the photographs to the prosecuting attorney as a part of the case file or destroys them.

- 7. Property Management. Nothing in this manual prevents the Property Custodian from organizing property as deemed necessary for the efficient operation of the property function.

E. Computer Entries

Computerized Property System

1. The Property Custodian enters all incoming property into the computerized property system as soon as possible. Information entered into this system includes:
  - a. Classification of property
  - b. Type/Description of property
  - c. Quantity
  - d. Case number
  - e. Officer submitting property
  - f. Location property stored
  - g. Chain of custody

F. Disposition of Property

1. The Property Custodian updates the status of all property retained in inventory as necessary.
2. The Property Custodian retains a complete “hard copy” file on each piece of property as a back up to this computer system. The backup files facilitate regular inspections, audits and inventories.
3. TCIC / NCIC
  - a. Upon request, dispatch personnel check property items with serial numbers in the TCIC/NCIC system.
  - b. In all cases when releasing a firearm, Detectives conduct a criminal history check of the person receiving the weapon. This establishes whether restrictions exist that prevent the release of the firearm to that individual. Additionally, Detectives request a stolen check through TCIC/NCIC to confirm that the status of the firearm.

- b. The owner has 90 days to establish ownership and claim the property.
- c. Exception: If sufficient evidence exists to file an asset forfeiture case, funds likely coming from illegal activity are retained. #### E. Court Releases

Officers needing evidence or property for court presentation complete a Property Release Form and have the form signed by a supervisor. The form indicates "temporary release" for court. The officer gives the form to the Property Custodian, who then completes the chain of custody form and releases the item to the officer. In all cases, the person receiving the property must present a photo ID and sign the property receipt.

XI. INTERIM RELEASE OF PROPERTY GUIDELINES

- A. To facilitate the need for officers to remove evidence temporarily from the property room for further investigation, examination, court, etc, the following procedures are established:

All firearms will be destroyed unless released to their rightful owners with two exceptions. Firearms that are scheduled for disposal that could be used by the department may be converted to departmental use upon written approval of the Superintendent. These weapons will become the property of the department and not individual officers and will be tracked and accounted for on inventories and audits. Weapons of intrinsic collectable value or long guns (not handguns) of sporting value may be auctioned by the District during the regular auction process. Destruction process will proceed as follows:

may be verbal and noted on the Request for Disposal form. Other controlled substances may be disposed of summarily by the department.

- c. Items to be destroyed are pulled from their storage locations and placed in boxes labeled “Narcotics Destruction.” Each box is sealed, labeled, and numbered.
- d. The Property Custodian prepares a list of applicable case numbers for each box and attaches a copy of the related property reports.
- e. The Property Custodian sets an appointment for disposal (crush or burn) and obtains the necessary permits in advance.
- f. Prior to destruction, the Chief conducts a random test of the controlled substances scheduled for destruction in the presence of the Property Custodian and observer to ensure its authenticity.
- g. At least two non-police witnesses examine each item set for destruction. In the event a package shows indications of tampering (other than due to lab analysis), the Property Custodian pulls the package out of the destruction process and presents it to the Chief. The Chief initiates an investigation, which may include reanalysis of the drug by the lab.
- h. An officer accompanies the Property Custodian and a person not connected with the department while transporting the controlled substances to the disposal facility. Each attendee witnesses the destruction of the controlled substances and signs a statement to that effect. The contents of the statement comply with the Texas Administrative Code, Title 37, Rule 13.163.

5. Disposal of Hazardous Materials

The disposal of hazardous materials falls under a number of State and Federal statutes. In practice, most disposals are regulated by law. Whenever questions arise regarding the proper procedures for waste disposal, the Property Custodian

XIII.AUCTION OF UNCLAIMED PROPERTY

A. Disposition of Unclaimed Property

1. Found property of value not claimed within 90 days is subject to auction. Stolen or embezzled property is subject to auction if unclaimed by the owner after notification of a 90-day limit to reclaim the item.

- A. The Chief appoints an individual to conduct an inspection of the Property Room at least every six months and forwards a report of the inspection to the Chief of Police.
- B. The inspection should concentrate on how the policies, procedures and practices are followed. This inspection should be conducted by a supervisor or other personnel not involved in the operation of the property room. The person inspecting the Property Room should become familiar with this policy and determine if these policies are being followed. The inspection should include inspection of the security of the property room, the proper use of the sign in log, the proper and up to date processing of property both intake and disposal, the cleanliness and orderliness of the Property Room, and any unusual circumstances. The inspection will also require the Property Custodian to find a minimum of 6 items randomly selected by the person inspecting from the property log, to include at least one weapon, one drug and one money item.

Limited English Proficiency

I. POLICY

Our country has always been a melting pot of cultures. Throughout our history, individuals with limited English proficiency have found it difficult to clearly understand important rights, obligations and services. It is therefore the policy of this department to take reasonable steps to ensure equal access of all individuals to the rights, liberties, and services of government, regardless of national origin or their primary language (Title VI of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, § 601, 42 USC § 2000d).

II. PURPOSE

To establish direction in dealing with members of the public who have limited English proficiency.

III. DEFINITIONS

- A. Limited English Proficiency (LEP): Designates individuals whose primary language is not English and who have a limited ability to read, write, speak or understand English. LEP individuals may be competent in certain types of communication (e.g., speaking or understanding), but still be LEP for other purposes such as reading or writing. Similarly, LEP designations are context specific - an individual may possess sufficient English skills to function in one setting, but these skills may be insufficient in other situations.
- B. Interpretation: The act of listening to a communication in one language and orally converting it to another language while retaining the same meaning.

- C. Translation: The replacement of written text from one language into an equivalent written text of another language.
- D. Bilingual: The ability to communicate in two languages fluently, including the ability to communicate technical and law enforcement terminology. For purposes of this policy, in order to be identified as bilingual, employees must initially and periodically demonstrate through a procedure to be established by the Department their level of skill and competence such that the Department is able to determine the purposes for which an employee's language skills may be used.
- E. Authorized Interpreter: An employee or other designated individual who is bilingual and has successfully completed department prescribed interpreter training and is authorized to act as an interpreter or translator.

IV. COMMUNICATIONS

A. Receiving and Responding to Requests for Service

1. In order to provide LEP individuals with meaningful access to police services when they are victims of, or witnesses to, alleged criminal activity or other emergencies, this department has designated its 911 lines as its top priority for language services. Department personnel will make reasonable effort to promptly accommodate such LEP individuals utilizing 911 lines through any or all of the below resources.
2. While 911 calls shall receive top priority, it is also important that reasonable efforts be made to accommodate LEP individuals seeking more routine access to services and information from this department by utilizing the methods listed in definitions above.

B. Emergency Calls to 911

1. When a 911 call taker receives a call and determines that the caller is an LEP individual the call taker should quickly determine whether sufficient information can be obtained to initiate an appropriate emergency response. If language assistance is still needed and the language is known, the call taker should immediately transfer the LEP caller to an available authorized interpreter to handle the call.

2. If an appropriate authorized interpreter is not available, the call taker will promptly contact the contracted telephonic interpretation service directly for assistance in completing the call.
3. Dispatchers will make every reasonable effort to dispatch a bilingual officer to the assignment, if available.

V. FIELD RESPONSE TO LIMITED ENGLISH PROFICIENCY

A. Identification of an Individuals Primary Language

1. Officers may encounter individuals in the field who do not clearly understand spoken English. Officers should be alert to clues that will indicate individuals do not clearly understand the officer.
2. When officers believe an individual does not clearly understand English, the officer will utilize all reasonably available tools, such as language identification cards, when attempting to determine an LEP individual's primary language in an effort to avoid misidentifying the language and failing to provide adequate service.
3. Officers needing assistance in communicating with the individual will utilize other options including the use of signs and gestures, writing notes or using others at the scene to attempt to communicate with the individual.
4. Except for exigent or very informal and non-confrontational circumstances, the use of an LEP individual's bilingual friends or family members, particularly children, is generally not recommended and departmental personnel shall make case-by-case determinations on the appropriateness of using such individuals.
5. If further assistance is needed, the officer will contact Communications in order to locate an interpreter or make contact with the telephone interpretation services.

B. Field Enforcement and Investigations

1. Field enforcement will generally include such contacts as traffic stops, pedestrian stops, serving warrants and restraining orders, crowd/traffic control and other routine field contacts which may involve LEP individuals. The scope and nature of these activities and contacts will inevitably vary. Department personnel must assess each situation to determine the need and availability for translation services to all involved LEP individuals and utilize the methods outlined in this policy to provide appropriate language assistance.

2. Although not every situation can be addressed in this policy, it is important that department personnel are able to effectively communicate the reason for a contact, the need for information and the meaning or consequences of any enforcement action taken with an LEP individual. It would, for example, be meaningless to request consent to search if the person requesting is unable to effectively communicate with an LEP individual.

C. Investigative Interviews

1. In any situation where the translation of an interview may contain information that might be used in a criminal trial, it is important to take certain steps to improve the chances of admissibility. This includes interviews conducted during an investigation with victims, witnesses and suspects. In such situations, audio recordings of the interviews should be made when reasonably possible. Identifying the contact information for the interpreter (e.g., name, address) should be documented so that the person can be subpoenaed for trial if necessary.
2. Any person selected as an interpreter and/or translator must have demonstrated competence in both English and the non-English language involved and knowledge of the functions of an interpreter that allows for correct and effective translation and should not be a person with an interest in the case. The person providing interpretation or translation services may be required to establish the accuracy and trustworthiness of the interpretation or translation to the court.

D. Custodial Interrogations and Booking

1. In an effort to ensure the rights of LEP individuals are protected during arrest and custodial interrogation, this department places a high priority on providing competent interpretation during such situations. It is further recognized that miscommunication during custodial interrogations may have a substantial impact on the evidence presented in any related criminal prosecution. As such, department personnel providing interpretation services or translated forms in these situations will have demonstrated competence in interpretation/translation and make every reasonable effort to accurately interpret/translate all communications with LEP individuals.

2. If time and opportunity exist, the prosecuting attorney should be consulted regarding the proper use of an interpreter prior to any interview.

3. In order to ensure that translations during criminal investigations are documented accurately and admissible as evidence, audio recordings of interviews, victim interviews and witness interviews should be used whenever reasonably possible.

4. Employees providing interpretation or translation services shall also be aware of the inherent communication impediments to gathering information from the LEP individual throughout the booking process or any other situation in which an LEP individual is within the control of department personnel. Medical screening questions are commonly used to elicit information on individual's medical needs, suicidal inclinations, presence of contagious diseases, potential illness, resulting symptoms upon withdrawal from certain medications or the need to segregate the arrestee from other prisoners, therefore it is important for members of this department to make every reasonable effort to provide effective language services in these situations.

E. LEP Contacts and Reporting

Whenever any member of this department is required to complete a report or other documentation and interpretation or translation services are provided to any involved LEP individual such services should be noted in the related report.

VI. DEPARTMENTAL RESPONSE FOR LEP

A. Since there are potentially hundreds of languages department personnel could encounter, the Department has and will continue to utilize the four factor analysis outlined by the Department of Justice in determining which measures will provide reasonable and meaningful access to various rights, obligations, services and programs to individuals within this jurisdiction. It is recognized that law enforcement contacts and circumstances will vary considerably. This analysis therefore, must remain flexible and requires an ongoing balance of the following four factors:

1. The number or proportion of LEP individuals eligible to be served or likely to be encountered by department personnel or who may benefit from programs or services within the Department's jurisdiction or a particular geographic area.
2. The frequency with which LEP individuals are likely to come in contact with department personnel, programs or services.
3. The nature and importance of the contact, program, information or service provided.
4. The cost of providing LEP assistance and the resources available.

B. As indicated above, the intent of this analysis is to provide a balance that reasonably ensures meaningful access by LEP individuals to critical services while not imposing undue burdens on the Department or on department personnel.

C. While this department will not discriminate against or deny any individual access to services, rights or programs based upon national origin or any other protected interest or right, the above analysis will be utilized to determine the availability and level of assistance provided to any LEP individual or group.

D. Types of LEP Assistance to be Provided

Depending on the balance of the above four factors, this department will make every reasonable effort to provide meaningful and timely assistance to LEP individuals through a variety of services, where available. LEP individuals may elect to accept interpreter services offered by the Department at no cost or choose to provide their own interpreter services at their own expense. Department personnel should document in any related report whether the LEP individual elected to use interpreter services provided by the Department or some other source. Department provided interpreter services may include, but are not limited to the assistance methods described in this section.

E. Bilingual Staff

Employees utilized for LEP services need not be certified as interpreters, but must have demonstrated, through established department procedures, a level of competence to ascertain whether the employee's language skills are best suited to monolingual communications, interpretation, translation or all or none of these functions. When bilingual employees of this department are not available, employees from other city departments who have the requisite training may be requested.

F. Written Forms and Guidelines

This department will determine the most frequently used and critical forms and guidelines and translate these documents into the languages most likely to be requested. The Department will arrange to make these translated forms available to departmental personnel and other appropriate individuals.

G. Telephone Interpreter Services

The Communications Section will maintain a list of qualified interpreter services which, upon approval of a supervisor can be contacted to assist LEP individuals. Such services shall be available to, among others, department personnel who have access to official cellular telephones.

H. Community Volunteers and other Interpretive Sources

Where competent bilingual departmental personnel or other certified staff are unavailable to assist, responsible members of the community who have demonstrated competence in either monolingual (direct) communication and/or in interpretation and translation may be called upon to assist in communication efforts. Sources for these individuals may include neighboring police departments, university languages and linguistics departments, local businesses, banks, churches, neighborhood leaders and school officials. Department personnel should ensure that community members are able to provide unbiased assistance.

I. Complaints

The Department shall ensure access to LEP persons who wish to file a complaint regarding the discharge of departmental duties. The Department may do so by providing interpretation assistance or translated forms to such individuals. If the Department responds to complaints filed by LEP individuals, the Department shall attempt to communicate its response in an accessible manner.

J. Community Outreach

Community outreach programs and other such services offered by this department have become increasingly recognized as important to the ultimate success of more traditional law enforcement duties. As such, this department will continue to work with community groups, local businesses and neighborhoods to provide equal access to such programs and services to LEP individuals and groups.

K. Training

In an effort to ensure that all employees in public contact positions (or having contact with those in custody) are properly trained, the Department will provide periodic training to personnel about departmental LEP policies and procedures, including how to access department authorized, telephonic and in person interpreters and other available resources.

L. Interpreters and Translators

1. Employees called upon to interpret, translate or provide other language assistance, will be trained on language skills competency (including specialized terminology) and ethical considerations.
2. Assessment: Department personnel identified as bilingual who are willing to act as authorized interpreters will have their language skills assessed by a professional interpreter using a structured assessment tool. Those employees found proficient in interpreting into and from the target language will be placed on the Authorized Interpreters List.
3. Reassessment for Authorized Interpreters: Those persons who have been placed on the Authorized Interpreter List must be re-assessed periodically. Additional or refresher language training will be provided by the department periodically.

4. Employees will be responsible for maintaining their proficiency and having their training and assessment results maintained in the training record.
5. The Communications Supervisor will ensure that the Authorized Interpreters List is kept current and a copy of the current list is maintained in the Communications Center.

M. Supplemental Materials Provided

The following materials will be made available to employees to assist in providing access and service to LEP individuals:

1. Listing of departmental bilingual employees, languages spoken, contact and shift information.
2. Listing of department certified interpretation services bilingual interpreters, languages spoken, contact and availability information.
3. Phone number and access code of telephonic interpretation services.
4. Language identification card.
5. Translated Miranda warning cards and other frequently used translated documents.
6. Any audio recordings/warnings that are developed in non-English languages.

N. LEP Coordinator

1. The Chief of Police will appoint a department employee as LEP Coordinator who is responsible for coordinating and implementing all aspects of the LEP services individuals.
2. Using the four factor analysis, the LEP Coordinator shall assess demographic data, review contracted language access services utilization data and consult with community based organizations annually in order to determine if there are additional languages into which vital documents should be translated.

3. The LEP Coordinator will also be responsible for annually reviewing all new documents issued by the department to assess whether these documents should be translated.

Communications with the Deaf or Hearing Impaired

I. POLICY

It is the policy of this agency to ensure that a consistently high level of service is provided to all community members, including those who are deaf or hard of hearing. This Agency has specific legal obligations under the Americans with Disabilities Act and the Rehabilitation Act. To carry out these policies and legal obligations, and to continue to provide the highest level of services to all members of the community, officers will use every means at their immediate disposal to ensure appropriate understanding by those who are deaf or hard of hearing.

II. PURPOSE

This document outlines the management of communication with individuals who are deaf or hard of hearing.

III. GENERAL PROCEDURES

- A. People who identify themselves as deaf or hard of hearing are entitled to a level of service equivalent to that provided hearing persons.
- B. The Agency will make every effort to ensure that its officers and employees communicate effectively with people who have identified themselves as deaf or hard of hearing.
- C. Effective communication with a person who is deaf or hard of hearing who is involved in an incident -- whether as a victim, witness, suspect or arrestee -- is essential in ascertaining what actually occurred, the urgency of the matter and type of situation.

D. Communication problems in police-public encounters provide the basis for potential frustration and embarrassment. Failure of officers to recognize that a person has hearing impairment or that person's failure to make an impairment known to officers, can also lead to critical misunderstandings. To avoid such potentialities, officers shall be cognizant of the following:

1. Be alert to indications that a person may be deaf or have hearing impairment. Such indications include but are not limited to the following:
  - a. The appearance of bumper stickers, rear window decals or visor notices/symbols indicating the disability
  - b. Use of signs, hand signals or gestures in an attempt to communicate
  - c. Display of cards by the person noting the person's hearing disability
  - d. Inability or difficulty of a person to follow verbal instruction or requests for information
  - e. A need to see the officer's face directly suggesting that the person is attempting to lip-read,
  - f. Evidence of assistive devices such as hearing aids, cochlear implants, or picture symbols
  - g. Evidence of behaviors such as increased agitation or irritability, low frustration levels, withdrawal, poor attention, or impaired equilibrium.
2. When dealing with persons who are or who are suspected of being deaf or who have hearing impairment, officers shall never assume that the person understands until it can be confirmed by appropriate responses to questions or directives.
3. Once someone is identified as a deaf or hearing-impaired person, officers shall determine by written or other forms of communication the person's preferred means of communication—sign language, reading and note writing or speech.

4. For persons who use sign language, a family member or friend may interpret under emergency conditions or, in minor situations, for the sake of convenience, when an interpreter is not available or required by law. In all other situations, officers shall not rely on family members or friends for sign language interpretation due to their potential emotional involvement or conflict of interest.
  5. Officers shall test comprehension by seeking appropriate responses to simple questions or directives. Deaf or hard-of-hearing persons may require additional time to understand and respond to commands, instructions and questions.
- E. Various types of communication aids - known as “auxiliary aids and services” - are used to communicate with people who are deaf or hard of hearing. These include use of gestures or visual aids to supplement oral communication; an exchange of written notes; use of a computer or typewriter; use of assistive listening devices (to amplify sound for persons who are hard of hearing); or use of qualified oral or sign language interpreter.
- F. The type of aid that will be required for effective communication will depend on the individual's usual method of communication and the nature, importance and duration of the communication at issue.
- G. In many circumstances, oral communication supplemented by gestures and visual aids, an exchange of written notes, use of a computer or typewriter or use of an assistive listening device may be effective. In other circumstances, qualified sign language or oral interpreters are needed to communicate effectively with persons who are deaf or hard of hearing. The more lengthy, complex and important the communication, the more likely it is that a qualified interpreter will be required for effective communication with a person whose primary means of communication is sign language or speech reading. For example:
1. If there has been an incident and the officer is conducting witness interviews, a qualified sign language interpreter may be required to communicate effectively with someone whose primary means of communication is sign language.
  2. If a person is asking an officer for directions to a location, gestures and an exchange of written notes will likely be sufficient to communicate effectively and a sign language interpreter is often not required.

- H. To serve each individual effectively, primary consideration should be given to the communication aid or service that works best for that person. Officers must ask persons who are deaf or hard of hearing what type of auxiliary aid or service they need. Officers must defer to those expressed choices, unless there is another equally effective way of communicating, given the circumstances, length, complexity and importance of the communication, as well as the communication skills of the person who is deaf or hard of hearing.
- I. The Agency is not required to provide a particular auxiliary aid or service if doing so would fundamentally alter the nature of the law enforcement activity in question or if it would cause an undue administrative or financial burden. Only the Agency head or the Agency head's designee may make this determination.
- J. The input of people who are deaf or hard of hearing who are involved in incidents is just as important to the law enforcement process as the input of others. Officers must not draw conclusions about incidents unless they fully understand -- and are understood by -- all those involved, including persons who are deaf or hard of hearing.
- K. People who are deaf or hard of hearing must never be charged for the cost of an auxiliary aid or service needed for effective communication.

IV. ARREST SITUATIONS

- A. Recognizing that some persons need their hands free in order to communicate, unless absolutely necessary for the safety of officers or others, the use of handcuffs shall be avoided if possible. If handcuffs are required, all essential communication with the suspect should be completed prior to their application if possible.
- B. Deaf persons and persons who have severe hearing impairments often have reduced verbal communication skills, speech that may be incoherent or otherwise resemble that of an individual who is intoxicated, and difficulty with equilibrium. As such, officers shall avoid administering standard field sobriety tests to such persons. Intoxilyzer, blood alcohol, or horizontal gaze nystagmus should be employed as alternative tests.

- C. Some deaf and hearing-impaired persons have limited written language skills, particularly involving difficult matters such as legal warnings and admonitions. Therefore, officers shall not assume the effectiveness of this form of communication and should gain confirmation of a person's understanding whenever possible.
- D. Officers shall ensure that deaf and hearing-impaired persons who are arrested and transported to a booking site have their communication devices with them.

V. TECHNIQUES FOR OFFICERS TO COMMUNICATE EFFECTIVELY

Officers must review and have a working knowledge of Guide for Law Enforcement Officers When In Contact With People Who Are Deaf or Hard of Hearing. This document reviews how officers should communicate effectively in the types of situations officers will encounter. These situations include:

1. Issuing a non-criminal or motor vehicle citation.
2. Communicating with a person who initiates contact with an officer.
3. Interviewing a victim or critical witness to an incident.
4. Questioning a person who is a suspect in a crime.
5. Making an arrest or taking a person into custody.
6. Issuing Miranda Warnings to a person under arrest or in custody.
7. Interviewing a person under arrest or in custody.

Citizen or Media Recording of Police Incident

I. POLICY

It is the policy of the Bastrop ISD Police Department that the seizure and searching of portable video and photo recording devices shall be governed by Constitutional and statutory laws as well as Departmental Investigatory Policies.

II. PURPOSE

To establish guidelines and procedures for investigation, seizure and searching of portable video and photo recording devices which contain data of evidentiary value pertaining to a criminal act.

III. PROCEDURES

A. General

1. The Department recognizes that the taking of photographs and/or videos by private citizens and media personnel is permitted within areas open to general public access and occupancy.
2. Civilians may video record or photograph a police employee's activities as long as they:
  - a. Remain at a reasonable distance;
  - b. Do not interfere with the employee's duties and responsibilities;
  - c. Do not create a safety concern for the employee, person detained, or other persons.

B. Non-Sworn Employees

1. Non-sworn employees are prohibited from seizing a person's portable video and photo recording devices.

C. Initial Stop of an Individual (Non-Media Photographer/Videographer)

1. When a sworn employee stops an individual who is reasonably believed to have recorded/captured data of evidentiary value pertaining to a criminal act the employee shall:
  - a. Announce the employee's authority and identity;
    - i. Non-uniform sworn employees shall identify themselves by prominently displaying Departmental credentials;
  - b. Advise the individual of the purpose of the stop;
  - c. Ask the individual whether the individual recorded/captured data relevant to the incident;
  - d. Request the individual provide personal identification and contact information;
  - e. The stop shall last no longer than necessary to affect its purpose. Brevity is important in determining whether or not a stop is reasonable. A prolonged stop may be warranted if the employee reasonably and diligently pursues investigative means to determine whether the person possesses data that may have evidentiary value and to confirm the person's identity.

D. Consent to Search and/or Seize Portable Video and Photo Recording Devices of an Individual (Non-Media Photographer/Videographer)

1. Sworn employees may ask an individual for consent to a search and/or seizure of a portable photo and/or video recording device to determine if data of evidentiary value pertaining to a criminal act is present.

2. The employee's supervisor shall be notified immediately after any seizure and prior to any search of the device.
3. The supervisor shall determine whether an immediate search is warranted or a Detective should respond.
4. If a consensual seizure occurs, the property shall be inventoried and documented by the seizing sworn employee pursuant to "Chapter 16 – Property and Evidence."
5. Authorization to search the device shall be documented by the seizing sworn employee on a "Consent to Search Form."
6. The seizing sworn employee shall accurately and completely document the basis for the seizure and findings of the search in a "Case Report/Offense Incident Report."

E. Non-consensual Seizure of Portable Video and Photo Recording Devices of an Individual (Non-Media Photographer/Videographer)

1. When there is probable cause to believe that the portable video and/or photo recording device depicts visual and/or audio items pertaining to a criminal act the device may be seized without consent if exigent circumstances exist.
2. The most common type of exigent circumstance is the imminent destruction of evidence. Two requirements must be met for this exigency to exist:
  - a. Sworn employees must have probable cause to believe destructible evidence exists;
  - b. Sworn employees must have reason to believe the evidence might be destroyed if they delay taking action until a subpoena/search warrant is issued.
3. The sworn employee's supervisor shall be notified immediately after any seizure and the supervisor shall respond to the scene.

4. No search of the device shall be conducted until a subpoena/search warrant is issued unless there is reason to believe that the immediate search of such materials is necessary to prevent the death of, or serious bodily injury to, a human being.
5. An on-duty or on-call Detective shall be notified of the seizure, and shall be responsible for preparation of an application for subpoena/search warrant.
6. A sworn employee's response to an individual's resistance to a non-consensual seizure shall be in compliance with "Chapter 11 – Use of Force."
7. The seizing sworn employee shall accurately and completely document the basis for the seizure in a "Case Report/Offense Incident Report."
8. If a non-consensual seizure occurs, the property shall be inventoried and documented by the seizing sworn employee pursuant to "Chapter 16- Property and Evidence."

F. Initial Stop of Media Personnel

1. When a sworn employee stops a media photographer/videographer who is believed to have recorded/captured data of evidentiary value pertaining to a criminal act the sworn employee shall:
  - a. Announce the employee's authority and identity;
  - b. Non-uniform sworn employees shall identify themselves by prominently displaying Departmental credentials;
  - c. Advise the media person of the purpose of the stop;
  - d. Ask the media person whether the person recorded/captured data relevant to the incident;
  - e. If the media person acknowledges recording/capturing relevant data and agrees to allow review and/or supply a copy to the Department, the sworn employee shall:

- i. Immediately notify the employee's supervisor or the Chief of Police;
  - ii. Collect and document receipt of the data pursuant to "Chapter 16 – Property and Evidence."
  - iii. Document the request and response on a "Case Report/Offense Incident Report."
- f. If the media person acknowledges recording/capturing relevant data and refuses to allow review and/or provide a copy of the recorded/captured relevant data or refuses to state whether the person recorded/captured relevant data, the sworn employee shall:
  - i. Immediately notify the employee's supervisor and the Chief of Police;
  - ii. Instruct the media person not to destroy, alter or delete the recorded/captured relevant data;
  - iii. Document the request and refusal on a "Case Report/Offense Incident Report";
  - iv. Assist the Detective to prepare appropriate subpoena and/or warrant documents for production of the requested data.
  - v. Request the media person provide personal identification, media credentials, and contact information.
- g. The stop shall last no longer than necessary to affect its purpose. Brevity is important in determining whether or not a stop is reasonable. A prolonged stop may be warranted if the employee reasonably and diligently pursues investigative means to determine whether the person possesses data that may have evidentiary value and to confirm the person's identity.

2. Sworn employees shall not seize portable video and photo recording devices from media personnel unless they are under arrest or otherwise directly involved in the criminal act.
3. A warrantless search of portable video and/or photo recording devices seized incident to the direct involvement or arrest of media personnel is prohibited unless there is reason to believe that the immediate search of such materials is necessary to prevent the death of, or serious bodily injury to, a human being.

G. Supervisory Notification

1. The employee's supervisor shall be notified immediately after the seizure of a portable video and/or recording device, whether consensual or non-consensual, and advised of:
  - a. The totality of the circumstances surrounding the stop and seizure;
  - b. The type of device seized;
  - c. The status of the person from whom the device was seized (e.g. detained, arrested, etc.).

H. Supervisor's Responsibilities

1. The Supervisor shall:
  - a. Immediately respond to the scene;
  - b. Ensure the totality of the circumstances surrounding the stop and seizure as conveyed by the sworn employee are warranted, appropriate and in compliance with this General Order and the Department's SOP. If the supervisor determines the stop and seizure is appropriate, the supervisor shall determine whether an immediate search of the portable video and/or photo recording device by the sworn employee is warranted.
  - c. If the supervisor determines that the seizure is not appropriate, the supervisor will ensure that:

- d. The portable video and/or photo recording device is immediately returned and the person detained is made whole;
- e. The supervisor shall document these findings in a “Case Supplemental Report/Supplemental Report;”
- f. Ensure that the seizing sworn employee documents the circumstances and actions taken on a “Case Report/Offense Incident Report;”
- g. Ensure that all required documentation is completed;
- h. Ensure that proper evidence handling protocols are followed;
- i. Ensure that the Detective has been notified;
- j. Ensure that a “Use of Force Report” is completed if necessary;
- k. Ensure that any questions or concerns regarding the appropriateness of the stop and/or seizure shall be immediately directed to the next supervisory level in the chain-of-command;
- l. Ensure that the Public Information Office is notified, if necessary.

I. Impounding of Property

1. Whenever a sworn employee impounds any portable video or photo recording device, the employee shall complete a “Property Receipt Form” and mark the evidence type as “Investigatory Evidence.”

J. Prohibited Actions

1. Employees shall not order or participate in the destruction of portable video and photo recording devices.

2. Employees shall not order or participate in the erasure, deletion or destruction of digital, analog or film evidence.
3. Employees shall not impede a person's right to photograph or video record an event unless that person's actions:
  - a. Endanger the safety of the public, employees or property;
  - b. Interfere with an active crime scene; or
  - c. Create a reasonable safety concern.

K. Statutory Limitations and Liability

1. Pursuant to federal statute, 42 USC Section 2000aa-6, it is unlawful for a sworn officer or employee, in connection with an investigation or prosecution of a criminal offense, to search for or seize the work product of a media photographer/videographer, unless:
  - a. There is reason to believe that the immediate seizure of such materials is necessary to prevent the death of, or serious bodily injury to, a human being; or
  - b. There is probable cause to believe that the person possessing such materials has committed or is committing the criminal offense to which the materials relate.
  - c. A search or seizure of the work product is prohibited when the offense is merely the withholding of such material.
2. Sworn officers and employees may be held personally liable in an action for civil damages for violation of federal statute, 42 USC Section 2000aa-6.

Civilian Ride Along

I. POLICY

The observer program allows citizens to voluntarily accompany officers and to observe law enforcement activities to better understand the problems of policing. The observer may request to ride in any area at any time or with a particular officer. If convenient to the department and conditions permit, permission may be granted. Safety of non-police personnel shall be the primary concern.

II. PURPOSE

To establish guidelines and procedures for persons, sworn and non-sworn, riding in a Bastrop ISD Police Department vehicle.

III. PERSONS AUTHORIZED TO RIDE

- A. Persons authorized to ride without the Bastrop ISD Police Department Release of Claims:
1. Bastrop ISD Police Department Police Officers who are off-duty;
  2. Bastrop ISD Police Department "Other" Officers;
  3. Any person riding for the furtherance of an official police duty; i.e., prisoners, witnesses, victims, etc.
  4. To courteously serve the public, citizens in need of assistance of a non-official capacity, upon approval of a supervisor, may be transported to a reasonable location within the District;
  5. Active duty and reserve duty officers of other agencies in the performance of official duties; and

6. Non-sworn Bastrop ISD Police Department employees in the performance of official police duties.
- B. Persons authorized to ride upon execution of a Bastrop ISD Police Department Release of Claims:
1. Off-duty peace officers from other agencies;
  2. News media, upon written approval of the Chief of Police; and
  3. Any other person, upon written approval of the Chief of Police.

IV. GUIDELINES FOR PERSONS RIDING ON A RELEASE OF CLAIMS

- A. Request
1. Persons who are eighteen (18) years of age or older and wish to ride in a Bastrop ISD Police Department police unit must complete and submit the Bastrop ISD Police Department Rider Information Form and the Release of Claims Form.
  2. The Rider Information Form and the Release of Claims Form shall be submitted to a Sergeant or Chief of Police during normal business hours and must allow a minimum of twenty-four (24) hours advance notice.
  3. At the discretion of the Chief of Police, this requirement may be waived in the case of full-time off-duty peace officers from other agencies.
- B. Process Written Request/Release of Claim
1. The written request form, which includes the Release of Claims Form, will be utilized to evaluate the need for the person to ride and to screen the rider to insure that the person does not have an unacceptable criminal record and/or outstanding warrants. (The people requesting to ride must never have been convicted of a felony or any offense involving moral turpitude).
  2. The record and warrant check, when completed, will be attached to the written request form.

3. Once the written request form has been approved by the Chief of Police or the Chief's designee, the approved time period by which the citizen may ride will be documented on the form.
4. The approved rider will be notified and given a copy of the written request form and a copy of the citizen observer instructions and rules. The approved rider must present the rider's copy of the written request form and a photo I.D. to the on-duty supervisor who accommodates the rider's request for an observation ride.
5. The written request form and all record/warrant checks will be maintained in the office of the Chief of Police in a designated file.
6. Only one rider will be allowed to ride during each shift.
7. Citizen observers will normally be allowed to ride four times per year, unless otherwise approved by the Chief of Police. (The Chief's office shall maintain accurate records indicating the number of times each citizen observer rides in each calendar year.)
8. Citizen observers will normally ride for a four (4) hour period, unless circumstances justify otherwise. Additional time may be approved by the supervisor on the shift to which the rider has been assigned.

C. Dress and Grooming Standards

1. Observers in the Ride-Along Program must dress and groom themselves in an appropriate and business-like manner. The on-duty supervisor or designee will make final approval of the observer's dress and appearance while riding in a police vehicle.
2. Minimum requirements consist of slacks or dress jeans and a collared shirt for males, slacks or dress jeans and blouse for females. T-shirts, tattered or unsightly blue jeans are not considered to be acceptable attire.
3. Riders will be clean and neat in appearance; hair will be neatly groomed at all times without presenting a ragged, unkempt, bushy or extreme appearance.
4. No observers shall wear on their clothing anything that advertises any product, business, or organization nor shall they wear any sign, logo, symbol, or word(s) that are inflammatory in nature.

5. Off-duty officers from other law enforcement agencies may not wear their agency's uniform when off-duty and riding, and must adhere to the specified attire and grooming standards. If a weapon is to be exposed, the off-duty officer's badge shall be displayed in a prominent manner.
- D. Citizen Observer Instructions/Rules - Observers in the Ride-Along Program are guests of the Bastrop ISD Police Department and shall conduct themselves in an appropriate manner. Observers will:
1. Not use alcoholic beverages immediately prior to or during the watch in which they are authorized to ride;
  2. Not use profane or abusive language or behave in any manner that would provoke or escalate tension;
  3. Not enter into any investigation or converse with any citizen, witness or prisoner concerning a police incident or investigation;
  4. Not make known to unauthorized persons the identity of persons arrested, detained, confined in jail or suspected of an offense;
  5. Not operate or use any police equipment or vehicle, or any item in police custody or control, except during the case of an extreme emergency when instructed to do so by a police officer;
  6. Not carry a firearm (unless they are commissioned peace officers) or convey the impression to anyone that they are peace officers;
  7. Remain in the police vehicle during routine traffic stops and disturbance calls of serious nature. They shall not enter a residence, building or other building, public or private, from which the public would be excluded due to a police incident or by the owner of the property; and
  8. Obey without question any instructions in the furtherance of the police missions given by a police officer.

V. RESPONSIBILITY OF BASTROP ISD POLICE OFFICERS

- A. It will be the responsibility of the patrol officer who is assigned a rider to advise dispatch of the citizen observer. Each officer shall insure that all precautions are taken for the safety of the rider.

- B. For the safety of citizen observers, an officer may, under certain circumstances, determine that the observer's presence at a scene is not advisable. In such cases, the officer may leave the citizen observer at a safe location within Bastrop ISD. If for any reason the observer must be left for a long duration, another officer or Bastrop ISD employee will be notified and the rider picked up.
- C. Officers will immediately report to their supervisors any interference with their duties or willful non-compliance with instructions, rules or regulations on the part of observers.
- D. Any supervisor, using discretion, may cause or permit termination of the privilege of an observer to ride along when the effectiveness of the police mission and/or police operations is deterred. The supervisor terminating the privilege shall submit a memorandum to the Chief of Police citing the reason for termination.
- E. Officers will immediately notify their supervisor if any observer is injured while riding and will submit a written report of the incident to the Chief of Police.

VI. EFFECTIVE DATE

- A. Any previous directive, rule, order or regulation that pertains to this subject matter and its amendments shall remain in full force and effect for any violations which occur prior to the effective date of this Order.
- B. If any section, sentence, clause or phrase of this Order is, for any reason, held to be invalid, such decision shall not affect the validity of the remaining portions of this Order.
- C. The effective date is stated in the header block of this General Order.

	Subject: Communicable Diseases	Issue Date: 11/30/2015
	Chapter: 23	Revision Date: 06/01/2020
	Policy: 23.1	Total Pages: 14

Communicable Diseases

I. POLICY

The Bastrop ISD Police Department bears an obligation to the public and to its own personnel to increase awareness about risks, modes of transmission and procedures for handling communicable diseases such as hepatitis B, tuberculosis, HIV (Human Immunodeficiency Virus) and AIDS (Acquired Immune Deficiency Syndrome) and AIDS-related infections.

Officers cannot refuse to work with or handle anyone--victim, complainant, or suspect--because of the officers' fears of possible infection. Personnel shall not refuse to arrest or otherwise refuse to handle any person in a legitimate law-enforcement context provided that appropriate protective equipment is available. The measures provided herein will assist officers in carrying out their duties while simultaneously minimizing health risks. Officers shall act responsibly in minimizing the risk of infection when dealing with any person regardless of gender identity, race, or age or with any body fluids. A few simple precautions, however, will avoid the risk of infection almost entirely.

The department shall provide employees with information and education on prevention of communicable diseases, as well as safety equipment and procedures to minimize their risks of exposure. The department has instituted post-exposure reporting, evaluation and treatment for all members exposed to communicable diseases.

II. PURPOSE

The purpose of this order is to establish guidelines and procedures to be followed when a member of the department is exposed to a communicable disease with a risk of major illness or death and for handling of evidence or property that may be contaminated.

III. DEFINITIONS

A. Communicable disease

An infectious disease capable of being passed to another by contact with an infected person or the person's body fluids or on an object.

B. HIV (Human Immunodeficiency Virus)

The virus that causes AIDS. HIV infects and destroys certain white blood cells, undermining the body's ability to combat infection. (Also named HTLV-III or LAV). Technically speaking, this general order aims to reduce the chance of HIV transmission, the virus that causes AIDS. HIV is transmitted through very specific body fluids, including blood, semen, vaginal fluids and breast milk.

C. ARC (AIDS-Related Complex)

A condition caused by the aids virus (HIV) and has a specific set of symptoms. Such symptoms include persistent fever, weight loss, skin rashes, diarrhea, and swollen lymph nodes. Although these symptoms may be debilitating, they are generally not life-threatening.

D. AIDS (Acquired Immune Deficiency Syndrome)

A blood borne and sexually transmitted disease that attacks and destroys the body's immune system. It makes people susceptible to infections, malignancies and diseases not generally life-threatening to persons with normal immune systems. AIDS also causes disorders of the central nervous system. There is no vaccine against the virus. Personnel are advised that AIDS is not transmitted through any of the following (according to the Centers for Disease Control):

- a. Sneezing, coughing, spitting.
- b. Handshakes, hugging or other nonsexual physical contact.
- c. Toilet seats, bathtubs or showers.
- d. Various utensils, dishes or linens used by persons with AIDS.
- e. Articles worn or handled by persons with AIDS, i.e., doorknobs, pens or cups.

- f. Being near someone with AIDS frequently or over a long period of time.
- g. Riding the same transportation.
- h. Eating in the same public place with an AIDS-infected person.
- i. Working in the same office.

E. Seropositivity

Refers to a person having antibodies to HIV, meaning that infection has occurred at some time in the past. A seropositive person can be infected with HIV for years without ever developing symptoms of AIDS. Infected persons can transmit the virus even though they may not have symptoms of AIDS.

F. Hepatitis B (HBV)

A viral infection that can result in jaundice, cirrhosis and sometimes, cancer of the liver. The virus is transmitted through exposure to blood, semen, vaginal secretions, breast milk and possibly saliva. Two vaccines are currently available against hepatitis B [Recombivax (synthetic) or Heptivax (serum derived)].

G. Tuberculosis

A bacterial disease that can be transmitted through saliva, urine, blood and other body fluids by persons infected with it. Tuberculosis is spread primarily by inhaling airborne droplets from infected coughing people. It can enter the body through infected mucous on the skin (as from coughing or sneezing) or from droplets that are inhaled. It is an airborne, opportunistic disease and it primarily causes lung infection. Although no vaccine against tuberculosis exists, medications are available to treat the disease.

H. Exposure control program

A written agency plan, available to all employees, which details the steps taken to eliminate or minimize exposure incidents and identifies at-risk tasks and assignments.

I. Personal protective equipment (PPE)

Specialized clothing or equipment worn or used by employees for protection against infection. PPE does not include uniforms or work clothes without special protective qualities.

J. Universal precautions

Controls or procedures advised by the Centers for Disease Control (CDC) that emphasize precautions based on the assumption that blood and body fluids are potentially infectious.

IV. GENERAL RESPONSIBILITIES

A. The Chief of Police shall ensure that adequate supplies are available for communicable disease control within the department. Supervisors are responsible for maintaining continuously an adequate supply of Personal Protective supplies for all affected personnel within their purview. Further, supervisors must ensure that:

1. Personal protective equipment and supplies (PPE) can be found in sufficient quantities at advertised locations.
2. Hypoallergenic gloves and other materials are available for employees allergic to standard-issue gear.
3. Supplies are routinely inspected, replaced and cleaned.
4. First Aid supplies and disinfectants are always available.

B. Officers using supplies in their vehicles shall replace these supplies or arrange to have them replaced as soon as possible. Officers shall maintain disposable gloves in their personal possession at all times.

C. Personnel shall use protective equipment under all appropriate circumstances unless the officer can justify otherwise.

Officers who, for whatever reason, do not use protective gear when appropriate shall document the incident as soon as practicable for department review.

D. All personnel whose skin comes into contact with body fluids of another shall begin disinfection procedures immediately: these procedures range from simple soap-and-water washing to the use of alcohol or antiseptic towelettes. All open cuts and abrasions shall be covered with waterproof bandages before personnel report for duty.

V. GENERAL PRECAUTIONS

A. General

Whenever possible, officers shall wear disposable latex gloves when doing any of the following:

1. Handling persons or items with any blood or body fluid products (hypodermic needles, syringes or surfaces soiled with blood or body fluids, gun or knife wounds).
2. Packaging and handling such items as evidence.
3. Cleaning up blood or other secretions which appear on floors, seats, equipment, handcuffs, shoes, clothing, pens, pencils, etc.

B. Specialized devices

1. Masks shall be worn whenever splashes, spray, spatter or droplets of potentially infectious fluids endanger contamination through the eyes, nose or mouth. Masks may be worn with other protective devices such as goggles. Gowns, jackets, coats, aprons or coveralls shall be worn as determined by the degree of exposure anticipated.
2. Bastrop Fire Department personnel have access to complete bio-hazard suits and equipment if needed. (TBP: 8.10)

C. Handling people

1. Wash hands thoroughly for thirty seconds with warm water and soap after removing gloves (when handling evidence) or after contact with the subject (if bleeding or vomiting). If water is unavailable, use pre-moistened towelettes found in the communicable disease control kit to decontaminate skin.
2. Penetration resistant gloves or their equivalent shall be worn when searching persons or dealing in environments, such as accident scenes, where sharp objects and bodily fluids may reasonably be encountered. Search techniques shall be used that require suspects to empty their own pockets or purses and remove sharp objects from their persons.

3. When transporting prisoners do not put fingers in or near any person's mouth.
4. Transport persons with body fluids on their persons in separate vehicles from other persons. A person who is bleeding or producing a fluid may have to wear a protective covering.
5. Notify other support personnel or law-enforcement officers during a transfer of custody that the suspect has fluids on the suspect's person, or that the suspect has stated that the suspect has a communicable disease. Booking forms should so state.

D. Handling objects

1. Objects contaminated with body fluids shall be completely dried, double bagged, and marked to identify possible disease contamination.
2. Contaminated items to be disposed of shall be placed in Biohazard bags and sealed.
3. Officers shall use extra care when handling any sharp objects. If officers find syringes, they shall not bend, recap, or otherwise manipulate the needles in any way, but shall place the syringes in puncture-resistant containers provided by the department.

E. Handling fluids

1. Clean up blood spills or other body fluids with regular household bleach diluted 1 part bleach to 10 parts water (or use undiluted bleach, if easier). Bleach dilutions should be prepared at least every 24 hours to retain effectiveness.
2. Wear latex gloves during this procedure.
3. A soiled uniform (by blood or body fluids) should be changed as soon as possible. Wash in hot water and detergent or Dry Clean. If Dry Cleaning, advise the Dry Cleaner staff of the biohazard.
4. Departmental vehicles within which body fluids are spilled require immediate disinfection procedures. Employees who have the vehicles assigned to them shall notify their supervisor of the spill and arrange for a thorough cleaning as soon as possible.

5. All police vehicles will be cleaned with disinfectant as part of a routine, scheduled washing and maintenance check.

F. Precautions when bitten

The danger of infection through bites is low. The victim cannot be infected with HIV through the blood of the biting person unless that person has blood in the person's mouth which comes into contact with the victim's blood. HIV cannot be transmitted through saliva. With HBV, however, transmission takes place through infected blood or blood-derived body fluids. Infection takes place by exposure of the eyes, mouth or mucous membranes to the virus. Precautionary procedures to minimize the risk of infection include:

1. Encouraging the wound to bleed by applying pressure and gently "milking" the wound.
2. Washing the area thoroughly with soap and hot running water.
3. Seeking medical attention at the nearest hospital (if the skin is broken).
4. Advising your supervisor, make a report, or follow any other policy for reporting injuries, including the filing of appropriate Worker's Compensation forms.

G. Precautions when punctured by needles or knives

If an officer is cut or punctured by a needle or a knife or other instrument while searching a suspect or handling contaminated evidence, follow these general guidelines:

1. Allow the wound to bleed (unless severe bleeding occurs) until all flow ceases. Then cleanse the wound with an alcohol-based cleanser (or pre-moistened towelettes) and then with soap and water. Do not rely exclusively on towelettes: wash wounds thoroughly with soap and water.
2. Seek medical attention as soon as possible after the injury. A physician will then decide the proper treatment.

3. Advise your supervisor, make a report, or follow any other policy for reporting injuries, including the filing of appropriate Worker's Compensation forms.

H. Precautions at major crime scenes

1. At the crime scene, officers and crime scene technicians confront unusual hazards, especially when the crime scene involves violent behavior such as homicides where large amounts of blood have been shed.
  - a. No person at any crime scene shall eat, drink or smoke due to the potential hazard.
  - b. The best protection is to wear disposable latex gloves. Any person with a cut, abrasion or any other break in the skin on the hands should never handle blood or other body fluids without protection. Officers shall carry latex gloves on their persons at all times.
  - c. Latex gloves should be changed when they become torn or heavily soiled or if an officer leaves the crime scene (even temporarily).
  - d. If cotton gloves are worn when working with items having potential latent fingerprint value, wear cotton gloves over latex gloves.
  - e. Hands should be washed after gloves are removed, even if the gloves appear to be intact. Officers shall take care to avoid contact between skin and soiled gloves.
  - f. Always keep a plastic bag in the communicable disease control kit to be used only to collect contaminated items (gloves, masks, etc.) until the items can be disposed of properly. Clearly mark the bag "Contaminated Material."
  - g. Shoes and boots can become contaminated with blood. Wash with soap and water when leaving the crime scene or use protective disposable shoe coverings.
  - h. Wrap-around eye safety goggles and face masks should be worn when the possibility exists that dried or liquid particles of body fluids may strike the face. Particles of dried blood, when scraped, fly in many directions, so wear goggles and masks when removing the stain for laboratory analysis.

- i. Crime scene search personnel will wear full coveralls, protective goggles, shoe covers, gloves and particulate masks when entering a crime scene where large amounts of blood or other body fluids are expected.
2. While processing the crime scene, be constantly on the alert for sharp objects, such as hypodermic needles, razors, knives, broken glass, nails, etc. Use of mirrors may be appropriate while looking under car seats, beds, etc.
3. Use tape--never metal staples--when packaging evidence.
4. If practicable, use only disposable items at a crime scene where blood or other body fluids are present.
5. Before releasing the crime scene, advise the owner of the potential infection risk and suggest that the owner contact the local health department for advice.
6. Warning labels must be placed on all plastic evidence bags to go to the crime laboratory.

VI. VACCINATIONS

The department affords all employees who have occupational exposure to hepatitis B the opportunity to take the HBV vaccination series at no cost within 10 working days of assignment to an occupationally exposed duty. The vaccination shall be provided only after the employee has received departmental training in communicable diseases, is medically fit for the vaccinations, and has not previously received the vaccinations.

VII. OCCUPATIONAL EXPOSURE TO COMMUNICABLE DISEASES

A. Notification

1. As soon as practicable, all employees shall document possible exposure to infectious fluids or materials. In any case, employees shall immediately notify their supervisor of possible exposure.

2. Examples of such exposure include:

- a. Direct contact with body fluids on chapped or open areas (cuts, scratches) on the skin or on mucous membranes (i.e., eyes, mouth).
- b. Direct mouth-to-mouth resuscitation (CPR) without use of a one-way valve.
- c. Receiving a cut or puncture wound as a result of searching or arresting a suspect or handling contaminated evidence.

B. Testing

1. If a member of the department is exposed to the body fluids of a person who has or is suspected to have a communicable disease, the member must be evaluated for evidence of infection by the department physician.
  - a. The person whose body fluids came into contact with an officer may state that the person has AIDS. Often a person may try to prevent police from withdrawing blood for drug screening (as in a DWI arrest), when in fact the person is not infected at all. While the department cannot coerce an individual--suspect or otherwise--to take periodic tests for infection, the department shall try to convince the subject who may have transmitted infection to do so.
  - b. HSC 81.050 states that if any person or employee has been exposed to body fluids, the person or employee whose fluids were involved will be requested by the agency to consent to HBV or HIV testing and disclosure of results.
  - c. CCP 21.31 provides measures whereby a person charged with any crime involving sexual assault, or particular offenses against children, may be ordered to submit to HIV testing.
  - d. Personnel should understand the difficulty of transmitting HIV and hepatitis B. If infection control measures have been followed, the risk is very low.

C. Testing for presence of infection shall be done if indicated by a medical assessment (after an incident involving the possible transfer of blood or other body fluids). The following information details testing methods and their reliability.

1. AIDS/ARC/HIV

- a. Blood tests can detect HIV antibodies (produced by the body's immune system).
- b. The two common tests for HIV antibodies are the ELISA (Enzyme-Linked Immunosorbent Assay) and the Western Blot. Since the ELISA is less expensive and easier to perform, it is usually used as a first screen for HIV. If the ELISA identifies the person as seropositive, a second ELISA is performed. If the second test is also positive, a Western Blot is usually performed to confirm the results.
- c. Since HIV antibodies may not develop for some months after a person has been infected, an initial negative result may not mean freedom from infection. Typically, three to six months elapse following an infection for a positive reaction to occur. High false positive rates also occur with the use of only ELISA tests.
- d. One must be tested, then, immediately following the incident (for a baseline) and then six and twelve months later.

2. Hepatitis B

A blood test can confirm the presence of hepatitis B virus six to eight weeks after exposure. Note that different tests exist for hepatitis B depending on the reason for testing.

3. Tuberculosis

- a. This disease is detected first by a skin test, and then confirmed by an x-ray. The department physician can order this test for the department employee.

D. Confidentiality

1. Confidentiality of information concerning test results is paramount. The victim has a right to privacy in employer-maintained information about the victim's health. No need exists for a supervisor routinely to know that a person tests positive (for HIV or hepatitis B). The department views a breach of confidentiality as a serious disciplinary problem which may result in suspension or termination of employment.
2. Under most circumstances, medical authorities will retain confidential records unless the employee tested requests it or state law requires it.

E. Positive test results

1. Any person who tests positive for HIV or hepatitis B shall not be summarily removed from duty. The department shall make no restrictions simply because of diagnosis. These diseases are not spread by casual contact (as between co-workers in the department). The department shall alter an employee's assignment only when the employee can no longer perform the required duties.
2. The department shall ensure continued testing of members for evidence of infection and shall provide psychological counseling if necessary.
3. Any person who tests positive for tuberculosis may be restricted from working for a period of time. The medical evaluation will determine the stage and type of disease the person has contracted and if the person is contagious. A tuberculosis-infected person requires medication and shall not return to work until the doctor says the person is non-communicable. (Tuberculosis is easily transmitted and its incidence in Virginia has recently shown a slight increase. After exposure to tuberculosis, a person may take medicine to help prevent the disease after a medical evaluation.)

F. Job performance

1. Infected employees shall continue working as long as they maintain acceptable performance and do not pose a safety or health threat to themselves or others in the department.
2. Where feasible, an employee who has medical complications from a communicable disease will either be reassigned to another job or have the job restructured so that the employee can remain employed.

As necessary, medical documentation shall support requests for job restructure or reassignment. All personnel shall treat such employees in the same manner as employees who suffer from other serious diseases or handicaps: that is, fairly, courteously and with dignity.

The department may require an employee to be examined by the department physician to determine if the employee is able to perform assigned duties without hazard to the employee or others.

G. Discrimination

The department expects all personnel to continue working relationships with any fellow employee recognized as having AIDS/ARC, hepatitis B, or non-communicable tuberculosis. The department will consider appropriate corrective or disciplinary action against an employee who threatens or refuses to work with an infected employee or who disrupts the department's mission.

H. Records

The agency maintains a record for each employee detailing incidents of occupational exposure, including information on vaccination status; the results of examinations and tests; health care professionals' written opinion; and any other relevant information. These records are retained by the Chief in secure storage for the duration of tenure of employment, and shall not be disclosed or reported without the express written consent of the employee.

VIII. TRAINING

- A. The training officer shall ensure that all members of the agency receive a course of instruction on blood borne diseases and the use of Personal Protective Equipment before their initial assignment. Further, each affected employee will receive annual refresher training plus any additional training appropriate to the particular employee assignment.
- B. The training officer shall retain complete records on instruction of employees to include dates of training; content of sessions; names and qualifications of trainers; names and job titles of attending employees.

C. The training officer is responsible for dissemination of updated information to all personnel and for appropriate educational programs about communicable diseases. These programs shall include at a minimum:

1. Written information concerning AIDS/ARC/HIV, hepatitis B, and tuberculosis in the form of brochures, bulletins, memorandums or fact sheets.
2. Group and/or individual presentations and discussions provided by adequately trained personnel or experts from outside the department.
3. Local resources for further medical and law-enforcement information.

IX. AIDS-RELATED CONCERNS OF PERSONNEL

ISSUE	INFORMATION
Human Bites	A person who bites is typically the one who gets the blood; viral transmission through saliva is highly unlikely. If bitten by anyone, gently milk the wound to make it bleed, wash the area and seek medical attention.
Spitting	Viral transmission through saliva is highly unlikely.
Urine/feces	Virus isolated in only very low concentrations in urine; not at all in feces; no cases of AIDS or HIV infection associated with either urine or feces.
CPR/first aid	To eliminate the already minimal risk associated with CPR, use masks/airways; avoid blood-to-blood contact by keeping open wounds covered and wearing gloves when in contact with bleeding wounds.

Body removal	Observe crime scene rule: do not touch anything; those who must come into contact with blood or other body fluids should wear gloves.
Casual contact	No cases of AIDS or HIV infection attributed to casual contact.
Any contact with blood or body fluids	Wash thoroughly with soap and water; clean up spills with 1:10 solution of household bleach.

LINE-OF-DUTY DEATHS

I. POLICY

It is the policy of this agency to provide liaison assistance to the immediate survivors of an active duty officer who dies in the line of duty and to provide tangible and emotional support during this traumatic period of readjustment for the surviving family.

Civil Disturbances and Mass Alerts

I. POLICY

How law enforcement officers deal with crowds in civil actions, whether in demonstrations or civil disturbances, has direct bearing on their ability to prevent property damage, injury or loss of life and minimize disruption to persons who are uninvolved. Officers confronting civil disturbances and those called upon to assist in these incidents shall follow the procedures as enumerated in this policy to protect life, property and First Amendment rights.

In rare circumstances resulting from man-made or natural emergencies and in widespread highly volatile civil unrest with the potential for widespread violence, the incident commander shall temporarily suspend any policy, provision or guideline contained herein when such action is determined to be the only reasonable alternative for the prevention of loss of life or major property damage.

II. PURPOSE

The purpose of this policy to establish guidelines for managing crowds and preserving the peace during demonstrations and civil disturbances.

III. DEFINITIONS

- A. Civil Disturbance: An unlawful assembly, as defined by state statutes and local ordinances. Normally, a gathering that constitutes a breach of the peace or any assembly of persons where there is a threat of collective violence, destruction of property or other unlawful acts. These are typically, but not always, spontaneous occurrences requiring the emergency mobilization of police forces and related emergency services.
- B. Demonstration: A legal assembly of persons organized primarily to express political or other doctrine or views. These are typically scheduled events that allow for police planning. They include but are not limited to marches, protests, and other assemblies that are largely designed to attract the attention of onlookers, media, and others. Demonstrations can evolve into civil disturbances that necessitate enforcement actions. Although crowd control may be necessary at sporting events, festivals, concerts, celebratory gatherings, and related events, these are not defined as demonstrations.

- C. Crowd Control: Techniques used to address unlawful public assemblies, to include a show of force, crowd containment and dispersal equipment and strategies and preparations for multiple arrests.
- D. Crowd Management: Techniques used to manage lawful assemblies before, during, and after the event for the purpose of maintaining their lawful status as accomplished through event planning, pre-event contact with group leaders, issuance of permits, intelligence gathering, personnel training, and other means.
- E. Skip-Fired Projectiles: Weapons that are discharged toward the ground in front of a target in order to bounce to the target.

IV. PROCEDURES

A. General Management and Organization Principles

1. By law, this jurisdiction may impose reasonable restrictions on the time, place and manner of expressing First Amendment rights. This department shall place only those limitations and restrictions on demonstrations necessary to maintain public safety and order and, to the degree possible, allow uninhibited commerce and freedom of movement for uninvolved persons.
2. The on duty supervisor will assume the role of incident commander (IC) at the scene of mass demonstrations and civil disturbances until relieved by a higher ranking supervisor or the Chief of Police.
3. The commander of Special Response Team (SRT) shall be responsible for preparing any tactical plans and management details associated with planned demonstrations.

4. If at all possible, a member of the department should be detailed to conduct video recording of the incident and departmental response to include any interactions involving use of force.
5. The incident command system shall be used in crowd management and civil disturbances to ensure control and unified command. The IC shall do the following:
  - a. Assume responsibility for issuing and disseminating all orders to members of the IC's command and for determining the resources that are necessary and the extent to which they will be used.
  - b. Direct the establishment and organization of an incident command post.
  - c. Call for any necessary assistance required.
  - d. Authorize such use of force and engagement with the crowd as deemed necessary to resolve unlawful actions.
  - e. Authorize the use of arrest as a means of curtailing unlawful behavior.
  - f. Designate a liaison officer to coordinate with other city or county emergency service providers, as well as government offices, agencies and departments.
  - g. Officers shall be briefed at the staging area on the type of crowd being monitored and told what to expect from participants and what types of responses and force can be employed. Officers shall also be informed that the unit commander will order the response deemed appropriate and that the unit will act in concert with and follow the direction of the unit commander.
  - h. It is the policy of this department to avoid making mass arrests of persons when arrest avoidance is reasonable in the interests of safety and security.

V. USE OF FORCE

- A. The department's use-of-force policy is equally applicable to enforcement actions in the context of both mass demonstrations and civil disturbances. That is, officers may use only such force as reasonably appears necessary to protect the officers or others from physical harm, to restrain or subdue a resistant individual, or to bring an unlawful situation safely and effectively under control.
- B. Unity of action and command and control are key to effective handling of demonstrations and civil disturbances. Thus, unless exigent circumstances require immediate action, officers shall not independently make arrests or employ force without command authorization. In exigent circumstances, supervisors shall independently authorize the use of force or such other tactics in accordance with the agency use of force policy and this policy.
- C. All officers providing assistance to this agency through mutual aid agreements, contracts or related means shall be briefed on the mutually agreed upon provisions of those agreements relating to the use of force and protocols for crowd control prior to deployment.
- D. The following restrictions and limitations on the use of force shall be observed during mass demonstrations and civil disturbances:
  - 1. Canine teams may respond as backup as appropriate but shall not deploy the dog for crowd control. Canines shall remain in patrol vehicles or other secure locations and, whenever reasonably possible, out of the view of demonstrators. Canines may be deployed in isolated circumstances related to pursuit of suspects in buildings and related environments.
  - 2. Horses may be used to surround and control groups in nonviolent demonstrations as appropriate. They shall not be used against passively resistant demonstrators who are sitting or lying down. Horses shall not be deployed when the use of chemical agents is anticipated or deployed, nor shall they be used in icy or snow conditions. Fire hoses shall not be used for crowd containment or dispersal.
  - 3. Motor vehicles may be used to surround and move persons as appropriate but shall not be brought into contact with them for purposes of containment or dispersion.

4. Less lethal projectiles shall not be fired indiscriminately into crowds. Skip-fired projectiles and munitions or similar devices designed for non-directional non-target-specific use may be used in civil disturbances where life is in jeopardy.
5. Direct-fired impact munitions, to include beanbag and related projectiles, shall not be used for crowd control or management during demonstrations. Direct-fire munitions may be used where reasonable during civil disorders against specific individuals who are engaged in conduct that poses a threat of death, great bodily harm or serious property damage, when the individual can be properly targeted.
6. When reasonably possible, a verbal warning shall be issued prior to the use of impact munitions.
7. Officer-issued aerosol restraint spray (OC) may be used against specific individuals who are engaged in unlawful acts or conduct or actively resisting arrest or as necessary in a defensive capacity when other alternatives would likely be inadequate or are unavailable. It shall not be used indiscriminately against groups of people, in demonstrations or crowds where bystanders would be unreasonably affected or against passively resistant individuals.
8. High-volume OC delivery systems (such as MK- 9 and MK- 46) are designed for and may be used in civil disturbances against groups of people engaged in unlawful acts or endangering public safety and security with approval of the incident commander. Whenever reasonably possible a warning shall be issued prior to the use of these systems.
9. CS chemical agents are primarily offensive weapons that shall be used with the utmost caution. CS may be deployed defensively to prevent injury when lesser force options are either not available or would likely be ineffective. Such munitions shall be carried and deployed only by trained and authorized officers at the direction of the incident or field commander and only when avenues of escape are available to the crowd and, where possible, announced to the crowd in advance. Whenever reasonably possible, a warning shall be issued prior to the dispersal of chemical munitions. CN may not be used in any instance.

10. The riot baton (or PR-24, a less desirable option) shall be used primarily as a defensive weapon or as a means of overcoming active resistance, as when it is used in the two-hand horizontal thrust on a police line, as a show of force, or as a means to contain or disperse a crowd in this manner.

E. Use-of-Force Reporting and Investigation

Established use-of-force reporting requirements of this department are equally applicable to policing mass demonstrations and civil disturbances. However, reporting, documenting and recording uses of force in the context of civil disturbances and mass demonstrations can be hampered by logistical and safety concerns. Officers will complete use of force forms as soon as practical after the event.

VI. DEMONSTRATIONS

- A. Preparation for responding to a demonstration shall be assigned by the Chief of Police. The commander shall ensure that a written incident action plan is developed for approval of the Chief or the Chief's designee.
- B. Every effort shall be made to identify and make advance contact with the leaders of the demonstration. A decision on personnel, resources and related needs shall be based in part on information obtained from leaders, department intelligence and other sources. Answers to the following additional questions shall be collected:
  - 1. What type of event is involved?
  - 2. When is it planned?
  - 3. Is outside opposition to the event expected?
  - 4. How many participants are expected?
  - 5. What are the assembly areas and movement routes?

6. What actions, activities, or tactics are anticipated, to include use of demonstrator devices designed to thwart arrest?
7. Have permits been issued?
8. Have other agencies, such as fire and EMS, been notified?
9. Is there a need to request mutual aid?
10. Will off duty personnel be required?
11. Have demonstration leaders been identified together with their past history of conduct at such events? Is it possible to meet with group leaders?

C. Based on this and related information, the department will develop an action plan together with outside agencies where necessary. The plan shall address provisions for the following and be distributed to all affected command and supervisory officers.

1. Command assignments and responsibilities
2. Manpower, unit structure and deployment
3. Liaison with demonstration leaders
4. Liaison with outside agencies
5. Release of information to the news media
6. Transportation, feeding and relief of personnel

- E. Assigned officers shall wear their badges and nameplates or other personal identification on the outside of their uniforms or on their helmets at all times.
- F. Officers shall be positioned in such a manner as to minimize contact with the assembly.
- G. Officers shall not engage in conversations related to the demonstration with or be prompted to act in response to comments from demonstrators.
- H. Officers shall maintain a courteous and neutral demeanor.

- J. Unit commanders shall establish and maintain communication with demonstration leaders and relay information on crowd mood and intent to the incident commander. Supervisors shall maintain close contact with officers under their charge to ensure the officers' compliance with orders, to monitor their behavior and disposition, and to ensure officers are aware of any changes in crowd attitude or intent.
- K. Before ordering forced dispersal of demonstrators, the incident commander shall determine whether lesser alternatives may be effective. These alternatives include the use of containment and dialogue as follows:
  - 1. Establish contact with crowd leaders to assess their intentions and motivations and develop a mutually acceptable plan for de-escalation and dispersal
  - 2. Communicate to the participants that their assembly is in violation of the law, that the department wishes to resolve the incident peacefully but that acts of violence will be dealt with swiftly and decisively

3. Negotiate with crowd leaders for voluntary dispersal or target specific violent or disruptive individuals for arrest prior to issuing dispersal orders. The incident commander shall ensure that all potentially necessary law enforcement, fire and EMS equipment and personnel are on hand to successfully carry out tactical requirements and contingencies and that logistical requirements related to the potential for making mass arrests are in place.
4. When the incident commander has made a determination that crowd dispersal is required, the incident commander shall direct unit commanders, where time and circumstances permit, to issue warnings prior to taking physical actions to disperse the crowd.
5. The warnings shall be issued loudly enough and often enough to be heard by the crowd from stationary vantage points or with the use of public address devices of moving patrol vehicles.
6. The warning shall consist of an announcement citing the offenses or violations being committed, an order to disperse and designated dispersal routes. A second and a third warning shall be issued at reasonable time intervals before designated actions are taken to disperse the crowd. Where possible the warnings shall be audio- or video-recorded at a point to the rear of the crowd and the time and the names of the issuing officers recorded in the incident commander's event log.
7. Specific crowd dispersal tactics shall be ordered as necessary where the crowd does not heed warnings. These include any one or any combination of the following:
  - a. Display of forceful presence to include police lines, combined with motorcycles, police vehicles and mobile field forces crowd encirclement multiple simultaneous arrests

The first officer to arrive on the scene of a spontaneous demonstration or civil disturbance shall do the following:

1. Observe the situation from a safe distance to determine if the gathering is currently or potentially violent.
2. Notify the communications center of the nature and seriousness of the disturbance, particularly the availability of improvised or deadly weapons, its location and estimated number of participants, current activities (such as blocking traffic), direction of movement and ingress and egress routes for emergency vehicles.

I. POLICY

An active shooter is defined as an incident where one or more armed individuals have used, or are reasonably likely to use, deadly force in an ongoing manner, and where persons have been injured, killed, or are under imminent threat of death or serious bodily harm by such persons.

It is the policy of this agency to respond, contain, and stop the threats and administer aid to the victims. When officers are faced with the ongoing or reasonably likely continuation of the use of deadly force by a suspect(s), and delay in action by police could result in additional deaths or injuries, officers are authorized rapid intervention to eliminate the threat.

II. PURPOSE

To establish policy and procedures governing the response and activities associated with an active shooter event which will mitigate any further risk of injury or death to civilian or law enforcement personnel.

III. DEFINITIONS

- A. Active Shooter - an incident where one or more armed individuals have used, or are reasonably likely to use, deadly force in an ongoing manner, and where persons have been injured, killed, or are under imminent threat of death or serious bodily harm by such persons.
- B. Rapid Intervention- The immediate and forceful response by officers to an active shooting based on a reasonable belief that failure to take action would result in further death or serious bodily injury.
- C. Contact Team- The first officer(s) at the scene of an active shooting who enters a location with the intent of neutralizing the threat.

- D. Rescue and Recovery Team or Rescue Task Force- An group of officers (and firefighters and medical personnel) who make entry after the contact team to provide Tactical Combat Casualty Care and evacuate persons from a hazardous area to a secure treatment area for further treatment and transport.
- E. Incident Commander- The first arriving supervisor (not a part of a contact team) who takes charge at the scene, regardless of rank.
- F. Tactical Combat Casualty Care—(TCCC) The immediate and limited care needed before movement to more advanced care to prevent the death of the individual during movement. Usually limited to application of a tourniquet or pressure bandage(s).

IV. PROCEDURES

A. Initial Dispatch

1. The first report of an Active Shooter may not be that shots have been fired. It may be only a suspicious person or man with a gun call. Officers and Communicators should be alert to the possibility of these types of calls may progress into an Active Shooter call.
2. Immediately upon dispatching the initial call, Dispatch personnel will call for additional assistance from office staff to assist in dispatch and for additional officers from surrounding cities.
3. Dispatchers will notify the chain of command to include the Chief of Police or his/her designee of any active shooter event. Fire and EMS should be notified and requested to respond in accordance with their protocols.
4. Upon arriving at the scene of an active shooter event and assessing the scene, the agency should implement its mutual aid agreements with other police agencies, if necessary, and fire and rescue agencies. Additionally, it may be necessary after the incident to collaborate with recovery agencies to assist with the scene and any victims.

V. FIELD RESPONSE

A. Initial Response

1. If an Active Shooter call is dispatched, all on-duty sworn personnel will respond Code 3. All non-uniform personnel will respond to the scene only if "Police" jackets are worn. Non-uniform personnel without proper equipment will begin setting up a perimeter and preventing unauthorized entry to the area. Only sworn officers from this or other jurisdictions are initially allowed entry. Responding parents or relatives should be directed to the reunification point once established.

2. The first responding Supervisor, if not needed as part of a Contact Team, will assume the role of Incident Commander and establish a Command Post in a safe area away from the structure. (if the first arriving supervisor is needed and becomes a part of a Contact Team, the second arriving supervisor will become Incident Commander. This supervisor will begin coordinating other parts of the incident including the deployment of Rescue Teams, until relieved by a higher ranking or assigned Incident Commander.

B. Contact Team

1. The first officer to arrive should attempt to determine the situation and communicate information and direction to other responding officers and supervisors. Ideally, if time permits, the first two to five officers arriving should form a single team and enter the involved structure. A single officer entering a structure must understand the inherent risk assumed in taking such action.

2. The decision to enter the structure without a full team should be based on:
  - i. Is there an immediate threat (gunfire or other indications)

  - ii. How far away is a cover officer

  - iii. Is the officer equipped to respond to the threat

3. The first officers entering the structure should recognize that their primary objective is to stop further violence. Officers must move quickly and deliberately to the source of gunfire and stop the violence. Officers should attempt to identify and communicate locations of victims needing medical attention. If practical, and absent continued shooting, officers should treat any massive hemorrhaging that may result in the immediate loss of life.

4. Officers will comply with the department's Deadly Force Policy when responding to these incidents.

C. Rescue Team

1. Rescue Teams should be organized as soon as possible and directed to victim locations. Rescue teams can be composed of officers, firefighters and/or medical personnel, as long as these personnel are protected by armed officers. Guidelines for follow-on responders include:
  - i. Establish and maintain security in the area that follow-on responders occupy; consider the involved structure as unsearched.
  - ii. Do not enter a hallway unannounced that is occupied by other officers.
  - iii. Direct victims to safety by utilizing either shelter-in-place or evacuation. If evacuating, establish a cordon of first responders to the desired exit point to ensure safety of victims.
  - iv. Establish a Casualty Collection Point (CCP) for injured persons. The CCP should be a room or open area (if outside of the structure) capable of holding all victims with injuries that require medical treatment. A series of rooms next to each other can be considered if casualties exceed available space.
  - v. Provide only Tactical Combat Casualty Care before removal to the Casualty Collection Point for further treatment by Fire or medical personnel.

D. Incident Command

1. The initial Incident Commander should concentrate activities initially to:
  - i. Maintaining open communications with any Contact Teams deployed
  - ii. Assembling and sending in Rescue Teams as soon as possible.

iii. Establishing an inner perimeter

iv. Establishing a evacuee area

2. The department will provide training to all department supervisors on the Incident Command process and priorities for command.

VI. CONCLUSION OF EVENT

A. Incident Conclusion

1. The conclusion of an incident of this nature will be difficult and will vary significantly based on the number of injured or killed, the type of location, and the actions taken by police. The agency will remain flexible and respond according to the directions and instructions from the Incident Commander.

2. Should there be an exchange in gunfire, then the agency will implement its officer involved shooting policy and respond accordingly.

3. The clear priorities will be:

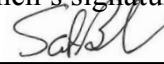

i. Locating and providing aid to injured individuals

ii. Ensuring the location is secure from further violence

iii. Protecting the scene for investigation

iv. Conducting an appropriate investigation

4. All requests for information from the media should be funneled through the Public Information Officer (PIO) or the Incident Commander (IC) for coordination.
