

AP Spanish Middle School - High School Credit Credentialing

Students who take AP Spanish in middle school are afforded the opportunity to take the AP Exam for high school and college credit. The following table shows the opportunities to earn High School and college credit in AP Spanish at BISD.

2017-2018	2018-2019	2019-2020
8th grade students pass AP Spanish with 70 or above will earn credits in Spanish I and II Students who pass the AP exam with a 3, 4, or 5 students will earn high school credits in Spanish III, IV	8th grade students pass AP Spanish with 70 or above will earn credits in Spanish I and II Students who pass the AP exam with a 3, 4, or 5 students will earn high school credits in Spanish III, IV 7th grade students must take Pre-AP Spanish I in 7th grade to be eligible for AP Spanish the following school year. Students must pass Pre-AP Spanish with 70 or above earn high school credit in Spanish I Note-Pre-AP and AP classes will run concurrently	Students must pass Pre-AP Spanish with 70 or above earn high school credit in Spanish I 8th grade students pass AP Spanish with 70 will earn credits in Spanish II Students who pass the AP exam with a 3, 4, or 5 students will earn high school credits in Spanish III, IV
Pass AP Exam with 3,4,5 earn college credit	No Pre-AP Exam Pass AP Exam with 3,4,5 earn college credit	No Pre-AP Exam Pass AP Exam with 3,4,5 earn college credit

*Spanish classes taken in middle school do not factor into a student’s overall GPA.