Credit Lost Due to Attendance

Report cards were posted online on Friday, January 11. If you have a star next to the semester grade, you have lost credit for the semester due to attendance. Students who attended at least 76% of the time last semester may make up hours to regain the credit. We are offering two double hour Saturday schools January 12 and 19 to help students regain these credits. Attendance hours must be made up by January 21st for any credits lost for this Fall semester. Students who do not turn in all attendance hours owed by January 21st at 4:30 p.m. will lose credit for those classes and have to take each course in credit recovery.

AP Exams

On Monday, January 14th, students who are enrolled in an AP course will receive an AP Student bulletin, this letter and this registration form. Students may begin to register for the exams starting Tuesday, January 15th with a $15 deposit. Final payment for all AP exams is due to Mrs. Medley in the AP office on April 29, 2019.

Junior Parent Meeting Presentation

If you missed the junior parent meeting Thursday evening, you can view the presentation here. If you have questions regarding your student's course selections for next year, please contact your student's counselor.

Student please turn in any textbooks you are not using to the AP Office. Especially if you are not in that class for 2nd semester. You will be responsible for the full price of the textbook, if it is not returned.

Mrs. Tapia will be asking teachers to give students extra credit for attending the show and filling out a form with her signature and give it to your teacher. Ask your teachers if they will be accepting this extra credit opportunity. This will count as one required performance for any of Tapia's theatre courses.
