Livestock and Horse Judging Competition

Bastrop Horse Judging and Livestock Judging teams competed at the Heart of Texas Fair Invitational CDE contest last week. Marissa Amable placed 38th and Ataysia Allon placed 81st out of 281. Both teams competed at Area contest at Texas A&M University. (Right) Livestock Judging: Sara Rothmeyer, Ataysia Allon, Trinity Perkins, Marissa Amable.

Seniors....it's time to sign-up for your Senior Walk on May 29th. ALL seniors are required to participate. The sign-up sheets are posted in the cafeteria near the condiments stand. Simply mark the elementary school you attended no later than April 12.

Juniors & Seniors--if you need community service hours here is an opportunity for you! On April 20th the Chamber of Commerce is hosting a community wide Easter egg hunt. They are needing many volunteers. If you are interested in assisting with this event to earn hours, please contact Liz Sanchez at 512-321-2351 or via email at liz.sanchez03@icloud.com. If you need further information, please see Mrs. Gaona in the counseling office.

Attention students! Buy your ticket to get out of your 6th and 7th period class to watch Monsters Inc. on April 18th! We are selling tickets every day before and after school and during lunch through April 16th. Ticket prices are $5. All proceeds go to The American Cancer Society's' Relay for Life.
