2. Public Hearing (TO BE HELD AT MAY 17, 2016 MEETING)

A. Public Hearing on the 2016-2017 Budget
   Presenter: Sandra Callahan
   CFO Sandra Callahan reviewed the proposed 2016-2017 budget. She reviewed the budget calendar and reported that the tax rate would be adopted on September 20, 2016. Mrs. Callahan reviewed the priority goals used to build the proposed budget: Safety & Security; Instructional/Academic Improvement; Bilingual Education; Campus Instructional Coaches (1 coach per campus – not subject specific and a K-12 core content specialist and additional coaches assigned based on school need); and CRCA year 3 (proposing an AP to be shared between Genesis & CRCA).

Mrs. Callahan reported that the proposed budget is based on an estimated enrollment of 10,526 and ADA of 9,999. Mrs. Callahan reviewed the proposed salary increases: paraprofessionals would receive a 3% increase; teachers a 2% increase; and administration/professional support a 1.5% increase. She reviewed proposed expenditure budget assumptions which includes staffing, transforming libraries into media centers, and non-staffing items. Mrs. Callahan reviewed the proposed decision package which consists of portable buildings, technology, middle school safety access, cameras, maintenance projects, and furniture for new classrooms (portables). Mrs. Callahan reported that the district would hold a Public Hearing at the May 17, 2016 board meeting, and will be asking the board to approve the amendment to the BISD Compensation Package and to adopt the 2016-2017 budget for general, debt service and food service.
